WEEK 6: EXHIBITION AND DISPLAY TECHNIQUES

Preparing artworks; display techniques; categorising; space, screens and lighting

PREPARING ARTWORKS

Exhibition and display of artworks require careful preparation to make them attractive and presentable. Preparing artworks means getting them ready for public presentation in an art gallery, museum, school exhibition, or any art show.

Steps in preparing artworks include:

1. Selection of artworks – Choose the best works that represent creativity, originality, and quality.
2. Finishing touches – Repair or retouch damaged areas of artworks to improve neatness.
3. Mounting and framing – Drawings, paintings, and photographs are mounted on cardboard or framed to give them a professional look.
4. Labelling – Each artwork should be labelled with the artist's name, title of the work, medium used (e.g., oil paint, pencil, clay), date of production, and sometimes a short description.
5. Cleaning – Sculptures, ceramics, and textile works must be dusted and cleaned to enhance their appearance before display.

Proper preparation ensures that artworks are attractive, protected, and meaningful to the audience.

DISPLAY TECHNIQUES

Display techniques are the different methods or ways by which artworks are presented to the public for appreciation. The aim is to create an attractive arrangement that will capture the attention of viewers.

Major display techniques include:

1. Wall display – Hanging paintings, drawings, and photographs on walls.
2. Table display – Putting small artworks like ceramics, crafts, and textiles on tables for easy viewing.
3. Glass case display – Displaying valuable or fragile artworks inside glass cases for protection.
4. Panel and screen display – Using movable panels or screens to hang artworks when wall space is not enough.
5. Floor display – Sculptures and large installations are placed on the floor or pedestals.

6. Open-air display – Works can also be exhibited outdoors for wider community participation.

Effective display techniques make artworks more appealing and communicate the artist's ideas better.

CATEGORISING ARTWORKS

Categorising artworks means grouping them according to their type, medium, or theme to create orderliness and easy understanding during an exhibition.

Ways of categorising include:

1. By medium – Grouping paintings, drawings, sculptures, ceramics, textile works, photographs, etc. separately.
2. By theme – Grouping works based on subject matter such as nature, culture, religion, history, or abstract themes.
3. By size – Large works may be displayed in one section while smaller works are arranged elsewhere.
4. By artist – Works can also be grouped according to the names of the artists for recognition.

Categorising helps the audience to follow a logical sequence and understand the artworks better.

SPACE, SCREENS AND LIGHTING

Space, screens, and lighting are important in exhibition and display techniques because they determine how artworks are viewed.

1. Space – Adequate space must be provided between artworks so that each can be viewed clearly without obstruction. Overcrowding reduces the quality of the exhibition.

2. Screens – Screens or partitions are used to divide exhibition areas, create privacy, and provide extra surfaces for display.
3. Lighting – Proper lighting enhances the beauty of artworks. Bright light is needed for paintings and textiles, while soft lighting is preferable for delicate artworks like photographs. Natural and artificial light can be combined to give the best effect.

A good arrangement of space, screens, and lighting ensures comfort for viewers and gives artworks their full aesthetic value.

INTRODUCTION

- Embroidery is the art of decorating fabric with needle and thread (or yarn), sometimes with beads, sequins, or other embellishments.
- It is a traditional craft that combines creativity and skill, producing both functional and decorative works.

- To begin embroidery, an artist must find design inspirations, transfer motifs onto fabric, and use appropriate stitches.

SOURCES OF EMBROIDERY DESIGNS

Embroidery designs can come from various natural, cultural, and artificial sources. These include:

1. Nature – flowers, leaves, trees, animals, birds, fish, shells, and landscapes.
2. Geometric Shapes – circles, triangles, zigzags, spirals, and other patterns.
3. Traditional and Cultural Symbols – adire patterns, Nsibidi symbols, Uli designs, Yoruba adinkra, Tiv woven patterns.
4. Objects and Everyday Life – household items, clothing patterns, toys, and modern gadgets.
5. Religious and Spiritual Symbols – crosses, crescents, and other motifs used for spiritual purposes.
6. Historical and Mythical Figures – heroes, warriors, or stories from folklore.
7. Text and Calligraphy – words, initials, monograms, and alphabets.
8. Abstract Designs – imaginative free-form shapes and modern artistic patterns.

