

JSS 3 ISLAMIC RELIGIOUS STUDIES (IRS) LESSON NOTES
FIRST TERM

WEEK 1: REVIEW OF JSS2 SURAHS

Content: A'la (Q87), Ghashiyah (Q88), Fajr (Q89) — revision and recitation.

Performance Objectives: By the end of this lesson, students should be able to:

1. Recite Suratul A'la, Ghashiyah, and Fajr from memory.
2. Recall the central themes and major lessons of each Surah.
3. Identify and correct common pronunciation errors (Tajwid) in these Surahs.

Lesson Content:

1. Introduction to the Review This lesson revisits the three key Surahs from JSS2. The purpose is not just to recite, but to reconnect with their profound meanings and ensure the rules of Tajwid learned (like Qalqalah, Idgham, and Ikhfa) are being applied correctly.

2. Suratul A'la (The Most High) - Q87

- Central Theme: The absolute power, perfection, and glory of Allah (SWT). It emphasizes Allah as the Creator, the sustainer, and the one who perfectly proportions all things.
- Key Lessons:
 - The command to glorify Allah ("Sabbihisma rabbikal A'la").
 - Allah's perfect creation: He creates, proportions, sets destinies, and provides guidance.
 - The role of the Prophet (SAW) as a reminder ("Fadhakkir...") and Allah's promise to make the Qur'an easy for him to memorize ("Sanuqri'uka fala tansa...").
 - The two categories of people: those who accept the reminder and fear Allah, and the wretched who avoid it and enter the great Fire.
 - The success that comes from purifying the soul (Tazkiyah) through faith and remembrance of Allah.
- Common Tajwid Focus:
 - Qalqalah on "qri" (سُقْرُكَ).
 - Idgham in "rabbika-l-A'la" (رَبِّكَ الْأَعْلَى).
 - Clear pronunciation of all attributes of Allah.

3. Suratul Ghashiyah (The Overwhelming Event) - Q88

- Central Theme: A powerful and vivid contrast between the Day of Judgment, the terrible punishment for the disbelievers, and the blissful reward for the believers.
- Key Lessons:
 - The reality of the Day of Judgment ("Al-Ghashiyah").

- The People of Hellfire: Their faces will be downcast, they will be weary, and their only food will be Dari (a bitter, thorny plant), and their drink will be from a boiling spring.
- The People of Paradise: Their faces will be joyful, they will be in a lofty garden, hearing no ill speech, with flowing springs, raised couches, and goblets set out.
- A Call to Reflection: Allah directs mankind to look at the signs of His power in creation: the camels (how they are created), the sky (how it is raised), the mountains (how they are set firm), and the earth (how it is spread out).
- The mission of the Prophet (SAW) is to remind, not to compel ("...lasta 'alayhim bi-musaytir"). Allah is the final judge.
- Common Tajwid Focus:
 - Ghunnah (nasalization) on "Aamila-tun-nasibah" (عَامِلَةٌ نَّاصِبَةٌ).
 - Ikhfa on "min 'aynin" (مِنْ عَيْنٍ).
 - Qalqalah on "ijab" (إِجَاب) in the final verses (if stopping).

4. Suratul Fajr (The Dawn) - Q89

- Central Theme: The consequence of arrogance, ingratitude, and the oppression of the poor, contrasting it with the destiny of the righteous, tranquil soul.
- Key Lessons:
 - Allah swears by powerful symbols: the Dawn, the Ten Nights (of Dhul-Hijjah), the Even and the Odd, and the departing Night.
 - Historical Examples: Allah reminds us of His power by citing the destruction of arrogant civilizations:
 - The people of 'Ad (who built mighty pillars).
 - The people of Thamud (who carved the rocks).
 - Pharaoh (Fir'awn, the man of the stakes).
 - All were destroyed for their transgression and for spreading corruption.
 - The Nature of Man: Man is ungrateful. When Allah tests him with wealth, he becomes proud. When tested with poverty, he despairs and says, "My Lord has humiliated me."

- The Real Test: The real failure is not poverty, but the actions that come from a hard heart: not honouring the orphan, not feeding the poor, and greedily devouring inheritance.
- The Day of Judgment: The terror of the Day when the earth is crushed and Hell is brought near. Man will remember, but it will be too late.
- The Tranquil Soul: The Surah ends with a beautiful call to the righteous soul: "O tranquil soul! Return to your Lord, well-pleased and pleasing. Enter among My servants, and enter My Paradise."
- Common Tajwid Focus:
 - Qalqalah on "Fajr" (الْفَجْر) and "Shaf'i wa-l-watr" (وَالشَّفْعِ وَالْوَتْرِ).
 - Ghunnah on "Jahannama" (جَهَنَّمَ).
 - Clear pronunciation of the historical names ('Ad, Thamud, Fir'awn).

Practical Activity:

- Students will be called in groups or individually to recite portions of each Surah.
- The teacher will correct pronunciation, focusing on the specific Tajwid rules (Qalqalah, Ghunnah, Idgham) that are prevalent in these chapters.

Evaluation:

1. What is the central theme of Suratul A'la?
2. Suratul Ghashiyah describes four signs of Allah's power in creation. Name two of them.
3. Suratul Fajr mentions three arrogant civilizations that were destroyed. Who were they?
4. Recite the final five verses of Suratul Fajr (from "Ya ayyatuha-n-nafsul...").
5. What is the meaning of "Ghunnah"?

Assignment:

1. Practice the recitation of all three Surahs (A'la, Ghashiyah, Fajr) at home, focusing on smooth flow and correct makharij (articulation points).
2. Write down five moral lessons you have learned from Suratul Fajr.

3. Read the translation of Suratul Ghashiyah and write a short paragraph describing the rewards of the people of Paradise.

WEEK 2: QUR'ANIC RECITATION: SURATUL BALAD (Q90:1–20)

Content: (I) Recitation and translation (II) Lessons on moral courage.

Performance Objectives: By the end of this lesson, students should be able to:

1. Recite Suratul Balad correctly with Tajwid.
2. Memorize the Surah.
3. Translate the meaning of the Surah.
4. Explain the theme of the Surah (the difficult path of righteousness).
5. Extract moral lessons on courage, charity, and helping the needy.

Lesson Content:

1. Suratul Balad (Q90: 1-20)

- Arabic Text (Selected Verses): (1) بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ لَا أُقْسِمُ بِهَذَا الْبَلَدِ (2) وَأَنْتَ حَلٌّ بِهَذَا الْبَلَدِ ... (3) فَكَرَقَبَةٍ (12) وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا الْعَقَبَةُ (11) فَلَا اقْتَحَمَ الْعَقَبَةَ ... (4) لَقَدْ خَلَقْنَا الْإِنْسَانَ فِي كَبَدٍ (16) أَوْ مُسْكِينًا دَا مُتْرَبَةٍ (15) يَتِيمًا دَا مُقْرَبَةٍ (14) مُسْغَبَةٍ
- Translation (English):
 1. I swear by this city (Makkah);
 2. And you, [O Muhammad], are free in this city.
 3. And by the begetter (Adam) and what he begot (his offspring).
 4. Verily, We have created man in toil and struggle (Kabad).
 5. Does he think that none can overcome him? ...
 6. But he has not broken through the difficult path ('Aqabah).
 7. And what will make you know what that difficult path is?
 8. (It is) freeing a slave,
 9. Or feeding on a day of severe hunger (Masghabah),
 10. An orphan of near relationship,
 11. Or a poor person in extreme poverty (Matrabah).
 12. Then he became one of those who believed and advised one another to patience and advised one another to mercy.
 13. Those are the companions of the right.
 14. But those who disbelieved in Our signs - they are the companions of the left.
 15. Upon them will be a Fire enclosed.

2. Explanation and Tafsir

- The Oaths (v. 1-3): Allah (SWT) swears by the city of Makkah, a place of sanctuary. He dignifies the Prophet (SAW) by mentioning his presence there ("wa anta hillun..."). He also swears by Adam (the begetter) and all his children (mankind).
- Man's Struggle (v. 4): The central statement is "Verily, We have created man in Kabad (toil, struggle)." This means human life is inherently one of hardship and striving. From birth to death, man must work hard.

- Man's Arrogance (v. 5-7): Man boasts about his wealth ("I have wasted wealth in abundance!"), thinking no one can hold him accountable. Allah reminds him that He sees all.
- Allah's Bounties (v. 8-10): Allah reminds man of His favours: "Have We not given him two eyes? And a tongue and two lips? And shown him the two highways (of good and evil)?"
- The Difficult Path - Al-'Aqabah (v. 11-16): This is the core of the Surah. Man, despite being given wealth and guidance, fails to take the difficult path of righteousness. Allah defines this path not as complex rituals, but as moral courage and social service:
 - Fakku raqabah: Freeing a slave (breaking the bonds of oppression).
 - It'amun...: Feeding the hungry, especially:
 - Yatiman dha maqrabah: An orphan who is also a relative.
 - Miskinan dha matrabah: A poor person "in the dust" (in extreme need).
- The People of the Right Hand (v. 17-18): The ones who do these difficult deeds and belong to the community of believers who advise each other to Sabr (patience) and Marhamah (mercy).
- The People of the Left Hand (v. 19-20): Those who reject these signs and fail the test. Theirs is the enclosed Fire.

3. Moral Lessons on Moral Courage

- Courage to Struggle: Life is meant to be a struggle ("Kabad"). We must have the courage to face challenges without despair.
- Courage Against Greed: The Surah condemns boasting about wealth. Moral courage is using wealth to help others, not to show off.
- Courage in Action (Al-'Aqabah): True righteousness is not easy. It is a "steep path." It takes real courage and effort to:
 - Stand up for the oppressed (freeing a slave).
 - Give up your wealth to feed the poor when you yourself might feel scarcity ("a day of severe hunger").
 - Take care of those closest to you (orphans of near relationship).

- Courage of Community: True faith is communal. It requires advising one another to be patient in hardship and to be merciful to creation.

Evaluation:

1. What is the meaning of "Al-Balad"?
2. What is the meaning of "Kabad" (verse 4)?
3. What is "Al-'Aqabah" (the difficult path)?
4. List the three main deeds that Allah describes as being part of "Al-'Aqabah."
5. Who are the "companions of the right"?

Assignment:

1. Practice reciting Suratul Balad until it is memorized.
2. Write down the translation of verses 11-16.
3. Explain in your own words why Allah calls the path of righteousness "the difficult path."
4. What does this Surah teach you about how you should treat orphans and the poor?
5. What is the difference between the "two highways" Allah mentions in verse 10?

WEEK 3: QUR'ANIC RECITATION: SURATUL SHAMS (Q91:1–15)

Content: (I) Explanation of meaning (II) Lessons on purity and righteousness.

Performance Objectives: By the end of this lesson, students should be able to:

1. Recite Suratul Shams correctly with Tajwid.
2. Translate the meaning of the Surah.
3. Explain the meaning of the great oaths at the beginning of the Surah.
4. Explain the central theme of Tazkiyah (purification of the soul).
5. Narrate the story of the Thamud and the she-camel as a warning.

Lesson Content:

1. Suratul Shams (Q91: 1-15)

- Arabic Text (Selected Verses): (1) بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ وَالشَّمْسُ وَضُحَاهَا (2) وَالْقَمَرُ إِذَا تَلَّهَا (3) وَالنَّهَارُ إِذَا جَلَّاهَا (4) وَاللَّيْلُ إِذَا يَغْشَاهَا (5) وَالسَّمَاءُ وَمَا بَنَاهَا (6) وَالْأَرْضُ وَمَا طَحَاهَا (7) وَنَفْسٍ وَمَا سَوَّاهَا (8) فَأَلْهَمَهَا فُجُورَهَا وَتَقْوَاهَا (9) قَدْ أَفْلَحَ مَنْ زَكَّاهَا (10) وَقَدْ خَابَ مَنْ دَسَّاهَا

- Translation (English):

1. By the sun and its brightness,
2. By the moon as it follows it,
3. By the day as it displays it (the sun's) glory,
4. By the night as it conceals it,
5. By the heaven and He who built it,
6. By the earth and He who spread it,
7. And by a soul (Nafs) and He who perfected it,
8. And inspired it [with conscience of] its wickedness (Fujur) and its righteousness (Taqwa)!
9. He has succeeded who purifies it (Zakkaha),
10. And he has failed who corrupts it (Dassaha).
11. The (people of) Thamud denied (their Prophet) through their transgression,
12. When the most wicked of them rose up.
13. And the Messenger of Allah (Salih) said to them, "(This is) the she-camel of Allah! Do not harm her or her drink."
14. But they denied him and hamstrung her. So their Lord destroyed them for their sin and leveled them,
15. And He fears not the consequence thereof.

2. Explanation and Tafsir

- The Great Oaths (v. 1-7): This Surah begins with one of the most magnificent series of oaths in the Qur'an. Allah (SWT) swears by the greatest cosmic signs—the sun, moon, day, night, heaven, and earth. He then swears by the greatest of His creations on earth: the human Nafs (soul).

- The Core Truth (v. 8-10): After all these oaths, Allah reveals the great truth He is swearing to. He perfected the soul and built into it an innate conscience—the ability to know the difference between its Fujur (wickedness, corruption) and its Taqwa (piety, righteousness).
 - The purpose of life is this: "He has succeeded who purifies it (Zakkaha)."
 - And the consequence of failure: "He has failed who corrupts it (Dassaha)."
- The Historical Warning (v. 11-15): To prove this point, Allah gives the example of the people of Thamud.
 - Their Messenger, Prophet Salih (AS), came to them.
 - Allah gave them a miracle: a she-camel, as a test. Salih (AS) warned them, "This is the she-camel of Allah. Let her drink and do not harm her."
 - Out of arrogance and transgression, they refused. The "most wicked" among them rose up and killed the camel.
 - Because they chose corruption (Dassaha), Allah destroyed them all ("So their Lord destroyed them... and leveled them").
 - The final verse, "And He fears not the consequence," shows Allah's absolute power. He is the sovereign King and does not need to justify His punishment of the wicked.

3. Lessons on Purity and Righteousness

- Tazkiyah (Purification): The main lesson is Tazkiyatun-Nafs (Purification of the Soul). Success is not wealth or power, but achieving a pure soul.
- Responsibility: Allah has given every human a conscience (an internal guide). We are responsible for our choices. We cannot blame others for our sins.
- How to Purify the Soul: We purify our souls by choosing Taqwa (righteousness, fear of Allah) over Fujur (wickedness). This means:
 - Obeying Allah's commands.
 - Worshipping Him (Salah, Sawm, etc.).
 - Having good character (honesty, kindness, humility).
 - Avoiding what He has forbidden (lying, cheating, arrogance).

- The Consequence of Corruption: The story of Thamud is a terrifying warning. When a whole society chooses to corrupt itself and transgresses against the signs of Allah, divine punishment is the result.

Evaluation:

1. The Surah begins with many oaths. Name four things Allah (SWT) swears by.
2. What are the two innate abilities Allah inspired into every soul (Nafs)?
3. What is the meaning of "He has succeeded who purifies it (Zakkaha)"?
4. Which people are mentioned as a warning in this Surah?
5. What was the miracle given to them, and what did they do to it?

Assignment:

1. Practice the recitation of Suratul Shams.
2. Write the translation of verses 7-10.
3. What does "Tazkiyah" (purification) mean to you? List three actions you can take to purify your soul.
4. What lesson do we learn from the story of the people of Thamud?
5. What is the difference between Taqwa and Fujur?

WEEK 4: QUR'ANIC RECITATION: SURATUL LAYL (Q92:1–21)

Content: (I) Memorization and understanding (II) Rewards of good deeds.

Performance Objectives: By the end of this lesson, students should be able to:

1. Recite and memorize Suratul Layl correctly.
2. Translate the meaning of the Surah.
3. Explain the contrast between the "two paths" presented in the Surah.
4. Describe the rewards for the one who gives and believes.
5. Describe the warning for the one who is stingy and disbelieves.

Lesson Content:

1. Suratul Layl (Q92: 1-21)

- Arabic Text (Selected Verses): وَمَا (2) وَالنَّهَارِ إِذَا تَجَلَّى (1) بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ وَاللَّيْلِ إِذَا يَغْشَى (3) خَلَقَ الذَّكَرَ وَالْأُنثَى (7) فَسَنُيَسِّرُهُ لِلْيُسْرَى (6) وَصَدَقَ بِالْحُسْنَى (5) فَأَمَّا مَنْ أَعْطَى وَاتَّقَى (4) إِنَّ سَعْيَكُمْ لَشَتَّى (3) خَلَقَ الذَّكَرَ وَالْأُنثَى (10) فَسَنُيَسِّرُهُ لِلْعُسْرَى (9) وَكَذَّبَ بِالْحُسْنَى (8) وَأَمَّا مَنْ بَخِلَ وَاسْتَغْنَى (10)
- Translation (English):
 1. By the night as it conceals,
 2. By the day as it appears bright,
 3. By Him Who created the male and the female,
 4. Indeed, your efforts are diverse.
 5. As for him who gives (in charity) and fears Allah (has Taqwa),
 6. And believes in the Best (reward, i.e., Jannah or La ilaha ill-Allah),
 7. We will make smooth for him the path of ease (Al-Yusra).
 8. But as for him who is stingy and thinks himself self-sufficient,
 9. And denies the Best (reward),
 10. We will make smooth for him the path of hardship (Al-'Usra).
 11. And his wealth will not profit him when he falls (into Hell). ...
 12. And soon he will be satisfied.

2. Explanation and Tafsir

- The Oaths (v. 1-3): Allah (SWT) swears by the contrast of night and day, and by His creation of male and female.
- The Core Truth (v. 4): The truth He swears to is "Inna sa'yakum la-shatta" — "Indeed, your efforts (striving) are diverse." This means people work for different, and opposing, goals.
- The First Path: The Righteous (v. 5-7): This section describes the first type of effort.
 1. Man 'a'ta wat-taqa: "He who gives (charity) and fears Allah."
 2. Wa saddaqa bil-husna: "And believes in the Best (Al-Husna)."

