PRIMARY 3 ISLAMIC STUDIES LESSON NOTES

FIRST TERM

---

WEEK 1: INTRODUCTION TO ARABIC ALPHABET.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- List the Arabic letters from Alif to Yaa.
- Identify the shapes of Arabic letters at the beginning, middle, and end of a word.
- State the importance of proper pronunciation (Makharij) of Arabic letters.
- Write selected letters in their joined forms.

CONTENT

Review of Arabic Letters: The beautiful words of the Holy Qur'an are written in the Arabic language. To read the Qur'an correctly, we must first learn the Arabic alphabet, just like we learned A, B, C in English.

- The Arabic alphabet has 28 letters. It starts with Alif (ا) and ends with Yaa (ي).

Direction: We read and write Arabic from right to left. This is the opposite direction of English. Imagine starting your sentence from the edge of the chalkboard and moving towards the door.

Examples: Let's learn the first few letters together. Each letter has its own unique shape and sometimes dots!

- Alif (ا): Stands tall and straight like a lamp post. It has no dots.
- Ba (ب): Has a single dot underneath it.
- Ta (ت): Has two dots above it.
- Tha (ث): Has three dots above it.
- Jeem (ج): Looks like a small bowl or a smile with a dot inside it.

Shapes of Letters (Joined Forms): In Arabic, letters love to hold hands! They usually connect when we write words. A single letter can look different depending on if it is at the beginning, middle, or end of a word, just like you might stand differently if you are first in a line, in the middle, or last.

- At the Beginning: When a letter starts a word, it connects to the letter that comes after it. Think of it stretching out its right hand to hold the next letter's left hand.
- Example: Ba (ب) at the beginning looks like بـ. See the little tail stretching to the left?

- In the Middle: When a letter is in the middle, it's holding hands with a friend on both sides. It's connected from the right and the left.
- Example: Ba (ب) in the middle looks like بـ.
- At the End: When a letter is at the end, it only holds the hand of the friend before it. It can now show its full, beautiful shape because no one is after it.
- Example: Ba (ب) at the end looks like ب.

Importance of Proper Pronunciation (Makharij): Pronouncing Arabic letters correctly from their exact points in the mouth and throat is called Makharij. This is not just about being a good reader; it is very important in Islam because:

- It Changes Meaning: Arabic words can sound very similar. If we mispronounce just one letter, we might accidentally say a completely different and wrong word. For example:
- قَلْب (Qalb) means “heart.” The “Q” sound comes from deep in the throat.
- كَلْب (Kalb) means “dog.” The “K” sound comes from the back of the mouth.
- If we mix up “Q” and “K,” we change the word’s meaning completely! We must be very careful.
- For Our Salah: When we pray, we recite Surahs from the Qur’an. Allah deserves our best effort. Trying to pronounce the words correctly is a way of showing respect and love for His book.

EVALUATION

1. How many letters are in the Arabic alphabet?
2. To write the word "باب" (door), which direction do I start: from the right or the left?
3. Look at this shape: ت. Is the letter Ta in the beginning, middle, or end of a word here?
4. Why must we try hard to pronounce the Arabic letter “Qaf (ق)” correctly? Give one reason.
5. On your slate, write the letter Ha (ح) in its full, standalone form.

ASSIGNMENT

- (Written): In your exercise book, write the first eight Arabic letters (from Alif to Daal) in a neat list. Say each letter's name as you write it.
- (Drawing): Draw three boxes.
- In the first box, draw the letter Jeem (ج) as if it is starting a word.
- In the second box, draw it in the middle of a word.
- In the third box, draw it at the end of a word.
- (Oral/Practical): Practice with a partner. One person says “Qalb” (heart), the other says “Kalb” (dog). Can you hear and feel the difference? Tell your teacher tomorrow which sound feels deeper.

WEEK 2: INTRODUCTION OF TANWIN I.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Define Tanwin.
- List the three types of Tanwin.
- Identify the symbols for Tanwin Fath, Tanwin Kasr, and Tanwin Damm.
- Draw the signs of Tanwin.

CONTENT

Meaning of Tanwin: Tanwin is a special sound sign in Arabic.

- It adds a light “n” sound to the end of a word, like a gentle echo.
- We only find Tanwin on nouns (names of people, places, or things like "boy," "house," "book"), and it always sits at the very end of the word.
- It tells us the word is indefinite, like saying "a boy" instead of "the boy."
- Without Tanwin: The letter ذ with a single Fatha is pronounced “Da.”
- With Tanwin: The letter ذ with Tanwin Fath is pronounced “Dan.” Can you hear the extra “n” sound at the end?

Types of Tanwin: Just like we have three short vowels—Fatha (a), Kasra (i), Damma (u)—we have three types of Tanwin. Tanwin is like a “double” or “twinning” vowel that brings the “n” sound along.

1. Tanwin Fath (Fathatain): This looks like two little dashes sitting on top of a letter (ّ).
  - It makes the sound “an.”
  - Example: ف = Fan. (Like in "fan" or "man").
  - How to write it: Two short lines side-by-side above the letter.
2. Tanwin Kasr (Kasratain): This looks like two little dashes sitting under a letter (ِ).
  - It makes the sound “in.”
  - Example: ب = Bin. (Like in "pin" or "win").
  - How to write it: Two short lines side-by-side below the letter.

3. Tanwin Damm (Dammatain): This looks like a tiny curly “waw” or two small curls on top of a letter (◌ُ).
- It makes the sound “un.”
- Example: بُ = Bun. (Like in "sun" or "fun").
- How to write it: A small mirrored copy of the vowel Damma.

Where We See and Use Tanwin: You will see these little signs often when you open the Qur'an or an Arabic storybook. They are like traffic signs for our tongue, telling us exactly how to end the word smoothly and correctly. They make the language sound beautiful and complete.

EVALUATION

1. What special sound does Tanwin add to the end of a word?
2. Which Tanwin uses two dashes placed on top of the letter? What sound does it make?
3. If you see two dashes sitting under a letter, which Tanwin is it? Say the sound it makes.
4. Look at this symbol: ◌ُ. What is its name? What sound does it tell us to make?
5. Can we put Tanwin on the first letter of a word like "مدرسة"? Why or why not?

ASSIGNMENT

- (Drawing): Create a “Tanwin Helper” page in your book. Draw three large, friendly faces.
  - Give the first face two dashes for a hat (Fathatain).
  - Give the second face two dashes for a beard (Kasratain).
  - Give the third face two curls for hair (Dammatain).
  - Write the sound each one makes below.
  - (Written): Complete these sound clues:
  - The sound of Damma + Tanwin is: _____ (un)
  - The sound of Fatha + Tanwin is: _____ (an)
  - The sound of Kasra + Tanwin is: _____ (in)
  - (Practical Search): Open your Noorani Qa’ida to a random page. With your finger, trace along the words until you find one that has a Tanwin at the end. Show it to your family and try to read it.

WEEK 3: INTRODUCTION OF TANWIN II.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Demonstrate how to pronounce Tanwin with different letters.
- Differentiate between a single vowel and Tanwin.
- Read simple words containing Tanwin.
- Match letters with their correct Tanwin sounds.

CONTENT

How to Pronounce Tanwin Clearly: Let's practice with different letters! The key is to let the "n" sound flow naturally at the end. Don't stop your voice suddenly; let it fade with the "n."

- With the letter Meem (م):
  - م (with a single Fatha) = Ma (like in "mum")
  - م (with Tanwin Fath) = Man (like in "man")
- With the letter Seen (س):
  - س (with a single Kasra) = Si (like the "si" in "sit")
  - س (with Tanwin Kasr) = Sin (like "sin")
- With the letter Lam (ل):
  - ل (with a single Damma) = Lu (like the "lu" in "lull")
  - ل (with Tanwin Damm) = Lun (rhymes with "sun")

The Big Difference: Single Vowel vs. Tanwin: It's important to know the difference so we don't get confused when reading. Look at this simple table:

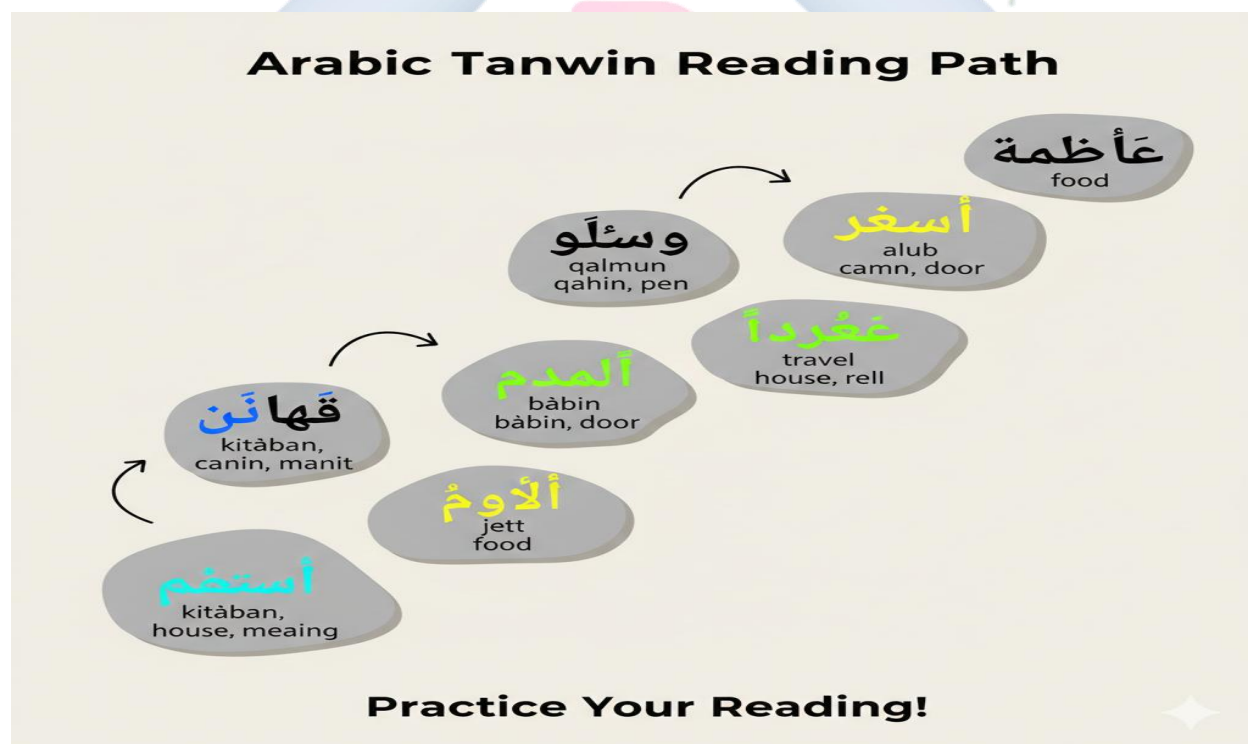

| Single Vowel (Harakah)                                               | Double Vowel (Tanwin)                                                              |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Makes a short, quick sound: a (ا), i (ي), u (و) | Makes a longer sound ending in 'n': an (ان), in (ين), un (ون) |

| Single Vowel (Harakah)                                               | Double Vowel (Tanwin)                                                    |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Can be found anywhere in a word—beginning, middle, or end.           | Only found at the very end of a noun .                     |
| Example: كِتَابُ (Kitaabu) – The ‘u’ is a short single Damma. | Example: كِتَابٌ (Kitaabun) – The ‘un’ is Tanwin Damm at the end. |

Reading Simple Words with Tanwin: Now, let’s read some complete words together.