METHODS OF TRANSFERRING MOTIFS ON FABRICS

Before stitching begins, the embroidery design (motif) must be transferred to fabric. Common methods include:

1. Tracing Method
 - Place tracing paper with the design over fabric.
 - Trace with a pencil or transfer pen.
2. Carbon Paper Method

- Place carbon paper between the design sheet and fabric.
- Trace over the design with a stylus or pen, leaving marks on the fabric.

3. Direct Drawing

- Draw the motif directly on the fabric using a pencil, fabric marker, or tailor's chalk.

4. Prick and Pounce Method

- Make small holes along the design lines on paper.
- Place it over fabric and rub chalk or powder through the holes, leaving dotted lines to follow.

5. Iron-on Transfers

- Pre-printed designs can be transferred using a hot iron onto fabric.

6. Embroidery Hoops and Stencils

- Some use stencils to create repetitive designs on fabric.

WEEK 3: KNITTING

Meaning of knitting; types of knitting; materials/tools; basic knitting stitches

MEANING OF KNITTING

- Knitting is a method of creating fabric by interlocking loops of yarn or thread using needles or machines.
- It is one of the oldest forms of fabric-making, alongside weaving and crocheting.
- Knitting can be done by hand (using knitting needles) or by machine (industrial knitting).
- It produces soft, elastic, and warm fabrics commonly used for sweaters, socks, caps, scarves, and blankets.

- Unlike weaving, which uses two sets of threads (warp and weft), knitting uses one continuous yarn looped to form fabric.

TYPES OF KNITTING

1. Hand Knitting

- Involves the use of two or more needles to knit fabric manually.
- It allows for creativity, personal design, and unique patterns.

2. Machine Knitting

- Done with a knitting machine that produces fabric faster and in larger quantities.
- Commonly used in textile industries to make ready-made clothes.

3. Circular Knitting

- Produces a seamless, tubular piece of fabric.
- Often used for making socks, hats, and sleeves.

4. Flat Knitting

- Produces flat pieces of fabric that are later sewn together.
- Used for sweaters, cardigans, and blankets.

MATERIALS/TOOLS FOR KNITTING

- Yarn/Wool – the thread used in knitting, available in different thicknesses, textures, and colors.
- Knitting Needles – tools used to make loops. They can be:
 - Straight needles (for flat knitting)
 - Circular needles (for tubular knitting)

- Double-pointed needles (for small circular work like socks)
- Measuring Tape – for accurate measurement of knitted items.
- Scissors – for cutting yarn.
- Stitch Markers – for marking points in a pattern.
- Row Counter – for keeping track of the number of rows knitted.
- Yarn Needle (Tapestry Needle) – for sewing pieces together and weaving in yarn ends.

BASIC KNITTING STITCHES

1. Knit Stitch

- The most basic stitch in knitting, forming the foundation of many patterns.
- Produces a smooth surface on one side and bumpy texture on the other.

2. Purl Stitch

- Opposite of the knit stitch.
- Produces a bumpy surface on the front and smooth surface at the back.

3. Stockinette Stitch

- Made by alternating rows of knit and purl stitches.
- Smooth on the right side, bumpy on the wrong side.

4. Garter Stitch

- Made by knitting every row (or purling every row).
- Produces a stretchy, textured fabric.

5. Rib Stitch

- It is both a practical and artistic skill used for making clothing, household items, and accessories.
- Crocheting allows for creative expression, unique patterns, and personalized designs.
- It is different from knitting as it uses one hook instead of two needles.

MATERIALS AND TOOLS USED IN CROCHETING

1. Yarn or Thread:

- Comes in various colors, textures, and thicknesses.
- Choice depends on the item to be created (e.g., thick yarn for scarves, thin thread for lace).

2. Crochet Hooks:

- Metal, plastic, or wooden hooks of different sizes.
- Hook size must match the thickness of the yarn/thread.

