PRIMARY 6 ISLAMIC STUDIES LESSON NOTES

FIRST TERM

WEEK 1: SURATUL-MULK (1-10) - PART I

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Identify the meaning and position of Suratul-Mulk in the Qur'an.
2. Read the Arabic text of verses 1-5 with correct pronunciation (Tajweed).
3. State the meaning of the first verse (Tabarakalladhi...).
4. Mention Allah's power over life and death.

CONTENT

1. Introduction to Suratul-Mulk

- Name: Al-Mulk means "The Sovereignty," "The Dominion," or "The Kingdom." It talks about who is the true King and Owner of everything.
- Position: It is Chapter 67 of the Holy Qur'an. It has 30 verses (ayahs). It is a Makki Surah, meaning it was revealed to Prophet Muhammad (SAW) in Makkah before the Hijrah.
- Significance: This Surah is very important because it teaches us that Allah owns and controls everything in the universe. Just like a king rules his kingdom, Allah rules the entire creation—the sun, the moon, animals, plants, and us!

2. Verses 1-5 (Arabic & Meaning) Let us learn the first five verses step-by-step.

- Verse 1:
 - Arabic: تَبَارَكَ الَّذِي بِيَدِهِ الْمُلْكُ وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ
 - Meaning: "Blessed is He in whose hand is the Kingdom, and He has power over all things."
 - Explanation: "Blessed" means full of goodness and greatness. Everything good comes from Allah. The "Kingdom" is all of creation. Think of your hand holding a toy—you control it. Allah's "hand" holds the whole universe, showing His complete control and power.

- Verse 2:

- Arabic: الَّذِي خَلَقَ الْمَوْتَ وَالْحَيَاةَ لِيَبْلُوَكُمْ أَيُّكُمْ أَحْسَنُ عَمَلًا
- Meaning: "He created death and life to test you, to see which of you is best in deeds."
- Explanation: Allah created us for a purpose. Life is a test, like an examination in school. Will we be good, kind, and obedient to Allah? Or will we be bad? Death is not the end; it is when our test paper is collected. Our good deeds (prayer, honesty, helping parents) are our answers.

- Verse 3:

- Arabic: الَّذِي خَلَقَ سَبْعَ سَمَاوَاتٍ طِبَاقًا
- Meaning: "He created seven heavens, one above the other."
- Explanation: Allah didn't just create one sky; He created seven layers of heavens, stacked perfectly. Look at the sky. It looks huge and perfect, with no cracks or mistakes. This shows Allah's amazing power and perfect creation.

Verse 5:

- Explanation: This verse mentions the stars. Allah made them as beautiful lamps to light up the lowest heaven. They are also like missiles against Shayatin (devils) who try to eavesdrop on news from the heavens. This shows everything in creation has a purpose and is under Allah's command.

3. Tadabbur (Reflection)

- Life is a Test: Every day, we choose between right and wrong. Helping your mother is a good deed. Bullying a classmate is a bad deed. Allah is watching which one we choose.
- Perfect Creation: Look at a well-made pot or a strong building. Now look at the sky, the trees, and your own hands. Allah's creation is far more perfect, with no errors. We should thank Him for it.

EVALUATION

1. "Al-Mulk" means The Kingdom. Can you give one example of something in Allah's kingdom?
2. How many verses does Suratul-Mulk have?
3. According to Verse 2, Allah created life and death as a _____ for us. (Test / Game)
4. Look at your finger. Who created it with such detail? What does this tell you about Allah?

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Oral): Read verses 1-5 of Suratul-Mulk aloud to a family member five times.
2. (Written): In your notebook, write the English meaning of Verse 2 in your own words.
3. (Practical/Drawing): Tonight, look at the sky. Draw one thing you see (a star, the moon, a cloud) and write one sentence: "This is part of Allah's perfect creation."

WEEK 2: SURATUL-MULK (1-10) - PART II

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Recite the Arabic text of verses 6-10 correctly.
2. Translate the meaning of verses 6-10.
3. Describe the conversation between the Angels and the people of Hell.
4. Identify the consequence of rejecting the truth.

CONTENT

1. Verses 6-8: The Fate of Disbelievers These verses describe what will happen to people who reject faith in Allah and are ungrateful for His blessings.

- Verse 6: For those who disbelieve in their Lord is the punishment of Hell. What a terrible place to end up!
- Verse 7: When they are thrown into Hell, they will hear it roaring and boiling fiercely, like a giant, angry pot of water.
- Verse 8: The Angels (keepers of Hell) will ask them a very important question: "Did there not come to you a warner?" This means, "Didn't a Prophet or messenger come to you in your life on earth to teach you about Allah and warn you about this Day?"

2. Verses 9-10: The Regret This is the sad reply of the people in Hell.

- Verse 9: They will answer, "Yes, a warner did come to us, but we denied him. We said, 'Allah has not sent down anything; you are greatly mistaken.'"
- Verse 10: They will say with deep regret, "If only we had listened to the warner or used our intelligence, we would not now be among the people of the Blaze (Hellfire)."
- Explanation: This is the regret that is too late. On earth, they had ears but didn't listen to the Qur'an. They had brains but didn't think about who created them. Now, in Hell, they understand, but their chance is gone forever.

3. Lessons for Us

- Listen to Good Advice: When your parents, teacher, or Imam advises you to pray or be good, they are like warners. We must listen.
- Act Now: Do not say, "I will be good tomorrow." Tomorrow may not come. We should obey Allah today.
- Use Your Intelligence: Allah gave us brains to think. When we see a beautiful flower or a new baby, we should think, "Who made this? It must be Allah!"

EVALUATION

1. What is the destination for those who reject their Lord, according to Verse 6?
2. Describe the sound Hell makes.
3. The Angels will ask the people of Hell one question. What is it?
4. In Verse 10, the disbelievers say, "If only we had _____ or used our _____."

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Oral): Memorize verses 6-10 of Suratul-Mulk.
2. (Written): Write down the full regretful statement the disbelievers will say in Verse 10 (in English).
3. (Practical/Written): Mention one thing you will start doing today to act on good advice and avoid the "Blaze" (e.g., I will pray Salat al Maghrib on time).

WEEK 3: SURATUL-MULK (1-10) - PART III

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Recite verses 1-10 from memory with fluency.
2. Explain the benefits of reciting Suratul-Mulk.
3. Discuss the protection offered by this Surah against the punishment of the grave.

CONTENT

1. Tafsir Summary (Verses 1-10) Let's connect all the verses we have learned:

- Allah is The King (Verses 1-2): He owns everything and gave us life as a test.
- Allah is The Perfect Creator (Verses 3-5): Look at the heavens and stars as proof.
- Allah is The Just Judge (Verses 6-10): He warns us about the terrible result for those who fail the test by being ungrateful and disbelieving.

2. Virtues and Benefits of Suratul-Mulk The Prophet Muhammad (SAW) told us special things about this Surah:

- The Intercessor: The Prophet (SAW) said Suratul-Mulk is an intercessor. This means on the Day of Judgment, it will speak to Allah for the person who used to recite it, begging for his forgiveness, until he is forgiven! It is like a good friend speaking for you.
- The Protector: It is called "Al-Mani'ah" (the Preventer) because it protects the believer from the punishment of the grave (Adhab al-Qabr). It is like a shield.
- A Nightly Sunnah: It is a good and recommended practice (Sunnah) to recite this Surah every night before sleeping. It becomes your protection and blessing until you wake up.

3. Life Application

- Seek Forgiveness Daily: Since we want to pass our test and avoid Hell, we should always say "Astaghfirullah" (I seek Allah's forgiveness).
- Contemplate Creation: When you see a butterfly, a rainbow, or a tall mountain, remember Verse 3. Say "Subhanallah" (Glory be to Allah) for such perfect creation.
- Make it a Habit: Try to read Suratul-Mulk every night. It only takes a few minutes.

EVALUATION

1. (Teacher listens as pupil recites verses 1-10).
2. What is one major benefit for someone who recites Suratul-Mulk regularly?
3. When is the best time to recite this Surah daily according to the Sunnah?
4. From what specific punishment does this Surah protect a believer?

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Oral): Recite Suratul-Mulk (verses 1-10) to your parents or an older sibling. Ask them to listen to your pronunciation.
2. (Written): Write down three important lessons you have learned from studying Suratul-Mulk over the last three weeks.

3. (Drawing): Draw a picture of the night sky with stars (the "lamps" of the lowest heaven from Verse 5). Colour it.