Remember, the Tanwin is always the last thing we pronounce.

- وَلَدٌ (Waladun) – A boy.
- بَيْتٌ (Baytin) – A house.
- كِتَابًا (Kitaaban) – A book. (Did you notice the extra Alif letter after the Tanwin Fath? We’ll learn why next week!)
- قَلَمٌ (Qalamun) – A pen.

EVALUATION

1. Pronounce the letter ‘Ayn (ع) with Tanwin Fath. What is the sound? (‘An).

2. What is the difference between pronouncing رُ (Ru) and رٌ (Run)?
3. Look at the word مِين. The Tanwin is under the Meem. What sound does that Tanwin make, and what is the full word? (Min).
4. True or False: The word for school, مَدْرَسَة, can have a Tanwin in the middle of it.
5. Look at the word مُسْلِم (Muslimun). Point to the Tanwin. Now, say the whole word out loud.

ASSIGNMENT

- (Written & Oral): Write down how to pronounce these letters with Tanwin. Then, say them out loud three times each:
  - Daad (ض) + Tanwin Fath = _____ (Dan)
  - Noon (ن) + Tanwin Kasr = _____ (Nin)
  - ‘Ayn (ع) + Tanwin Damm = _____ (‘Un)
- (Practice): With a partner, take turns reading the “Tanwin” practice lines from your Qa’ida. Be each other’s pronunciation helper.
- (Spelling/Matching): Draw a line to match the Arabic word with its correct sound:
  - بَيْتٍ (Baytin) ----- A House
  - وَلَدٌ (Waladun) ----- A Boy
  - كِتَابًا (Kitaaban) ----- A Book

WEEK 4: INTRODUCTION OF TANWIN III.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Identify Tanwin in verses of the Holy Qur'an.
- Read short Qur'anic words that end in Tanwin.
- Write simple Arabic words with Tanwin signs.
- Apply the rule of Tanwin Fath requiring an Alif support.

CONTENT

Finding Tanwin in the Qur'an: You are now ready to be a Qur'an explorer! When you open a Mus'haf, look carefully at the ends of the words. Can you spot the double dashes ( َ ) or the double curl ( ِ )? Finding Tanwin helps us know where to pause slightly and recite with the beautiful, ringing sound that Allah loves.

The Special Writing Rule for Tanwin Fath ( َ ): There is an important rule when we write Tanwin Fath (the “an” sound). We usually add an extra Alif (ا) letter after the word to “hold” or support the Tanwin Fath. It’s like the Tanwin Fath needs a chair to sit on!

- Example: To write the sound “B-an.”
- We start with the letter: Ba (ب).
- We put the Tanwin Fath on top: بَ.
- We add the supporting Alif after it: بَا.
- So, بَا is written and read as “Ban.”
- The Exception: We do not add this extra Alif if the word ends with a Ta Marbuta (ة) – the round “ta” that looks like a circle with two dots, often used for feminine words.
- Example: مُسْلِمَةٌ (Muslimatun) – A Muslim woman. (It has Tanwin Damm here, but notice: no extra Alif comes after the Ta Marbuta, even if it had Tanwin Fath).

Writing Practice: Let's write some common words in our notebooks. Remember to write from right to left!

- أَحَدٌ (Ahadun) – One (as in “Allah is One, Ahad”). The Dammatain (◌ُ) sits on the Dal (د).
- مَسْجِدًا (Masjidan) – A mosque. See the Fathatain (◌ِ) on the Dal (د) and its supporting Alif (ا) right after?
- رَسُولٌ (Rasoolun) – A messenger.
- نِعْمَةً (Ni'matun) – A blessing.

Reading from the Qur'an: Surah Al-Ikhlās: Let's look at a short Surah you may know, Surah Al-Ikhlās (Chapter 112). It's full of belief and has Tanwin!

- Verse 1: قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ (Qul Huwal laahu Ahadun) – “Say, He is Allah, [who is] One.”
- Verse 4: وَلَمْ يَكُنْ لَهُ كُفُوًا أَحَدٌ (Wa lam yakul-lahu kufuwan ahadun) – “Nor is there to Him any equivalent.”
- Look at كُفُوًا (kufuwan). See the Tanwin Fath on the Waw and its supporting Alif? And there's أَحَدٌ (Ahadun) again with its Tanwin Damm.

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

1 أَلَسْهُمْ لَفَرَنَ أَلَمَنَ أَعَهْهُ

3 أَلَسْهُمْ لَفَرَنَ أَلَمَنَ أَعَهْهُ

4 أَلَسْهُمْ لَفَرَنَ أَلَمَنَ أَعَهْهُ

Learn the Tanwin!

EVALUATION

1. Find and point to a word with Tanwin in Surah Al-Ikhlās, verse 1. What is that word?
2. When we write the sound “an” (using Tanwin Fath), what extra letter do we usually add after the word?
3. In your notebook, write the letter Ra (ر) with Tanwin Kasr underneath it.
4. How do you read the word رَحْمَةً (Rahmatun – mercy)? Point to the Tanwin as you say it.
5. True or False: The word for paradise, جَنَّة (Jannatun), needs an extra Alif after it because of the Tanwin. (False – it ends with Ta Marbuta).

ASSIGNMENT

- (Qur'an Connection): Neatly copy the first verse of Surah Al-Ikhlās into your Islamic Studies notebook. Use a colored pencil to draw a circle around every Tanwin you can find.
- (Writing): Write three simple Arabic words that end with the “un” sound (Tanwin Damm). You can use: كِتَابٌ (book), قَلَمٌ (pen), بَابٌ (door).
- (Rule Application): Look at this word written without its support: بٌ. Now write it correctly with its supporting letter: _____ (بَا).

WEEK 5: MIDTERM EXAMINATION.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Answer questions covering topics from Week 1 to Week 4.

CONTENT

Assessment: The teacher will administer a written and oral test.

- Part 1 (Written): Questions on Arabic letters (names, identifying beginning/middle/end shapes), the three types of Tanwin (drawing symbols, matching to sounds), and the rule for Tanwin Fath.
- Part 2 (Oral/ Practical): Pupils will recite the Arabic letters from Alif to Yaa. The teacher will point to words with Tanwin on the board for pupils to read aloud correctly.

EVALUATION

- Grading of written scripts.
- Immediate verbal correction and encouragement during oral recitation.

ASSIGNMENT

- Review all test corrections carefully at home.
  - For any question you found difficult, practice that topic again with your Qa'ida or notebook.

WEEK 6: MIDTERM BREAK.

---

WEEK 7: SURATUL-KAWTHAR I.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Identify Surah Al-Kawthar as a chapter in the Qur'an.
- Recite Verse 1 and 2 of Surah Al-Kawthar correctly.
- State the meaning of the first verse.
- Explain simply why the Surah was revealed.

CONTENT

Introduction to Surah Al-Kawthar: This is a very special and short Surah. Its name is Surah Al-Kawthar.

- Position: It is Chapter 108 of the Holy Qur'an.
- Length: It is the shortest Surah in the entire Qur'an! It has only 3 verses. This makes it one of the first Surahs many Muslims memorize.
- Name Meaning: “Al-Kawthar” means “Abundance,” “Good in great plenty,” or “A River in Paradise.” It is a gift of endless goodness from Allah.

The Story Behind the Surah (Why it was Revealed): Prophet Muhammad (SAW) was once feeling very sad. His enemies in Makkah were making fun of him because his young sons had passed away. They said, “Muhammad is cut off (has no sons to carry his name). He has nothing!”

- To comfort His beloved Prophet and to show those mean people were wrong, Allah revealed this Surah. It was like Allah saying, “Don’t be sad, O Muhammad. I have given you Al-Kawthar—so much goodness that it will never end. It is your enemies who are truly cut off and have nothing.”

Recitation and Meaning (Verses 1-2): Let’s learn the first two verses:

- Verse 1 (Arabic): إِنَّا أَعْطَيْنَاكَ الْكَوْثَرَ
- Word-by-Word:
- إِنَّا (Inna) = Indeed, We (Allah)
- أَعْطَيْنَاكَ (A’taynaaka) = have given you
- الْكَوْثَرَ (Al-Kawthar) = the Kawthar (Abundance)
- Full Meaning: “Indeed, We have granted you, [O Muhammad], Al-Kawthar.”
- Explanation: A direct, loving promise from Allah to His Prophet.
- Verse 2 (Arabic): فَصَلِّ لِرَبِّكَ وَأَنْحَرْ
- Word-by-Word:
- فَ (Fa) = So
- صَلِّ (Salli) = pray
- لِرَبِّكَ (Li Rabbika) = to your Lord
- وَأَنْحَرْ (Wanhar) = and sacrifice
- Full Meaning: “So pray to your Lord and sacrifice [to Him alone].”

- Explanation: Allah tells the Prophet (and us) the best response to any gift is gratitude. How do we thank Allah? By praying only to Him and sacrificing (like during Eid-ul-Adha) only for Him.

EVALUATION

1. What number is Surah Al-Kawthar, and why is it famous? (Chapter 108, shortest Surah).
2. What does the word “Al-Kawthar” mean?
3. Recite the first verse of Surah Al-Kawthar from memory.
4. Why was Prophet Muhammad (SAW) sad, and how did this Surah help him?
5. According to verse 2, what two things should we do to thank Allah for His gifts?

ASSIGNMENT

- (Memorization): Practice reciting verses 1 and 2 to your parents or an older sibling until you can say them without looking.
  - (Written): In your own words, write one sentence about what “Al-Kawthar” is.
  - (Reflection): Think of one blessing Allah has given you (like your family, health, food). Tonight in your prayer, say “Alhamdulillah” for it, just as the Prophet was told to be thankful.

WEEK 8: SURATUL-KAWTHAR II.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Recite the complete Surah Al-Kawthar (Verses 1-3) with Tajweed.
- State the meaning of the third verse.
- Mention two lessons learnt from the Surah.
- Identify the river promised to the Prophet.

CONTENT

Complete Memorization: Adding the Final Verse: Now, let's complete the Surah by learning the powerful last verse.

- Verse 3 (Arabic): إِنَّ شَانِئَكَ هُوَ الْأَبْتَرُ
- Word-by-Word:
- إِنَّ (Inna) = Indeed
- شَانِئَكَ (Shaani-aka) = your enemy/hater
- هُوَ (Huwa) = is
- الْأَبْتَرُ (Al-Abtar) = the one cut off
- Full Meaning: “Indeed, your enemy is the one cut off.”
- Explanation: This is Allah’s final answer to the bullies. They said the Prophet was “cut off” (Abtar). Allah flips it around: “No! The one who hates you and laughs at you— that person is truly the one who is cut off from all goodness and success, in this life and the next.”