- The Reward (v. 7): "Fa-sanu-yassiruhu lil-Yusra" — "We will make smooth for him the path of ease (Al-Yusra)." Allah will make it easy for him to do good deeds, his life will have ease, and he will attain the ultimate ease (Paradise).
- The Second Path: The Wicked (v. 8-10): This describes the opposite effort.
 0. Man bakhila was-taghna: "He who is stingy and thinks himself self-sufficient" (he doesn't need Allah).
 1. Wa kadhaba bil-husna: "And denies the Best (Al-Husna)."
- The Consequence (v. 10): "Fa-sanu-yassiruhu lil-'Usra" — "We will make smooth for him the path of hardship (Al-'Usra)." Allah will make his path to Hell easy, and his life will be one of difficulty.
- The Futility of Wealth (v. 11): His hoarded wealth will be useless when he dies.
- Allah's Role (v. 12-13): Allah reminds us that "Indeed, upon Us is guidance." And to Him belongs the Hereafter and the (present) life.
- The Final Warning & Reward (v. 14-21): Allah warns of a blazing Fire, which none will enter except the most wicked. But the one with Taqwa, who gives his wealth to purify himself, will be saved. He does not give to get a reward from people, but "seeking the Countenance of his Lord, the Most High. And soon he will be satisfied." (This last part was famously revealed about Abu Bakr As-Siddiq (RA) when he freed Bilal (RA)).

3. Moral Lessons and Rewards of Good Deeds

- Actions, Not Words: Your "effort" (sa'i) is what defines you. Islam is a religion of action.
- The Key to Ease: The path to a life of ease (Al-Yusra) and Paradise is built on two things:
 1. Generosity: Giving to others ('a'ta).
 2. Taqwa: Fearing Allah and being mindful of Him.
- The Key to Hardship: The path to a life of hardship (Al-'Usra) and Hell is built on:
 1. Stinginess (Bakhila): Hoarding wealth and loving it.
 2. Arrogance (Istaghna): Feeling you are self-sufficient and don't need Allah.

- Sincerity: The greatest reward is for the one who gives only to seek the "Face of Allah" (v. 20), not to show off or get praise from people. This is the essence of Ikhlas (sincerity).

Evaluation:

1. What does "Inna sa'yakum la-shatta" (v. 4) mean?
2. What are the three characteristics of the righteous person mentioned in verses 5-6?
3. What is the reward for this righteous person? (What is "Al-Yusra"?)
4. What are the two characteristics of the wicked person mentioned in verses 8-9?
5. What is the consequence for this wicked person? (What is "Al-'Usra"?)

Assignment:

1. Practice reciting Suratul Layl until it is memorized.
2. Write the translation of verses 5-10.
3. According to the Surah, what is the correct motivation for giving charity?
4. Make two columns in your book. In one, list the "Path of Ease." In the other, list the "Path of Hardship," along with their causes.
5. What does this Surah teach you about the value of money?

WEEK 6: RULES OF GHUNNAH (NASAL SOUND)

Content: (I) Explanation, letters, and application (II) Practical recitation exercises.

Performance Objectives: By the end of this lesson, students should be able to:

1. Define Ghunnah.
2. Identify the two letters of Ghunnah (ن and م).
3. Identify the most obligatory form of Ghunnah (when م or ن have a Shaddah: نّ / مّ).
4. Demonstrate the correct duration (2 beats) of Ghunnah in recitation.
5. Apply Ghunnah correctly while reciting the Qur'an.

Lesson Content:

1. What is Ghunnah (غُنَّة)?

- Definition: Ghunnah is a nasal sound that is an inherent quality of two letters: Meem (م) and Noon (ن).
- It is the sound that comes from the nasal passage (the "khayshum").
- In Tajwid, Ghunnah specifically refers to the prolongation of this nasal sound for a specific duration.

2. The Letters of Ghunnah:

- Meem (م)
- Noon (ن)

3. Levels of Ghunnah (Focus on the Strongest) Ghunnah has different levels of strength, but the most important and most obligatory (Wajib) form is when the Meem or Noon has a Shaddah (التشديد).

- Rule: When you see م̣ (Meem Mushaddadah) or ن̣ (Noon Mushaddadah) in the Qur'an, you must apply a prolonged Ghunnah.
- Duration: The sound must be held for approximately 2 beats (or the time it takes to say "one-two").

4. Examples of Obligatory Ghunnah (ن̣/م̣):

- Examples with ن̣ (Noon Mushaddadah):
 - اِنَّ (Innna) - You must hold the 'n' sound: "In...na"
 - النَّاس (An-nnaas)
 - جَنَّة (Jannnatin)
 - جَهَنَّمَ (Jahannnnama) - from Suratul Balad & Fajr
 - From Suratul Layl: "inna 'alayna..." (اِنَّ عَلَيْنَا)
- Examples with م̣ (Meem Mushaddadah):
 - ثُمَّ (Thummma) - You must hold the 'm' sound: "Thum...ma"
 - عَمَّ ('Ammma)

- مُحَمَّدٌ (Muhammmad)
- فَأَمَّا (Fa-ammma) - from Suratul Layl
- أُمَّهُمْ (Ummmuhum)

5. Other Forms of Ghunnah (Brief Introduction): Ghunnah is also applied in other rules you have learned, such as:

- Idgham: (e.g., مَنْ يَقُولُ becomes "May-yaqool") - The Ghunnah is on the 'y'.
- Ikhfa: (e.g., مِنْ قَبْلُ) - The 'n' sound is nasalized and hidden.
- Iqlab: (e.g., مِنْ بَعْدُ becomes "Mim-ba'di") - The Ghunnah is on the 'm'.

However, the مَ and نَ are the clearest and most fundamental forms of Ghunnah to master.

6. Practical Recitation Exercises:

- Students will practice the following phrases, focusing only on holding the Ghunnah for 2 beats:
 - إِنَّ الَّذِينَ (In...na-lladheena)
 - فَأَمَّا مَنْ أَعْطَى (Fa-am...ma man 'a'ta)
 - وَأَمَّا مَنْ بَخِلَ (Wa-am...ma man bakhila)
 - مِنْ جَنَّةٍ (Min Jan...natin)
 - ثُمَّ رَدَدْنَاهُ (Thum...ma radadnaahu)
 - عَمَّ يَتَسَاءَلُونَ ('Am...ma yatasaa-aloon)

Evaluation:

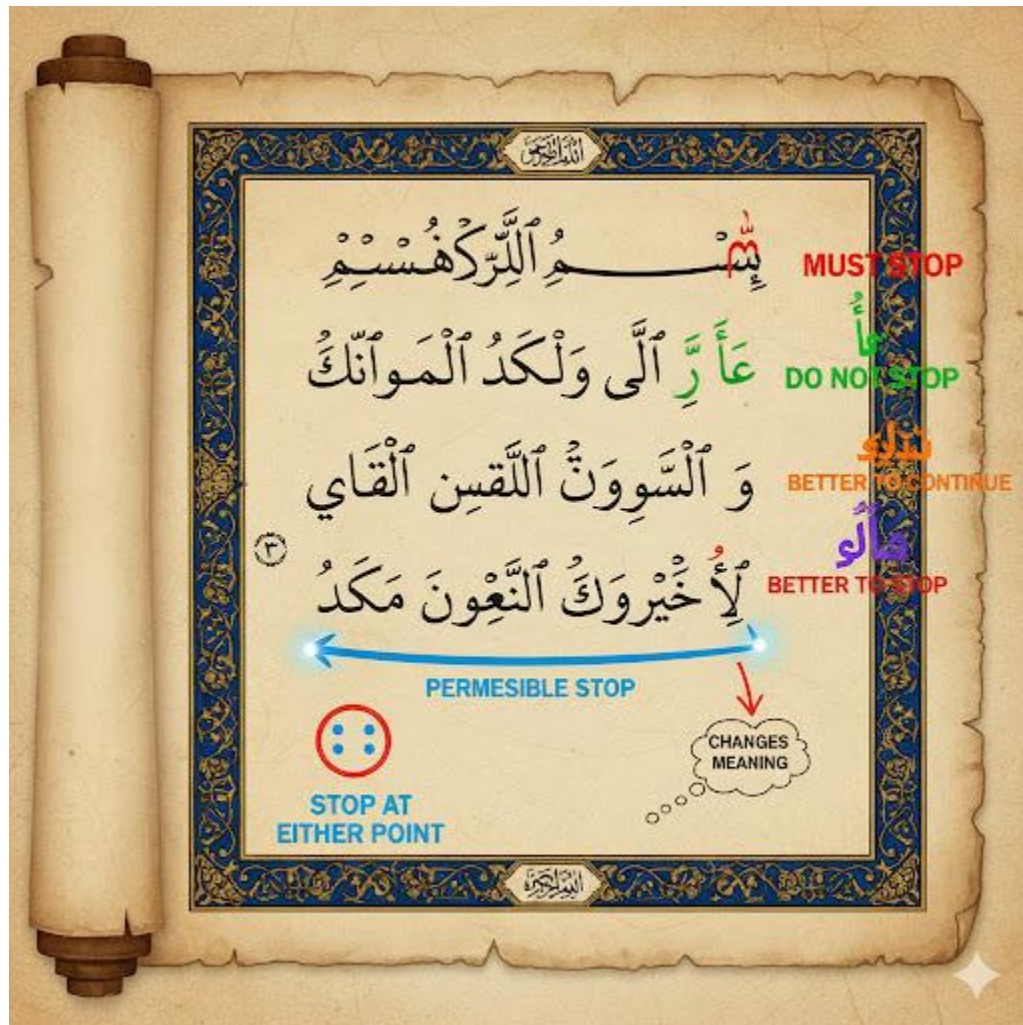

1. What is Ghunnah?
2. Which two letters are the letters of Ghunnah?
3. What is the most obligatory (Wajib) form of Ghunnah?
4. What is the correct duration (in beats) for holding the Ghunnah on مَ or نَ ?
5. Recite the word إِنَّ (Inna) with its correct Ghunnah.

Assignment:

1. Define Ghunnah and list its two letters.
2. Go through Suratul Balad, Shams, and Layl.
3. Find and write down three words that contain ڱ (Noon Mushaddadah).
4. Find and write down two words that contain ڻ (Meem Mushaddadah).
5. Practice reciting these five words aloud, holding the Ghunnah for two beats.

WEEK 8: RULES OF WAQF (STOPPING SIGNS)

Content: Understanding symbols and pauses in recitation.

Performance Objectives: By the end of this lesson, students should be able to:

1. Define Waqf and its importance.
2. Identify at least five different Waqf (stopping) signs in the Qur'an.
3. Explain the meaning of each sign (e.g., stop, do not stop, better to stop).
4. Apply the rules of Waqf during practical recitation.

Lesson Content:

1. What is Waqf (الْوَقْف)?

- Definition: Waqf is the act of pausing or stopping at the end of a word while reciting the Qur'an, and then continuing the recitation (after taking a breath, if needed).
- Importance:
 1. To preserve the meaning: Stopping in the wrong place can completely change the meaning of a verse.
 2. To breathe: The Qur'an is recited, and one must stop to breathe. Waqf signs guide us on the correct places to do so.
 3. To follow the Sunnah: The Prophet (SAW) used to pause at the end of verses.

2. The Stopping Signs (Alamatul Waqf) These small symbols are placed above the word where a pause is being considered.

- م (Waqf Laazim - The Compulsory Stop):
 - Looks like a small م .
 - Meaning: This is a compulsory stop. You MUST stop here. Continuing would badly corrupt the meaning.
 - Example: (Q 2:20) ... إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ مَّ الَّذِي ... (You must stop at "qadeer").
- لا (Waqf Mamnu' - The Prohibited Stop):
 - Looks like لا .
 - Meaning: Do NOT stop here. Stopping here would cut off a thought and make the meaning incomplete or wrong. If you stop by accident (e.g., out of breath), you must go back and repeat from an appropriate word.
 - Example: (Q 91:13) فَكَانَ لَهُمْ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ نَاقَةَ اللَّهِ وَسُقْيَاهَا لَا (You should not stop here).
- ج (Waqf Ja'iz - The Permissible Stop):
 - Looks like ج .
 - Meaning: Permissible. Stopping is allowed, and continuing is also allowed. Both are equally fine.
- صلی (Al-Waslu Awla - Continuing is Better):
 - Looks like صلی .

- Meaning: You can stop, but it is better to continue to the next stop, as the meaning is more complete.
- قلی (Al-Waqfu Awla - Stopping is Better):
 - Looks like قلی .
 - Meaning: You can continue, but it is better to stop here, as the sentence is complete.
- ∴ ∴ (Mu'anaqah - The "Embrace" Stop):
 - Looks like two sets of three dots.
 - Meaning: These dots appear in two places close together. You must stop at ONE of them, but not both.
 - Example: (Q 2:2) ذَٰلِكَ الْكِتَابُ لَا رَيْبَ فِيهِ هُدًى لِّلْمُتَّقِينَ
 - You can say: "Dhalika-l-kitabu la rayb" (STOP) "fihi hudan lil-muttaqeen."
 - OR: "Dhalika-l-kitabu la rayba feeh" (STOP) "hudan lil-muttaqeen."
 - You cannot say: "Dhalika-l-kitabu la rayb feeh" and continue.

Evaluation:

1. What is the purpose of Waqf (stopping signs)?
2. What does the sign م (meem) mean?
3. What does the sign لا (laa) mean?
4. You see the sign قلی . Is it better to stop or to continue?
5. You see the sign قلی . Is it better to stop or to continue?

Assignment:

1. Define Waqf and explain why it is important.
2. Draw the symbols for: Compulsory Stop, Prohibited Stop, Permissible Stop.
3. Open a Qur'an to Suratul Balad (Q90).
4. Scan the Surah and write down any Waqf signs you find (e.g., "I found قلی at the end of verse 5").
5. What do the "three dots" (∴ ∴) mean?

WEEK 9: PRACTICAL TAJWID EXERCISES

Content: Group recitation and corrections.

Performance Objectives: By the end of this lesson, students should be able to:

1. Recite Surahs Balad, Shams, and Layl aloud.
2. Correctly apply the rules of Ghunnah (ّ/ ّ) during recitation.
3. Correctly apply the rules of Waqf (stopping) at the appropriate signs.
4. Correctly apply the JSS2 rules of Qalqalah and Idgham.
5. Accept and learn from corrections given by the teacher and peers.

Lesson Content:

1. Objective of the Lesson This lesson is purely practical. The goal is to combine all the Tajwid rules learned (Ghunnah, Waqf) with the rules from JSS2 (Qalqalah, Idgham, Ikhfa) and apply them to the Surahs we have memorized this term.

2. Review of Key Rules to Apply:

- Ghunnah (Week 6): Are you holding the مَ and نَ for 2 beats?
 - Example: فَأَمَّا (Fa-am...ma), إِنَّ (In...na)
- Waqf (Week 8): Are you stopping at the مَ? Are you not stopping at the لَا?
- Qalqalah (JSS2 Review): Are you "bouncing" the five Qalqalah letters (ق ط ب ج د) when they have a Sukoon?
 - Example: لَقَدْ (Laqad), الْفَجْرِ (Al-Fajr), يَجْعَلْ (Yaj'al)
- Idgham (JSS2 Review): Are you merging the Noon Sakinah (نْ) or Tanween with the letters of "Yarmulun" (ي ر م ل و ن)?
 - Example: يَوْمَ ذِي (Yawmin-dhee) - This is Ikhfa, not Idgham.
 - Example: عَامِلَةٌ نَّاصِبَةٌ (Aamilatun-nasibah) - This is Idgham with Ghunnah.
- Ikhfa (JSS2 Review): Are you hiding the Noon Sakinah (نْ) or Tanween before the other 15 letters?
 - Example: وَأَنْتَ (Wa-anta), مِنْ شَرِّ (Min-sharri)

3. Practical Application: Suratul Shams (Highlighting the Rules)

(Teacher writes this on the board and demonstrates)

4. Recitation Methodology

- Teacher Model: The teacher will recite one Surah (e.g., Suratul Balad) verse by verse, exaggerating the Tajwid rules (Ghunnah, Qalqalah) so students can hear them clearly.

- Group Recitation (Chorus): All students recite the Surah together, trying to imitate the teacher.
- Individual/Row Correction: The teacher will ask one row or individual students to recite. The teacher and other students will respectfully listen for errors and provide corrections.
 - Correction Example: "That was good, but remember the Ghunnah on إِنَّ —you must hold it for two beats."

Evaluation: (This is a practical evaluation by the teacher).

1. Teacher assesses student's ability to apply Ghunnah on فَأَمَّا .
2. Teacher assesses student's ability to apply Qalqalah on لَقَدْ .
3. Teacher assesses student's ability to apply Ikhfa on وَأَنْتَ .
4. Teacher assesses student's ability to obey Waqf signs.
5. Teacher assesses overall fluency and confidence.

Assignment:

1. Read Suratul Balad, Shams, and Layl aloud to a family member or friend.
2. Ask them to listen and see if they can hear the "buzz" (Ghunnah) on words like إِنَّ and تُنْمِ .
3. Practice the words with Qalqalah from the Surahs (e.g., فَجَرِ, خَلَقْنَا, لَقَدْ).

WEEK 10: IMPORTANCE OF THE QUR'AN IN MUSLIM LIFE

Content: (I) Guidance, healing, and reflection.

Performance Objectives: By the end of this lesson, students should be able to:

1. State that the Qur'an is the literal word of Allah (SWT) and the primary source of Islam.
2. Explain the Qur'an as a book of Guidance (Hidayah).
3. Explain the Qur'an as a book of Healing (Shifa').
4. Explain the importance of Reflection (Tadabbur), not just recitation.
5. List three ways to show respect for the Qur'an.

Lesson Content:

1. What is the Qur'an? The Qur'an is the final, uncorrupted, and literal Word of Allah (SWT), revealed to the Prophet Muhammad (SAW) through the Angel Jibril (Gabriel) over a period of 23 years. It is the primary constitution for all of mankind.

2. The Purpose of the Qur'an The Qur'an was not revealed just to be recited, memorized, or kept on a high shelf. It was revealed to be a manual for life.