WEEK 4: SURATU AL-IMRAN (103-105)

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Identify Suratu Al-Imran as the 3rd chapter of the Qur'an.
2. Read the Arabic text of verses 103-105.
3. Translate Verse 103 (Wa'tasimu bihablillahi...).
4. Explain the meaning of "The Rope of Allah" using a simple example.

CONTENT

1. Introduction to Suratu Al-Imran

- This is the 3rd Chapter of the Qur'an. It is a long Madani Surah (revealed in Madinah).
- "Al-Imran" means "The Family of Imran." Imran was the father of Maryam (Mary), the mother of Prophet Isa (Jesus), peace be upon them. This Surah talks about them and other important stories.

2. Verse 103: The Call to Unity

- Arabic Text: وَاعْتَصِمُوا بِحَبْلِ اللَّهِ جَمِيعًا وَلَا تَفَرَّقُوا
- Translation: "And hold fast, all of you together, to the Rope of Allah, and do not be divided."
- Meaning Explained:
 - "Hold fast" means to grip something tightly so you don't fall. Like holding your mother's hand in a big market.
 - "The Rope of Allah" is a metaphor. It represents: i. The Qur'an: Its teachings guide us. ii. The Religion of Islam: Its rules protect us.
 - Imagine this: You and your friends are trying to climb up a steep, slippery hill. Someone throws down a strong rope. If you all hold the rope together, you can climb safely. If everyone lets go and tries to climb alone, you will all fall. The Qur'an and Islam are that strong rope from Allah that saves us from falling into error and problems.

- "Do not be divided" means Muslims should not split into many groups that hate or fight each other. Unity makes us strong. Division makes us weak.
- Brotherhood: The verse continues to remind us that we were once enemies (before Islam or due to tribe), but Allah joined our hearts with love, making us brothers and sisters in faith.

3. Avoiding Division

- In school, a class that is united can win a football match or a cleanliness competition. A class that is divided into small fighting groups will lose and be unhappy. Allah tells us to be like the united, winning team.

EVALUATION

1. What number is Suratu Al-Imran in the Qur'an?
2. Translate this part of the verse: "Wa'tasimu bihablillahi..."
3. What does the "Rope of Allah" represent in our lives today?
4. What does Allah command us not to do in this verse?

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Oral/Memorization): Memorize Verse 103 of Suratu Al-Imran.

2. (Written): Write one sentence explaining why it is better for Muslims to be united than divided. (Think about your school or community).
3. (Drawing): Draw a picture showing people holding onto one strong rope together. Label the rope "The Qur'an".

WEEKS 5 & 6: MIDTERM EXAM AND BREAK

WEEK 7: SURATU AL-IMRAN (103-105) CONTINUED

(Note: Weeks 5 & 6 are Midterm Exam and Break)

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Recite verses 103-105 from memory.
2. Explain the historical context of the Aws and Khazraj tribes.
3. Interpret Verse 104 regarding the duty to invite others to good.
4. Apply the lesson of brotherhood in the classroom and at home.

CONTENT

1. Historical Context: The Story of Aws and Khazraj

- A long time ago, in the city of Madinah, there were two large and powerful tribes: Aws and Khazraj.
- They fought each other in wars for many, many years. There was so much hatred and killing between them.
- When the message of Islam came, both tribes accepted it. Allah removed the hatred from their hearts and replaced it with love and brotherhood. They became like one family, protecting and helping each other. Verse 103 was revealed to remind them of this great blessing from Allah. They went from enemies to brothers!

2. Verse 104: Our Duty as an Ummah

- Text: وَلْتَكُن مِّنكُمْ أُمَّةٌ يَدْعُونَ إِلَى الْخَيْرِ وَيَأْمُرُونَ بِالْمَعْرُوفِ وَيَنْهَوْنَ عَنِ الْمُنْكَرِ
- Meaning: "And let there be from among you a group that invites to all that is good, enjoins what is right, and forbids what is wrong."
- Explanation:
 - "Invites to all that is good (Al-Khayr):" This means encouraging people to do good things like praying, being honest, helping the poor, and studying.
 - "Enjoins what is right (Al-Ma'ruf):" This means telling people to do what everyone knows is right, like respecting parents.
 - "Forbids what is wrong (Al-Munkar):" This means stopping people from doing what everyone knows is bad, like stealing, lying, or fighting.
 - This duty is for all of us, not just scholars. We can start with ourselves, then our friends and family. This is called Da'wah.

3. Verse 105: A Strong Warning

- Allah warns us not to be like those people who received clear guidance but then divided into sects and started arguing and fighting about it. Those who do this will face a terrible punishment. This verse connects back to Verse 103: "Do not be divided."

EVALUATION

1. Who were the Aws and Khazraj? What was their relationship before Islam?
2. What changed the hearts of the Aws and Khazraj from hatred to love?
3. According to Verse 104, what are the three duties of the Muslim group? (Invite to _____, Enjoin _____, Forbid _____).
4. If your friend wants to copy your homework (which is wrong), what should you do based on this verse?

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Written): Write a very short story (4-5 sentences) about two pupils in class who used to fight but then became best friends by following Islamic brotherhood.

2. (Practical/Written): List three "good" things (Al-Khayr) you can invite your friend to do after school.
3. (Practical/Written): List three "wrong" things (Al-Munkar) you can gently tell your younger brother/sister to stop doing.

WEEK 8: SURATU-YASIN (1-10) - PART I

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Identify Suratu-Yasin by its special nickname.
2. Read the Arabic text of verses 1-5 correctly.
3. State what Allah swears by in the beginning of the Surah.
4. Confirm that the verses prove the truthfulness of Prophet Muhammad (SAW).

CONTENT

1. Introduction to Suratu-Yasin

- It is Chapter 36 of the Qur'an.
- "Ya-Sin" (يس): These are two Arabic letters at the start. They are called "Huruf Muqatta'at" (disjointed letters). Their full meaning is known only to Allah. They show the miraculous nature of the Qur'an.
- The Heart of the Qur'an: Prophet Muhammad (SAW) gave it a beautiful nickname: "Qalb al-Qur'an" - The Heart of the Qur'an. Just as the heart is the most important organ in the body, this Surah is very central and important to the message of the Qur'an.

2. Verses 1-5: The Oath and The Confirmation

- Verse 1: Ya-Sin.
- Verse 2: Wal-Qur'anil Hakim.
 - Meaning: "By the Wise Qur'an!"
 - Explanation: Allah swears an oath by the Qur'an. When someone swears by something, it shows how important it is. Allah calls the Qur'an "Hakim" which means Full of Wisdom. Every rule and story in it is full of perfect wisdom and benefit for us.
- Verses 3-4: Innaka laminal mursalin. Ala siratim mustaqim.
 - Meaning: "Indeed, you, [O Muhammad], are from among the messengers, On a straight path."

- Explanation: After swearing by the Qur'an, Allah directly addresses Prophet Muhammad (SAW). He confirms that Muhammad (SAW) is truly one of Allah's messengers. His message and his life were on a "Straight Path"—a path of truth, justice, and guidance that never wavered.
- Verse 5: Tanzil al-Azizir-Rahim.
 - Meaning: "[This is] a revelation from the Exalted in Might, the Merciful."
 - Explanation: This verse tells us the source of the Qur'an. It is not from Prophet Muhammad's mind. It is a revelation (Tanzil) sent down directly from Allah, who is both Al-Aziz (The All-Mighty) and Ar-Rahim (The Most Merciful).

EVALUATION

1. What special nickname did the Prophet (SAW) give to Suratu-Yasin?
2. In Verse 2, Allah swears by something. What is it?
3. Who is the "you" in Verse 3 ("Indeed, you...")?
4. What two great names of Allah are mentioned in Verse 5, which describe the One who sent down the Qur'an?

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Oral/Practice): Read verses 1-5 of Suratu-Yasin aloud three times, focusing on the pronunciation of "Wal-Qur'anil Hakim."
2. (Written): Write the English translation of "Wal-Qur'anil Hakim."
3. (Thinking/Written): Why do you think the Qur'an is described as "Wise" (Hakim)? Give one example of a wise rule or story you know from the Qur'an.

WEEK 9: SURATU-YASIN (1-10) - PART II

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Recite verses 6-10 of Suratu-Yasin.
2. Translate the meaning of verses 8 and 9.
3. Explain the metaphor of the "Barrier" placed on the disbelievers.
4. Discuss the consequences of being heedless and arrogant.

CONTENT

1. Verse 6: The Purpose of the Warning

- The Qur'an was sent to warn a people whose ancestors were not warned, so they are now heedless (neglectful). It is like a new teacher coming to a village where no one ever went to school, to teach the children.