The River of Al-Kawthar: What is this “Kawthar” that Allah promised?

- It is a special, magnificent river in Paradise (Jannah). The Prophet (SAW) described it:
- Its water is whiter than milk and sweeter than honey.

- Its banks are made of pearls and precious gems.
- Whoever drinks from it will never feel thirsty again.
- It is a gift from Allah to His beloved Prophet, and on the Day of Judgment, the Prophet will welcome his followers to drink from it.

Important Tajweed Rules in this Surah: To recite beautifully:

- وَأَنْحَرُ (Wanhar): Pronounce the Ha (ح) letter clearly from the middle of your throat. Don't mix it with a regular 'h' sound.
- أَعْطَيْنَاكَ (A'taynaaka): Emphasize the 'Ayn (ع) sound, which comes from deep in the throat.

Lessons from Surah Al-Kawthar:

- Allah's Love and Comfort: Allah sees when we are sad and sends us comfort. He always supports the believers.
- Gratitude through Worship: The best way to thank Allah for His gifts is to worship Him sincerely—praying and sacrificing only for Him.
- Do Not Worry About Bullies: When people say mean things to us because of our faith, we should not be too sad. Allah is our protector, and in the end, truth wins.

EVALUATION

1. Recite the full Surah Al-Kawthar (verses 1-3) from memory.
2. What does the third verse say will happen to the people who hate the Prophet?
3. Describe the River Al-Kawthar. What are two things about it?
4. Who alone should we pray to and make sacrifices for?
5. If a classmate says something mean to you about praying, what can this Surah teach you to remember?

ASSIGNMENT

- (Perfect Memorization): Your goal is to memorize the entire Surah perfectly. Recite it to your teacher tomorrow without any mistakes.

- (Drawing): Draw a picture of what you imagine the River Al-Kawthar in Paradise might look like. Use bright, beautiful colors.
  - (Action): The next time you see your family preparing a sacrifice for Eid (like a ram), remember that it is an act of worship from this Surah. Tell them, “We are sacrificing for Allah alone.”

WEEK 9: SURATUL-MA'UN I.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Identify Surah Al-Ma'un as Chapter 107.
- State the meaning of “Al-Ma'un” (Small Kindnesses).
- Recite Verses 1-4 of the Surah.
- Identify the bad habits mentioned in the first part of the Surah.

CONTENT

Introduction to Surah Al-Ma'un: This Surah comes right before Al-Kawthar in the Qur'an. Its name is Surah Al-Ma'un.

- Position: It is Chapter 107.
- Name Meaning: “Al-Ma'un” means “Small Kindnesses” or “Daily Acts of Help.” It refers to the small, everyday things we can do for others, like lending a pot to a neighbor, giving a cup of sugar, sharing water, or helping someone carry something.

The Warning in the Surah: This Surah describes a very bad type of person—someone who claims to be religious but acts in terrible ways. It's a warning to all of us not to be like that.

Recitation and Meaning (Verses 1-4): Let's learn the first four verses, which describe this hypocritical person.

- Verse 1: أَرَأَيْتَ الَّذِي يُكَذِّبُ بِالْإِيمَانِ
- Meaning: “Have you seen the one who denies the Recompense?” (The “Recompense” is the Day of Judgment—when everyone will be rewarded or punished for their deeds).
- Verse 2: فَذَلِكَ الَّذِي يَدُعُّ الْيَتِيمَ
- Meaning: “For that is the one who drives away the orphan,”
- Explanation: This person is harsh and cruel to an orphan—a child who has lost their father and needs kindness the most.

- Verse 3: وَلَا يَحْضُ عَلَى طَعَامِ الْمُسْكِينِ
- Meaning: “And does not encourage the feeding of the poor.”
- Explanation: Not only does he not feed the poor himself, but he also doesn’t encourage others to do it. He is selfish and doesn’t care about those who are hungry.
- Verse 4: فَوَيْلٌ لِلْمُصَلِّينَ
- Meaning: “So woe to those who pray,”
- Explanation: “Woe” means a great warning of punishment. Allah is saying: “Punishment and sadness will be for those people who pray...” But why? The next verses (which we’ll learn next week) complete the warning.

Who is a Yateem (Orphan) and Miskeen (Poor)?

- Yateem: A child whose father has passed away. In Islam, caring for orphans is a very great deed.
- Miskeen: A very poor person who does not have enough to eat or meet basic needs.

EVALUATION

1. What does “Al-Ma’un” mean? Give one example.
2. Recite the first verse of Surah Al-Ma’un.
3. How does the bad person in this Surah treat an orphan?
4. What should we do when we see a poor person?
5. What chapter number is Surah Al-Ma’un?

ASSIGNMENT

- (Memorization): Practice reciting verses 1-4 of Surah Al-Ma’un. Focus on the meaning as you say the words.
  - (Written): Write a simple definition in your book: “An orphan (Yateem) is a child who has no _____.”
  - (Action/Reflection): Think of one “small kindness” (Ma’un) you can do at home today. It could be helping to set the table, sharing your snack with a sibling, or fetching water for your mother. Do it, and write down what you did.

WEEK 10: SURATUL-MA'UN II.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Recite the complete Surah Al-Ma'un (Verses 1-7).
- Explain the warning about prayer in the Surah.
- Explain the meaning of “showing off” in worship.
- State the importance of helping neighbors with small things.

CONTENT

Complete Memorization: Verses 5-7: Last week, the Surah ended with a warning: “Woe to those who pray...” Now let's see why.

- Verse 5: الَّذِينَ هُمْ عَنْ صَلَاتِهِمْ سَاهُونَ
- Meaning: “[But] who are heedless of their prayer,”
- Explanation: These people pray, but they are careless. They delay their prayers until the last minute, rush through them without thinking about Allah, or forget them completely. Their hearts are not in it.
- Verse 6: الَّذِينَ هُمْ يُرَاءُونَ
- Meaning: “Those who make show [of their deeds].”
- Explanation: This is called Riya. It means doing good deeds (like praying, giving charity) only so that people will see you and praise you, not to please Allah. It's like being an actor on a stage.
- Verse 7: وَيَمْنَعُونَ الْمَاعُونَ
- Meaning: “And withhold [simple] assistance.”
- Explanation: They refuse to help others with small, everyday needs (Al-Ma'un). They are stingy with their time, things, and help.

The Complete Picture of a Hypocrite: This Surah paints a clear picture of a person whose Islam is only on the outside:

- Denies the importance of the Hereafter.
- Is cruel to orphans.
- Doesn't care for the poor.
- Prays carelessly or only for show.
- Refuses small acts of kindness.

Lessons for Us:

- Prayer with Presence: Our Salah must be on time and done with our hearts and minds focused on Allah, not just moving our bodies.
- Sincerity (Ikhlas): We must do every good deed to please Allah alone, not to show off to friends or get praise from teachers. Allah knows what is in our hearts.
- Generosity in Small Things: True faith shows in small actions. Lending a pencil, helping clean up, sharing food—these “small kindnesses” are a big test of our character.

Connecting to Our Lives:

- Have you ever prayed but kept thinking about your toys or what you'll play later? That's a little bit of heedlessness. We must try to focus.
- Have you ever done something good and then kept looking to see if anyone noticed? We should check our intention and do it for Allah.
- Has a neighbor ever asked to borrow something, and you said “no” without a good reason? This Surah reminds us to be helpful.

EVALUATION

1. Recite the full Surah Al-Ma'un from memory.
2. What does it mean to be “heedless” in prayer? Give one example.
3. What is “Riya” (showing off)? Is it a good or bad thing in Islam?
4. If your neighbor asks to borrow a cup of rice, what should you do according to this Surah?
5. Mention three bad qualities that this Surah warns us against.

ASSIGNMENT

- (Perfect Memorization): Memorize Surah Al-Ma'un perfectly. Be ready to recite it to the class with correct pronunciation.
  - (Written Promise): In your notebook, write this promise: "I will pray my Salah on time and try to think only of Allah when I pray. I will do good deeds to please Allah, not people."
  - (Practical Kindness): Perform one act of "Al-Ma'un" (small kindness) for a neighbor or a classmate this week. It could be helping them carry their bag, sharing an eraser, or saying a kind word. Write down what you did.

WEEK 11: REVISION.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Recall key concepts from the entire term.
- Identify Arabic letters and Tanwin.
- Recite Surah Al-Kawthar and Al-Ma'un from memory.

CONTENT

Comprehensive Review: The teacher will guide the pupils through an engaging review of all major topics from the term.

- Part 1: Arabic Alphabet & Tanwin (Quick Fire Game):
  - The teacher holds up flashcards with Arabic letters in different positions (beginning, middle, end). Pupils shout out the letter name and its position.
  - The teacher writes Tanwin symbols on the board. Pupils say the sound (an, in, un) and give an example word.
- Part 2: Surah Review (Story & Meaning):
  - Surah Al-Kawthar: Discuss: What was the Prophet feeling? What did Allah give him? What is the river like? What should we do to be thankful?
  - Surah Al-Ma'un: Discuss: What does "Ma'un" mean? Who is a hypocrite according to this Surah? How should we treat orphans and the poor? Why is praying on time and with focus so important?
- Part 3: Practical Application:
  - Scenario Questions: "If you see a new student who is alone (like an orphan in need of friendship), what should you do?"
  - "If you pray Dhuhr but you're really just thinking about your lunch, what is wrong?"

EVALUATION

- Oral Recitation Test: Each pupil will recite one of the two Surahs (Al-Kawthar or Al-Ma'un) from memory.
- Written Quiz: Short, simple questions on:
  - Drawing the symbol for Tanwin Fath.
  - Writing one right of an orphan.
  - Naming the shortest Surah in the Qur'an.
  - Explaining what "Riya" means in one sentence.

ASSIGNMENT

- Study Guide: Create a simple revision poster. Divide a page into two sections.
  - On one side, draw the River Al-Kawthar and write the key lesson: "Be Thankful to Allah."
  - On the other side, draw a hand sharing food and write the key lesson: "Be Sincere and Kind."
  - Practice: Spend 15 minutes each day until the exam reviewing your notes and reciting the two Surahs.
  - Prepare: Get a good night's sleep before the examination. Come to school ready to do your best, Insha'Allah.

PRIMARY 3 ISLAMIC STUDIES LESSON NOTES

SECOND TERM

---

WEEK 1: SURATUL-QURAYSH I.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Identify Suratul-Quraysh as the 106th chapter of the Qur'an.
- State the meaning of "Quraysh".
- Narrate the simple historical background of the Quraysh tribe.
- Recite and memorize verses 1 and 2 of Suratul-Quraysh.

CONTENT

Introduction to Surah Al-Quraysh: This is a special Surah about gratitude.

- It is Surah number 106 in the Holy Qur'an.
- It is very short, with only 4 verses.
- It was revealed in Makkah to remind people of a great blessing.