- A. As a Book of Guidance (Hidayah):

- This is its primary purpose. Allah says, "This is the Book in which there is no doubt, a guidance (Hudan) for those who are God-fearing (Al-Muttaqeen)." (Q 2:2).
- It guides us in all aspects of life:
 - Faith: How to believe in Allah, His Angels, Books, and Prophets.
 - Worship: How to pray, fast, and pay Zakah.
 - Morality: What is right (honesty, kindness) and wrong (lying, stealing).
 - Law: How to conduct marriage, business, and government.
- It is the ultimate "True North" that shows us the Straight Path (As-Sirat al-Mustaqim).

- B. As a Book of Healing (Shifa'):

- Allah says, "And We send down from the Qur'an that which is a healing (Shifa') and a mercy for those who believe..." (Q 17:82).
- Spiritual Healing: The Qur'an is the primary cure for spiritual diseases of the heart, such as:
 - Doubt and disbelief.
 - Arrogance, envy, and greed.
 - Anxiety, sadness, and despair. (Reciting and understanding it brings peace to the heart).
- Physical Healing: Reciting the Qur'an (e.g., Suratul Fatihah) with firm belief can also be a source of physical healing, known as Ruqyah.

- C. As a Book of Reflection (Tadabbur):

- Allah scolds those who do not think about the Qur'an: "Do they not then reflect (yatadabbarun) upon the Qur'an, or are there locks upon their hearts?" (Q 47:24).

- Tadabbur (Reflection) is the act of reading a verse and thinking deeply about its meaning and how it applies to your life.
- Recitation alone is rewarded, but recitation with understanding and reflection is what changes a person's character and brings them closer to Allah.

3. Our Duties Towards the Qur'an:

1. To Believe in it (Iman): To accept it completely as the word of Allah.
2. To Recite it (Tilawah): To recite it regularly and correctly (with Tajwid).
3. To Understand it (Fahm): To learn its translation and meaning.
4. To Reflect on it (Tadabbur): To think deeply about its message.
5. To Implement it (Amal): To live by its teachings.
6. To Teach it (Tabligh): To share its message with others.

4. How to Show Respect (Adab) for the Qur'an:

- Perform Wudu (ablution) before touching the mushaf (physical copy).
- Keep it in a clean, elevated place.
- Do not place other books on top of it.
- Listen silently and respectfully when it is being recited.
- Do not take it into the toilet.

Evaluation:

1. What is the Qur'an?
2. What is the primary purpose of the Qur'an? (Guidance / Hidayah).
3. What is the meaning of "Shifa" in relation to the Qur'an?
4. What is "Tadabbur"? Why is it important?
5. List two ways we must show respect for the Qur'an.

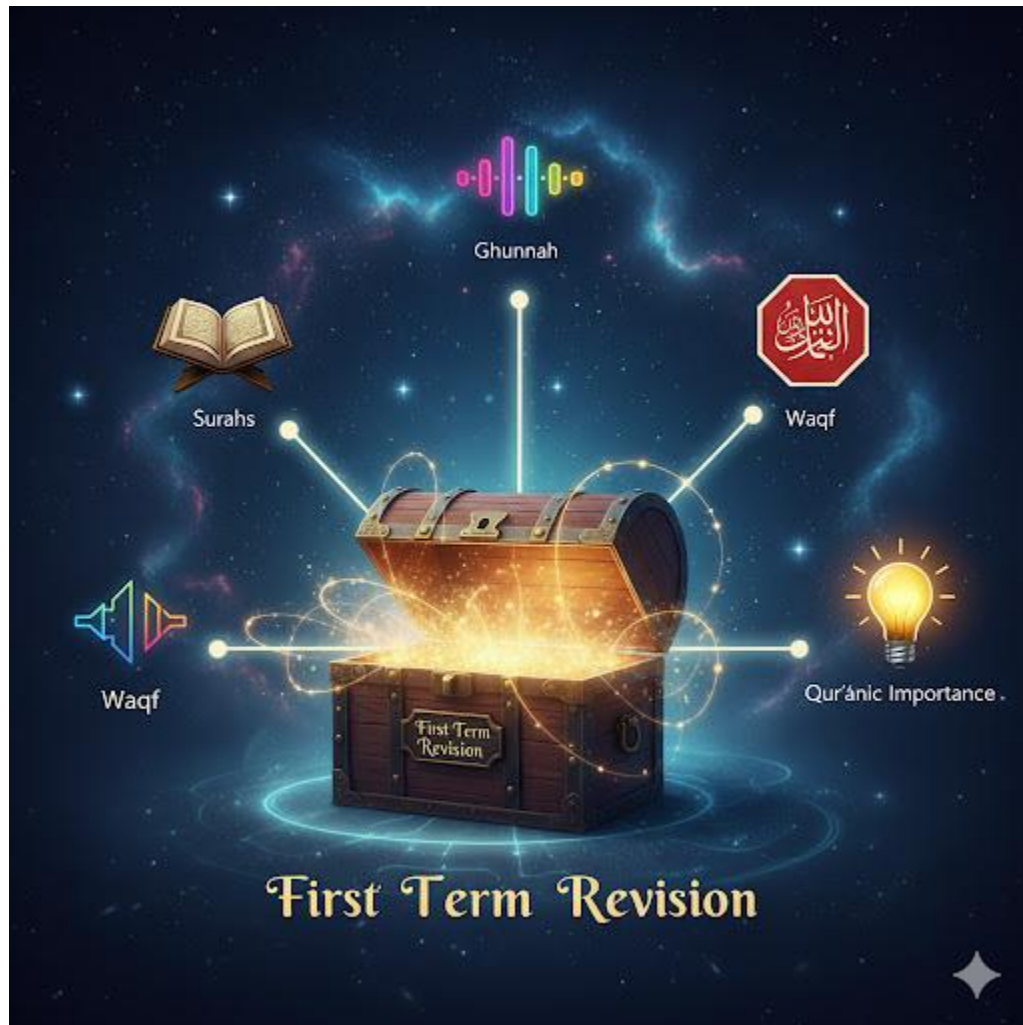

Assignment:

1. Write a short paragraph (3-5 sentences) explaining why the Qur'an is important in your life.

2. What is the difference between simply reciting the Qur'an and reflecting (Tadabbur) on the Qur'an?
3. List the six "Duties" we have towards the Qur'an.
4. Read Suratul Asr (Q103). Reflect on its meaning and write down the lesson it teaches you.
5. How does the Qur'an act as a "guide"? Give one example.

WEEK 11: REVISION

Content: Comprehensive review of Tajwid and Surahs.

Note: This week is dedicated to a comprehensive review of all topics covered in the First Term to prepare for the examination.

Revision Checklist:

1. Surah Recitation & Meaning:

- Suratul Balad (Q90): The "difficult path" (Aqabah) of feeding the poor and freeing the oppressed. Man is created in "struggle" (Kabad).

- Suratul Shams (Q91): The "purification" (Zakkaha) of the soul versus its "corruption" (Dassaha). The warning story of the Thamud.
- Suratul Layl (Q92): The two "diverse efforts." The one who gives and has taqwa will find "ease" (Al-Yusra). The one who is stingy and arrogant will find "hardship" (Al-'Usra).

2. Tajwid Rules:

- Ghunnah (Week 6): What is it? (Nasal sound). Which letters? (م/ن). When is it wajib (compulsory)? (On م and ن). How long? (2 beats).
- Waqf (Week 8): What do these signs mean?
 - م: Must stop.
 - لا: Do not stop.
 - ج: Permissible to stop or continue.
 - صلى: Better to continue.
 - قلى: Better to stop.
 - ∴ ∴: Stop at one, not both.

3. Core Concepts:

- Importance of the Qur'an (Week 10): As a book of Guidance (Hidayah), Healing (Shifa'), and Reflection (Tadabbur).

Practical Revision:

- The class will be drilled on the meanings and application of all Tajwid rules.
- Students will be called randomly to recite the three Surahs, and other students will be asked to identify the themes and lessons.

SECOND TERM - JSS 3 ISLAMIC RELIGIOUS STUDIES (IRS) LESSON NOTES

WEEK 1: REVIEW OF PREVIOUS HADITH

Content: Summary of JSS2 lessons (Hadith on Good Character, Brotherhood, Justice, Knowledge).

Performance Objectives: By the end of this lesson, students should be able to:

1. Define Hadith, Sunnah, Isnad, and Matn with clarity.
2. Summarize the core principles of the JSS2 Hadith on good character (honesty, humility, patience).
3. Explain the profound implications of the Hadith on brotherhood and unity.
4. Reiterate the absolute importance of seeking knowledge ('Ilm) as a lifelong duty.

Lesson Content:

1. Introduction to the Review This lesson serves as a crucial foundation for JSS3 Hadith studies. We will reinforce the critical concepts learned in JSS2, ensuring a solid understanding of the Prophet's (SAW) Sunnah. The Hadith is the second primary source of Islamic law (Shari'ah) after the Qur'an, and it is impossible to understand the Qur'an or practice Islam correctly without it.

2. Core Definitions (Recap):

- Hadith (حَدِيث): Literally means "a saying" or "report." Islamically, it is a report of the sayings, actions (Sunnah), or silent approvals of the Prophet Muhammad (SAW).
- Sunnah (سُنَّة): Literally means "a path" or "a way." It refers to the way of life of the Prophet (SAW), which we are commanded to follow. It is derived from the Hadith.
- Isnad (إِسْنَاد): The "chain of narration." This is the list of narrators who transmitted the Hadith from the Prophet (SAW) down to the compiler (e.g., "Imam Bukhari said, 'I was told by A, who was told by B, who heard from C, who heard from Abu Hurayrah, who heard the Prophet (SAW) say...'"). The authenticity of a Hadith depends heavily on the reliability and connection of every person in the Isnad.
- Matn (مَتْن): The "text" or the actual message/story of the Hadith (e.g., "Actions are but by intentions...").

3. Review of JSS2 Hadith Themes:

- A. On Good Character (Akhlaq):
 - Honesty (Sidq): We learned the Hadith: "Truthfulness (Sidq) leads to righteousness (Birr), and righteousness leads to Paradise (Jannah)." (Bukhari). The Prophet (SAW) was known as "Al-Amin" (The Trustworthy) before he was a prophet, showing that honesty is a universal virtue.
 - Humility (Tawadu'): We learned: "Allah raises whoever humbles himself for His sake." (Muslim). This is the opposite of Kibr (arrogance), which was the sin of Iblis (Shaytan). True greatness is in humility.
 - Patience (Sabr): We learned that patience is a "shining light" (diya'). It is not just passivity, but active perseverance in three areas:

1. Sabr 'ala Ta'ah: Patience in performing acts of worship (e.g., waking up for Fajr).
 2. Sabr 'an Ma'siyah: Patience in staying away from sin.
 3. Sabr 'ala Musibah: Patience during calamities and hardship.
- B. On Brotherhood and Unity (Ukhuwwah):
 - The Metaphor: The Prophet (SAW) said, "The believers, in their mutual kindness, compassion, and sympathy, are like one body. When one part of it suffers, the whole body responds with sleeplessness and fever." (Muslim).
 - Key Lesson: Islam eradicates nationalism, tribalism, and racism. The only tie that matters is the "brotherhood of faith." This means a Muslim must:
 - Love for his brother what he loves for himself.
 - Not oppress (Zulm), betray, or despise him.
 - The Prophet (SAW) said, "A Muslim is the brother of a Muslim."
 - C. On Justice and Equality ('Adl):
 - We learned that Allah (SWT) forbids oppression (Zulm) upon Himself and has made it forbidden among us.
 - The Prophet (SAW) emphasized that all people are equal in the sight of Allah, like the teeth of a comb. "An Arab has no superiority over a non-Arab, nor a non-Arab over an Arab; nor a white man over a black man, nor a black man over a white man, except by Taqwa (piety)."
 - D. On Seeking Knowledge ('Ilm):
 - We learned the foundational Hadith: "Seeking knowledge is an obligation (Faridah) upon every Muslim." (Ibn Majah).
 - This knowledge is not just about religion; it is any beneficial knowledge. We learned that the Prophet (SAW) encouraged seeking knowledge "even unto China."

Practical Activity:

- Class discussion: "How can the Hadith on brotherhood be practically applied to stop bullying and cliques in our school?"

- Students will be asked to narrate one Hadith they remember from JSS2 and explain its Matn (text/meaning).

Evaluation:

1. What are the two main parts of any Hadith?
2. What did the Prophet (SAW) say about the strong person? (He is the one who controls his anger).
3. What is the metaphor used by the Prophet (SAW) to describe the believers? (They are "like one body").
4. What is the only thing that makes one Muslim superior to another in the sight of Allah?
5. Recite the Hadith that makes seeking knowledge an obligation (Talab al-'ilmi...).

Assignment:

1. Define Hadith, Isnad, and Matn in your own words.
2. Write down one Hadith you learned in JSS2 (in Arabic or English).
3. Explain in a full paragraph (3-4 sentences) what that Hadith means to you in your daily life.
4. Why is the Isnad of a Hadith so important for ensuring its authenticity?
5. What are the three types of patience (Sabr)?

WEEK 2: SELECTED HADITH ON LEADERSHIP

Content: (I) Qualities of good leadership (II) Prophet Muhammad (SAW) as a model leader.

Performance Objectives: By the end of this lesson, students should be able to:

1. Define leadership in Islam as a sacred trust (Amanah) and a heavy responsibility (Mas'uliyah).
2. Memorize and explain the "Shepherd" Hadith ("Kullukum ra'in...") in detail.
3. List and explain the essential qualities of a good leader based on the Prophet's (SAW) example.
4. Apply these leadership concepts to their own roles (e.g., class captain, head of a family, prefect).

Lesson Content:

1. The Concept of Leadership in Islam In Islam, leadership is not a position of power, glamour, or privilege; it is a position of trust (Amanah) and responsibility (Mas'uliyah). A leader is a servant (Khadim) of the people, not their master. On the Day of Judgment, leaders will be held to the highest standard of accountability.

2. The Hadith on Responsibility (The "Shepherd" Hadith) This is the most comprehensive and famous Hadith on leadership, narrated by Abdullah ibn 'Umar (RA). The Prophet (SAW) said:

- Arabic: « كُلكُمْ رَاعٍ وَكُلكُمْ مَسْئُولٌ عَنْ رَعِيَّتِهِ ... »
- Transliteration: "Kullukum ra'in, wa kullukum mas'ulun 'an ra'iyatihi..."
- Translation: "All of you are shepherds, and all of you will be questioned about your flock.
 - The Imam (leader of a nation) is a shepherd and is responsible for his flock.
 - A man is the shepherd of his family and is responsible for them.
 - A woman is the shepherdess of her husband's house and children and is responsible for them.
 - A servant is the shepherd of his master's property and is responsible for it.
 - Indeed, all of you are shepherds, and all of you are responsible for your flock." (Sahih al-Bukhari & Muslim)

3. Explanation and Key Lessons:

- Universal Responsibility: This Hadith makes it clear that everyone is a leader in some capacity. You do not need a title to be a leader. A JSS3 student is a leader (a "shepherd") of their younger siblings, their classmates, their own limbs (responsible for what they do), and their time.
- Accountability: The core message is mas'ulun (you will be questioned). Allah (SWT) will personally ask every leader on the Day of Judgment, "Did you take care of those under you? Were you just? Did you fulfill their rights?"

- Scope: The Hadith brilliantly covers all levels of society, from the Head of State (Imam) down to the individual in their home.

4. Prophet Muhammad (SAW) as a Model Leader The Prophet (SAW) was the perfect embodiment of leadership. His leadership was not by force, but by a perfect example of character.

- 1. Justice ('Adl): He was absolutely fair and impartial. He famously said, "By Allah, if Fatimah, the daughter of Muhammad, were to steal, I would cut off her hand." (This will be studied in Week 3).
- 2. Humility (Tawadu'): He was not an untouchable king. He lived a simple life, would mend his own clothes, milk his sheep, and sit and eat with the poor. He told his companions not to stand up for him as others do for kings.
- 3. Consultation (Shura): He did not rule as a dictator. Allah commanded him: "...and consult them in the matter." (Q 3:159). He always consulted his companions (Sahabah) in important matters, like the strategy for the Battles of Badr and Uhud.
- 4. Mercy (Rahmah): He was "a mercy to the worlds" (Q 21:107). He showed mercy to his most bitter enemies (e.g., at the conquest of Makkah), to children, to animals, and to his followers. He was never heard to insult or curse anyone.
- 5. Servant-Leader: He lived by the principle, "The leader of a people is their servant" (Sayyid al-qawmi khadimuhum). He would always be the last to eat and the first to work.

Evaluation:

1. How does Islam define leadership? (As a trust/Amanah and responsibility/Mas'uliyah).
2. Recite the first line of the "Shepherd Hadith" ("Kullukum ra'in...").
3. What does it mean that a leader is "responsible for his flock"? (He will be questioned by Allah).
4. List three qualities of leadership we learn from the Prophet (SAW).
5. How can a student prefect be a "shepherd" (leader)? (e.g., by being just, not bullying, helping younger students).

Assignment:

1. Memorize the "Shepherd Hadith" in English or Arabic.
2. Write down two examples of how a man is a "shepherd of his family." (e.g., providing for them, teaching them Islam).
3. Write down two examples of how a woman is a "shepherdess of her house." (e.g., managing the home, educating the children).
4. In your opinion, what is the most important quality of a good leader? Explain why, using an example from the Prophet's (SAW) life.
5. Read about the Prophet's (SAW) consultation with his companions before the Battle of Uhud. What did he do, and what does it teach us about Shura?

WEEK 3: HADITH ON JUSTICE AND ACCOUNTABILITY

Content: Importance of fairness and honesty in leadership.

Performance Objectives: By the end of this lesson, students should be able to:

1. Define 'Adl (Justice) as a fundamental pillar of Islam.
2. Explain the profound connection between justice and the stability of a society.
3. Narrate the Hadith on the seven types of people shaded by Allah's Throne.
4. Explain the story and lesson of the Hadith of the Makhzumi woman (on equality in justice).
5. Understand the severe warning against injustice (Zulm).