2. Verses 7-9: The State of the Stubborn Disbelievers These verses use powerful word pictures to describe people who completely reject the truth.

- Verse 8: "Indeed, We have put iron collars around their necks, up to their chins, so their heads are forced up."
 - Explanation: This is a metaphor for arrogance. Imagine someone with a stiff, heavy metal collar that forces their head to stay up high. They cannot bow their head in humility to Allah, in prayer, or to accept truth. Their own pride has trapped them.

- Verse 9: "And We have put a barrier before them and a barrier behind them and covered them, so they do not see."
 - Explanation: This is another metaphor. Because they chose to ignore the truth again and again, Allah places a barrier over their understanding. It is like putting walls in front and behind someone, and then putting a veil over their eyes.
 - They cannot "see" the truth even if it is clear. For example, when they see a miracle, they say it's magic. When they hear the Qur'an, they say it's poetry. Their hearts are sealed.
- Verse 10: "And it is all the same for them whether you warn them or do not warn them - they will not believe."
 - When a person reaches this state of a sealed heart, warning them no longer helps. They have made their final choice.

3. The Lesson for Us

- We must always be humble and ready to accept correction.
- We should listen to the Qur'an and think about its signs so our hearts remain open and soft.
- We should pray, "O Allah, don't let my heart be sealed against Your truth."

EVALUATION

1. According to Verse 6, why was the Qur'an sent? (To _____ the heedless).
2. What does the "iron collar" in Verse 8 represent in a person's behavior?
3. What has Allah placed before, behind, and over the disbelievers in Verse 9?
4. Can a person whose heart is sealed (with barriers) believe if we warn them? What does Verse 10 say?

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Oral/Memorization): Memorize Verse 9 of Suratu-Yasin.
2. (Written/Explanation): In your own words, explain what it means for a person to have a "barrier" against the truth. Use a simple example.
3. (Written): Copy Verse 9 in Arabic neatly into your notebook. If you cannot write Arabic, write the transliteration: "Wa ja'alna mim bayni aydeehim saddan..."

WEEK 10: SURATU-YASIN (1-10) - PART III

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Recite verses 1-10 fluently with attention to Tajweed.
2. Summarize the main lessons from these ten verses.
3. Mention the special benefits of reciting Yasin, especially for the sick.
4. Identify the importance of accepting guidance before it is too late.

CONTENT

1. Review of Key Lessons (Verses 1-10) Let's recall what these powerful verses teach us:

- The Qur'an is True & Wise (V1-2): It is the ultimate source of wisdom.
- Muhammad (SAW) is a True Prophet (V3-4): He brought the straight path.
- The Source is Allah (V5): The Qur'an is a revelation from the Almighty and Merciful.
- Its Purpose is to Warn (V6): To wake up the heedless.
- The Danger of Arrogance (V7-9): Stubbornness leads to a sealed heart that cannot see truth.
- The Point of No Return (V10): A sealed heart will not believe.

2. Benefits and Virtues of Reciting Suratu-Yasin The Prophet (SAW) encouraged us to recite this special Surah:

- For Softening the Heart: It reminds us of the Hereafter, death, and resurrection, which makes our hearts soft and mindful of Allah.
- For the Dying and the Sick: It is a Sunnah to recite Yasin near a person who is very sick or dying. The angels listen, and it brings comfort, mercy, and makes the passing of the soul easier, insha Allah.
- For Forgiveness: The Prophet (SAW) said whoever recites Yasin at night seeking Allah's pleasure, will be forgiven.
- For Easing Difficulties: It is recited for ease in life's difficulties.

3. Practical Application in Our Lives

- Recite Regularly: Make a habit of reading Yasin, especially on Friday nights or when you have a need.
- Keep Your Heart Open: Always be ready to learn and accept advice from the Qur'an and good teachers. Don't be stubborn like the people described in the verses.

2. Why is it good to recite the Qur'an near a dying person?
3. What happens to a person who is arrogant and refuses to listen to Allah's guidance, according to Verses 8-9?
4. (Teacher listens to pupils' recitation of verses 1-10).

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Oral/Practical): Recite verses 1-10 of Suratu-Yasin for your family after Maghrib or Isha prayer, or during a family gathering.

2. (Written): Write down three benefits of reciting Suratu-Yasin that you learned today.

PRIMARY 6 ISLAMIC STUDIES LESSON NOTES

SECOND TERM

WEEK 1: SURATU AL-ZILZILAH (Q99) - PART I

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Identify the meaning and position of Suratu Al-Zilzilah in the Qur'an.
2. Read the Arabic text of the complete Surah (8 verses) with guidance.
3. Describe the main event mentioned in the Surah (The Earthquake).
4. Pronounce the difficult words in the Surah correctly.

CONTENT

1. Introduction to Suratu Al-Zilzilah

- Name: Al-Zilzilah means "The Earthquake" or "The Shaking." It describes a huge, world-ending earthquake.
- Position: It is the 99th Chapter of the Holy Qur'an. It is a very short Surah with only 8 verses (ayahs). It was revealed in Makkah.
- Significance: This Surah gives us a powerful picture of the Day of Judgment (Yawm al-Qiyamah). It tells us how the earth, which seems so solid and quiet, will one day shake violently and even speak to tell Allah about everything that happened on it!

2. Reading the Surah (Arabic Text & Pronunciation) Let's learn the first half of the Surah carefully. We will break it down.

- Verse 1: إِذَا زُلْزِلَتِ الْأَرْضُ زُلْزَالَهَا
 - Transliteration: Idha zulzilatil ardu zilzalaha.
 - Meaning: "When the earth is shaken with its [final] earthquake."
 - Pronunciation Focus: Practice "Zul-zi-la-til" and "Zil-za-la-ha".
- Verse 2: وَأُخْرِجَتِ الْأَرْضُ أَثْقَالَهَا
 - Transliteration: Wa akhrajatil ardu athqalaha.
 - Meaning: "And the earth discharges its burdens."

- Verse 3: وَقَالَ الْإِنْسَانُ مَا لَهَا؟
 - Transliteration: Wa qalal insanu ma laha?
 - Meaning: "And man says, 'What is [wrong] with it?'"
- Verse 4: يَوْمَئِذٍ تُخْبِرُ أَخْبَارَهَا
 - Transliteration: Yawma idhin tuhaddithu akhbaraha.
 - Meaning: "That Day, it will report its news."
- Verse 5: بِأَنَّ رَبَّكَ أَوْحَىٰ لَهَا
 - Transliteration: Bi anna Rabbaka awha laha.
 - Meaning: "Because your Lord has commanded it."

3. The Great Shaking: A Scene from the Day of Judgment

- The Final Earthquake: This won't be a normal earthquake like we sometimes hear about. This will be an earthquake for the entire earth at once. Imagine the ground under your feet, your house, your school, all shaking so violently that mountains crumble and buildings fall.
- "Discharges its burdens": What are the earth's "burdens"? a. The Dead: Every single person who was ever buried will be pushed out of their graves. b. Treasures: Gold, oil, diamonds, and minerals hidden deep underground will be thrown to the surface. c.

Secrets: The earth has seen every good and bad deed done on its surface. On that Day, it will be commanded to tell everything!

- Earth Will Speak: Verse 4 is amazing! The earth, which is silent now, will be able to speak on that Day. It will tell Allah: "On this spot, Ali helped an old woman on this date. On that spot, Aisha told a lie on that date." Nothing is hidden.

EVALUATION

1. What does the name "Al-Zilzilah" tell us this Surah is about?
2. How many verses make up this short but powerful Surah?
3. In your own words, describe what will happen to the earth according to Verses 1 and 2.
4. Who gives the earth the command to shake and speak? (Verse 5).
5. If the earth reports its "news," what kind of news do you think it will tell?

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Oral): Read Suratu Al-Zilzilah (Verses 1-5) aloud three times at home to a family member.
2. (Written): Write down the English meaning of the name "Al-Zilzilah." Then write one sentence using the word "earthquake."
3. (Practical/Observation): Ask your parents or an elder: "What is one thing the Qur'an says will happen on the Day of Judgment?" Write down one sentence about what you learn.

WEEK 2: SURATU AL-ZILZILAH (Q99) - PART II

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Translate the meaning of verses 6-8.
2. Explain the concept of "Atom's weight" (Dharrah) using simple examples.
3. Memorize the complete Surah.
4. Discuss the importance of accountability for even our smallest deeds.