Meaning of "Quraysh": "Quraysh" was the name of the most powerful and important tribe in the city of Makkah over 1400 years ago.

- Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) was born into this tribe.
- The Quraysh were famous as traders, merchants, and the guardians of the Ka'bah.
- Because they took care of Allah's House (the Ka'bah), people respected them and trusted them in business.

Historical Background: The Blessed Journeys: Allah gave the Quraysh tribe a very special blessing: peace and safety. In those days, traveling was dangerous. Thieves and enemy tribes could attack caravans. But because the Quraysh were the keepers of the Ka'bah, other tribes agreed not to attack them. This safety allowed them to travel far for business and become rich. They had two major trading trips every year:

- Winter Journey: They traveled south to a land called Yemen. The weather there was warm.
- Summer Journey: They traveled north to a land called Syria (Ash-Sham). The weather there was cooler.
- They would load their camels with goods from Makkah (like leather and dates), trade them in Yemen and Syria for other goods (like spices, cloth, and wheat), and bring them back to sell in Makkah.

Recitation and Memorization (Verses 1-2): Now, let's learn what Allah says about this blessing.

- Verse 1 (Arabic): لَايْلَفِ قُرَيْشٍ
- Word-by-Word:
  - لَايْلَفِ (Li-eelaafi) = For the accustomed security/peace
  - قُرَيْشٍ (Quraysh) = of the Quraysh
- Full Meaning: "For the accustomed security of the Quraysh."

- Explanation: Allah is saying, “Think about it! I gave the Quraysh this habit of living in safety and peace.”
- Verse 2 (Arabic): اَلْفِهِمْ رِحْلَةَ الشِّتَاءِ وَالصَّيْفِ
- Word-by-Word:
  - اَلْفِهِمْ (Eelaafihim) = Their accustomed security
  - رِحْلَةَ (Rihlata) = [during] the journey/caravan
  - اَلشِّتَاءِ (Ash-shitaa) = of the winter
  - وَ (Wa) = and
  - اَلصَّيْفِ (As-sayf) = the summer
- Full Meaning: “Their accustomed security [in] the caravan of winter and summer.”
- Explanation: Allah specifies the blessing: “I kept them safe especially during those long, dangerous winter and summer trading trips.”

EVALUATION

1. What is the chapter number of Surah Al-Quraysh?
2. Who were the Quraysh? What was their most important job in Makkah?
3. The Prophet Muhammad (SAW) was a member of which tribe?
4. Why were the Quraysh able to travel safely for trade when others couldn't?
5. Recite the first Arabic verse of Surah Al-Quraysh.

ASSIGNMENT

- (Written): Write down in your notebook: “Surah Al-Quraysh has 4 verses. It reminds us that safety and peace are great blessings from Allah.”
- (Oral Practice): Recite verses 1 and 2 to a family member. Explain to them that the “winter and summer journey” refers to the trade travels of the Quraysh.

- (Drawing): Draw a caravan of camels carrying goods. Label it “The Trade Journeys of Quraysh.”

WEEK 2: SURATUL-QURAYSH II.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Recite the complete Surah Al-Quraysh (Verses 1-4) with correct Tajweed.
- State the meaning of verses 3 and 4.
- Explain why we should be grateful to Allah.
- Mention two blessings Allah gave the Quraysh (Food and Safety).

CONTENT

Complete Memorization: The Call to Worship (Verses 3-4): Last week, Allah reminded the Quraysh of His blessings. Now, what should they do in return?

- Verse 3 (Arabic): فَلْيَعْبُدُوا رَبَّ هَذَا الْبَيْتِ
- Word-by-Word:
  - فَلْيَعْبُدُوا (Falya'budoo) = So let them worship
  - رَبَّ (Rabba) = the Lord
  - هَذَا (Haazaa) = of this
  - الْبَيْتِ (Al-bayt) = House (the Ka'bah)
- Full Meaning: “So let them worship the Lord of this House.”
- Explanation: This is the lesson! Because Allah gave them safety through His House (the Ka'bah), they should worship only Him, the true Lord of that House, not the idols they kept inside it.
- Verse 4 (Arabic): الَّذِي أَطْعَمَهُمْ مِنْ جُوعٍ وَعَآمَنَهُمْ مِنْ خَوْفٍ
- Word-by-Word:
  - الَّذِي (Allazee) = The One Who
  - أَطْعَمَهُمْ (At'amahum) = fed them

- مِّنْ جُوعٍ (min joo'in) = from hunger
- وَ (wa) = and
- ءَامَنَهُمْ (aamanahum) = made them secure
- مِّنْ خَوْفٍ (min khawf) = from fear
- Full Meaning: “Who has fed them against hunger and made them secure from fear.”
- Explanation: Here, Allah lists two of the greatest blessings anyone can have: 1. Food (no hunger) and 2. Safety (no fear). He is the One who provided both.

The Logic of the Surah: Allah’s message is very clear and logical:

- I gave you a great blessing (safety for your trade).
- That blessing came because of My House (the Ka’bah).
- Therefore, worship Me alone, the true Lord of that House.
- I am the One who gives you the most basic blessings (food and safety), so I deserve your thanks and worship most of all.

Tajweed Focus:

- وَالصَّيْفِ (As-sayf): Pronounce the ص (Saad) with emphasis—it has a thick, deep sound.
- مِّنْ خَوْفٍ (min khawf): Pronounce the خ (Khaa) from the very top of your throat, like a gentle snore.

Lessons for Us Today: This Surah isn’t just about the Quraysh 1400 years ago. It is about us.

- Gratitude: Do we thank Allah for our food? For the safety we feel in our homes and school? We should say “Alhamdulillah” every day.
- Worship the Provider: Since Allah gives us everything, our prayers, our fasts, our good deeds should all be for Him alone.

EVALUATION

1. Recite the full Surah Al-Quraysh (all 4 verses) from memory.
2. According to verse 3, who should the Quraysh (and we) worship, and why?
3. What “House” is mentioned in the Surah?
4. What are the two great blessings mentioned in verse 4?
5. If you have food to eat today and a safe home to sleep in, who should you thank?

ASSIGNMENT

- (Memorization & Writing): Perfect your memorization of the entire Surah. Also, write the translation of verse 4 in your neatest handwriting.
- (Gratitude List): Make a simple list titled “My Blessings from Allah.” List three things you are thankful for related to food and three related to safety/peace.
- (Discussion): Ask your parents: “Can you tell me about a time you felt especially grateful to Allah for safety or for having enough food?” Share their story with the class if you can.

WEEK 3: BELIEF IN ANGELS I.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Define Angels (Malaikah).
- State what substance Angels are created from.
- List three characteristics of Angels.
- Explain the difference between Angels and Humans.

CONTENT

What are Angels (Mala'ikah)? Angels are very special creatures of Allah. We cannot see them with our eyes, but we must believe in them because Allah and His Prophet (SAW) told us about them. Belief in Angels is the Second Pillar of Iman (Faith).

Creation of Angels: Allah created different beings from different things:

- Angels: Created from Light (Nur). Imagine the pure, bright light of a star or a clean ray of sunshine.
- Jinn: Created from smokeless fire (like the heat from a flame).
- Humans: Created from clay, earth, or dust.
- This shows Allah's perfect power—He can create from anything He wills!

Characteristics of Angels (What Makes Them Special): Angels are not like humans or jinn. They have special qualities:

- Perfect Obedience: They always obey Allah immediately. They never get tired, never complain, and never say "I won't do it." They love to obey.
- No Free Will for Disobedience: They cannot choose to sin or disobey Allah. It is not in their nature. They are always pure.
- No Physical Needs: They do not eat, drink, sleep, or get married. They are always busy with their duties, full of energy from Allah.

- They Can Change Form: By Allah's permission, they can sometimes appear in a form we can see. For example, Angel Jibril sometimes came to the Prophet (SAW) looking like a very handsome man.
- Wings: Many angels have wings—some have two, three, four, or even hundreds of wings to fly swiftly and do Allah's commands across the heavens and earth.

Key Differences: Angels vs. Humans

- Choice: Humans have free will. We can choose to obey or disobey Allah. Angels do not have this choice for disobedience.
- Needs: Humans need food, water, sleep. Angels do not.
- Creation: Humans from clay, Angels from light.
- Duties: Allah gave humans the duty to be His khalifah (caretakers) on earth. He gave angels specific tasks in the universe.

Why Believe in Angels? Believing in unseen angels strengthens our faith. It reminds us that a whole world of obedient servants exists, and that we are constantly being recorded and protected by them. It makes us want to be more like them in obedience.

EVALUATION

1. What is the Arabic word for Angels, and what are they created from?
2. Can an Angel ever decide not to do what Allah commands?
3. Do Angels feel hungry like we do?
4. What is the Second Pillar of Iman?
5. Name one major difference between how humans and angels are created.

ASSIGNMENT

- (Written): Write the following sentence in your notebook and memorize it: “Belief in the Angels is the second pillar of Iman. They are created from light and always obey Allah.”
  - (Drawing & Symbolism): Draw a large, bright sun or a shining lamp. Around it, write: “Angels are created from LIGHT like this. They are pure and obedient.”
  - (Reflection): Think about it: Angels obey Allah perfectly. What is one thing Allah has commanded you to do (like praying or being honest) that you can try to do more obediently, like the angels?

WEEK 4: BELIEF IN ANGELS II.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- List the names of four major Angels.
- State the specific duty of Angel Jibril, Mikail, Israfil, and Izrail.
- Identify the Angels who record our deeds (Kiraman Katibin).
- Mention the Angel in charge of Hell (Malik).

CONTENT

Major Angels and Their Important Duties: Allah has assigned different jobs to different angels. Knowing them helps us understand how Allah manages His creation.

1. Angel Jibril (Gabriel – عليه السلام):
  - Title: The Leader of the Angels. He is the most noble.
  - Duty: He is in charge of bringing Revelation (Wahy). He brought down all the Divine Books, including the Torah, Gospel, and the Qur'an to the prophets. He brought the Qur'an to Prophet Muhammad (SAW) in the Cave of Hira.
  - Memory Aid: Think of him as Allah's Chief Messenger.
2. Angel Mikail (Michael – عليه السلام):
  - Duty: He is in charge of rain, plants, and sustenance (rizq). He commands the clouds, the wind, and helps crops grow. Every drop of rain and every grain of wheat is under his care by Allah's command.
  - Memory Aid: Think of him as the Manager of Food and Water for all creatures on earth.
3. Angel Israfil (عليه السلام):
  - Duty: He is holding the Trumpet (As-Soor). On the Day of Judgment, by Allah's command, he will blow into it two times. The first blow will end all life in the universe. The second blow will bring everyone back to life for judgment.
  - Memory Aid: Think of him as the Angel of the Resurrection.
4. Angel Izrail (عليه السلام) – Also called Malak-ul-Maut:

- Title: The Angel of Death.
- Duty: He is responsible for taking the souls (ruh) of every living creature when it is time for them to die.
- Important Note: He only does this by Allah's order. We should not fear him but fear Allah who gives the command.