Lesson Content:

1. The Meaning of Justice ('Adl) in Islam

- Definition: Al-'Adl (Justice) is a core attribute of Allah (SWT) Himself. In human terms, it means giving every person their due right, treating all parties fairly, and placing things in their proper balance, without bias, prejudice, or personal interest.
- Qur'anic Command: "Indeed, Allah commands you to render trusts to whom they are due and when you judge between people, to judge with justice ('Adl)..." (Q 4:58).
- Qur'anic Command 2: "O you who believe! Stand out firmly for justice, as witnesses to Allah, even if it be against yourselves, or your parents, or your kin, and whether it be against rich or poor..." (Q 4:135).

2. Hadith 1: The Reward for a Just Leader (The Seven Shades) Justice is the most important quality of a leader, and its reward is immense. The Prophet (SAW) said:

- "There are seven whom Allah will shade in His Shade on the Day when there is no shade except His Shade:
 1. A just ruler (Imam 'Adil)
 2. A youth who grew up in the worship of Allah...
 3. A man whose heart is attached to the mosques...
 4. Two persons who love each other for Allah's sake...
 5. A man who is called by a woman of beauty and position, but he says, 'I fear Allah'...
 6. A man who gives in charity so secretly that his left hand does not know what his right hand has given...
 7. A person who remembers Allah in seclusion, and his eyes overflow with tears."(Sahih al-Bukhari & Muslim)
- Lesson: The Prophet (SAW) mentioned the just ruler first. This is because their justice (or injustice) affects the entire nation. A just leader is the foundation for a just society.

3. Hadith 2: Equality in Justice (The Makhzumi Woman) This powerful Hadith shows that there is no special treatment for the rich, powerful, or well-connected in Islamic justice.

- Narrative: A noblewoman from a powerful tribe (Banu Makhzum) committed theft. Her family was deeply worried about the shame of the Hadd punishment (cutting the hand). They tried to find someone to intercede with the Prophet (SAW) on her behalf. They convinced Usama ibn Zayd (RA), who was very beloved to the Prophet, to speak to him.
- The Prophet's Response: When Usama ibn Zayd (RA) brought the request, the Prophet's (SAW) face changed color with anger, and he said:
 - "Are you interceding concerning one of the prescribed punishments of Allah?"
 - He then stood up and gave a sermon: "O people, those who came before you were destroyed because if a noble man among them stole, they would forgive him, and if a weak man stole, they would apply the prescribed punishment to him."
 - He then made a solemn oath: "By Allah, if Fatimah, the daughter of Muhammad, were to steal, I would cut off her hand." (Sahih al-Bukhari)
- Lesson:
 - No one is above the law. Justice must be blind.
 - Honesty in Leadership: A leader must be honest and free from favouritism, nepotism, and bias.
 - Accountability: True accountability means the law applies even to the leader's own family. This is the only way to prevent corruption.

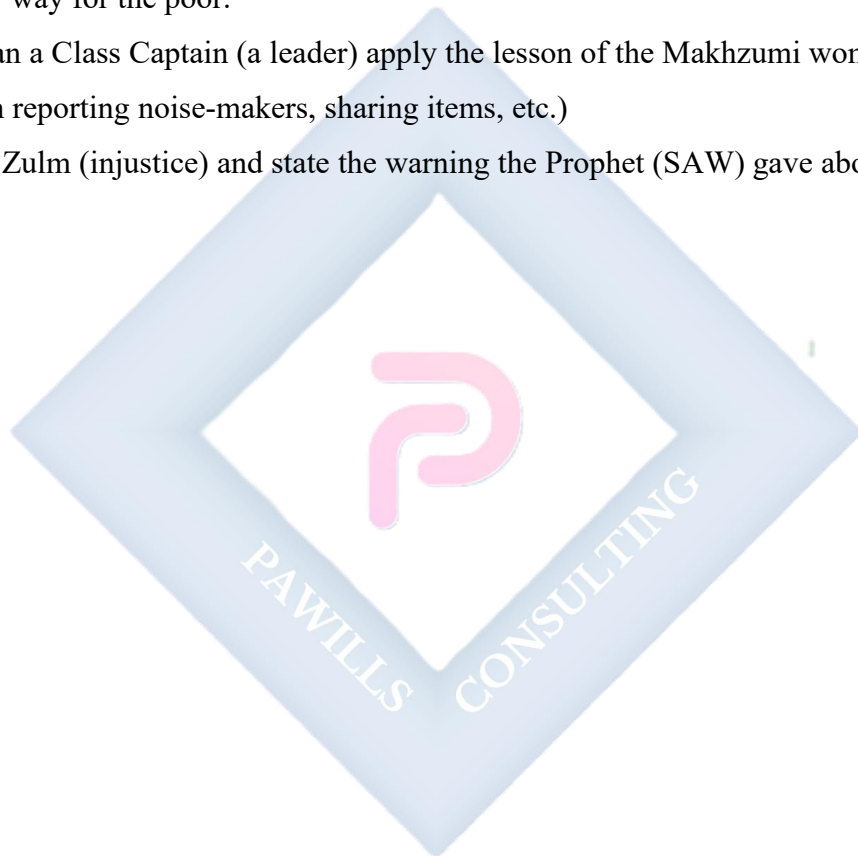

4. The Danger of Injustice (Zulm) The Prophet (SAW) said, "Beware of injustice (Zulm), for injustice will be darkneses on the Day of Judgment." (Bukhari).

Evaluation:

1. What is the meaning of 'Adl (Justice)?
2. Who is the first person who will be shaded by Allah on the Day of Judgment?
3. Why did the Prophet (SAW) get angry when Usama ibn Zayd (RA) tried to intercede for the woman who stole?
4. What did the Prophet (SAW) say he would do if his own daughter, Fatimah, stole?
5. What does the Hadith of the Makhzumi woman teach us about justice, honesty, and favouritism?

Assignment:

1. Find and write down the Qur'anic verse Q 4:135 (mentioned in the lesson).
2. Why do you think the "just ruler" is mentioned first in the Hadith of the Seven Shades?
What does this tell you about leadership?
3. In your own words, explain what is wrong with "judging" one way for the rich and another way for the poor.
4. How can a Class Captain (a leader) apply the lesson of the Makhzumi woman in class?
(e.g., in reporting noise-makers, sharing items, etc.)
5. Define Zulm (injustice) and state the warning the Prophet (SAW) gave about it.

WEEK 4: HADITH ON SEEKING KNOWLEDGE

Content: Virtue of learning and teaching.

Performance Objectives: By the end of this lesson, students should be able to:

1. Explain the high and sacred value Islam places on knowledge ('Ilm).
2. Memorize and explain the Hadith "Seeking knowledge is an obligation..."
3. Memorize and explain the Hadith "Whoever follows a path to seek knowledge..."
4. Explain the great virtues of scholars (Ulama) and teachers.
5. Differentiate between beneficial knowledge (Fard 'Ayn and Fard Kifayah) and harmful knowledge (e.g., magic).

Lesson Content:

1. The Virtue of Knowledge ('Ilm) in Islam The very first word of the Qur'an revealed to the Prophet (SAW) was "Iqra'!" (Read!) (Q 96:1). This single command established that Islam is a religion founded on knowledge, reading, learning, and reflection. Allah (SWT) elevates the status of those who have knowledge: "Allah will raise those who have believed among you and those who were given knowledge, by degrees..." (Q 58:11). The Prophet (SAW) said the Ulama (scholars) are the "heirs of the Prophets."

2. Hadith 1: Knowledge is an Obligation (Fard)

- Arabic: « طَلَبُ الْعِلْمِ فَرِيضَةٌ عَلَى كُلِّ مُسْلِمٍ »
- Transliteration: "Talab al-'ilmi faridatun 'ala kulli Muslim."
- Translation: "Seeking knowledge is an obligation upon every Muslim." (Sunan Ibn Majah)
- Explanation:
 - This Hadith makes learning a religious duty, just as Salah and Sawm are duties.
 - It applies to every Muslim, male and female, young and old.
 - This knowledge ('Ilm) is divided into two main types:
 - Fard 'Ayn (Individual Obligation): This is the essential knowledge every Muslim must have to practice their religion correctly. You are sinful if you do not learn it.
 - Examples: Tawhid (Belief in One Allah), how to perform Wudu and Salah, what is Halal and Haram in daily life, how to fast in Ramadan.
 - Fard Kifayah (Communal Obligation): This is beneficial knowledge that the community (Ummah) as a whole needs to thrive. If a sufficient number of people learn it, the obligation is lifted from the rest. If no one learns it, the whole community can be sinful.
 - Examples: Medicine, Engineering, Farming, Computer Science, Islamic Law (Fiqh), Hadith memorization, Tajwid.

3. Hadith 2: Knowledge is the Path to Paradise

- Arabic: « مَنْ سَلَكَ طَرِيقًا يَلْتَمِسُ فِيهِ عِلْمًا ، سَهَّلَ اللَّهُ لَهُ بِهِ طَرِيقًا إِلَى الْجَنَّةِ »
- Transliteration: "Man salaka tariqan yaltamisu fihi 'ilman, sahhal-Allahu lahu bihi tariqan ila-l-Jannah."
- Translation: "Whoever follows a path to seek knowledge, Allah will make easy for him by it a path to Paradise." (Sahih Muslim)
- Explanation:
 - This shows the immense reward for the struggle of seeking knowledge.
 - The "path" is both literal (walking to school or a mosque) and figurative (reading a book, staying up late to study, listening to a teacher).
 - The Prophet (SAW) also said that the angels lower their wings in respect for the seeker of knowledge, and everything in the heavens and earth (even the fish in the sea) prays for forgiveness for the scholar.

4. The Virtue of Teaching The reward is not just for learning, but for sharing. The Prophet (SAW) said: "The best among you are those who learn the Qur'an and teach it." He also said: "When a person dies, all their deeds come to an end except three:

1. Sadaqah Jariyah (a continuous charity, e.g., building a well or a school).
 2. 'Ilm yuntafa'u bihi (Knowledge that is benefited from, e.g., a student he taught, a book he wrote).
 3. Waladun salihun yad'u lah (A righteous child who prays for them)."
- Lesson: Teaching beneficial knowledge is one of the greatest deeds, as your reward continues (like royalties) even after you have died.

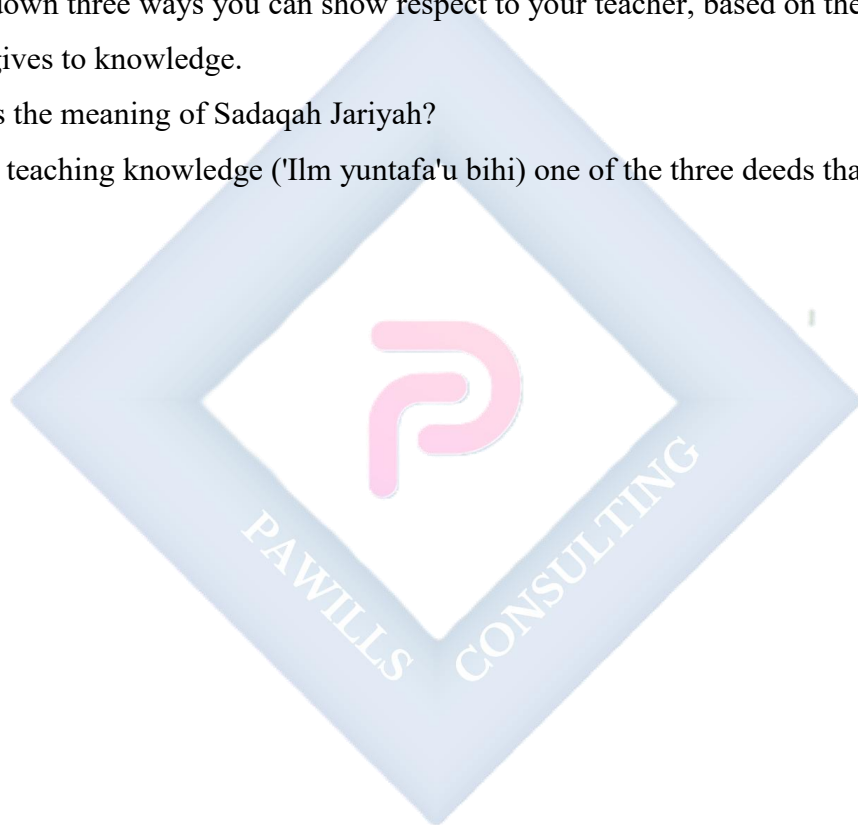

Evaluation:

1. What was the first word of the Qur'an revealed, and what does it signify?
2. Recite the Hadith that makes seeking knowledge an obligation.
3. What is the difference between Fard 'Ayn and Fard Kifayah knowledge?
4. What is the reward for someone who "follows a path to seek knowledge"?

5. List the three deeds that continue to benefit a person after their death.

Assignment:

1. Memorize both Hadith on seeking knowledge (in Arabic or English).
2. Give two examples of Fard 'Ayn knowledge (other than Salah) and two examples of Fard Kifayah knowledge (other than medicine).
3. Write down three ways you can show respect to your teacher, based on the high status Islam gives to knowledge.
4. What is the meaning of Sadaqah Jariyah?
5. Why is teaching knowledge ('Ilm yuntafa'u bihi) one of the three deeds that continue after death?

WEEK 6: TAHDHIB: RESPECT FOR HUMAN LIFE AND PROPERTY

Content: (I) Sanctity of life and property (II) Avoiding violence and theft.

Performance Objectives: By the end of this lesson, students should be able to:

1. Define Tahdhib as the Islamic discipline of character refinement (Akhlaq).
2. Explain the concept of "Sanctity of Life" (Hifz an-Nafs) as a major objective of Shari'ah.
3. Explain the concept of "Sanctity of Property" (Hifz al-Mal) as a major objective of Shari'ah.
4. Cite Qur'anic and Hadith evidence on the absolute prohibition of killing, violence, and theft.

Lesson Content:

1. What is Tahdhib (تَهْدِيب)?

- Definition: Tahdhib is the Islamic discipline of refining one's character. It is the practical application of Iman (faith) and Ihsan (excellence) in our daily manners, speech, and conduct. It is the process of "polishing" the soul to develop good Akhlaq (character). It is the "how-to" guide for being a good Muslim.

2. The Sanctity of Human Life (Hifz an-Nafs)

- Core Principle: In Islam, human life is a sacred (Haram) gift from Allah (SWT). It is one of the five "Maqasid" (higher objectives) of Islamic Law to preserve life (Hifz an-Nafs). No one has the right to take a life, including one's own (suicide), except by a right given by Allah (i.e., just execution by a state after a fair trial for murder or spreading corruption).
- Qur'anic Evidence:
 - "...if anyone kills a person—unless it is for murder or for spreading mischief in the land—it would be as if he killed all mankind. And if anyone saves a life, it would be as if he saved all mankind." (Q 5:32).
 - "Do not take any human life, which Allah has made sacred, except for a just cause..." (Q 17:33).
- Hadith Evidence (Farewell Sermon): The Prophet (SAW) said, "O People, indeed, your blood (life)... is sacred and inviolable..."
- Lesson: This verse shows the immense, almost infinite, value of a single human life in the sight of Allah.

3. The Sanctity of Property (Hifz al-Mal)

- Core Principle: Islam protects the right to private property (Hifz al-Mal). A person's wealth and belongings, earned lawfully, are sacred and cannot be taken unjustly.

- Hadith Evidence (Farewell Sermon): The Prophet (SAW) continued in the same sermon, "...your blood, your property (Mal), and your honour are sacred to you, as sacred as this day of yours, in this month of yours, in this city of yours..."
- Prohibition of Theft (Sariqah): Stealing (taking another's property by stealth) is a major sin (Kabirah).
- Prohibition of Usurpation/Robbery (Ghasb): This is taking property by force, which is an even greater sin.
- Prohibition of Deception (Ghish): This includes all forms of "419," cheating in exams, selling faulty products, or lying about an item's quality. The Prophet (SAW) said, "Whoever deceives us is not one of us."
- Prohibition of Bribery (Rishwah): Giving or taking a bribe to gain an unfair advantage is cursed by Allah.

4. Avoiding Violence and Theft

- Violence and theft are forms of Zulm (oppression) and Fasad (corruption) on earth.
- They destroy the peace and security (Aman) of society.
- A Muslim must be a source of safety (Aman) for others, not a source of fear. The Prophet (SAW) defined a true Muslim as "one from whose tongue and hand the people are safe."

Evaluation:

1. What is Tahdhib?
2. What is meant by the "Sanctity of Human Life" (Hifz an-Nafs)?
3. What does the Qur'an (Q 5:32) say about someone who kills an innocent person?
4. What did the Prophet (SAW) say about our property in his Farewell Sermon?
5. What is the difference between theft (Sariqah) and robbery (Ghasb)?