CONTENT

1. Translation of Verses 6-8: The Day of Results Now, let's see what happens after the great earthquake.

- Verse 6: يَوْمَئِذٍ يَصْدُرُ النَّاسُ أَشْتَاتًا لِّيُرَوْا أَعْمَالُهُمْ
 - Meaning: "That Day, the people will depart in scattered groups to be shown their deeds."
 - Explanation: On that Day, no one will be with their family or friends for comfort. People will be sorted into groups based on their deeds. Good people will be together, and bad people will be together. Everyone will be alone facing their own record.
- Verse 7: فَمَنْ يَعْمَلْ مِثْقَالَ ذَرَّةٍ خَيْرًا يَرَهُ
 - Meaning: "So whoever does an atom's weight of good will see it."
- Verse 8: وَمَنْ يَعْمَلْ مِثْقَالَ ذَرَّةٍ شَرًّا يَرَهُ
 - Meaning: "And whoever does an atom's weight of evil will see it."

2. The Weight of an Atom (Mithqala Dharratin)

- What is a "Dharrah"? It is the smallest, tiniest thing you can imagine. Think of:
 - A speck of dust floating in sunlight.
 - The tiniest seed, like a sesame seed.
 - A grain of sand.
- The Big Lesson: Allah says NOTHING is too small to be recorded.

- A small good deed: Helping your sibling tie their shoe, saying "Jazakallahu Khayran," picking up litter from the classroom floor.
- A small bad deed: A tiny lie, a mean nickname you called someone secretly, cheating on a small question in a test.

3. The Perfect Record and Accountability

- You Will SEE It: The verse says "will see it." Your entire life's record will be played back to you. You will see the smile you gave to a sad friend and feel its reward. You will also see the time you hurt someone's feelings and feel its consequence.
- No Excuses: On that Day, no one can say, "It was just a small thing, I forgot." Allah's record is perfect.

EVALUATION

1. According to Verse 6, why will people be in scattered groups on the Day of Judgment?
2. What does "Mithqala dharratin" mean? Give one example of something that small.
3. If you share a small piece of your biscuit with a friend, will Allah record it? What does Verse 7 say?
4. (Teacher listens to pupil's recitation of Verses 6-8).

5. Why should we be careful about "small" sins?

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Oral/Memorization): Memorize the entire Suratu Al-Zilzilah (8 verses). Recite it to yourself before sleeping.
2. (Written): Write the English translation of Verses 7 and 8 in your notebook. Underline the words "atom's weight."
3. (Practical): List three "atom's weight" good deeds you can do before tomorrow (e.g., make someone smile, put your shoes neatly, thank the cook).

WEEK 3: ASMAU-LAHIL-HUSNA (21-30) - PART I

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Review the purpose of knowing Allah's Beautiful Names.
2. Mention Names 21-25 of Allah in Arabic and English.
3. State the simple meaning of Names 21-25.
4. Explain how these names affect our lives and attitude.

CONTENT

1. Review: Why Learn Allah's Names? Allah has the most perfect and beautiful names. Calling Him by these names helps us know Him better, love Him more, and ask Him properly in our prayers (Du'a). It is an act of worship.

2. Learning Names 21-25: Allah Controls Our Status These five names show us that Allah is in charge of who is high or low, honored or dishonored.

- 21. الْبَاسِطُ (Al-Basit)
 - Meaning: The Expander, The Reliever.

- 22. الْخَافِضُ (Al-Khafid)

- 25. الْمَذِلُّ (Al-Mudhill)
 - Meaning: The Giver of Dishonor, The Humiliator.
 - Explanation: He is the One who dishonors and humiliates those who deserve it, especially those who are arrogant and disobey Him.

3. Understanding the Lesson

- We should ask Al-Mu'izz for true honor through obedience.

- If we are in a difficult, tight situation, we should call upon Al-Basit to expand our ease.

EVALUATION

1. Which Name means "The Expander"? When would you call upon this Name?

2. Who is Ar-Rafi'? Can a student be raised by Allah? How? (Through knowledge, good manners).
3. If someone is boastful and looks down on others, which two Names of Allah should remind them to be humble?
4. True honor comes from being popular. (True/False). Correct the statement.

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Written): Write Names 21-25 in a column in your notebook. Next to each, write its English meaning.

CONTENT

1. Learning Names 26-30: Allah's Perfect Awareness and Justice These names tell us that Allah knows every single detail about us and is perfectly fair.

- 26. السَّمِيعُ (As-Sami')
 - Meaning: The All-Hearing.
 - Explanation: He hears everything. He hears your spoken prayer, your whispered secret, the thoughts in your heart, and even the footstep of an ant. No sound is too low for Him.
- 27. الْبَصِيرُ (Al-Basir)
 - Meaning: The All-Seeing.
 - Explanation: He sees everything. He sees you in a dark room. He sees a black ant on a black rock at night. He sees what you do when you are alone and thinks no one is watching.

 - Meaning: The Judge.
 - Explanation: He is the ultimate Judge. His judgment on the Day of Judgment is final, perfect, and without any mistake. He judges between people with perfect justice.

 - Meaning: The Just, The Equitable.

- Explanation: He is perfectly fair. He never wrongs anyone, not even by the weight of an atom. If someone is good, they will be rewarded fully. If someone is wronged, Allah will compensate them.

● 30. اللطيف (Al-Latif)

- Meaning: The Subtle One, The Most Gentle.
- Explanation: He is kind and handles our affairs in the most gentle and subtle ways. He makes things easy for us in ways we don't even notice. When you find something you lost, or when a problem solves itself easily, that is Al-Latif's gentle care.

2. How These Names Affect Our Behavior

- Because of As-Sami' and Al-Basir: We must be careful!
 - We should not gossip or say mean words because Allah hears.
 - We should not cheat or peek at a friend's test because Allah sees.
 - We should feel comfort that when we pray quietly, Allah hears, and when we are sad and alone, Allah sees.

- Because of Al-Hakam and Al-'Adl: We should not try to take revenge. If someone wrongs us, we can be patient and ask Al-Hakam, the Perfect Judge, to handle it on the Day of Judgment. We trust His fairness.

3. Using the Names in Du'a We don't just say "O Allah." We call Him by the name that fits our request.

- If you want Allah to hear your prayer: "Ya Sami', please hear my Du'a."
- If you feel someone has been unfair to you: "Ya Hakam, Ya 'Adl, judge between us with justice."

5. Why is it better to ask Al-Hakam for justice than to fight with someone who wronged you?

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Oral/Memorization): Memorize Names 26-30. Practice saying them: "As-Sami', Al-Basir, Al-Hakam, Al-'Adl, Al-Latif."
2. (Reflective Writing): Write one sentence: "Because I know Allah is Al-Basir, the next time I am alone, I will not _____."
3. (Written): Complete this sentence: Al-Hakam means The _____.

WEEKS 5 & 6: MIDTERM EXAM AND BREAK

WEEK 7: SADAQAH (CHARITY) AND ITS SIGNIFICANCE - PART I

(Note: Weeks 5 & 6 are Midterm Exam and Break)

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Define Sadaqah in simple terms.
2. Differentiate between Sadaqah and Zakat.
3. Explain the concept of Sadaqah Jariyah with local examples.
4. Mention two spiritual benefits of giving charity.

CONTENT

1. Meaning of Sadaqah

- Sadaqah means voluntary charity. It is giving something good (money, food, help, kind words) to others to please Allah.
- The word comes from "Sidq" (truthfulness). Giving Sadaqah is a sign of your true faith and belief in Allah.

2. Sadaqah vs. Zakat: What's the Difference? It's important to know they are not the same.

Zakat	Sadaqah
Compulsory (Fard). It is the 3rd Pillar of Islam.	Voluntary (Nafl). It is highly rewarding but not obligatory.
You must pay if you have a specific amount of wealth (Nisab) for one year.	You can give any amount, at any time, even if you are not rich.
It has a fixed rate (usually 2.5% of saved wealth).	There is no fixed rate. Give what you can.
It can only be given to specific poor people mentioned in the Qur'an.	It can be given to anyone in need, even animals!

3. Sadaqah Jariyah (Continuous/Flowing Charity)

- This is the best type of Sadaqah. It is a charity that keeps giving you rewards even after you die, for as long as people benefit from it.

- Examples from Our Community:

- Planting a Fruit Tree: (Mango, Orange, Guava). As long as people or animals eat from it, you get reward.
- Digging or Donating a Borehole/Well: As long as people drink the water.
- Building or Helping to Build a Mosque/Madrasah.
- Donating a Qur'an or Islamic Book to the school library.
- Teaching someone beneficial knowledge (like teaching a friend to read Qur'an).