The Four Archangels

Other Important Angels in Our Lives:

- Kiraman Katibin (The Noble Recorders): These are the two angels on our shoulders from the time we become responsible (age of puberty).
- The angel on the right shoulder writes down all our good deeds and good thoughts.
- The angel on the left shoulder writes down all our bad deeds and bad thoughts.
- Nothing is missed! This should encourage us to do good.
- Angel Malik: He is the guardian of Hellfire (Jahannam). He never smiles and is stern in carrying out Allah's command in Hell.

- Angel Ridwan: He is the guardian of Paradise (Jannah). He welcomes the believers with joy.

Why Knowing This Matters: Knowing about these angels:

- Increases our awe of Allah's perfect system.
- Reminds us that our deeds are being recorded—so we should be careful!
- Teaches us that everything in nature (rain, growth, death) happens by Allah's command through these angels.

EVALUATION

1. Which angel brought the Qur'an to Prophet Muhammad (SAW)?
2. If we see rain falling, which angel is carrying out Allah's command for that?
3. What will Angel Israfil do on the Day of Judgment?
4. Who are the two angels sitting on our shoulders, and what do they do?
5. What is the duty of Angel Izrail?

ASSIGNMENT

- (Matching Task): Draw a line to connect the Angel with his correct duty:
- Jibril ----- In charge of rain and plants
- Mikail ----- Will blow the Trumpet
- Israfil ----- Brings Revelation
- Izrail ----- Takes the soul at death
- (Pupils should correct the false pairs to match correctly).
- (Written): Write down the names of the two recording angels and what they record.
- (Awareness Activity): For one day, be extra aware that angels are recording you. Before you do or say something, think: "Would I be happy for the angel on my right to write this down?" Share your experience with the class.

WEEK 5: MIDTERM EXAMINATION.

CONTENT Assessment on Weeks 1-4.

EVALUATION Written Test.

ASSIGNMENT Review corrections.

---

WEEK 6: MIDTERM BREAK.

---

WEEK 7: JINN AND SHAYTAN I.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Define Jinn.
- State what Jinn are created from.
- Differentiate between believing and disbelieving Jinn.
- Narrate the story of Iblis refusing to bow to Adam.

CONTENT

What are Jinn? Jinn are another creation of Allah that we cannot see. They live on earth, just like we do, but in their own world. The word “Jinn” comes from an Arabic root meaning “to hide” or “to be concealed.” Belief in their existence is part of our faith.

Creation of Jinn: Allah tells us in the Qur’an:

- Humans were created from clay.
- Angels were created from light.
- Jinn were created from a smokeless flame of fire (Surah Ar-Rahman 55:15). Imagine the intense heat and energy of a fire, but without the smoke.

Types of Jinn: Believers and Disbelievers: Just like humans, Jinn have free will. This means they can choose.

- Muslim Jinn: Some Jinn heard the Qur’an, believed in Allah and Prophet Muhammad (SAW), and became good Muslims. They worship Allah and do good deeds.
- Disbelieving (Kafir) Jinn: Some Jinn choose to disobey Allah.
- The leader of these evil Jinn is called Iblis (or Shaytan – Satan).
- His followers are also called Shayateen (devils).

The Story of Pride: Iblis and Prophet Adam (AS): This is a very important story that teaches us about the danger of pride.

- The Command: After creating the first human, Prophet Adam (AS), Allah commanded the Angels and Iblis (who was a Jinn worshipping with the angels) to bow down (prostrate) to Adam as a sign of respect for this new, honored creation.
- The Obedience of Angels: The angels obeyed immediately. They said, “We hear and we obey.”
- The Disobedience of Iblis: Iblis refused. He was filled with pride and jealousy.
- The Reason: When Allah asked him why he disobeyed, Iblis said: “I am better than him. You created me from fire, and You created him from clay.” (Surah Al-A’raf 7:12).
- The Consequence: Because of his pride and direct disobedience, Allah cursed Iblis and expelled him from His mercy. Iblis then became Shaytan, the open enemy of humans.

Lessons from the Story:

- Pride (Kibr) is a terrible sin. It made Iblis disobey Allah directly.
- Obey Allah immediately without question, like the angels.
- We are all equal before Allah. Our worth is not in what we are made of (clay/fire), but in our taqwa (piety and good deeds).

EVALUATION

1. What are Jinn created from?
2. Do all Jinn disobey Allah? Explain.
3. Who was commanded to bow to Prophet Adam (AS)?
4. Why did Iblis refuse to bow down?
5. What happened to Iblis after he disobeyed?

ASSIGNMENT

- (Written): Write down the key lesson from Iblis's story: "Pride leads to disobedience. I must always be humble and obey Allah."
- (Drawing): Draw a flame to represent the creation of Jinn. Next to it, draw a lump of clay to represent humans. Write "Different creations, same test."
- (Oral Storytelling): Tell the story of Iblis and Adam to a younger sibling or a friend. Explain why pride was wrong.

WEEK 8: JINN AND SHAYTAN II.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Explain how Shaytan tries to mislead people.
- List three ways to protect ourselves from Shaytan.
- Recite the Arabic phrase for seeking protection (Ta'awwudh).
- State the meaning of "Ta'awwudh".

CONTENT

How Shaytan Misleads People (His Mission): After being cursed, Shaytan became angry and made a promise to Allah: "Because You have put me in error, I will surely sit in wait for them (humans) on Your straight path. Then I will come to them from before them and from behind them and on their right and on their left..." (Surah Al-A'raf 7:16-17). His only goal is to make humans disobey Allah so they join him in Hellfire. He does this through:

- Whispering (Waswasah): He puts bad thoughts, doubts, and evil suggestions into our hearts and minds. For example, whispering "Don't pray now, you're too tired" or "Go ahead and take that toy, no one will see."
- Making Sin Look Beautiful: He tricks us into thinking a bad deed is fun, cool, or harmless. He makes lying seem like a quick solution and makes disobedience look attractive.
- Using Anger: He often attacks when we are angry, making us say hurtful things or fight.
- Making Us Delay Good Deeds: Whispering "You can pray later," "You can give charity tomorrow."

Our Strong Shields: Protection from Shaytan: Allah is the Most Powerful. He has given us simple but very strong weapons to protect ourselves:

1. Seeking Refuge (Saying Ta'awwudh): This is our number one shield. Whenever you feel a bad thought, are scared, or are about to do something important (like read Qur'an), say:
  - أَعُوذُ بِاللَّهِ مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ الرَّجِيمِ

- (A'udhu billahi minash-shaytanir-rajim)
  - Meaning: "I seek refuge with Allah from Shaytan, the accursed."
  - It's like calling for Allah's security guard to chase the thief (Shaytan) away.
2. Saying Bismillah: Saying "Bismillah" (In the name of Allah) before eating, drinking, entering your home, or starting any good deed acts as a lock that prevents Shaytan from joining or spoiling that action.
  3. Reciting Qur'an: The words of the Qur'an are light that drives away Shaytan's darkness. Reciting Surah Al-Falaq and Surah An-Nas (the last two Surahs) is especially powerful for protection.
  4. Performing Salah: Prayer is a direct connection to Allah. It purifies our hearts and strengthens us against evil whispers.
  5. Remembering Allah (Dhikr): Saying "SubhanAllah," "Alhamdulillah," "Allahu Akbar" often keeps our hearts tied to Allah and leaves no space for Shaytan.

EVALUATION

1. What is Shaytan's main goal for humans?
2. What is "Waswasah"?

3. Recite the full Ta'awwudh in Arabic. What does it mean?
4. When should we say "Bismillah" to keep Shaytan away?
5. Which two Surahs are like "medicine" for protection from Shaytan?

ASSIGNMENT

- (Memorization & Meaning): Perfect your memorization of the Ta'awwudh. Write it in your notebook with its English meaning.
  - (Practical Application): Tonight, before you go to sleep, say the Ta'awwudh and recite Surah Al-Ikhlās, Al-Falaq, and An-Nas. Blow lightly into your hands and wipe them over yourself (as the Prophet taught). Do this for three nights.
  - (Awareness): For one day, try to catch yourself when a bad thought comes. Immediately say "A'udhu billah" in your mind. Write down one time you did this.

WEEK 9: THINGS THAT SPOIL SALAT I.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- State the importance of praying correctly.
- Define “Mubtilatus-Salat” (Things that spoil prayer).
- List four actions that spoil Salat (Talking, Eating, Drinking, Laughing).
- Explain why turning away from the Qiblah spoils Salat.

CONTENT

The Importance of a Valid Prayer (Salah): Salah is the most important act of worship after the Shahadah. It is our daily meeting with Allah. For this meeting to be accepted, we must do it correctly, following the way Prophet Muhammad (SAW) taught us. If we make certain mistakes, our Salah becomes invalid (batil) or spoiled, meaning it doesn’t count and we have to do it again.

What are “Mubtilat-us-Salat”? These are actions that break or nullify the prayer. They are like pressing the “cancel” button on your Salah. We must avoid them completely while praying.

Common Things That Spoil Salah:

1. Intentionally Talking: Saying any words that are not part of the Salah breaks it. This includes:
  - Greeting someone (“Assalamu alaikum”).
  - Answering a question (“Yes” or “No”).
  - Warning someone (“Watch out!”).
  - What if you say “SubhanAllah” by mistake? That is a remembrance of Allah, so it does not break the prayer, but try to avoid even that.
2. Eating or Drinking: Swallowing anything, even a tiny piece of food, a sip of water, or chewing gum, spoils the prayer.
  - What if a fly goes in your mouth? If you swallow it without meaning to, it does not break your Salah. Allah knows our intention.

3. Laughing Out Loud: If you laugh so much that people around you can hear the sound, your prayer is broken.
  - Smiling does not break it, but it's best to be serious and focused.
4. Intentionally Turning Away from the Qiblah: The Qiblah is the direction of the Ka'bah in Makkah. Our chest must face it during Salah.
  - If you intentionally turn your whole chest away from the Qiblah (like turning to look at the door), your Salah is broken.
  - If you turn a little by mistake or to avoid something, it is okay. Just correct yourself.

The Reason Behind These Rules: These rules are not to make prayer hard, but to teach us:

- Respect and Concentration: Salah is a sacred time with Allah. We should give it our full attention, not be distracted by food, talk, or jokes.
- Unity and Discipline: Facing one direction (Qiblah) unites all Muslims worldwide in worship and shows our submission to one God.

EVALUATION

1. What happens to your Salah if you intentionally say “Hello” to your friend during prayer?

2. Can you chew a sweet while praying Dhuhr?
3. What is the difference between laughing and smiling in Salah?
4. What is the Qiblah, and why must we face it?
5. If you accidentally burp during prayer, does it spoil your Salah? (No, it's not an intentional action).

ASSIGNMENT

- (Drawing): Draw a person praying correctly. Around the drawing, write the four things they are NOT doing (Not Talking, Not Eating, etc.).
- (Written Promise): Write a promise in your notebook: “During my Salah, I will try my best not to talk, eat, or laugh. I will focus on Allah.”
- (Practical): At home, stand and face the Qiblah direction. Practice turning your head to the right for Salam without moving your chest. Ask an adult to check if you're doing it correctly.