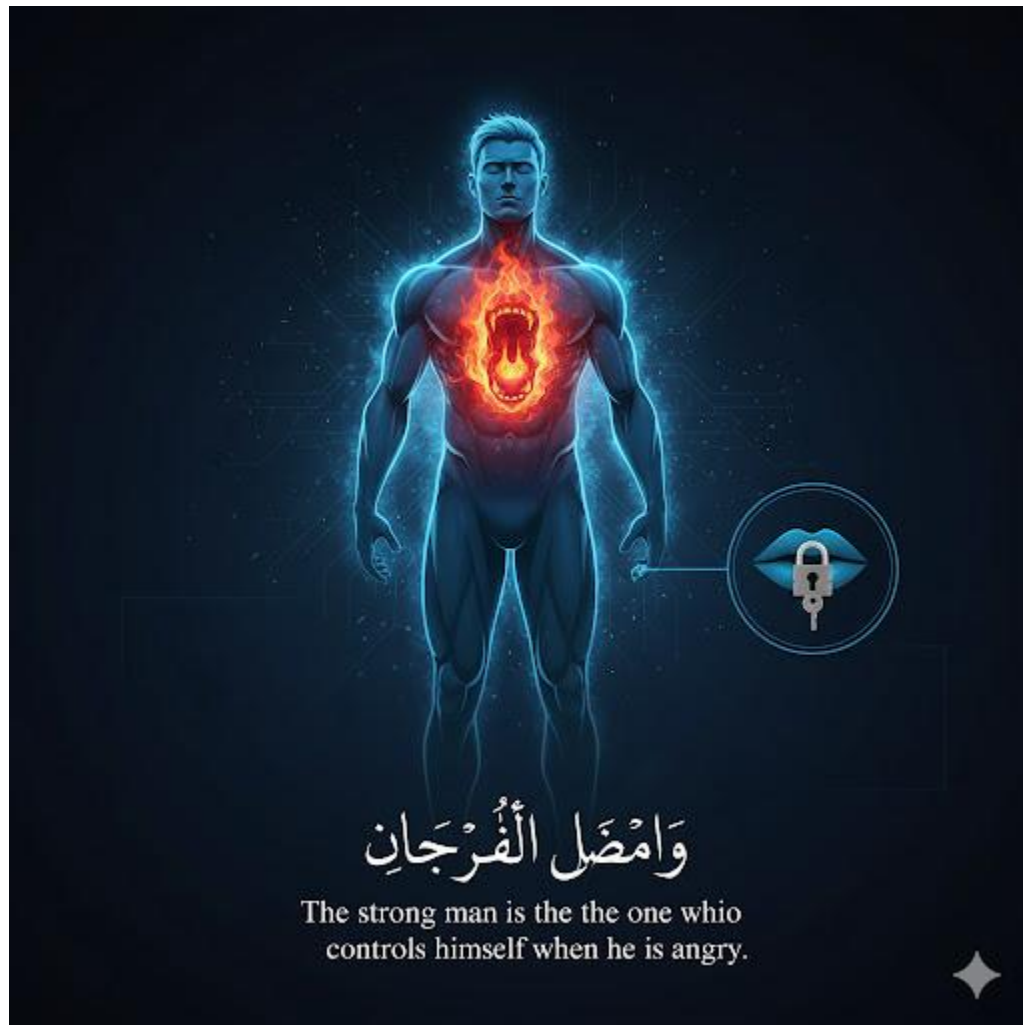

Assignment:

1. Write down the Qur'anic verse 5:32.
2. Explain in your own words why Islam protects private property.

3. List three actions (besides physical theft) that are considered "taking wealth unjustly" (e.g., cheating, bribery, deception).
4. What does the Prophet (SAW) mean when he says, "Whoever deceives us is not one of us"?
5. What are the "Five Maqasid" (Higher Objectives) of Shari'ah? (Research: Religion, Life, Intellect, Lineage, Property).

WEEK 8: TAHDHIB: DISCIPLINE AND RESPONSIBILITY

Content: Islamic teachings on self-control and accountability.

Performance Objectives: By the end of this lesson, students should be able to:

1. Define "discipline" as self-control (Dabt an-Nafs).
2. Explain the importance of controlling one's anger (Ghadab), tongue (Lisan), and desires (Shahawat).
3. Relate discipline to the concept of accountability (Mas'uliyah) on the Day of Judgment.
4. Memorize, cite, and explain the Hadith on "the strong man."

Lesson Content:

1. Definition of Islamic Discipline

- Discipline in Islam is not just about following rules; it is about Dabt an-Nafs (Self-Control or Self-Restraint).
- It is the ability to control your Nafs (your inner self, desires, and ego) and force it to follow the commands of Allah (SWT) instead of its own whims.
- The entire month of Ramadan (fasting) is a training course in this exact kind of discipline.

2. Key Areas of Self-Control:

- A. Controlling Anger (Ghadab):
 - Anger is a natural emotion, but uncontrolled anger is a "burning coal" from Shaytan, which leads to violence, insults, and regret.
 - Hadith: The Prophet (SAW) said: "The strong man (Shadeed) is not the one who can wrestle (defeat people by strength), but the strong man is the one who controls himself when he is angry." (Sahih al-Bukhari)
 - Prophetic Advice (The "Cure" for Anger): If you get angry:
 1. Say "A'udhu billahi minash-Shaytanir-rajim" (I seek refuge in Allah from the cursed Satan).
 2. Be silent. (Anger + words = disaster).
 3. Sit down (if you are standing).
 4. Lie down (if you are sitting).
 5. Perform Wudu (ablution), as water extinguishes fire.
- B. Controlling the Tongue (Lisan):
 - The Prophet (SAW) warned that most people are thrown into Hellfire because of "the harvests of their tongues."
 - Discipline of the tongue means avoiding:
 - Ghibah (Backbiting): Speaking ill of someone behind their back, even if it is true.
 - Namimah (Slandering): Spreading gossip between two people to cause trouble and break their friendship.

- Lying, insulting, cursing, and arguing.
- Hadith: "Whoever believes in Allah and the Last Day, let him speak good or remain silent." (Bukhari)
- C. Controlling Desires (Shahawat):
 - This includes controlling desires for unlawful food, wealth (greed), relationships (Zina), or simple laziness (e.g., skipping Salah to play games).
 - This is the essence of Taqwa (piety).

3. Discipline and Responsibility (Accountability)

- Discipline is the tool we use to fulfill our responsibility (Mas'uliyah - from the Shepherd Hadith).
- We are responsible (accountable) to Allah for everything He gave us.
- Accountability for Senses (Q 17:36): "Indeed, the hearing, the sight, and the heart - about all those [one] will be questioned."
- Accountability for Time: "A person's feet will not move on the Day of Judgment until he is asked about four things: his life and how he spent it; his youth and how he used it; his wealth and how he earned it and spent it; and his knowledge and what he did with it."
- Discipline is the recognition that we will be questioned, so we must control our actions now.

Evaluation:

1. What is the Arabic term for "self-control"? (Dabt an-Nafs).
2. Recite the Hadith that defines "the strong man."
3. What is Ghibah (backbiting)? Is it still Ghibah if the statement is true? (Yes).
4. According to the Hadith, what are two "cures" for anger? (Be silent, sit down, Wudu, etc.).
5. What is the relationship between discipline and accountability?

Assignment:

1. Memorize the Hadith: "The strong man is not the one who can wrestle..."

2. List three sins of the tongue that a disciplined Muslim must avoid.
3. Memorize the Hadith: "Whoever believes in Allah and the Last Day..."
4. In your own life, what is one area where you need to practice more self-control? (e.g., time on video games, anger, what you say).
5. Read Qur'an 17:36. What three things does Allah say we will be "questioned" about?

WEEK 9: TAHDHIB: PURITY OF INTENTION (IKHLAS)

Content: Doing good deeds sincerely for Allah's sake.

Performance Objectives: By the end of this lesson, students should be able to:

1. Define Ikhlas (Sincerity/Purity of Intention).
2. Define Riya' (Showing Off) as the opposite of Ikhlas and "Minor Shirk."
3. Memorize and explain the Hadith "Actions are but by intentions..."
4. Explain why Ikhlas is the most important condition for any good deed.
5. Narrate the Hadith of the "Three Men" (first to be judged).

Lesson Content:

1. Definition of Ikhlas (Sincerity)

- Definition: Ikhlas (الإخلاص) means "sincerity" or "purity."
- Islamic Meaning: It is the act of performing any deed (worship or otherwise) seeking only the Face or Pleasure of Allah (SWT), and not seeking any praise, reward, position, or recognition from human beings.
- It is the internal state of your heart, which only Allah can see.

2. The Hadith on Intentions (Niyyah) This is Hadith #1 in Imam Nawawi's 40 Hadith, showing it is the foundation of all actions. The Prophet (SAW) said:

- Arabic: « إِنَّمَا الْأَعْمَالُ بِالنِّيَّاتِ »
- Transliteration: "Innama al-'amalu bin-niyyat, wa innama li-kulli-mri'in ma nawa..."
- Translation: "Actions are but by intentions, and every man shall have but that which he intended. Thus, he whose migration (Hijrah) was for Allah and His Messenger, his migration was for Allah and His Messenger; and he whose migration was to achieve some worldly benefit or to take some woman in marriage, his migration was for that for which he migrated." (Sahih al-Bukhari & Muslim)
- Lesson: Two people can do the exact same action, but one gets a huge reward and the other gets sin, based only on their intention.

3. Ikhlas (Sincerity) vs. Riya' (Showing Off)

- Ikhlas: Is the foundation.
- Riya': Is the poison that destroys the foundation.
- Riya' (Showing Off):
 - Definition: The act of doing good deeds in order to be seen or praised by people.
 - The Prophet (SAW) called Riya' "The Minor Shirk" (Ash-Shirk al-Asghar) because you are secretly associating a partner (the audience) with Allah in your worship.
 - It is so dangerous because it nullifies (cancels out) the reward for your good deeds.

4. The Hadith of the First Three Judged: To show the danger of Riya', the Prophet (SAW) said the first three people judged on the Day of Judgment will be:

1. The Martyr: He will say, "I fought for You." Allah will say, "You lie. You fought to be called a 'hero'." He is dragged to Hell.
 2. The Scholar/Qari: He will say, "I learned and taught knowledge for You." Allah will say, "You lie. You learned to be called a 'scholar' and recited to be called a 'Qari'." He is dragged to Hell.
 3. The Wealthy Man: He will say, "I gave charity for You." Allah will say, "You lie. You gave to be called 'generous'." He is dragged to Hell.
- Lesson: These are the greatest deeds, but without Ikhlas, they became worthless and led to Hell.

5. The Two Conditions for an Accepted Deed For Allah (SWT) to accept any good deed, it must meet two conditions:

1. Ikhlas (Sincerity): It must be done 100% for the sake of Allah alone. (Answers "Why are you doing it?")
2. Itba' as-Sunnah (Following the Prophet): It must be done according to the method taught by the Prophet (SAW). (Answers "How are you doing it?"). You cannot invent your own way to pray 6 times a day.

Ikhlas is the "soul" of the deed, and the Sunnah is the "body." You need both.

Evaluation:

1. What is the meaning of Ikhlas?
2. What is the meaning of Riya'?
3. Why is Riya' so dangerous? (It is "Minor Shirk" and cancels good deeds).
4. Recite the Hadith "Innama al-'amalu bin-niyat..." ("Actions are but by intentions...").
5. What are the two conditions for any good deed to be accepted by Allah?

Assignment:

1. Memorize the Hadith on Intentions.
2. Give two examples of Ikhlas in a student's life (e.g., studying, respecting teachers).
3. Give two examples of Riya' in a student's life.
4. Why were the Martyr, the Scholar, and the Wealthy Man thrown into Hell, even though they did "good" deeds?
5. What is "Minor Shirk"?

WEEK 10: TAHDHIB: ROLE OF MUSLIMS IN SOCIETY

Content: Promoting peace, honesty, and compassion.

Performance Objectives: By the end of this lesson, students should be able to:

1. Explain that every Muslim is an "ambassador" (Safir) for Islam.
2. Describe the Muslim's role in promoting peace (Salam) and security (Aman).
3. Describe the Muslim's role in promoting honesty (Sidq) and trustworthiness (Amanah).
4. Describe the Muslim's role in promoting compassion (Rahmah) to all creation.

Lesson Content:

1. The Muslim as an Ambassador (Safir)

- A Muslim's Akhlaq (character) is the most powerful and effective form of Da'wah (call to Islam).
- People often judge Islam not by what is in the Qur'an (which they haven't read), but by the actions of the Muslims they meet in the market, in school, or at work.
- Therefore, a Muslim with good character is a "walking advertisement" for the beauty of the faith. A Muslim with bad character misrepresents Islam and may turn people away from the truth.

2. Promoting Peace (Salam) and Security (Aman)

- The word "Islam" itself comes from the root Sa-La-Ma, which means "peace" and "submission." A "Muslim" is one who submits to Allah and spreads peace.
- Greeting: Our greeting is "As-salamu 'alaykum" (Peace be upon you). We are commanded to spread peace to those we know and those we don't.
- Hadith on Peace: The Prophet (SAW) gave the ultimate definition of a Muslim: "The Muslim is the one from whose tongue and hand other Muslims are safe. And the Muhajir (emigrant) is the one who forsakes what Allah has forbidden." (Bukhari)
- Role: A Muslim must never be a source of harm, fear, violence, or bullying. They must be a source of Aman (security) for their neighbours (Muslim and non-Muslim), classmates, and family.

3. Promoting Honesty (Sidq) and Trustworthiness (Amanah)

- Honesty (Sidq): A Muslim must be truthful in speech. The Prophet (SAW) warned that lying is a sign of a hypocrite (Munafiq). Honesty builds trust, which is the foundation of any society.
- Trustworthiness (Amanah): A Muslim must be reliable and must return all trusts.
 - In Business: Giving correct measurements, not cheating customers, selling good products.
 - In School: Not cheating in exams, doing your own work, not betraying a friend's secret (that is not harmful).

- In Speech: Fulfilling your promises. The Prophet (SAW) was "Al-Amin" (The Trustworthy) even before he became a prophet.

4. Promoting Compassion (Rahmah)

- Allah's primary name is Ar-Rahman (The Most Merciful). He sent the Prophet (SAW) as a "Mercy to the worlds" (Rahmatan lil 'Alamin).
- A Muslim must reflect this mercy to all of creation.
- Hadith: "Have mercy on those on earth, and the One in the heavens will have mercy on you."
- Role: This compassion must be shown to:
 - Parents and Family: (As learned in JSS2).
 - The Poor and Orphans: (As learned in Suratul Balad).
 - Neighbours: The Prophet (SAW) said Jibril insisted on the rights of the neighbour so much, he thought he would make him an heir.
 - Even Animals: The Prophet (SAW) told the story of a man who entered Paradise for giving water to a thirsty dog, and a woman who entered Hell for torturing a cat (she tied it up and did not feed it). This shows that compassion must be universal.

Evaluation:

1. Why is a Muslim's character considered a form of Da'wah?
2. What is the meaning of the Hadith "The Muslim is the one from whose tongue and hand..."?
3. What is the meaning of Amanah (trust) in a school setting?
4. What is the meaning of Rahmah (compassion)?
5. Recite the Hadith "Have mercy on those on earth..."

Assignment:

1. Write a short paragraph explaining how you can be a good "ambassador" for Islam in your school.

2. List two ways to promote peace (Salam) in your community.
3. List two ways to promote honesty (Sidq) in your classroom.
4. List two ways to show compassion (Rahmah) to people around you.
5. Find and write down the full Hadith about the man who gave water to a thirsty dog, or the woman who tortured the cat.

WEEK 11: REVISION

Note: This week is dedicated to a comprehensive review of all topics covered in the Second Term to prepare for the examination.

Revision Checklist:

1. Hadith Studies (Weeks 1-4):

- Review JSS2: Key themes (Brotherhood, Justice, Knowledge).
- Leadership (Hadith "Kullukum ra'in..."): Leadership is a trust (Amanah). Everyone is accountable (Mas'uliyah). Prophet (SAW) as a model (Justice, Humility, Mercy, Shura).

- Justice (Hadith of Seven Shades & Makhzumi Woman): Justice ('Adl) is the first quality of a leader. No one is above the law.
- Knowledge (Hadith "Talab al-'ilmi..."): An obligation (Faridah). The path to Jannah. Fard 'Ayn vs. Fard Kifayah. Three deeds that continue after death.

2. Tahdhib - Character (Weeks 6, 8, 9, 10):

- Sanctity of Life/Property: Life (Hifz an-Nafs) and property (Hifz al-Mal) are sacred (Haram). Q 5:32 ("as if he killed all mankind..."). Prohibition of killing, theft (Sariqah), robbery (Ghasb), and deception (Ghish).
- Discipline: Self-control (Dabt an-Nafs). Controlling anger (Ghadab) (Hadith on "the strong man"), the tongue (avoiding Ghibah and Namimah), and desires (Shahawat). Accountability for senses (Q 17:36) and time.
- Purity of Intention (Ikhlas): Sincerity for Allah's sake. Opposite is Riya' (showing off, "Minor Shirk"). Hadith: "Actions are but by intentions." The two conditions for an accepted deed (Ikhlas + Sunnah).
- Role in Society: Being an ambassador of peace (Salam), honesty (Sidq/Amanah), and compassion (Rahmah). (Hadith: "Muslim is one from whose tongue and hand...").

Practical Revision:

- Drills on all memorized Hadith.
- Situational questions: "A class captain sees his best friend cheating. What should he do, according to the Hadith on Justice?"
- "A student gives charity to be praised by his friends. What is this act called, and what is its status in Islam?"
- "What is the difference between Ghibah and Namimah?"

THIRD TERM

WEEK 1: REVIEW OF FIQH AND IMAN

Content: Recap of Arkan al-Islam and Arkan al-Iman.

Performance Objectives: By the end of this lesson, students should be able to:

1. Define Fiqh (Islamic jurisprudence) and Iman (Faith).
2. List the Five Pillars of Islam (Arkan al-Islam) and explain the function of each.
3. List the Six Articles of Faith (Arkan al-Iman) and explain the importance of each.

4. Explain the fundamental difference between Islam (actions) and Iman (belief) as defined in the Hadith of Jibril.
5. Understand that true faith is a combination of belief in the heart, statement on the tongue, and action with the limbs.

Lesson Content:

1. Introduction to the Review This lesson revisits the foundation of a Muslim's entire life, which is built upon two inseparable "wings": Iman (Faith) and Islam (Submission through action). One is incomplete without the other. This was perfectly defined by the Prophet (SAW) in the Hadith of Jibril, where the Angel Jibril (AS) came in the form of a man and asked the Prophet (SAW) to define Islam, Iman, and Ihsan.

2. Arkan al-Islam (The Five Pillars of Islam) These are the actions and framework of a Muslim's life. They are the outward, practical proofs of one's submission to Allah. Islam is the "body."

- 1. Shahadah (The Testimony of Faith):

- أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَأَشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ
- "I bear witness that there is no god but Allah, and I bear witness that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah."
- This is the foundation and the key to entering Islam. It affirms Tawhid (Oneness of Allah) and Risalah (Prophethood of Muhammad SAW).