4. Benefits of Giving Sadaqah The Prophet Muhammad (SAW) told us many benefits:

- Purifies Your Wealth: It removes greed and blesses your remaining money.
- Erases Sins: Just as water puts out fire, Sadaqah puts out (erases) sins.
- Protects from Calamity: It can protect you from bad luck and accidents.
- Cures Sickness: It brings Allah's healing.
- Brings Barakah (Blessing): Your money, time, and health become more fruitful.

EVALUATION

1. What is Sadaqah? Is it compulsory like Salat?
2. Zakat has a fixed rate. Does Sadaqah have a fixed amount to give?
3. What is the key difference between regular Sadaqah and Sadaqah Jariyah?
4. Give one example of Sadaqah Jariyah that a Primary 6 pupil can participate in (e.g., donating a used storybook to the class library).
5. Mention one way Sadaqah helps the giver (not just the receiver).

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Research/Writing): Ask an elder or use your textbook: Find and write down one Hadith (saying of the Prophet) about charity. Example: "The believer's shade on the Day of Resurrection will be his charity." (Al-Tirmidhi).
2. (Practical Listing): List three examples of Sadaqah Jariyah projects that would help your local community.

3. (Discussion/Writing): Ask your parents: "Have we given Zakat or Sadaqah recently?"
Write one sentence about what you learned from asking them.

WEEK 8: SADAQAH (CHARITY) AND ITS SIGNIFICANCE - PART II

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. List non-monetary forms of Sadaqah (charity without money).
2. Explain the best etiquette/manners (Akhlaq) of giving charity.
3. Discuss the importance of a sincere "Intention" (Niyyah) in charity.
4. Suggest a simple, practical charity project for the class.

CONTENT

1. Sadaqah is NOT Just Money! Prophet Muhammad (SAW) taught us that every good deed can be charity. This means everyone can give charity, even a poor person.

- Your Body: Helping your mother carry groceries, cleaning the classroom.
- Your Smile: Smiling at your brother, sister, or classmate is charity.
- Your Words: Saying a kind word, advising someone to do good, stopping a fight with gentle words.
- Your Knowledge: Teaching a friend how to solve a maths problem or recite a Surah.
- Your Time: Visiting a sick relative, removing a thorn or stone from the road to protect others.

2. The Best Manners (Akhlaq) of Giving

- 1. Intention (Niyyah): Do it only for Allah's pleasure, not to show off or to be called "generous."
- 2. Give in Secret: The best charity is when your left hand does not know what your right hand has given. This protects the receiver's dignity and protects you from pride.
- 3. Give with Respect: Never insult the person receiving it. Don't say, "Here, take this." Give with a smile and kindness. Remember, they are doing you a favor by accepting your charity and letting you earn reward!
- 4. Give Your Best: Don't give something broken, spoiled, or that you hate. Give from what is good and wholesome.
- 5. Start with Those Closest to You: The best charity is to help your own family—your parents, siblings, and relatives in need.

3. Class Charity Project Idea

- "Our Class Sadaqah Jar": Decorate a box. Agree as a class that whenever you can, you bring a small coin (e.g., ₱10, ₱20). When the box is full, the class can decide together on a Sadaqah Jariyah project (e.g., buy a trash bin for the school, donate books) or help a needy person in the community.

EVALUATION

1. Is smiling at your teacher considered charity in Islam? (Yes/No).
2. Give two examples of Sadaqah that involve using your hands to help, not money.
3. Why is giving charity in secret better than giving it in front of everyone?
4. What is the worst thing you can do when giving charity? (Hint: It hurts the receiver's feelings).
5. Who should be the first people you help with your charity?

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Practical): Perform one act of "non-monetary" Sadaqah today. Write down what you did (e.g., "I helped my younger sister read her homework.").

2. (Drawing): Draw a picture showing someone performing an act of charity with good manners (e.g., a child respectfully giving an apple to an elderly person).
3. (Reflective Writing): Why is it important not to boast or tell everyone about the charity you give?

WEEK 9: FARAIID OF SALAT (OBLIGATORY ACTS)

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Define "Faraid" or "Arkan" of Salat.
2. List at least 8 pillars (Arkan) of Salat in their correct order.
3. Demonstrate the correct physical positions for Ruku and Sujud.
4. Explain the consequence of intentionally missing a pillar.

CONTENT

1. Meaning of Faraid/Arkan

- Faraid (Obligatory Acts) or Arkan (Pillars) of Salat are the essential parts of the prayer. They are like the main pillars that hold up a building. If you remove one pillar, the building collapses. If you miss one of these acts, your Salat is invalid (not accepted) and you must repeat it.

2. The Key Pillars (Arkan) of Salat Let's learn the most important ones in the order we do them:

1. Standing (Qiyam): If you are able to stand, you must stand for the prayer.
2. Takbiratul-Ihram: Saying "Allahu Akbar" to begin the prayer. This is like entering a special conversation with Allah.
3. Reciting Surah Al-Fatihah: You must recite this first Surah of the Qur'an in every Rakah (unit) of prayer.
4. Ruku (Bowling): Bowing down with your back straight and your hands on your knees, saying "Subhana Rabbiyal Azeem."
5. Rising from Ruku (I'tidal): Standing up straight again.
6. Sujud (Prostration): Placing your forehead, nose, both palms, both knees, and toes of both feet on the ground. This is the highest position of humility before Allah. You do this twice in each Rakah.
7. Sitting between the two Sujuds (Jalsah).
8. The Final Sitting (Tashahud Akhir): Sitting to recite the Tashahud and Salawat.

9. Taslim (Ending the Prayer): Saying "As-salamu alaykum wa rahmatullah" to the right and left.
10. Order (Tartib): Doing all the above in the correct sequence.

3. Consequence of Missing a Pillar

- If you intentionally leave out a pillar (e.g., you decide not to do Sujud), your prayer is null and void. It is as if you didn't pray at all.
- If you forget a pillar, you must perform the prostration of forgetfulness (Sujud Sahw) which we will learn next week, or sometimes repeat the Rakah.

EVALUATION

1. What are the "Faraid" of Salat? What happens if we miss one?
2. Mention three pillars that come before Sujud (Prostration).
3. Is reciting Surah Al-Fatihah a compulsory pillar or an optional Sunnah?
4. Describe the position of Sujud. How many body parts must touch the ground?
5. If a person is sick and cannot stand, is the pillar of "Qiyam" (standing) still obligatory for them?

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Written): List 5 Faraid of Salat in the correct order from memory.
2. (Drawing): Draw a simple stick figure in the correct position for Ruku. Label the back as "Straight" and the hands on "Knees."
3. (Understanding): Answer in one sentence: A very old man who cannot stand or bow, how should he pray? (He prays sitting or lying down in the best way he can. The pillar changes based on ability).

WEEK 10: SUNAN AND MUSTAHAB OF SALAT & SUJUD-SAHW

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Define "Sunan" acts of Salat and differentiate them from "Faraid."
2. List three common Sunnah acts performed during prayer.
3. Explain the meaning and purpose of "Sujud-Sahw."
4. Identify at least two situations when Sujud-Sahw is required.

CONTENT

1. Sunan of Salat (Recommended Acts)

- Sunan (singular: Sunnah) are the recommended acts that Prophet Muhammad (SAW) used to do regularly in his prayer.
- Key Difference:
 - Faraid: Must do. Missing it breaks the prayer.
 - Sunan: Should do. Missing it does not break the prayer, but you miss the extra reward for following the Prophet's perfect example.

2. Examples of Common Sunan Acts in Prayer

- Raising the hands when saying "Allahu Akbar" to begin.
- Placing the right hand over the left hand on the chest while standing.
- Reciting a Surah or verses from the Qur'an after Al-Fatihah in the first two Rakahs.
- Saying "Subhana Rabbiyal Azeem" (Glory to my Lord, the Almighty) three times in Ruku.
- Saying "Subhana Rabbiyal A'la" (Glory to my Lord, the Most High) three times in Sujud.
- Sitting for the First Tashahud (in prayers that are 3 or 4 Rakahs, like Dhuhr).

3. Sujud-Sahw (Prostration of Forgetfulness)

- Meaning: "Sahw" means forgetfulness. Sujud-Sahw is two extra prostrations you perform at the end of your prayer if you made certain mistakes because you forgot.
- Why do we have it? It shows Allah's mercy. He knows humans forget, so He gave us a simple way to correct our prayer mistakes.
- When to Perform Sujud-Sahw: a. If you are unsure how many Rakahs you have prayed (e.g., did I pray 3 or 4?). b. If you forgot a Sunnah Mu'akkadah (a strong Sunnah, like the First Tashahud in Dhuhr prayer). c. If you added something by mistake (e.g., you stood up for a 5th Rakah when you shouldn't have). d. If you delayed or advanced an action by mistake.
- How to do it: After your final Tashahud (sitting), but before saying the final "As-salamu alaykum," you say "Allahu Akbar," perform two prostrations (just like normal Sujud), sit again, recite the Tashahud, Salawat, and then end with Taslim.