WEEK 10: THINGS THAT SPOIL SALAT II.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- List three more things that spoil Salat (Breaking Wudu, Excessive movement, Omitting pillars).
- Explain what happens if Wudu breaks during prayer.
- State what to do if a Salat is spoiled.
- Differentiate between a mistake (Sajdah Sahw) and a spoiled prayer.

CONTENT

More Actions That Nullify Prayer: Let's learn about other serious things that can spoil our Salah.

1. Breaking Your Wudu: Salah is built on purity. If your Wudu breaks during prayer, your Salah breaks immediately. Things that break Wudu include:
  - Passing wind (even silently).
  - Going to the toilet (urinating or defecating).
  - Falling asleep deeply.
  - Bleeding heavily.
2. Excessive and Unnecessary Movement: We move in Salah for a reason (standing, bowing, prostrating). However, doing too many extra movements that have nothing to do with prayer spoils it. Examples:
  - Scratching once or twice is okay. Scratching continuously for no reason is excessive.
  - Playing with your clothes, beads, or hair.
  - Walking around for no valid reason. (If you need to move to save someone from danger, that is different).
3. Intentionally Adding or Skipping a Pillar (Rukn): The main parts of Salah are called pillars.
  - If you intentionally skip a pillar like Ruku (bowing) or Sujud (prostration), your prayer is invalid.

- If you add an extra Rak'ah intentionally, it is also spoiled.

What To Do If Your Salah Gets Spoiled: Don't panic! Just follow these steps:

1. Stop Praying Immediately. Don't continue as if nothing happened.
2. Figure Out Why: Did your Wudu break? Did you talk?
3. Fix the Problem: If Wudu broke, go and make a new, complete Wudu.
4. Start the Prayer Again From the Beginning. You cannot just continue from where you stopped. You must do a brand new Salah.

Important Difference: Mistake vs. Spoiled Prayer

- Spoiled Prayer (Batil): Caused by the big things we learned (talking, eating, broken wudu).
- Solution: Repeat the entire prayer.
- Small Mistake (Sahw): Caused by forgetting something, like forgetting how many Rak'ahs you prayed or forgetting the first Tashahhud.
- Solution: Perform Sajdah Sahw (Prostration of Forgetfulness) at the end of your prayer. You do not repeat the whole Salah.

What to Do

EVALUATION

1. If you feel like you need to pass wind while praying, what should you do?
2. What is the first thing you must do if you realize your Salah is spoiled?
3. Does scratching an itchy nose one time spoil your prayer?
4. If you intentionally decide not to go into Sujud (prostration), is your prayer valid?
5. If you forget whether you prayed 3 or 4 Rak'ahs, do you repeat the whole prayer or do Sajdah Sahw?

ASSIGNMENT

- (Written List): Make a list titled “Things That Spoil My Salah.” List all 7 things learned over the two weeks.
  - (Scenario Practice): Read this scenario to your parents and ask what you should do: “Ahmed was praying Asr. In the second Rak'ah, his little brother made him laugh out loud. What should Ahmed do now?”
  - (True/False Quiz): Create 3 True/False questions about what spoils Salah. Exchange them with a friend and answer each other's questions.

WEEK 11: REVISION.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Recall key concepts from the entire term.
- Recite Suratul-Quraysh from memory.
- List the names of major Angels.
- Identify acts that spoil Salat.

CONTENT

Comprehensive Review: The teacher will lead an interactive review session, dividing the term's work into clear themes.

- 1. Theme: Gratitude to Allah (Surah Al-Quraysh)
- Discussion: What were the two big blessings Allah gave the Quraysh? (Safety for travel, Food and security). What should they (and we) do in return? (Worship the Lord of the Ka'bah).
- Activity: "Blessing Charades." A pupil acts out a blessing (e.g., eating, sleeping safely), others guess it and say "Alhamdulillah."
- 2. Theme: Unseen Creatures – Angels & Jinn
- Comparison Chart: The teacher draws a table on the board. Pupils come up to fill in: Creation of Angels (Light), Jinn (Fire), Humans (Clay). Their ability to choose (Angels: no, Jinn/Humans: yes).
- Angel Duty Match-Up: The teacher says a duty (e.g., "Brings Revelation"), pupils shout the angel's name (Jibril!).
- 3. Theme: The Enemy – Shaytan
- Story Recap: Briefly retell the story of Iblis's pride.

- Protection Shields: The teacher shouts a situation (“Before eating!”), pupils shout the protection (“Bismillah!”).
- 4. Theme: Perfecting Our Worship (Salah)
- Act It Out / Freeze Game: The teacher describes an action during prayer (e.g., “You are talking to your friend”). Pupils must freeze and say if it SPOILS the prayer or is JUST A MISTAKE.

EVALUATION

- Oral Recitation: Each pupil recites Surah Al-Quraysh.
- Quick Quiz:
  - Name the angel in charge of rain.
  - What do you say to seek protection from Shaytan?
  - If you drink water during Salah, what should you do next?
- Practical Spotting: The teacher performs an action (e.g., turns body away from Qiblah). Pupils raise green card if it’s okay, red card if it spoils Salah.

ASSIGNMENT

- Create a Revision Poster: On a sheet of paper, make four sections:
  1. Surah Al-Quraysh (draw a camel & food).
  2. Angels (draw a light beam & a cloud).
  3. Shaytan (draw a flame with a “No” sign).
  4. Salah (draw a person praying correctly). Write one key point in each section.
- Teach Someone: Explain to a family member one thing you learned this term about how to make your prayer better.
- Prepare for Exams: Gather all your notes and worksheets. Spend 20 minutes each day reviewing them quietly.

THIRD TERM

---

WEEK 1: TAYAMMUM I.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Define Tayammum as dry ablution.
- State three conditions when Tayammum is allowed.
- Explain the importance of Tayammum as an alternative to Wudu.
- Mention the evidence of Tayammum in the Qur'an.

CONTENT

Meaning of Tayammum: Tayammum is known as “dry ablution.”

- It is a special, clean way to make ourselves pure for prayer when we cannot use water for Wudu (regular ablution) or Ghusl (full bath).
- Instead of water, we use clean earth, dust, sand, or stone.
- Allah has given us this easy way to worship Him no matter where we are!

When Can We Perform Tayammum? (The Conditions): We cannot do Tayammum just because we feel like it. Allah has allowed it only in specific situations where using water is difficult or harmful:

- No Water Available: This is the main reason. If you have searched for water but cannot find any within a reasonable distance and time, you can do Tayammum.
- Example: You are on a journey in a remote area, and your water bottle is empty.
- Sickness or Injury: If using water will make your sickness worse, delay healing, or cause you harm, you can do Tayammum.
- Example: You have a wound on your hand, and the doctor said you must not get it wet.

- Extreme Cold: If the water is so freezing cold that using it for Wudu would likely make you very sick, and you have no safe way to warm it, you may do Tayammum.
- Example: You are in a very cold place with only icy water, and you have no heater.
- Danger in Getting Water: If water is available, but reaching it is dangerous.
- Example: The only water is in a well with a dangerous animal nearby, or you would have to cross a very busy road to fetch it.

The Importance and Wisdom of Tayammum: Tayammum shows us two beautiful things about Islam:

- The Importance of Prayer: Salah is so crucial that we must never miss it. Even if there's no water, Allah provides a way for us to be pure and pray on time. Prayer cannot be delayed for long.
- Allah's Mercy and Makes Things Easy: Islam is not a religion of hardship. Allah does not want to burden us. Tayammum is a clear sign that Allah understands our situations and makes worship easy for us.

Evidence from the Qur'an: Allah tells us about Tayammum in the Holy Qur'an, Surah An-Nisa (4:43): "...But if you are ill or on a journey or one of you comes from the place of relieving himself or you have contacted women [i.e., been intimate] and do not find water, then seek clean earth and wipe over your faces and your hands [with it]..." This verse is our proof that Tayammum is a direct command from Allah.

Both lead to purity for Salah.

EVALUATION

1. What is the simple meaning of Tayammum?
2. What do we use to perform Tayammum instead of water?
3. If you are at home and there is water in the tap, but you are just feeling lazy, can you do Tayammum for your Asr prayer? Why?
4. Give two real situations where performing Tayammum would be correct and allowed.
5. Why is Tayammum a sign of Allah's mercy?

ASSIGNMENT

- (Written Definition): In your notebook, write: "Tayammum is dry ablution. We use clean earth when we cannot use water for Wudu."
- (Observation & Discussion): At home, look for something that is clean and dry like a plain wall, a clean stone, or dry soil. Point it out to your parents and say, "This could be used for Tayammum if there was no water."

- (True or False): Write True or False for this statement: “Tayammum means we don’t have to pray if there’s no water.”

WEEK 2: TAYAMMUM II.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- List the materials used for Tayammum.
- Demonstrate how to perform Tayammum step by step.
- State the intention (Niyyah) for Tayammum.
- Differentiate between Wudu and Tayammum.

CONTENT

Materials for Tayammum: For Tayammum to be valid, we must use something from the earth that is pure (taahir) and dry. This includes:

- Clean, dry sand (like at the beach).
- Clean, dry dust (on a clean surface).
- A clean, dry stone or rock.
- Clean, dry soil or clay. It cannot be something dirty, dusty with filth, or something man-made like cement powder or flour.

Step-by-Step Guide to Performing Tayammum: Let's learn how to do it properly, just like the Prophet (SAW) taught us.

1. Step 1: Make the Intention (Niyyah): In your heart, intend that you are performing Tayammum to become pure for Salah. You can say "Bismillah" (In the name of Allah) to begin.
2. Step 2: Strike the Earth (First Time): Gently place the palms of both hands on the clean earth, sand, or stone. Lightly press down. If there is loose dust, you may gently blow on your palms to remove any excess.
3. Step 3: Wipe the Face: With your dusty palms, wipe your entire face once. Pass your hands from the top of your forehead down to your chin, and from one ear to the other, just like in Wudu.
4. Step 4: Strike the Earth (Second Time): Place your palms on the clean earth again for a second time.

5. Step 5: Wipe the Hands and Arms: Wipe your right hand with the palm of your left hand, from the fingertips all the way up to (and including) the elbow. Then, wipe your left hand with the palm of your right hand, from the fingertips up to the elbow. Some scholars say wiping up to the wrist is enough for Tayammum, but wiping to the elbow is a more complete practice.

Key Differences: Wudu vs. Tayammum

| Feature                       | Wudu (with Water)                           | Tayammum (with Earth)                                                                                                       |
|-------------------------------|---------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| What is used?          | Clean Water                                 | Clean Earth/Sand/Stone                                                                                                      |
| What is washed/wiped?  | Washes face, arms, wipes head, washes feet. | Wipes face and arms only.                                                                                                   |
| When is it done?       | For minor impurity, anytime.                | Only when water is unavailable, harmful, or dangerous to use.                                                               |
| How long does it last? | Lasts until something breaks it.            | Lasts for one obligatory prayer only . You must repeat Tayammum for the next prayer if water is still not available. |

Practical Demonstration: The teacher will perform Tayammum step-by-step using a clean board or a tray of clean sand. Pupils will then practice the motions in the air or on their desks.