- 2. Salah (Prayer):

- The five daily, compulsory prayers (Fajr, Dhuhr, Asr, Maghrib, Isha).
- It is the direct connection between the believer and Allah, described by the Prophet (SAW) as the "coolness of his eyes" and the "second pillar" of Islam.

- 3. Zakah (Almsgiving):

- The compulsory annual charity (2.5%) on saved wealth (above a certain threshold called Nisab).
- It is not a "tax" but a purification of wealth and a right of the poor. It prevents greed and creates social balance.

- 4. Sawm (Fasting):

- Abstaining from food, drink, marital relations, and bad speech from the break of dawn (Fajr) until sunset (Maghrib) during the month of Ramadan.
- It is an annual "training program" that teaches self-discipline, empathy for the poor, and Taqwa (God-consciousness).

- 5. Hajj (Pilgrimage):

- The pilgrimage to the Ka'bah in Makkah, which is obligatory once in a lifetime for every Muslim who is physically and financially able.
- It is a profound symbol of the unity (Ummah) and equality of all Muslims.

3. Arkan al-Iman (The Six Articles of Faith) These are the beliefs held firmly in the heart. They are the Aqidah (creed) of a Muslim. Iman is the "soul."

- 1. Belief in Allah (SWT):

- To believe in His absolute Oneness (Tawhid)—that He is the only Creator, Sustainer, and only one worthy of worship. (This will be covered in Week 6).

- 2. Belief in His Angels (Mala'ikah):

- To believe in the unseen beings created from light who perfectly obey Allah's commands (e.g., Jibril, Mika'il, Israfil, and the Kiraman Katibin who record our deeds).

- 3. Belief in His Books (Kutub):

- To believe that Allah revealed divine books as guidance, including the Tawrat (to Musa), Zabur (to Dawud), Injil (to 'Isa), and the final, preserved revelation, the Qur'an.

- 4. Belief in His Messengers (Rusul):

- To believe that Allah sent Messengers (like Adam, Nuh, Ibrahim, Musa, 'Isa) to every nation, culminating in the final Messenger, Muhammad (SAW).

- 5. Belief in the Last Day (Yawm al-Qiyamah):

- To believe in life after death, resurrection from the grave, the gathering, the judgment (Hisab), the scale (Mizan), Paradise (Jannah), and Hellfire (Jahannam).

- 6. Belief in Divine Decree (Qadar):

- To believe that Allah's knowledge is perfect. He knows and has decreed all things (both good and bad) that will happen. This teaches trust and patience.

Evaluation:

1. What is the difference between Arkan al-Islam and Arkan al-Iman?
2. List the Five Pillars of Islam in order.
3. List the Six Articles of Faith in order.
4. What is the Shahadah? (Recite it in Arabic or English).
5. What is the name of the Angel who brought revelation to the Prophets?

Assignment:

1. Write down all Five Pillars of Islam from memory.
2. Write down all Six Articles of Faith from memory.
3. In your own words, explain why a person must have both Iman (faith) and Islam (action) to be a complete Muslim.
4. What is the Hadith of Jibril? (Briefly summarize what it teaches us).
5. What is the meaning of Tawhid?

WEEK 2: FUNERAL RITES IN ISLAM (JANAZAH)

Content: (I) Washing, shrouding, prayer, and burial.

Performance Objectives: By the end of this lesson, students should be able to:

1. Define Janazah and state its ruling as a Fard Kifayah (communal obligation).
2. List the four (4) main rites performed for a deceased Muslim in the correct order.
3. Describe the process of washing the deceased (Ghusl al-Mayyit).
4. Describe the process of shrouding (Kafan) for both male and female.
5. Explain the unique features and step-by-step method of the funeral prayer (Salat al-Janazah).
6. Describe the Islamic method of burial (Dafn) and etiquette of the graveyard.

Lesson Content:

1. Introduction

- Definition: Janazah refers to the Islamic funeral rites. When a Muslim dies, the community has a communal obligation (Fard Kifayah) to honour them with a set of rites according to the Sunnah.
- Fard Kifayah: This means if some members of the community perform them, the obligation is lifted from the rest. If no one performs them, the entire community is sinful.
- Guiding Principle: The rites must be done quickly, respectfully, and with simplicity, according to the Sunnah.

2. Actions at the Point of Death

- The dying person (Muhtadar) should be gently encouraged to say the Shahadah: La ilaha ill-Allah. This is called Talqin.
- After death is confirmed, the eyes should be closed, the jaw gently bound, and the entire body covered with a clean sheet.
- The family must hasten to pay the deceased's debts and begin the funeral rites.

3. The Four Rites of Janazah:

- A. Washing (Ghusl al-Mayyit):
 - Purpose: To purify the body physically and spiritually.
 - Who Washes: A trustworthy, pious Muslim of the same gender. (A man washes a man; a woman washes a woman). A husband can wash his wife, and a wife her husband.
 - Procedure:
 1. The body is taken to a private, clean area.
 2. The Awrah (private parts) are kept covered with a cloth at all times.
 3. The washer (wearing gloves) gently presses the stomach to expel any remaining impurities and cleans the private parts (Istinja).
 4. Wudu is performed on the deceased (like Wudu for prayer, but without rinsing the mouth/nose; water is just passed over).
 5. The body is washed with water and soap (or Sidr - lotus leaves), starting with the right side, then the left.

6. It is washed an odd number of times (3, 5, or 7) until clean.
7. The final wash is mixed with Kafur (camphor), which has a clean, fragrant smell.
8. The body is then gently dried.

- B. Shrouding (Kafan):

- Purpose: To wrap the body in a simple, dignified covering, symbolizing the equality of all people before Allah.
- Material: The shroud should be clean, white, and inexpensive (preferably cotton). Extravagance is forbidden.
- Procedure:
 - For a Male (Sunnah): Three (3) large white cloths (sheets) are used. The body is simply laid on them and they are folded over, one by one.
 - For a Female (Sunnah): Five (5) cloths are used: an Izar (waist-wrapper), a Qamis (shirt/shift), a Khimar (head-cover), and two large outer cloths to wrap the entire body.

- C. The Funeral Prayer (Salat al-Janazah):

- Purpose: This is the most important rite. It is a Du'a (supplication) for the forgiveness and mercy of the deceased.
- Unique Features: It is performed standing up. It has NO Ruku' and NO Sujud.
- Method:

0. The Imam stands in front of the congregation. The body is placed horizontally before him, with its head to the right (facing the Qiblah).
1. 1st Takbir (Allahu Akbar): Make Niyyah (intention) and recite Suratul Fatihah silently.
2. 2nd Takbir (Allahu Akbar): Recite the Salat al-Ibrahimiyyah (the same Durood recited in the Tashahhud of regular prayer: "Allahumma salli 'ala Muhammad...").
3. 3rd Takbir (Allahu Akbar): Make sincere Du'a for the deceased.
 - (e.g., "O Allah, forgive him, have mercy on him, pardon him, make his grave spacious, and enter him into Jannah...").

4. 4th Takbir (Allahu Akbar): Make a brief Du'a for all Muslims (e.g., "O Allah, forgive our living and our dead...") or pause briefly.
5. Taslim: Give one Taslim to the right ("As-salamu 'alaykum wa rahmatullah").

- D. Burial (Dafn):

- Purpose: To return the body to the earth respectfully.
- Procedure:
 0. The body must be buried as soon as possible.
 1. It is carried to the Muslim cemetery. It is Sunnah to follow the Janazah.
 2. The grave is dug deep (to protect from animals and smell).
 3. The body is lowered into the grave (by male relatives) and placed on its right side, with its face turned towards the Qiblah.
 4. The ties of the shroud are undone.
 5. Those present fill the grave with earth, saying, "From it (the earth) We created you, and into it We return you, and from it We will resurrect you once again." (Q 20:55).
 6. It is forbidden to build large structures, domes, or mosques over graves. A simple stone may be used to mark the spot.

Evaluation:

1. What is a "Fard Kifayah" (communal obligation)?
2. List the four (4) main rites performed for a deceased Muslim, in the correct order.
3. What is the main difference between Salat al-Janazah and regular Salah? (No Ruku' or Sujud).
4. How many cloths are used to shroud a man, and how many for a woman?
5. How is the body placed in the grave? (On its right side, facing Qiblah).

Assignment:

1. Briefly describe the 4 steps of the funeral rite.
2. Memorize the "4 Takbir" procedure for Salat al-Janazah (what to recite after each one).

3. Why is it important to bury the deceased quickly?
4. Why do you think the Kafan (shroud) is simple and white for everyone, rich or poor?
5. What are some actions that are forbidden at a Muslim funeral? (e.g., wailing, building on graves).

WEEK 3: MARRIAGE IN ISLAM (NIKAH)

Content: (I) Conditions, types, and importance (II) Rights and responsibilities of spouses.

Performance Objectives: By the end of this lesson, students should be able to:

1. Define Nikah (marriage) and state its immense importance in Islam.
2. List and explain the essential conditions (pillars) for a valid Nikah.
3. Define Mahr (dowry) and its purpose.
4. List and explain the key rights of the wife over the husband.
5. List and explain the key rights of the husband over the wife.
6. Briefly explain the types of marriage (monogamy and polygyny) and the condition for the latter.

Lesson Content:

1. Definition and Importance of Marriage (Nikah)

- Definition: Nikah is the Arabic term for marriage. It is a sacred and legal social contract between a man and a woman, making them husband and wife. It is an act of worship (Ibadah).
- Importance:
 - Half of Faith: The Prophet (SAW) said, "When a person gets married, he has completed half of his religion (Deen), so let him fear Allah in the remaining half."
 - Fulfilling the Sunnah: It is the Sunnah of the Prophet (SAW) and all prophets before him. The Prophet (SAW) said, "Marriage is from my Sunnah, and whoever turns away from my Sunnah is not from me."
 - Procreation: The only legal and loving way to have children and build a family, the cornerstone of society.
 - Companionship & Peace: Allah says He created spouses "that you may find tranquility (sakinah) in them, and He placed between you affection (mawaddah) and mercy (rahmah)." (Q 30:21).
 - Protection: It is a "fortress" that protects individuals from falling into Zina (fornication/adultery), which is a major sin.

2. Conditions (Pillars) for a Valid Nikah For a marriage to be recognized in Islam, certain conditions must be met.

1. Ijab wa Qubul (Offer and Acceptance): A clear, verbal proposal from one party (e.g., the bride's guardian: "I give you my daughter in marriage...") and a clear, verbal acceptance from the other (the groom: "...I accept her in marriage").
2. The Spouses (Az-Zawjain): The man and woman must be clearly identified, legally allowed to marry (i.e., not brother/sister), and must both give their consent.

3. The Wali (Guardian): This is the bride's legal guardian (usually her father, then grandfather, then brother, etc.). The Prophet (SAW) said, "There is no marriage (Nikah) without a Wali."
4. The Mahr (Dowry): This is an obligatory gift from the groom to the bride. It is her property alone. It can be money, property, or even non-material (like teaching her Qur'an), but it must be agreed upon. It is a symbol of his commitment.
5. Two Witnesses ('Adil): At least two adult, sane, male Muslim witnesses must be present to hear the offer and acceptance. This makes the marriage public and legal.

3. Types of Marriage

- Monogamy: One husband, one wife. This is the most common form and the general standard.
- Polygyny: One husband, more than one wife (up to a maximum of four).
 - Condition: This is not an open command; it is a permission with a very strict condition. Allah says in the Qur'an (Q 4:3), "Marry those that please you of women, two or three or four. But if you fear you will not be just, then [marry] only one..."
 - This justice ('Adl) must be in all things a man can control: maintenance (money), time (spending equal nights), and provision.

4. Rights and Responsibilities of Spouses

Marriage is a partnership built on mutual rights and responsibilities.

- Rights of the Wife (Husband's Responsibilities):
 1. Financial Maintenance (Nafaqah): The husband is 100% financially responsible. He must provide food, clothing, and shelter for his wife, according to his means. This is her right, even if she is wealthy.
 2. The Mahr: She has the right to receive her full, agreed-upon dowry.
 3. Kind Treatment and Companionship: The right to be treated with kindness, respect, and mercy. The Prophet (SAW) said, "The best of you are those who are best to their wives."

4. Justice: In a polygynous marriage, the right to equal time and provision as the other wives.
- Rights of the Husband (Wife's Responsibilities):
 1. Head of Household (Qawwam): The wife should respect her husband as the leader (Qawwam) of the household.
 2. Obedience (in what is not sin): The wife should obey her husband, as long as he does not command her to do anything Haram (sinful). There is no obedience to creation in disobedience to the Creator.
 3. Protecting his Home and Honour: She must safeguard his property and her own chastity. She should not allow people into his home whom he dislikes.

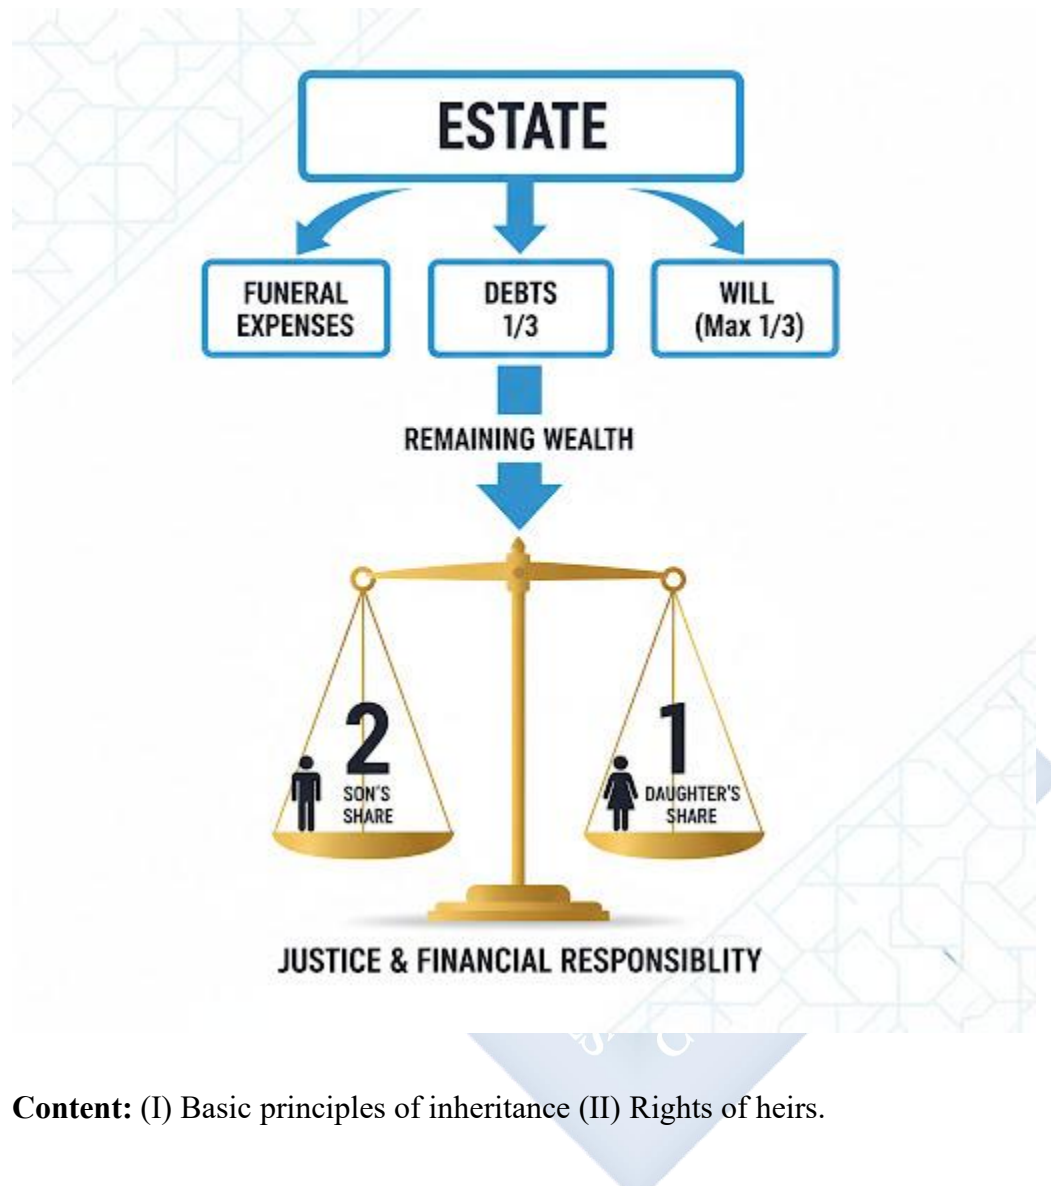

Evaluation:

1. What is the meaning of Nikah, and why is it called "half of faith"?
2. List the five (5) essential conditions for a valid Islamic marriage.
3. What is Mahr? Who gives it and who receives it?
4. What is the main condition Allah gives for a man to practice polygyny? (Q 4:3).
5. List two rights of the wife and two rights of the husband.

Assignment:

1. Why is marriage called "half of faith"?
2. What is the role of the Wali (guardian) in a marriage? Why is he important?
3. Read Qur'an 30:21. What three things does Allah say He placed between spouses? (Sakinah, Mawaddah, Rahmah).
4. What is the difference between Nikah (marriage) and Zina (fornication)? Why is one Halal and the other Haram?
5. In your opinion, why are "rights and responsibilities" important for a successful marriage?

WEEK 4: INHERITANCE (MIRATH)

Content: (I) Basic principles of inheritance (II) Rights of heirs.

Performance Objectives: By the end of this lesson, students should be able to:

1. Define Mirath (Islamic Law of Inheritance) and state its source.
2. State the three (3) things that must be paid from an estate before inheritance is shared.
3. List the "Primary Heirs" who are (almost) never excluded.
4. Explain the wisdom behind the "2-to-1" ratio for sons and daughters.
5. State the danger of violating the laws of Mirath.