EVALUATION

1. What is the main difference between a Fard (pillar) and a Sunnah in prayer?
2. Is placing the right hand over the left a Fard or a Sunnah?
3. What does "Sujud-Sahw" mean and why did Allah prescribe it for us?
4. Mention one situation where you would need to perform Sujud-Sahw.
5. How many extra prostrations do you make for Sujud-Sahw?

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Written): Write down three Sunnah acts you can do in your next Maghrib prayer to follow the Prophet (SAW).
2. (Scenario Response): You are praying Dhuhr (4 Rakahs). You stand up for the third Rakah but then realize you forgot to sit for the First Tashahud after the second Rakah. What should you do? (Answer: Complete the prayer, then perform Sujud-Sahw before the final Taslim).
3. (Table Creation): Create a simple table with two columns. Label one "Faraid (Pillars)" and the other "Sunan (Recommended)." Write two examples under each column.

WEEK 11: REVISION

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Recite Suratu Al-Zilzilah from memory with correct Tajweed.
2. Recall and explain the meaning of the Names of Allah learned (21-30).
3. Clearly distinguish between Sadaqah and Zakat, and give examples of non-monetary Sadaqah.
4. Demonstrate understanding of Faraid vs. Sunan in Salat and the purpose of Sujud-Sahw.

CONTENT

1. Qur'anic Review: Suratu Al-Zilzilah

- Group Recitation: The whole class recites the Surah together.
- Spotlight on Meaning: Teacher asks quick questions:
 - "What does 'discharge its burdens' mean?" (Throw out dead, treasures).
 - "What is the lesson of 'an atom's weight'?" (No deed is too small).
- Connection: Link the Surah's message (accountability) to the topic of Sadaqah (deeds) and the Names Al-Basir, As-Sami' (Allah sees/hears all deeds).

2. Theology Review: Asmaul Husna (21-30)

- Quick-Fire Quiz: Teacher says the meaning, pupils shout the Arabic name (or vice versa).
 - "The All-Hearing?" (As-Sami')
 - "Who is Al-Mu'izz?" (The Giver of Honor)
 - "Which name means The Judge?" (Al-Hakam)
- Application: "If you lose your pencil, which name of Allah should you call and why?" (Al-Latif, The Subtle One who handles affairs gently).

3. Fiqh (Practical Law) Review

- Charity Clarification:

- Draw two circles on the board. Label one Zakat (Compulsory), the other Sadaqah (Voluntary). Have pupils give examples for each.
- Brainstorm: List 5 acts of charity that don't need money.
- Salat Practice:
 - Volunteer Demonstration: A pupil leads a 2-Rakah prayer (like Fajr) in front of the class. Other pupils and teacher watch for:
 - Correct pillars (Faraid).
 - Recommended acts (Sunan) they can spot.
 - Sujud-Sahw Scenario: Teacher gives a scenario: "You finished your prayer and then remembered you didn't say 'Subhanaka' at the start. What do you do?" (Answer: Nothing, it's a Sunnah. Sujud-Sahw is not needed for forgetting a Sunnah like that, only for stronger ones like the first Tashahud or doubt in Rakahs).

EVALUATION Mock Test (Sample Questions):

1. Recite the last two verses of Suratu Al-Zilzilah.
2. Al-Khafid means The Humbler. Ar-Rafi' means The _____.
3. True or False: Zakat is voluntary charity you can give anytime.
4. Helping your teacher clean the board is an example of Sadaqah. (True/False).
5. Which of these is a Fard (Pillar) of Salat? (a) Reciting a Surah after Al-Fatihah (b) Doing Ruku (Bowing) (c) Raising hands in Takbir.
6. If you forget how many Rakahs of Asr you have prayed, what should you do at the end of your prayer?

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Exam Preparation): Use your notebook and these lesson notes to prepare thoroughly for the Second Term Examination. Focus on the meanings and applications.
2. (Practical Worship): Practice your next Maghrib or Isha prayer at home very carefully. Ask yourself: "Am I doing all the Faraid correctly? Can I add one Sunnah (like saying the Du'a after Tashahud)?"

3. (Review): Make flash cards or a list to review the 10 Names of Allah (21-30) you learned this term. Say the Arabic name, then its meaning.

2. Describe her profession and noble character before Islam.
3. Explain her crucial role in supporting the Prophet during and after the first revelation.
4. Mention two practical lessons we can learn from her life.

CONTENT

1. Who Was Khadijah (RA)?

- Khadijah bint Khuwaylid was a noblewoman from the respected Quraysh tribe in Makkah.
- She was a successful businesswoman and merchant. She owned trade caravans that traveled to faraway places like Syria and Yemen. She hired honest men to manage her business.
- Even before Islam, she was known by the title "At-Tahira" which means "The Pure One." This was because of her excellent character, truthfulness, and noble manners. People trusted her completely.

2. Her Marriage to Prophet Muhammad (SAW)

- The Business Deal: Khadijah hired the young Muhammad (SAW), who was known as "Al-Amin" (The Trustworthy One), to take one of her trade caravans to Syria. He returned with more profit than expected because of his honesty and smart trading.
- The Proposal: Impressed by his outstanding character, Khadijah herself sent a marriage proposal to Muhammad (SAW). She was 40 years old, a widow, and he was 25. Their marriage was based on mutual respect, trust, and love.

- Family Life: They had a happy marriage and were blessed with children, including their daughters Zainab, Ruqayyah, Umm Kulthum, and Fatimah (RA), who became very important in Islamic history.

3. The First to Believe: A Pillar of Support

- The Terrifying Event: When Prophet Muhammad (SAW) received the first revelation from Angel Jibril in Cave Hira, he was scared and confused. He ran home to Khadijah, trembling, and said, "Cover me! Cover me!"
- Her Immediate Comfort: She wrapped him in a blanket, calmed him down, and said words of firm belief: "Never! By Allah, Allah will never disgrace you. You keep good relations with your relatives, you speak the truth, you help the poor and the orphans, you are generous to your guests, and you bear the burdens of the weak."
- The First Muslim: With these wise words, Khadijah became the first person on Earth to accept Islam. She did not hesitate. Her faith was immediate and strong.

4. Her Unwavering Support

- Emotional Rock: For the next 10 years in Makkah, when people insulted, mocked, and threw trash at the Prophet, Khadijah was his safe haven. She comforted him and strengthened his heart.
- Financial Backbone: She used her entire vast wealth to support the new Muslim community. She bought food and supplies when the Muslims were boycotted and suffered in a valley with no trade for three years.
- The Year of Sorrow: Khadijah (RA) died in the same year as the Prophet's uncle, Abu Talib. This year was called "The Year of Sorrow" because the Prophet lost his two greatest protectors. He loved and remembered her kindness for the rest of his life.

EVALUATION

1. What was Khadijah's (RA) profession, and what does it tell us about her capabilities?
2. Why did Khadijah choose to marry Muhammad (SAW)? What quality was most important to her?

2. Describe her intelligence, curiosity, and powerful memory.
3. Explain her monumental role as a teacher and narrator of Hadith.
4. State a clear lesson about the importance of education for girls in Islam.

CONTENT

1. Who Was Aishah (RA)?

- Aishah was the daughter of Abu Bakr As-Siddiq (RA), the Prophet's closest friend and the first Caliph.
- She married the Prophet (SAW) in Madinah after the Hijrah. She was known for her sharp intelligence, lively curiosity, and love for learning.

2. A Walking Library of Knowledge

- Unique Access: Because she lived in the Prophet's own house, she had direct access to his private life. She saw how he prayed extra prayers, how he treated his family, what he ate, and how he resolved disputes.
- Photographic Memory: She had an incredible memory. She listened attentively to everything the Prophet said and explained. She memorized not just his words, but also his actions and approvals.

TEACHER OF THE COMMUNITY

3. The Scholar and Teacher of the Ummah

- Narrator of Hadith: After the Prophet's death, Aishah became one of the most important sources of Islamic knowledge. She narrated over 2,200 Hadiths. If Companions were confused about a ruling, they would come to her.
- Expert in Fiqh (Islamic Law): Great male scholars and Companions like Umar ibn Al-Khattab and Abdullah ibn Abbas would ask her questions about inheritance, marriage, and worship. She would correct their mistakes by saying, "The Prophet did not say that; he said this..."
- A Leader in Education: Her house in Madinah became a school. She taught both men and women, breaking the idea that women cannot be teachers of society.