EVALUATION

1. What is the very first thing you must do in your heart before starting Tayammum?
2. How many times do you strike the earth during Tayammum?
3. When wiping your arms in Tayammum, how far up do you wipe? (To the wrist or to the elbow?)
4. Show the motion of wiping your face for Tayammum.
5. If you perform Tayammum for Dhuhr prayer, can you use the same Tayammum to pray Asr later if there's still no water? (No, you must do a new Tayammum).

ASSIGNMENT

- (Practical Demonstration): At home, use a clean, unpainted wall or a large book to practice the motions of Tayammum (without actually making it dusty). Go through all 5 steps slowly and correctly.
- (Written Steps): In your notebook, write the five steps of Tayammum in the correct order using your own words.

- (Drawing): Draw two simple pictures side-by-side: one showing a person washing their face with water (Wudu), and another showing a person wiping their face with dusty hands (Tayammum).

WEEK 3: PROPHET MUHAMMAD’S CALL TO PROPHETHOOD I.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Describe the life of Prophet Muhammad (S.A.W) before prophethood.
- Explain why he was called “Al-Amin”.
- State where the Prophet used to go for meditation.
- Identify the Angel who visited him.

CONTENT

Life in Makkah Before Prophethood: Long ago, before Prophet Muhammad (SAW) received revelation, the city of Makkah was very different. Most people there worshipped idols—statues made of stone and wood that they believed were gods. They did many bad things: they fought tribes for years, buried baby girls alive because they wanted sons, cheated in business, and were often unjust.

The Exceptional Young Man: Muhammad (SAW): Even as a young boy and man growing up in this environment, Muhammad (SAW) was different. He never joined in the bad habits. He never bowed to an idol, not even once. People noticed he was always honest, kind, and thoughtful.

Al-Amin: The Trustworthy One: As he grew older, his honesty became legendary.

- People called him “Al-Amin,” which means “The Trustworthy” or “The Honest One.”
- They would leave their valuable belongings with him for safekeeping, knowing he would never steal or break his promise.
- If two tribes had a dispute, they would ask Muhammad (SAW) to judge between them because they trusted his fairness.
- This title was a great honor and showed his perfect character even before he became a Prophet.

The Search for Truth: Retreat to Cave Hira: Despite his good life, Muhammad (SAW) felt troubled by the ignorance and injustice around him. He wondered about the purpose of life and the true Creator.

- To get away from the noise and think deeply, he would often go to a cave named Cave Hira on a mountain called Jabal an-Nur (Mountain of Light).
- He would take some simple food and water and spend many days and nights there alone.
- He would think, meditate, and worship the One God, Allah, in the way of Prophet Ibrahim (AS), whose teachings were almost forgotten. This shows he was preparing his heart for the great message to come.

The First Encounter: Then, during the month of Ramadan when he was 40 years old, while he was in deep thought in Cave Hira, something miraculous happened. A mighty being appeared before him. It was Angel Jibril (Gabriel), the greatest of angels. This visit marked the beginning of his prophethood and changed the world forever.

EVALUATION

1. What were two bad things the people of Makkah used to do before Islam?
2. What special title did the people of Makkah give to Muhammad (SAW), and what does it mean?
3. Why did Muhammad (SAW) go to Cave Hira? What was he doing there?
4. What is the name of the mountain where Cave Hira is located?
5. Who visited Muhammad (SAW) in the cave to bring Allah's first message?

ASSIGNMENT

- (Written): Write down the meaning of "Al-Amin" and explain one reason why Muhammad (SAW) deserved this name.
- (Research/Discussion): Ask your parents or teacher: "What are some qualities of a trustworthy person?" List three qualities.
- (Drawing): Draw a simple mountain with a cave opening. Label it "Jabal an-Nur – Cave Hira."

WEEK 4: PROPHET MUHAMMAD’S CALL TO PROPHETHOOD II.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Narrate the story of the first revelation.
- Recite the first verse revealed (Surah Al-Alaq).
- Identify Khadijah’s role in supporting the Prophet.
- List the names of the first four Muslims.

CONTENT

The Moment of Revelation: In the stillness of Cave Hira, Angel Jibril appeared to Muhammad (SAW) and commanded him: “Iqra!” which means “Read!” or “Recite!”

- The Prophet, who could not read or write, replied honestly, “Ma ana biqari,” meaning “I am not a reader.”
- Angel Jibril embraced him tightly and repeated the command three times.
- After the third time, the Angel recited the first words of the Qur’an:
- “. عَلَّمَ الْإِنْسَانَ مَا لَمْ يَعْلَمْ. الَّذِي عَلَّمَ بِالْقَلَمِ. أَقْرَأْ وَرَبُّكَ الْأَكْرَمُ. خَلَقَ الْإِنْسَانَ مِنْ عَلَقٍ. أَقْرَأْ بِأَسْمِ رَبِّكَ الَّذِي خَلَقَ.”
- (Surah Al-’Alaq 96:1-5)
- Meaning: “Read in the name of your Lord who created. Created man from a clinging clot. Read, and your Lord is the most Generous. Who taught by the pen. Taught man that which he knew not.”
- These powerful verses were the first light of the Qur’an, emphasizing knowledge, creation, and the generosity of Allah.

Fear and the First Comforter: The experience was overwhelming. The Prophet (SAW) was trembling with awe and fear. He hurried home to his wife, Khadijah (RA), and said, “Zamillooni, Zamillooni!” (“Cover me! Cover me!”).

- Khadijah, a wise and noble woman, did not doubt him. She covered him with a cloak and comforted him. She said words of great support: “Never! By Allah, Allah will never disgrace you. You keep good relations with your relatives, you help the poor and the needy, you are honest in trade, and you are trustworthy.” She was the first person to believe in his prophethood.

The First Muslims (The Early Believers): After Khadijah, Islam began to spread quietly among the closest and most trusted people:

- Khadijah bint Khuwaylid (RA): The first woman and first person overall to believe. She was the Prophet’s wife and his greatest supporter.
- Ali ibn Abi Talib (RA): The first child to accept Islam. He was the Prophet’s young cousin who lived with him.
- Abu Bakr as-Siddiq (RA): The first free adult man to believe. He was the Prophet’s best friend and immediately believed without any doubt. “As-Siddiq” means “The Truthful.”
- Zaid ibn Harithah (RA): The first freed slave to become Muslim. He was like a son to the Prophet.

The Beginning of a Secret Mission: For the first three years, the Prophet (SAW) preached Islam secretly. He taught these first believers in the privacy of homes. This was to build a strong core of believers before facing the great challenges from the idol-worshippers of Makkah.

EVALUATION

1. What was the first word commanded by Angel Jibril to the Prophet (SAW)?
2. Who did the Prophet (SAW) go to for comfort after the first revelation, and what did she say to him?
3. Who was the first person to believe that Muhammad (SAW) was a Prophet?
4. Who was the first child to accept Islam?
5. Why do you think Abu Bakr was given the title “As-Siddiq” (The Truthful)?

ASSIGNMENT

- (Memorization): Learn to recite the first five verses of Surah Al-’Alaq (96:1-5). Practice with a family member.
  - (Written List): Write down the names of the first four Muslims in your notebook and their special title (e.g., First Woman, First Child).
  - (Reflection): Khadijah comforted the Prophet with his good character. Think of one good quality you have (like being helpful or honest). Write it down as a blessing from Allah.

WEEK 5: MIDTERM EXAMINATION.

CONTENT Assessment on Weeks 1-4.

EVALUATION Written Test.

ASSIGNMENT Review corrections.

---

WEEK 6: MIDTERM BREAK.

---

WEEK 7: SIGNIFICANCE OF PROPHET MUHAMMAD I.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Identify Prophet Muhammad (S.A.W) as the last Messenger of Allah.
- Describe his role as a teacher and guide.
- List four qualities of his excellent character.
- Give an example of his kindness.

CONTENT

The Final Messenger: Prophet Muhammad (SAW) is not just another prophet.

- He is “Khatam an-Nabiyyin” – the Seal of the Prophets.
- This means he is the last and final prophet sent by Allah.
- No prophet will come after him until the Day of Judgment.
- He brought Allah’s final and complete message for all of humanity: The Holy Qur’an.

Our Teacher and Guide (The Practical Example): Allah sent the Qur’an as a book of guidance. He sent Muhammad (SAW) as the living example of how to follow that guidance. Without him, we might read the Qur’an but not know exactly how to pray, how to fast, how to be honest in business, or how to treat our families. He is our ultimate teacher and guide to Paradise.

The Perfect Character: Allah Himself praised the Prophet’s character in the Qur’an (68:4): “And indeed, you are of a great moral character.” Let’s look at some of these beautiful qualities:

- Extreme Truthfulness (As-Sidq): Even before Islam, he was known as “Al-Amin.” He never told a lie, big or small, in his entire life.
- Unshakeable Patience (As-Sabr): When people of Makkah insulted him, threw stones at him, and called him names, he did not fight back with anger. He prayed for their guidance.
- Limitless Forgiveness (Al-’Afw): When he later conquered Makkah victoriously, he had the power to punish those who hurt him for 13 years. Instead, he declared a general pardon: “Go, you are free.” This forgiveness made many accept Islam.

- Deep Compassion and Kindness (Ar-Rahmah): He was kind to everyone: children, the elderly, animals, and even his enemies.

Example of His Kindness: There was an old woman in Makkah who hated the Prophet (SAW). Every day, she would throw garbage on him when he passed by her house. One day, she did not appear. The Prophet (SAW) was concerned. He went to her house to check on her and found she was sick. He did not scold her; instead, he kindly asked about her health and offered help. She was so amazed by his kindness that her heart softened, and she eventually accepted Islam.

Why This Matters to Us: We love the Prophet (SAW) more than we love ourselves, our parents, and everything else. Our love for him is shown by following his Sunnah (his way) and trying our best to copy his good manners in our own lives. When we are honest, patient, and kind, we are following him.

EVALUATION

1. What does “the Seal of the Prophets” mean?

2. Mention two roles of Prophet Muhammad (SAW) for Muslims.
3. How did the Prophet (SAW) treat the people of Makkah when he conquered the city?
4. What did the Prophet (SAW) do when he found out the woman who threw rubbish was sick?
5. How can we show our love for Prophet Muhammad (SAW) in our daily lives?

ASSIGNMENT

- (Written): Write the following in your best handwriting: “Prophet Muhammad (SAW) is the last Messenger of Allah. He is our perfect example.”
- (Drawing): Draw a heart. Inside it, write or draw symbols for three good qualities of the Prophet (SAW) that you want to have.
- (Action): Today, practice one act of kindness that the Prophet (SAW) would do. It could be helping someone, telling the truth, or sharing. Write down what you did.