Lesson Content:

1. Definition and Importance of Mirath

- Definition: Mirath (or Fara'id) is the Islamic science of inheritance. It is the divine, unchangeable system, set by Allah (SWT) in the Qur'an, that determines how a deceased Muslim's property (the "estate" or Tarikah) is to be distributed among their relatives.
- Source: The laws of inheritance are not from human opinion, culture, or tradition. They are from Allah Himself, detailed with precise fractions in the Qur'an (primarily Surah An-Nisa, Q4:11-12, and 176).
- Importance:
 1. Divine Law: It is an act of worship to follow it.
 2. Prevents Disputes: It provides a clear, fixed system, preventing family feuds, greed, and arguments over property.
 3. Ensures Fairness: It automatically gives rights to those who were historically oppressed (like women, daughters, and mothers), ensuring they are not left with nothing.

2. Steps Before Distribution (The Three Debts) When a Muslim dies, their property (Tarikah) cannot be shared immediately. Three things must be paid first, in this order:

1. Funeral Expenses: All reasonable, non-extravagant costs for the Ghusl, Kafan, and Dafn (burial).
 2. Debts of the Deceased: All outstanding debts must be paid. This includes debts to people (loans) and "debts to Allah" (like unpaid Zakah or Kaffarah).
 3. The Bequest (Wasiyyah): A "will." A Muslim is allowed to give away up to one-third (1/3) of their remaining wealth to anyone who is not a legal heir (e.g., a charity, a mosque, a poor friend, an adopted child).
 - It is Haram (forbidden) to make a bequest to a legal heir (like a son or wife), because Allah has already given them a fixed share.
- Note: After these three are paid, the remaining property is what is shared according to Mirath.

3. The Heirs (Warithun)

- Primary Heirs: These are the heirs who are never excluded from inheritance (unless they, for example, murdered the deceased).
 1. Spouse (Husband or Wife)
 2. Children (Son or Daughter)
 3. Parents (Father or Mother)
- Secondary Heirs: These include grandparents, grandchildren, siblings, uncles/aunts, etc. They may inherit only if a primary heir is not present (e.g., a grandchild only inherits if the father is dead).

4. Basic Principles and Fixed Shares (Ashab al-Furud) The Qur'an gives fixed fractions to the primary heirs.

- Husband: Gets $\frac{1}{2}$ (if no children) OR $\frac{1}{4}$ (if there are children).
- Wife: Gets $\frac{1}{4}$ (if no children) OR $\frac{1}{8}$ (if there are children). (If multiple wives, they share the $\frac{1}{4}$ or $\frac{1}{8}$).
- Father: Gets $\frac{1}{6}$ (if there are children).
- Mother: Gets $\frac{1}{6}$ (if there are children) OR $\frac{1}{3}$ (if no children).

5. The 2-to-1 Ratio (Q 4:11) - "The Residue"

- The Rule: After the fixed shares (for spouses/parents) are given out, the remainder ("the residue") goes to the children based on the rule: "To the male, a portion equal to that of two females."
- Wisdom Behind the Rule: This is not because Islam values a son more than a daughter. It is a law based on financial responsibility.
 - The Son (male) is 100% financially responsible under Shari'ah. He must pay Mahr for his wife, and all her Nafaqah (food, housing, clothing) and that of his children. His 2x share is for his entire family.
 - The Daughter (female) has zero financial responsibilities. Her 1x share is 100% hers to keep. Her husband must pay for all her needs.
 - Example: A son (200k) and daughter (100k) inherit. The son gets married and pays 100k Mahr and 50k for housing. He has 50k left. The daughter gets married, receives 100k Mahr, and her husband pays for housing. She now has 200k (her 100k + 100k Mahr), and 0 expenses. The law, in fact, financially favours the woman.

6. The Warning: Allah (SWT) concludes the verses of inheritance in Surah An-Nisa with a severe warning: "...And whoever disobeys Allah and His Messenger and transgresses His limits, He will put him into the Fire to abide eternally therein, and he will have a humiliating punishment." (Q 4:14).

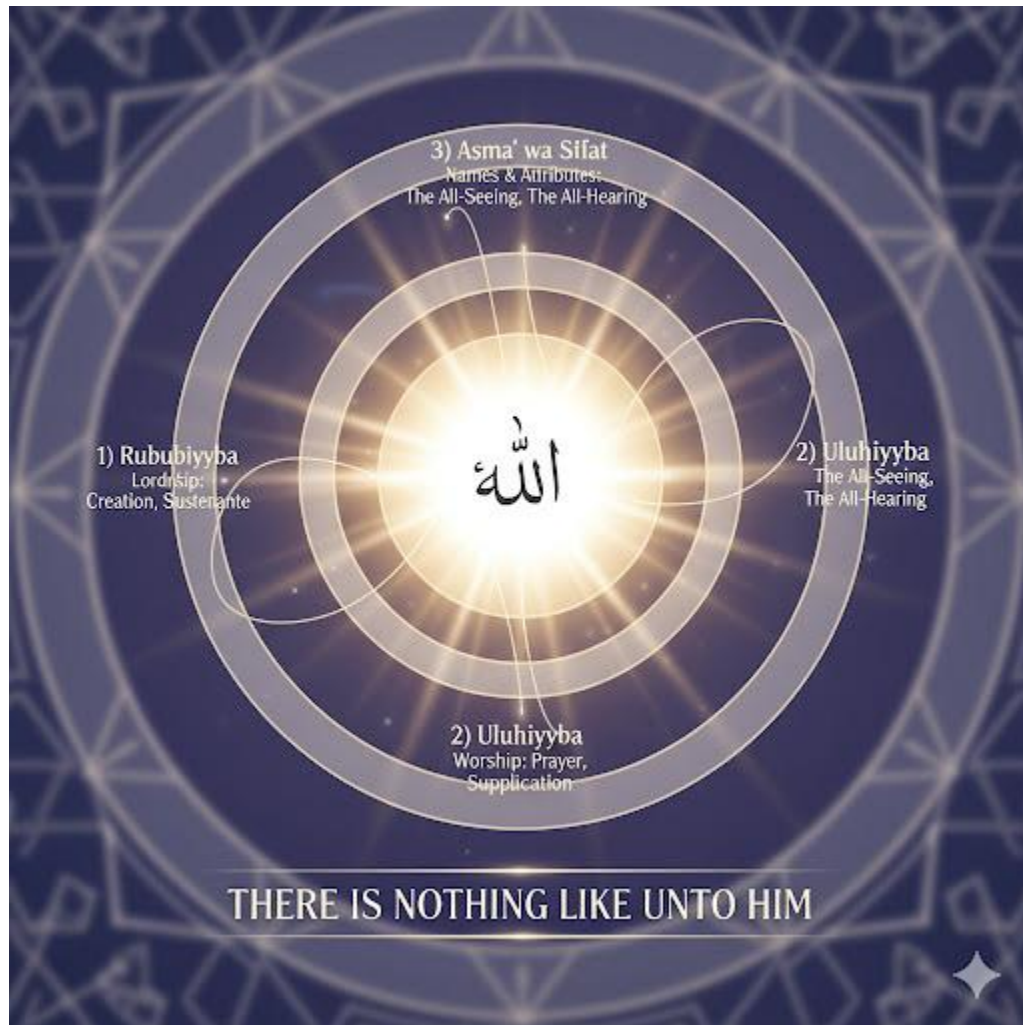

Evaluation:

1. What is Mirath and where do its laws come from? (Allah/Qur'an).
2. Why is the Islamic law of inheritance important? (Prevents disputes, gives women rights).
3. What are the three (3) things that must be paid from an estate before inheritance is shared?
4. What is the maximum amount a person can give in their Wasiyyah (will)?
5. Explain the 2-to-1 ratio for sons and daughters. Why is this considered fair in Islam? (Due to financial responsibility).

Assignment:

1. List the three steps that must be taken before an estate is distributed.
2. List the "Primary Heirs" in Islam (Spouse, Children, Parents).
3. A woman dies, leaving a husband and children. What fraction does the husband receive? (1/4).
4. A man dies, leaving a wife and no children. What fraction does the wife receive? (1/4).
5. Read Surah An-Nisa (Chapter 4), Verse 11. Write down the first part of it (related to the children).

WEEK 6: FAITH IN ALLAH AND HIS ATTRIBUTES (TAWHID)

Content: (I) Names and attributes of Allah (II) Importance of Tawhid.

Performance Objectives: By the end of this lesson, students should be able to:

1. Define Tawhid as the Oneness of Allah and state its importance as the foundation of Islam.
2. List and explain the three (3) categories of Tawhid (Rububiyyah, Uluhiyyah, Asma' wa-Sifat).
3. Explain the meaning and implication of at least five of Allah's Names (Al-Asma' al-Husna).
4. Define Shirk as the opposite of Tawhid and state its danger.

Lesson Content:

1. Definition and Importance of Tawhid

- Definition: Tawhid (التوحيد) is the most fundamental and important concept in all of Islam. It is the belief in the absolute Oneness of Allah (SWT).
- It means believing that Allah is One (Ahad), Singular, Unique (Wahid), and has no partners, equals, children, or parents.
- Importance:
 1. It is the foundation of the Shahadah: "La ilaha ill-Allah" (There is no god worthy of worship except Allah).
 2. It is the central message of all Prophets and Messengers (from Adam to Muhammad).
 3. It is the purpose of our creation: "I did not create jinn and humans except to worship Me (li-ya'budun)." (Q 51:56).
 4. It is the key to Paradise.
 5. The opposite of Tawhid is Shirk (polytheism), which is the only unforgivable sin if a person dies upon it (Q 4:48).

2. The Categories of Tawhid To make it easier to understand, scholars have divided Tawhid into three categories. A person's Tawhid is incomplete unless they believe in all three.

- A. Tawhid ar-Rububiyah (Oneness of Lordship):
 - This is the belief that Allah is the only Lord (Rabb).
 - He alone Creates (Al-Khaliq), Sustains (Ar-Razzaq), Gives life and death (Al-Muhyi, Al-Mumit), and Owns and Rules the entire universe.
 - (Note: Even the pagans of Makkah believed in this, but it was not enough to make them Muslims).
- B. Tawhid al-Uluhiyyah / al-'Ibadah (Oneness of Worship):
 - This is the belief that Allah is the only one who deserves to be worshipped (Ilah).

- This means all acts of worship (Ibadah)—such as Salah (prayer), Du'a (supplication), fasting, sacrifice (Dhabh), and seeking help—must be directed only to Allah.
- It is Shirk to direct any of these acts to idols, saints, graves, angels, or prophets.
- This is the main point of conflict between the prophets and their people and the essence of "La ilaha ill-Allah."
- C. Tawhid al-Asma' wa-Sifat (Oneness of Names and Attributes):
 - This is the belief that Allah has the most perfect and beautiful Names (Al-Asma' al-Husna) and Attributes (Sifat).
 - We must believe in them as He described Himself in the Qur'an and Sunnah without:
 1. Tashbih (Likening them): We cannot say His Hand is "like" our hand. (Q 42:11 - "There is nothing like unto Him.")
 2. Ta'til (Denying them): We must affirm them (e.g., He is All-Seeing).
 3. Tahrif (Distorting the meaning).
 4. Tak'yif (Asking "how?" - We cannot comprehend His reality).

3. Selected Names and Attributes (Al-Asma' al-Husna) Allah's names teach us about Him and how to live.

- Ar-Rahman / Ar-Rahim: The Most Merciful / The Bestower of Mercy. His mercy is vast and encompasses all things. (Teaches us to be merciful).
- Al-Malik: The Absolute King and Sovereign. He has total control. (Teaches us to rely on Him).
- Al-Quddus: The Most Holy. He is free from all defects and imperfections.
- As-Salam: The Source of Peace.
- Al-'Alim: The All-Knowing. He knows everything, past, present, and future; the seen and the unseen; even the thoughts in our hearts. (Teaches Taqwa - we can't hide our sins).
- As-Sami': The All-Hearing. He hears every sound, every prayer, every whisper. (Teaches us to be careful with our words and to make Du'a).
- Al-Basir: The All-Seeing. He sees every action, even a black ant on a black rock in the black of night. (Teaches us to avoid sin in secret).

- Al-Qadir: The All-Powerful. He is able to do all things.
- Al-Ghafur: The All-Forgiving. He loves to forgive those who repent. (Gives us hope).

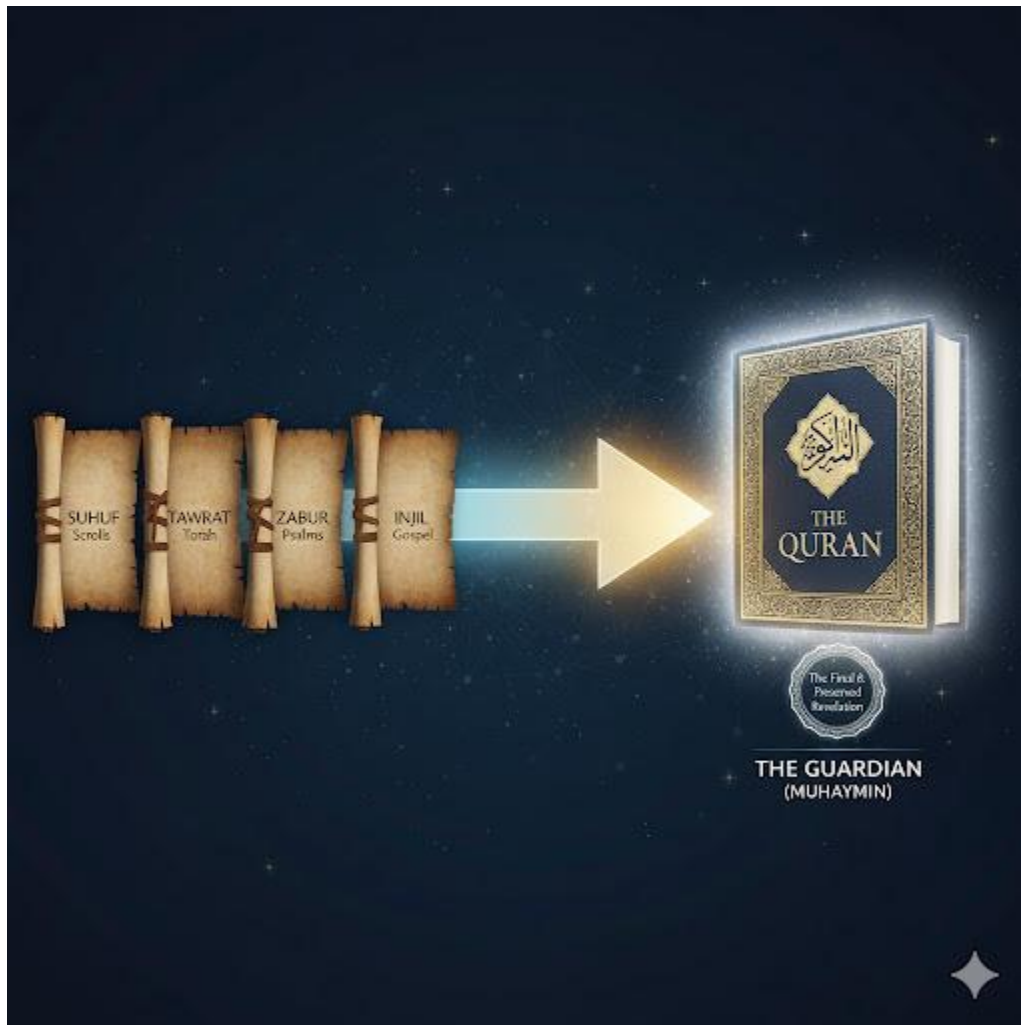

Evaluation:

1. What is the meaning of Tawhid?
2. What is the opposite of Tawhid? (Shirk).
3. What are the three categories of Tawhid?
4. What is the difference between Tawhid ar-Rububiyyah and Tawhid al-Uluhiyyah? (Belief in Him as Lord vs. Belief in Him as the only one to worship).
5. What do the names As-Sami' and Al-Basir tell us about Allah, and how should that affect our actions?

Assignment:

1. Write the definition of Tawhid and explain why it is the most important belief in Islam.
2. Write down the three categories of Tawhid and explain one of them in detail.
3. Choose three of Allah's Names from the lesson (other than Sami/Basir). Write them down and explain what they mean.
4. How does believing in "Al-'Alim" (The All-Knowing) stop a student from cheating in an exam?
5. What is the only sin Allah (SWT) will not forgive, if a person dies upon it?

WEEK 8: BELIEF IN THE HOLY BOOKS

Content: (I) The Qur'an and previous revelations (II) Role of revelation in human life.

Performance Objectives: By the end of this lesson, students should be able to:

1. State that Belief in the Holy Books is the Third Article of Faith (Arkan al-Iman).
2. Name the five (5) major revelations and the Prophets they were given to.
3. Explain the status of the Qur'an in relation to the previous books (preserved, final, and universal).
4. Explain why humanity needs divine revelation (guidance, law, knowledge of Allah).

Lesson Content:

1. Definition of Belief in the Holy Books

- This is the Third Article of Faith (Arkan al-Iman).
- It is the firm belief that Allah (SWT), out of His infinite Mercy (Rahmah), sent down divine books to His Messengers (Rusul) to serve as a guidance (Hidayah) and law for humanity.
- We must believe in all of them in their original, uncorrupted form.

2. The Major Revealed Books We must believe in all the books, but five are specifically mentioned in the Qur'an by name:

1. The Suhuf (Scrolls): Given to Prophet Ibrahim (AS). (These are now lost).
2. The Tawrat (The Torah): Given to Prophet Musa (AS). (This is the original revelation, not the Old Testament, which Muslims believe has been altered by human hands).
3. The Zabur (The Psalms): Given to Prophet Dawud (AS).
4. The Injil (The Gospel): Given to Prophet 'Isa (AS) (Jesus). (This is the original word of God, not the four Gospels of the New Testament, which were written by men about Jesus).
5. The Qur'an: The final, complete, and perfectly preserved revelation, given to the final Prophet, Muhammad (SAW).

3. The Role of Revelation in Human Life Why do we need these books? Why isn't our human intellect enough?

- To Answer the "Big Questions": Revelation tells us what our minds cannot:
 - Where did we come from? (Allah created us).
 - Why are we here? (To worship Him - Ibadah).
 - Where are we going? (To the Hereafter - Akhirah).
- To Establish a Just Law: Human beings, left to their own, create laws that are often unjust, biased, or selfish. Allah's Law (Shari'ah) is perfect, just, and balanced for all.
- To Know Allah: Our minds can guess that there is a creator, but only revelation can tell us His Names, His Attributes, and what He loves and dislikes.