3. Scissors:

- Used to cut yarn or thread cleanly.

4. Measuring Tape:

- Helps in measuring the length and width of the crocheted piece.

5. Stitch Markers: (Optional)

- Help mark the beginning or end of a row or pattern repeat.

6. Needle or Tapestry Needle:

- Used for weaving in loose ends and finishing the piece neatly.

HOW TO CROCHET

WEEK 6: BATIK WORK

Meaning of batik; materials/tools for batik work; making a batik project

MEANING OF BATIK

Batik is a traditional method of fabric decoration in which designs are created on cloth by applying wax to certain areas before dyeing. The wax serves as a resist, preventing dye from penetrating the covered areas. After dyeing, the wax is removed, leaving behind beautiful patterns where the dye could not reach.

The word Batik originated from Indonesia, but the practice is widely used in many African countries, especially Nigeria. In Nigeria, Batik is part of the textile arts and is popular in Yoruba land, Igbo land, and other regions. It is used to produce decorative fabrics for clothing, household items, and cultural purposes.

Batik is valued because it:

- Encourages creativity and originality.
- Reflects cultural identity and tradition.
- Serves as a source of income for textile artists.
- Produces unique designs since no two Batik works are ever exactly the same.

MATERIALS/TOOLS FOR BATIK WORK

To make a Batik, several materials and tools are needed. They include:

1. Fabric – Cotton fabric or calico is most suitable because it absorbs dye well.
2. Wax – This is usually beeswax or paraffin wax, used to resist the dye. Sometimes a mixture of both is used.
3. Dyes – These are colour substances dissolved in water for dyeing the fabric. Common types include vat dye, reactive dye, and indigo dye.
4. Tjanting (or Canting) – A special pen-like tool used to apply hot wax on fabric in fine lines and patterns.
5. Brushes – For applying wax or dye over larger areas of the fabric.
6. Stamps/Blocks – Wooden, metal, or foam blocks carved with designs, used to stamp wax onto the fabric.
7. Dyeing containers – Bowls, buckets, or vats used for preparing and holding the dye solution.
8. Spoons/Stirring sticks – For mixing dye solutions.
9. Heating source – Charcoal stove, gas cooker, or electric heater for melting wax.

10. Iron – For removing wax by placing fabric between absorbent papers and pressing with a hot iron.

11. Protective materials – Gloves, aprons, and newspapers to protect hands, clothes, and workspace.

MAKING A BATIK PROJECT

The process of making a Batik involves careful steps to achieve the desired patterns and colours.

Step 1: Preparing the fabric

- Wash the fabric to remove starch, oil, or dirt that may prevent dye absorption.
- Dry and iron the fabric before use.

Step 2: Designing the pattern

- Sketch the intended design lightly on the fabric with a pencil or chalk.
- Alternatively, freehand designs can be made directly with wax.

Step 3: Applying the wax

- Melt the wax using a heating source.
- Apply wax on the parts of the fabric where dye should not penetrate using a tjanting tool, brush, or block stamps.
- Ensure the wax penetrates both sides of the fabric.

Step 4: Dyeing the fabric

- Prepare the dye solution in a container.
- Dip the waxed fabric into the dye solution, stirring gently until it absorbs the desired colour.
- Remove the fabric and allow it to dry.

Step 5: Repeating the process (for multiple colours)

- If more than one colour is desired, reapply wax to other areas and repeat the dyeing process with a different colour.
- Always start with light colours before applying darker ones.

Step 6: Removing the wax

- After dyeing, remove the wax by boiling the fabric in hot water or ironing it between newspapers to melt and absorb the wax.
- Rinse and dry the fabric.

Step 7: Finishing

- The completed fabric is ironed and prepared for use.
- The result is a beautifully decorated cloth with colourful and unique Batik designs.

SUMMARY

- Batik is a fabric decoration technique using wax-resist dyeing.
- Common materials include fabric, wax, dyes, tjanting tool, brushes, blocks, dyeing containers, heating source, and iron.
- Making Batik involves preparing the fabric, applying wax, dyeing, repeating for more colours, removing wax, and finishing.