WEEK 8: SIGNIFICANCE OF PROPHET MUHAMMAD II.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Describe the Prophet's love for children and family.
- Explain how he treated neighbors and strangers.
- Define "Sunnah" as the practice of the Prophet.
- Explain his humility.

CONTENT

Love for Children: The Prophet (SAW) loved children dearly and showed us how to treat them. He would greet children, play with them, and carry them.

- He let his grandsons, Hassan and Hussain (RA), climb on his back while he was praying in prostration, and he would prolong his prostration so they could play.
- He kissed children and said, "He who does not show mercy will not be shown mercy."

Respect and Helpfulness Within the Family: The Prophet (SAW) was the best to his family.

- He helped with household chores. He would mend his own clothes, milk the goat, and sweep the floor.
- He said, "The best of you are those who are best to their families."
- He treated his wives with the utmost respect, kindness, and fairness.

Treatment of Neighbors and Strangers: The Prophet (SAW) placed great importance on the rights of neighbors, whether they were Muslim or not.

- He said, "He is not a believer whose stomach is filled while his neighbor goes hungry beside him."
- He taught that a good neighbor shares food, offers help, and does not cause harm or disturbance.
- He was generous and respectful to strangers and guests, making them feel welcome and safe.

The Height of Humility: Despite being the leader of the Muslim community and the Messenger of Allah, the Prophet (SAW) was incredibly humble.

- He sat on the floor or a simple mat, not on a throne.
- He ate simple food, often dates and bread, and sat with the poor to eat.
- He wore simple, mended clothes.
- If a slave or a poor person invited him, he would accept.
- He said, “Indeed, Allah has revealed to me that you must be humble so that no one oppresses another or boasts over another.”

Following His Sunnah: The way of the Prophet (SAW) is called the Sunnah.

- It includes everything he said, did, and approved of.
- Following his Sunnah is a sign of our love for him and is a way to please Allah.
- Examples of Sunnah Acts: Smiling, using the right hand for eating and drinking, saying “Bismillah” before starting anything, being clean, visiting the sick, etc.

Love for children

Helping at home

Good to neighbors

Humility in food

His Sunnah

The Prophet's lifestyle

EVALUATION

1. How did the Prophet (SAW) show his love for his grandsons during prayer?
2. What is one thing the Prophet (SAW) did to help at home?
3. What is the “Sunnah”?
4. Give one example of a Sunnah act you can practice at school.
5. What did the Prophet (SAW) teach us about how to treat our neighbors?

ASSIGNMENT

- (Observation & Practice): At home today, do one chore to help your family without being asked (like the Prophet helped at home). Write down what you did.
- (Sunnah Tracker): For one day, try to practice three Sunnah acts: 1. Smile at people. 2. Eat with your right hand. 3. Say “Bismillah” before eating. Check them off at the end of the day.
- (Drawing): Draw a picture showing an act of kindness towards a neighbor (e.g., sharing food, saying Salam).

WEEK 9: HUMAN RELATIONS IN ISLAM I.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- State the importance of good relationships in Islam.
- List three rights of parents.
- List three rights of children.
- Explain the importance of maintaining ties with relatives.

CONTENT

Islam is About Good Character and Relationships: Islam is not just about praying and fasting in a corner. A big part of our faith is how we treat other people. The Prophet (SAW) said, “The best among you are those who have the best manners and character.” Good relationships are a sign of strong faith.

The Rights of Parents (A Major Duty): In Islam, parents have a status second only to Allah in terms of the rights we owe them. Being good to parents is one of the most beloved deeds to Allah.

- Obedience and Respect: We must obey them in everything that does not involve disobeying Allah. We must never say “Uff” (even a word of irritation) to them.
- Kind Speech and Humility: We should speak to them gently, listen to them, and lower our wing of humility to them (be kind and submissive).
- Care and Support: Especially when they grow old, we must take care of them, provide for them if they need it, and never consider them a burden.
- The Prophet (SAW) said, “Paradise lies at the feet of your mother.” (This shows the immense status of mothers).

The Rights of Children: Just as children have duties, they also have rights from their parents and society:

- The Right to Life and Care: Parents must provide good food, clean clothes, and a safe home.

- The Right to a Good Education: This includes both Islamic education (teaching them about Allah, Qur'an, Salah) and worldly education (school) so they can be successful in this life and the next.
- The Right to Love and Fair Treatment: Children should be treated with mercy, kindness, and fairness. The Prophet (SAW) kissed children and played with them, setting the perfect example.

The Rights of Relatives (Silat-ur-Rahim): Relatives include our grandparents, uncles, aunts, and cousins. Islam commands us to “keep the ties of kinship.”

- This means visiting them, helping them if they are in need, calling to check on them, and being there for them in good and bad times.
- Why is it important? It spreads love, strengthens the community, and brings Allah's blessings. Cutting off family ties is a major sin.

EVALUATION

1. According to a famous Hadith, where is Paradise located for a child?
2. What are two ways you can show respect to your parents?
3. What are two important things parents must provide for their children?
4. Who are considered our “relatives”?
5. Is it a good Islamic practice to stop talking to your uncle because of a small argument?
What should you do instead?

ASSIGNMENT

- (Practical Appreciation): Do something special for your parents today. It could be making them a simple card, bringing them a glass of water, or just giving them a big hug and saying “Jazakallahu Khairan” (May Allah reward you).
- (Written List): Make two lists in your notebook: “My Duties to My Parents” (3 items) and “My Parents’ Duties to Me” (3 items).
- (Connection): Call or visit a relative (like a grandparent, aunt, or uncle) this week with your parents. Greet them with Salam and ask how they are.

WEEK 10: MUTUAL COOPERATION IN ISLAM.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Explain the meaning of mutual cooperation.
- Recite the meaning of Surah Al-Ma'idah 5:2 regarding help.
- List ways to help neighbors and the needy.
- Define "Ummah".

CONTENT

The Meaning of Cooperation (Ta'awun): Cooperation means working together to do good things and to make things better for everyone. Islam teaches us that Muslims are like one body; if one part is in pain, the whole body feels it. We should help each other in good times and bad.

The Qur'anic Command: Allah says in the Qur'an (Surah Al-Ma'idah 5:2): "وَتَعَاوَنُوا عَلَى الْبِرِّ ... وَلَا تَعَاوَنُوا عَلَى الْإِثْمِ وَالْعُدْوَانِ ...وَالْتَّقَوْىَ" "...And cooperate in righteousness and piety, but do not cooperate in sin and aggression..." This is our clear rule:

- Cooperate in Al-Birr (Righteousness): Help each other in acts of worship, in studying, in building a mosque or school, in feeding the hungry, in cleaning the community.
- Do NOT cooperate in Al-Ithm (Sin): Never help someone to lie, cheat, steal, bully, or do anything that disobeys Allah.

Practical Ways to Cooperate:

- Helping Neighbors: Share food, help them carry heavy things, visit them when they are sick, keep noise down so as not to disturb them.
- Helping the Needy and Poor: Give charity (Sadaqah), share your old clothes and toys that are in good condition, volunteer to help at a community event.
- Helping at School: Cooperate with classmates on group projects, help a friend who doesn't understand a lesson, keep the classroom clean.
- Helping at Home: Work together with siblings and parents to do chores, making the home run smoothly.

The Muslim Ummah: One Big Family: All Muslims around the world are part of one brotherhood and sisterhood. This global family is called the Ummah. When Muslims are suffering in a faraway country (from war, hunger, or disaster), we should feel their pain, make Du'a for them, and help by giving charity if we can. The Prophet (SAW) said, “The believer to another believer is like a building whose different parts support each other.”

A Perfect Example: The Ansar and Muhajirun: When the early Muslims were being persecuted in Makkah, they migrated to Madinah.

- The Muslims of Madinah, called the Ansar (Helpers), opened their hearts and homes.
- They shared their wealth, food, and even their houses with the migrants from Makkah, called the Muhajirun.
- This is the greatest example of cooperation in Islamic history.

EVALUATION

1. According to the Qur'an, what two things should we cooperate in?
2. Should you help your friend cheat on a test? Why or why not, based on the verse?
3. What is the name of the global family of all Muslims?
4. Give two examples of how you can cooperate with your neighbors.

5. Who were the “Ansar” and what did they do?

ASSIGNMENT

- (Memorization & Understanding): Write down the translation of Surah Al-Ma'idah 5:2. Underline the part about cooperating in goodness.
  - (Action Plan): With your parents' permission, choose one small act of cooperation you can do this week (e.g., help a neighbor take out their trash, team up with a sibling to clean a room). Do it and write a sentence about how it felt.
  - (Poster): Create a small poster with the title “Let's Cooperate!” Draw pictures or write words showing Muslims helping each other in different ways (at home, school, mosque).

WEEK 11: REVISION.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Recall key concepts from the entire term and year.
- Answer questions on Tayammum, Prophethood, Character, and Human Relations.

CONTENT

Comprehensive and Interactive Review: The teacher will conduct a fun and engaging recap session, dividing the term's work into major themes.

- 1. Theme: Worship Made Easy (Tayammum)
- Quick Quiz: When can you do Tayammum? (No water, Sick, Extreme cold, Danger).
- Action Game: "Simon Says" for Tayammum steps. "Simon says strike the earth... Simon says wipe your face..."
- 2. Theme: The Coming of the Prophet (Prophethood)
- Story Chain: The teacher starts the story of the first revelation. Each pupil adds one sentence to continue the story correctly.
- Who's Who?: The teacher gives a clue ("First woman to believe"), pupils shout the name ("Khadijah!").
- 3. Theme: The Perfect Example (Character & Sunnah)
- Quality Match: The teacher holds up a card with a quality (e.g., "Forgiving"). Pupils must give an example from the Prophet's life (e.g., "When he forgave the people of Makkah").
- Sunnah Spotter: The teacher lists actions. Pupils stand up if it's a Sunnah (e.g., eating with right hand), sit down if it's not (e.g., being rude).
- 4. Theme: Building a Happy Society (Relations & Cooperation)

- Role Play: In pairs, pupils act out a scenario showing one of: respecting parents, helping a neighbor, or cooperating on a school project.
- Ummah Awareness: The teacher shows a picture of Muslims in another country.
Discussion: “As part of the Ummah, what can we do? (Make Du’a, give charity).”

EVALUATION

- Oral Quick-Fire Round: Short questions covering all topics. E.g., “What is Tayammum?” “Name one of the first Muslims.” “What does ‘Al-Amin’ mean?”
- Written Mind Map: Pupils are given a central word (e.g., “Prophet Muhammad SAW”) and have 5 minutes to write or draw all related words/ideas they remember around it.
- Practical Check: Pupils demonstrate the first two steps of Tayammum.

ASSIGNMENT

- Create Your Own Revision Guide: Take a sheet of paper and fold it into four. In each section, summarize one of the four main themes of the term with a drawing and three key words.
  - Teach Back: Explain one thing you learned this term (e.g., how to do Tayammum or the story of the first revelation) to a younger sibling or a friend.
  - Final Preparation: Review all your notes, posters, and assignments. Make a list of any questions you are unsure about and ask your teacher before the examination.