- To Define Morality: Revelation gives us a fixed, unchanging standard of right and wrong (Halal and Haram).

4. The Status of the Qur'an The Qur'an is unique among all the books and holds the highest status.

- It is Preserved (Mahfuz): Allah (SWT) himself guaranteed its protection from change: "Indeed, it is We who sent down the Qur'an, and indeed, We will be its guardian." (Q 15:9). The other books were left to the people, who altered them.
- It is Final (Khatam): It is the last and final message to all of humanity. No book will come after it.
- It is Universal ('Alamiyyah): The Tawrat and Injil were for a specific people (the Children of Israel) and a specific time. The Qur'an is for all mankind and jinn until the end of time.
- It is Muhaymin (A Guardian): The Qur'an confirms the original truth in the previous books (Tawhid, morality) and corrects the human-made changes and errors that entered them (e.g., correcting the idea that Jesus is the "son of God").

Evaluation:

1. What is the Third Article of Faith?
2. Name the five major revelations and the Prophet each was given to.
3. What is the main difference between the Qur'an and the previous books (in terms of preservation)?
4. Why do humans need revelation (Holy Books)? Give two reasons.
5. What is the Arabic word for the Gospel? (Injil).

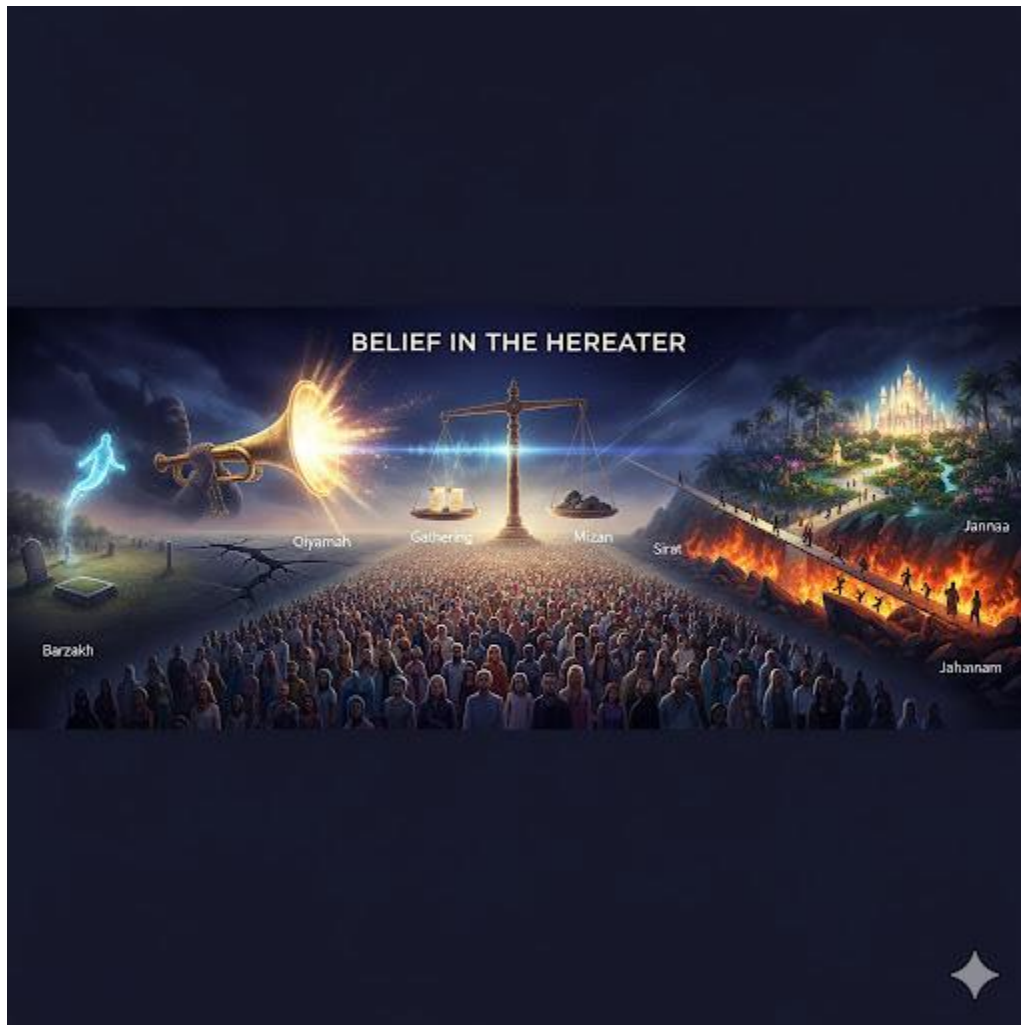

Assignment:

1. Define "Belief in the Holy Books."
2. Write down the 5 major books and their prophets from memory.
3. Read Qur'an 15:9. What promise does Allah make about the Qur'an?
4. As Muslims, what do we believe about the modern-day Bible (Old and New Testaments)?

5. What does it mean that the Qur'an is Muhaymin (a guardian)?

WEEK 9: BELIEF IN THE HEREAFTER

Content: (I) Accountability, Paradise, and Hellfire.

Performance Objectives: By the end of this lesson, students should be able to:

1. State that Belief in the Hereafter is the Fifth Article of Faith.
2. Define the key stages of the Hereafter (Resurrection, Judgment, Jannah, Jahannam).
3. Explain the concept of accountability (Hisab) and the Scale (Mizan).
4. Explain how belief in the Hereafter motivates a Muslim to do good and avoid evil.

Lesson Content:

1. Definition of Belief in the Hereafter

- This is the Fifth Article of Faith (Arkan al-Iman).
- It is the absolute belief that this worldly life (Dunya) is temporary and is a test.
- After this world ends, Allah (SWT) will resurrect all of creation, judge them with perfect justice, and reward or punish them in their eternal abode: Al-Jannah (Paradise) or An-Nar (Hellfire).
- Belief in the Last Day is essential for faith. The Qur'an constantly pairs belief in Allah with belief in the Last Day.

2. Key Stages of the Hereafter

1. Death and Al-Barzakh: Death is the exit from this life. Al-Barzakh is the "life of the grave," an intermediate stage where the soul waits for resurrection. It is either a place of comfort or a place of torment.
2. Yawm al-Qiyamah (The Day of Resurrection): The trumpet will be blown by Angel Israfil, the universe will be destroyed, and then all creation will be resurrected from their graves (Ba'th).
3. Al-Hashr (The Gathering): All of humanity, from Adam (AS) to the last person, will be gathered on a great plain to await judgment.
4. Al-Hisab (The Accountability): This is the judgment.
 - Every person will be given their "book of deeds" (in their right hand for the righteous, in their left for the wicked).
 - Allah (SWT) will question every person about their life (as per the Hadith: "about his life and how he spent it; his youth and how he used it...").
 - The Mizan (The Scale): All good deeds and bad deeds will be weighed on a real, massive scale. "Then as for he whose scales are heavy, he will be in a pleasant life. But as for he whose scales are light, his home will be the Pit (Hell)." (Q 101:6-9).
5. As-Sirat (The Bridge): A sharp, thin bridge that is set over Hellfire. All must cross it. The believers will cross quickly (like lightning, or wind, or running) according to their deeds, while the disbelievers and sinners will fall.

3. The Final Abodes

- Al-Jannah (Paradise):

- The eternal home of reward for those who believed and did righteous deeds.
- It is a place of unimaginable bliss, with "what no eye has seen, no ear has heard, and no human mind has conceived."
- There is no sickness, no sadness, no fear, no death—only peace and happiness, and the ultimate reward of seeing Allah (SWT).

- An-Nar (Hellfire):

- The eternal home of punishment for those who disbelieved in Allah, committed Shirk, and were arrogant.
- It is a place of unimaginable torment and suffering, with blazing fire, boiling water, and no relief. (May Allah protect us all from it).

4. Importance of Belief in the Hereafter

- It provides ultimate justice: This life is often unfair. In the Hereafter, all wrongs will be righted, and every victim will get justice.
- It gives purpose to life: This life is a test, and the Hereafter is the result.
- It is the greatest moral compass:
 - It motivates a Muslim to do good deeds (to gain Jannah).
 - It prevents a Muslim from doing evil (out of fear of Jahannam).
 - It gives a person Sabr (patience) during hardship, as they know their reward is with Allah.

Evaluation:

1. What is the Fifth Article of Faith?
2. What is Al-Barzakh? (The life of the grave).
3. What is the Mizan? (The Scale that weighs deeds).
4. What is As-Sirat? (The Bridge over Hellfire).
5. What are the two final abodes? (Jannah and Jahannam).

Assignment:

1. Define Belief in the Hereafter in your own words.
2. List the 5 key stages of the Hereafter mentioned in the lesson.
3. Write a short paragraph describing Al-Jannah (Paradise), based on the lesson.
4. Write a short paragraph describing An-Nar (Hellfire), based on the lesson.
5. Explain in 3 sentences how believing in the Day of Judgment can make someone a better person (e.g., more patient, more just, less likely to sin).

WEEK 10: LIVING A LIFE OF FAITH

Content: (I) Applying Iman through daily actions.

Performance Objectives: By the end of this lesson, students should be able to:

1. Explain the relationship between Iman (faith) and 'Amal (action) as inseparable.
2. Provide practical examples of how each of the Six Articles of Faith can be applied in daily life.
3. Describe the "living Muslim" as a person whose faith is visible in their character (Akhlaq).
4. Connect Taqwa (God-consciousness) as the practical result of Iman.

Lesson Content:

1. The Inseparable Link: Iman (Faith) and 'Amal (Action)

- In Islam, Iman (Faith) is not just a belief you hold in your heart. This is an incomplete definition.
- True, living Iman (as defined by Ahlus-Sunnah) is:
 1. Belief in the Heart (Tasdiq bil-qalb)
 2. Statement on the Tongue (Qawl bil-lisan)
 3. Action with the Limbs ('Amal bil-ar-kan)
- Iman (faith) is the root of the tree. 'Amal (righteous action) is the fruit. A tree with no fruit is incomplete or diseased.
- The Qur'an always links them: "Indeed, those who believe (amanu) AND do righteous deeds ('amilu-s-salihat), they will have the Gardens of Paradise..." (Q 18:107).

2. How to "Live" the Articles of Faith (Applying Iman) A true believer applies the Arkan al-Iman (Six Articles) in their daily life. This application is Taqwa (God-consciousness).

- 1. Living by Belief in Allah (Tawhid):
 - Leads to Ikhlas (Sincerity): You do your schoolwork, chores, and prayers only for Allah, not to impress people.
 - Leads to Tawakkul (Trust): You try your best (in exams, in life) and then trust Allah with the result, which removes anxiety and jealousy.
 - Leads to Taqwa: You avoid sinning (like lying or cheating) even when you are alone, because you know "Al-Basir" (The All-Seeing) and "Al-'Alim" (The All-Knowing) are watching.
- 2. Living by Belief in Angels:
 - Leads to Humility: You remember the greatness of Allah's creation.
 - Leads to Accountability: You are always aware of the Kiraman Katibin (the two recording angels on your shoulders). This stops you from speaking ill (Ghibah) or doing wrong in secret.
- 3. Living by Belief in Books (Qur'an):

- Leads to Action: You don't just "respect" the Qur'an by putting it on a high shelf; you obey it.
- It tells you to be just, so you are just.
- It tells you to be kind to parents, so you are kind.
- It tells you to avoid Riba (interest), so you avoid it.
- 4. Living by Belief in Messengers (Prophet Muhammad SAW):
 - Leads to Following the Sunnah: You try to live your life like the Prophet (SAW).
 - You eat, sleep, speak to people, and handle anger in the way he taught. He is your role model.
- 5. Living by Belief in the Last Day (Hereafter):
 - Leads to Patience (Sabr): When you face difficulties, you know this life is temporary and your reward is with Allah.
 - Leads to Generosity: You spend your money on the poor because you know the real "bank account" is in the Hereafter.
 - Leads to Urgency: You don't waste time, because you know your life is short and the test will end.
- 6. Living by Belief in Qadar (Decree):
 - Leads to Contentment (Rida): You are never depressed by failure or arrogant in success. You know it was all part of Allah's plan.
 - Leads to Effort: It does not mean being lazy. You must "tie your camel" (do your part) and then trust Allah (Tawakkul).

3. Conclusion: The "Living Muslim" A Muslim who truly "lives" their faith is a benefit to everyone around them. Their Iman (faith) is not a secret; it is visible in their Amal (actions) and Akhlaq (character). They are honest, trustworthy, patient, kind, just, and responsible—they are the "ambassadors" of Islam.

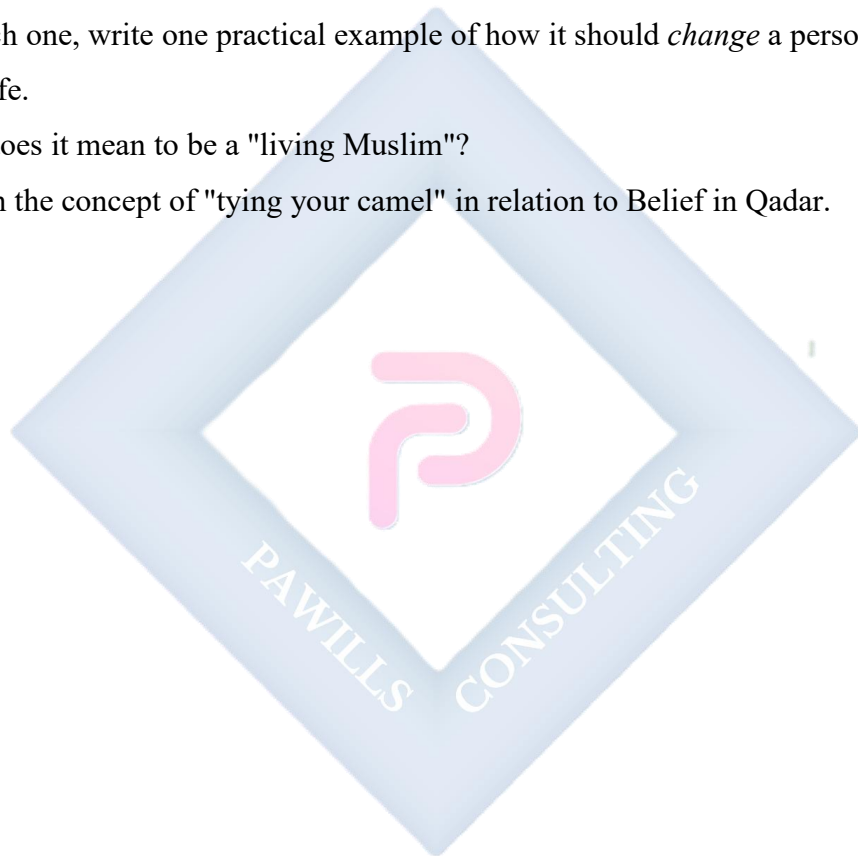

Evaluation:

1. What are the three components of true Iman (Faith)? (Heart, Tongue, Action).
2. What is the "fruit" of Iman? ('Amal / Righteous Action).
3. How does belief in Al-Basir (The All-Seeing) stop you from sinning?

4. How does belief in the Hereafter help you to be patient?
5. What is Tawakkul (Trust in Allah)?

Assignment:

1. In your own words, explain the relationship between "Iman" and "Amal."
2. Choose three Articles of Faith (e.g., Belief in Allah, Angels, Hereafter).
3. For each one, write one practical example of how it should change a person's actions in daily life.
4. What does it mean to be a "living Muslim"?
5. Explain the concept of "tying your camel" in relation to Belief in Qadar.

WEEK 11: REVISION

Content: Comprehensive review of Fiqh and Iman.

Note: This week is dedicated to a comprehensive review of all topics covered in the Third Term to prepare for the final (JSS3) examination.

Revision Checklist:

1. Foundations (Week 1):

- Arkan al-Islam (The 5 Pillars)
- Arkan al-Iman (The 6 Articles)
- Difference between Iman (faith) and Islam (action).

2. Fiqh (Islamic Law) (Weeks 2-4):

- Janazah (Funeral): 4 Rites: Ghusl (Washing), Kafan (Shrouding), Salah (Prayer - 4 Takbirs, no ruku/sujud), Dafn (Burial - on right side, facing Qiblah). Ruling: Fard Kifayah.
- Nikah (Marriage): 5 Conditions: Offer & Acceptance, Spouses, Wali (Guardian), Mahr (Dowry), 2 Witnesses. Rights and responsibilities. Types (Mono/Poly) and the condition of Adl (Justice).
- Mirath (Inheritance): 3 Payments first: Funeral, Debts, Wasiyyah (max 1/3). Primary Heirs (Spouse, Children, Parents). 2-to-1 ratio (son:daughter) and its wisdom (financial responsibility).

3. Iman (Faith) (Weeks 6, 8, 9, 10):

- Tawhid (Allah): Oneness. 3 Categories (Rububiyyah, Uluhiyyah, Asma' wa-Sifat). Names: Ar-Rahman, Al-'Alim, As-Sami', Al-Basir. Shirk as the opposite.
- Kutub (Books): 5 Major Books (Suhuf, Tawrat, Zabur, Injil, Qur'an) and their Prophets. The Qur'an is final, preserved (Q 15:9), and universal.
- Akhirah (Hereafter): 5 Stages: Barzakh (Grave), Qiyamah (Resurrection), Hisab (Judgment - Mizan/Scale), Sirat (Bridge), Jannah/Nar.
- Living Iman: Faith + Action. How belief in each Article changes your daily character (Taqwa, Ikhlas, Sabr, Tawakkul).

Practical Revision:

- Drills on the 5 Pillars and 6 Articles.
- "Describe the steps of Janazah."
- "What are the 5 conditions for Nikah?"
- "What are the 3 categories of Tawhid?"
- "How does belief in the Last Day stop a person from being corrupt?"