4. Lessons from Her Life

- Education is for All: Aishah's life is proof that Islam encourages and celebrates educated women. Girls should seek knowledge just as boys do.
- Confidence in Knowledge: She was confident in what she knew because she learned from the best source. This teaches us to learn our religion properly so we can be confident and correct misunderstandings.

EVALUATION

1. What was the name of Aishah's (RA) father, and why is that significant?
2. Why was Aishah able to teach people about the Prophet's private life in a way others couldn't?

- Her Lineage: She was the daughter of Umar ibn Al-Khattab (RA), the second Caliph, and a wife of Prophet Muhammad (SAW).
- A Trusted Guardian: After the Prophet's death, the first Caliph, Abu Bakr (RA), ordered the collection of the Qur'an into one written book (called a Mushaf). This original copy was given to Hafsa for safekeeping because she was known to be trustworthy, intelligent, and literate (she could read and write, which was rare at that time).
- A Critical Link: When the third Caliph, Uthman ibn Affan (RA), wanted to make standard copies of the Qur'an to send to the Muslim lands, he borrowed Hafsa's original copy to ensure it was perfectly accurate. The Qur'an we read today is traced back to that copy.

2. Fatimah bint Muhammad (SAW): The Beloved Daughter

- The Prophet's Favorite: Fatimah was the youngest daughter of Prophet Muhammad (SAW) and Khadijah (RA). She was the only child who lived long enough to have children of her own, continuing the Prophet's lineage.
- Her Marriage and Family: She married Ali ibn Abi Talib (RA), the Prophet's cousin and a great hero of Islam. They had two sons, Hasan and Husayn (RA), whom the Prophet loved dearly.
- A Life of Hardship and Patience:
 - She lived a very simple and poor life. She would grind barley grain by hand to make flour until her hands were blistered.
 - She did all the hard housework herself. When she once asked her father for a servant, he taught her to recite Tasbih (Subhanallah, Alhamdulillah, Allahu Akbar) which he said was better than a servant.
 - Despite these hardships, she was always patient (Sabr) and never complained.

WEEK 4: THE FOUR SCHOOLS OF LAW - INTRODUCTION & HANAFI SCHOOL

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Define "Madhhab" (School of Islamic Law) and explain its purpose.
2. List the four major Sunni Schools of Law.
3. Identify Imam Abu Hanifah as the founder of the Hanafi School.
4. Describe his methodology, focusing on the use of reasoning (Qiyas).

CONTENT

1. Introduction to Madhahib (Schools of Law)

- What is a Madhhab? A Madhhab is a school of thought in Islamic law (Fiqh). After the Prophet (SAW) passed away, the great scholars (Imams) studied the Qur'an and Hadith deeply to figure out the Islamic rulings for new situations that arose.
- Why are there different schools? Sometimes, scholars had different understandings of the texts or faced new problems not directly mentioned. They used slightly different methods to find answers. All four major schools are correct and respected. They are like four different doctors using their knowledge to diagnose and treat the same illness—all aiming for health (Allah's pleasure).
- The Four Major Sunni Schools: 1. Hanafi, 2. Maliki, 3. Shafi'i, 4. Hanbali.

One Source, Different Interpretations

2. The Hanafi School: Founded by Imam Abu Hanifah

- The Founder: Imam Abu Hanifah (Nu'man bin Thabit). He was born in the city of Kufa, Iraq.
- His Profession: He was not just a scholar; he was a successful and honest merchant (a cloth trader). He believed in earning a halal living and was famous for his integrity in business.
- His Methodology:
 - Primary Sources: He first looked for answers in the Qur'an, then the Sunnah of the Prophet.
 - Use of Reasoning (Qiyas): Since he lived in Iraq, far from Madinah, he encountered many new social and trade issues. If he didn't find a clear text, he used logical reasoning (Qiyas). For example, if the Qur'an prohibits drinking wine because it intoxicates, then by the same reasoning, any other intoxicating drink (like modern beer) is also prohibited.
 - Consideration of Public Benefit (Istihsan): He also considered what was most fair and beneficial for the people.

- Spread of the Hanafi School: This school spread widely and is followed today in countries like Turkey, Pakistan, India, Bangladesh, and parts of Egypt.

EVALUATION

1. What is a Madhhab in simple terms? Why are they important?
2. Are the four schools enemies? What is the correct attitude towards them?
3. Who was the founder of the Hanafi school, and what was his other job?
4. Why did Imam Abu Hanifah rely heavily on reasoning (Qiyas)?
5. Name one country where the Hanafi school is common today.

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Written): Write down the names of the Four Sunni Schools of Law in your notebook.
2. (Definition): What does "Qiyas" mean? Give a simple example not from the lesson. (e.g., If it's wrong to break a pen, it's wrong to break a pencil by the same reasoning of destroying property).
3. (Investigation): Ask your parent or local Imam: "Which Madhhab is commonly followed in our mosque/community in Nigeria?" (Most will say Maliki).

WEEKS 5 & 6: MIDTERM EXAM AND BREAK

WEEK 7: THE FOUR SCHOOLS OF LAW - MALIKI, SHAFI'I, AND HANBALI

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Identify the founders of the Maliki, Shafi'i, and Hanbali schools.
2. Mention the famous book compiled by Imam Malik.
3. Differentiate simply between the main focus of each Imam's methodology.
4. State which school is dominant in Nigeria and West Africa.

CONTENT

1. The Maliki School: Founded by Imam Malik ibn Anas

- The Founder: Imam Malik ibn Anas. He lived his entire life in Madinah, the city of the Prophet (SAW).
- His Methodology: The Practice of Madinah.
 - He gave the highest importance to the daily practices ('Amal) of the people of Madinah. He reasoned that because the Prophet lived, died, and his companions lived there, their consistent way of life was a living transmission of the Sunnah.
 - For example, how they performed prayers or conducted business was a strong proof for him.
- His Famous Book: "Al-Muwatta" (The Well-Trodden Path). It is one of the earliest and most important collections of Hadith and Islamic law.
- Region: The Maliki school is dominant in West Africa (Nigeria, Ghana, Mali, Senegal), North Africa, and parts of the Gulf.

2. The Shafi'i School: Founded by Imam Muhammad al-Shafi'i

- The Founder: Imam Muhammad ibn Idris al-Shafi'i. He was a student of Imam Malik and also studied the Hanafi method. He is often called the "Father of Usul al-Fiqh" (Principles of Islamic Jurisprudence).
- His Methodology: A Systematic Balance.

- He created a clear, balanced system that used both the texts (Qur'an & Hadith) and reasoning, but with very strict rules for each. He organized the sources of law in a specific order of priority.

3. The Hanbali School: Founded by Imam Ahmad ibn Hanbal

- The Founder: Imam Ahmad ibn Hanbal. He was known for his immense knowledge of Hadith and his steadfastness.
- His Methodology: Strict Adherence to the Text.
 - He preferred the literal text of the Qur'an and Hadith above all else. He was very cautious about using personal opinion or reasoning. He would even follow a weak Hadith over his own logical opinion.
 - He was persecuted and imprisoned for refusing to agree with the false idea that the Qur'an was created, showing his great courage.
- His Book: "Musnad Ahmad", a massive collection of Hadith.

Imam	School	Key Method	Region
Imam Abu Hanifa Hanafi		Qiyas (Qiyas (Analogy)	Iraq, Central Asia
Muhammad ibn Ddris ash-Shafi'i	'Amal Ahl al-Madina (Practice of Practice Medina)	Usul al-Fiqh (Principles of Jurisprudence)	Egypt, Southeast, Asia

WEEK 8: MORAL LESSONS FROM THE LIFE OF PROPHET MUHAMMAD (SAW) - PART I

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Explain the meaning of the title "Al-Amin" (The Trustworthy) with an example.
2. Describe the Prophet's unwavering honesty, even with enemies.
3. Discuss his absolute commitment to justice for all.
4. Narrate his ultimate act of forgiveness during the Conquest of Makkah.

CONTENT

1. Trustworthiness (Al-Amin & As-Sadiq)

- Even before prophethood, everyone in Makkah called him "Al-Amin" (The Trustworthy) and "As-Sadiq" (The Truthful). They trusted him with their most valuable possessions.
- Example During Hijrah: When he and Abu Bakr were about to secretly migrate to Madinah, the Prophet (SAW) made sure to return all the valuables and deposits that people had left with him for safekeeping—even though those people were his enemies trying to kill him! He asked his cousin Ali (RA) to stay behind for three days to return everything. This is the highest level of honesty.

2. Justice for All, Without Favoritism

- The Prophet (SAW) taught that no one is above the law, not even his own family.
- Famous Statement: He said, "By Allah, if Fatimah, the daughter of Muhammad, were to steal, I would cut off her hand." This shows that justice must be equal for everyone, whether rich or poor, leader or follower. It builds trust in a community.

3. Mercy and Forgiveness: The Conquest of Makkah

- The Background: For 13 years, the people of Makkah tortured, boycotted, and drove out the Muslims. They killed the Prophet's loved ones.
- The Victory: When the Prophet returned to Makkah with a powerful army, he had full power to punish them. The Makkans were terrified, expecting revenge.
- The Unforgettable Words: The Prophet (SAW) asked them, "What do you think I will do with you?" They said, "You are a noble brother, son of a noble brother." He then declared: "Go, for you are all free. No blame on you today. May Allah forgive you."
- This act of total forgiveness transformed his worst enemies into his strongest supporters. It shows that true strength is in mercy.

EVALUATION

1. What do the titles "Al-Amin" and "As-Sadiq" mean? How did the Prophet prove them during the Hijrah?
2. If your best friend did something wrong, should you defend them or support justice? What did the Prophet teach us with his statement about Fatimah?
3. Describe the situation in Makkah when the Prophet returned as a conqueror. How did the people feel?

4. What were the Prophet's actual words of forgiveness to the people of Makkah?
5. Why is forgiveness considered a sign of great strength, not weakness?

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Personal Reflection/Writing): Write a short story about a time when you chose to be honest or return something that wasn't yours, even when it was difficult.
2. (Symbolic Drawing): Draw a key or a locked treasure box. Label it "Amanah (Trust)". Write one sentence about why trust is important in friendship.
3. (Analysis): Explain in two sentences why the Prophet's justice and forgiveness make him a perfect role model for leaders, teachers, and parents today.

WEEK 9: MORAL LESSONS FROM THE LIFE OF PROPHET MUHAMMAD (SAW) - PART II

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Define "Sabr" (Patience) and give a powerful example from the Prophet's life in Ta'if.
2. Describe the Prophet's extreme generosity.
3. Explain the Islamic principle of "Shura" (Consultation) with an example.
4. Describe how the Prophet participated in household chores and treated his family.

CONTENT

1. Patience (Sabr) in the Face of Cruelty

- The Incident at Ta'if: After facing years of persecution in Makkah, the Prophet went to the city of Ta'if to invite its people to Islam. Instead of listening, they set their children and slaves to throw stones at him. He was chased out of the city, bleeding, with his shoes stuck to his feet from blood.
- The Patient Response: In that moment of extreme pain and rejection, he did not curse them. Instead, he raised his hands and made a beautiful prayer: "O Allah, guide my people, for they do not know." This is the highest level of patience—praying for the good of those who hurt you.

2. Limitless Generosity

- The Prophet (SAW) was described as "more generous than the blowing wind." He never said 'no' to anyone who asked him for something in need.
- A Famous Story: A man once asked him for a huge gift—a valley full of sheep! The Prophet gave it to him. The man was so amazed that he went back to his tribe and said, "Embrace Islam, for Muhammad gives like one who does not fear poverty!" The Prophet's generosity was a means of inviting people to Islam.

3. Leadership through Consultation (Shura)

- The Prophet (SAW) did not rule like a dictator. He always consulted his companions on important matters, valuing their opinions.
- Example: The Battle of the Trench. When Makkah attacked Madinah, the Prophet listened to the suggestion of Salman al-Farsi (RA), a Persian companion, to dig a deep trench (Khandaq) around Madinah—a new strategy in Arabia. This consultation saved the Muslims.

4. A Hands-On Family Man

- He broke the stereotype that men shouldn't do "women's work." At home, he would mend his own clothes, milk the goat, sweep the floor, and help with chores.
- He was playful and affectionate with his grandchildren, Hasan and Husayn. He would let them climb on his back even while he was praying in prostration, showing his gentle love.

EVALUATION

1. What happened to the Prophet in Ta'if? What was his reaction, and what does that teach us?
2. How did the Prophet show patience when he lost his wife Khadijah and his uncle Abu Talib in the same year?

WEEK 10: MORAL LESSONS FROM THE LIFE OF PROPHET MUHAMMAD (SAW)

- PART III

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. List three important rights of neighbors in Islam.
2. Explain the Islamic view on the dignity of manual labor and discouraging begging.
3. Mention the Prophet's teachings on personal and environmental cleanliness.
4. Describe the Prophet's kindness and mercy towards animals.

CONTENT

1. Social Responsibility: Neighbors and the Vulnerable

- Rights of the Neighbor: The Prophet (SAW) emphasized the rights of neighbors so much that his companions thought a neighbor might inherit from you! He said: "He is not a believer whose stomach is full while his neighbor to the side goes hungry." A good neighbor shares food, helps in need, and is kind even if the neighbor is not Muslim.
- Care for Orphans: He showed great love for orphans, who have no father. He said, "I and the guardian of an orphan will be in Paradise like these two," and he held his index and middle fingers close together.

2. Dignity of Labor (Working with Your Hands)

- Islam discourages begging and encourages earning a halal living. The Prophet (SAW) said: "No one ever eats better food than that which he eats from the work of his own hands." He mentioned that Prophet Dawud (David) used to eat from what he made with his hands (as a blacksmith).
- Lesson: There is no shame in any honest job, whether farming, trading, tailoring, or cleaning.

3. Cleanliness: Part of Faith (Iman)

- Personal Hygiene: The Prophet (SAW) loved cleanliness. He constantly used the Siwak (miswak stick) to clean his teeth. He made Wudu (ablution) mandatory for prayer, which cleanses the body 5 times a day.
- Environmental Cleanliness: He said, "Removing harmful things from the road is a charity (Sadaqah)." He taught us to keep our homes, bodies, and streets clean. He always wore clean, pleasant-smelling clothes.

4. Kindness to All Creatures: Animals

- The Prophet forbade being cruel to animals. He said one should not overload a donkey or brand an animal on its face.
- A Story of Mercy: He told of a prostitute who entered Paradise because she gave water to a thirsty dog stuck in a well. And he told of a woman who entered Hell because she starved her cat to death. This shows that kindness to animals is a serious matter to Allah.

1. Review of Our Journey in Primary 6

- Qur'an & Tafsir: We learned powerful Surahs (Al-Mulk, Al-Zilzilah, etc.) that teach us about Allah's power, the Day of Judgment, and accountability.
- Female Role Models: Khadijah (strength & support), Aishah (knowledge & teaching), Fatimah (patience & simplicity), Hafsa (trustworthiness). They show the high status of women in Islam.
- Islamic Law (Fiqh): We learned about the Four Schools of Thought (Hanafi, Maliki, Shafi'i, Hanbali). They are like different paths up the same mountain, all leading to Allah. Most Nigerians follow the Maliki school.
- The Perfect Example: We studied the Moral Character of Prophet Muhammad (SAW)—his honesty, justice, forgiveness, patience, generosity, cleanliness, and kindness. He is our ultimate guide.

2. Navigating a New World: Secondary School

- New Challenges: You will meet many new people from different backgrounds. Some might:
 - Pressure you to skip prayer for games or gossip.
 - Mock you for Islamic practices like fasting or dressing modestly.
 - Offer you haram things like cigarettes, alcohol, or drugs.

- Your Action Plan:

a. Find Your Muslim Community: Look for the Muslim Students Society (MSSN) or prayer room on your first day. Good friends will help you stay strong.

b. Prayer is Non-Negotiable: Plan your day around Salah times. Pray even if you have to do it in a corner of the library or an empty classroom. Allah sees your effort.

c. Be Confident in Your Identity: Be proud to be a Muslim. You don't have to shout, but let people know through your excellent character (Akhlaq).

3. Da'wah Through Your Character

- The best Da'wah (invitation to Islam) is your behavior. When you are:
 - The most honest student in class.
 - The most helpful to teachers and classmates.
 - The cleanest and most well-mannered.
 - The hardworking student who doesn't cheat.
- ...people will ask, "What makes you different?" Then you can say, "It's my faith in Islam."

EVALUATION (Class Discussion Questions)

1. Which female role model from this term inspires you the most, and why?
2. Imagine a new friend in secondary school invites you to a party during Maghrib prayer time. What would you do?
3. How can you show people you are a Muslim without even saying a word? List two ways through your character.

2. (Exam Preparation): Review all your notes from Third Term (and the year) to prepare thoroughly for your final examination.
