- Poli(e) – polite
- Sérieux/sérieuse – serious
- Drôle – funny
- Intelligent(e) – intelligent
- Travailleur/travailleuse – hardworking
- Paresseux/paresseuse – lazy
- Méchant(e) – wicked
- Timide – shy
- Bavard(e) – talkative

GRAMMAR: USE OF ADJECTIVES (LES ADJECTIFS QUALIFICATIFS)

1. Agreement in Gender and Number

- Masculine singular: grand
- Feminine singular: grande (+e)
- Masculine plural: grands (+s)
- Feminine plural: grandes (+es)

Examples:

- Il est grand. (He is tall.)
- Elle est grande. (She is tall.)
- Ils sont grands. (They are tall – masculine/mixed group.)
- Elles sont grandes. (They are tall – feminine.)

2. Position of Adjectives

- Most adjectives come after the noun:
 - Une fille intelligente (an intelligent girl)
- Some common adjectives come before the noun (BAGS rule – Beauty, Age, Goodness, Size):
 - Un petit garçon (a small boy)
 - Une belle femme (a beautiful woman)

SENTENCE EXAMPLES

- Mon ami est grand et mince. (My friend is tall and slim.)
- Ma sœur est belle et intelligente. (My sister is beautiful and intelligent.)
- Le professeur est sérieux et travailleur. (The teacher is serious and hardworking.)

- L'élève est timide mais poli. (The student is shy but polite.)

ORAL ACTIVITIES

1. Self-introduction Practice: Each student describes themselves (name, age, height, hair, personality).
2. Pair Work: Students describe one another using at least 5 adjectives.
3. Class Exercise: Teacher shows a picture/person, students describe in full sentences.

WRITTEN EXERCISES

1. Fill in the blanks with the correct adjective form:
 - Elle est _____ (grand).
 - Ils sont _____ (intelligent).
 - Marie est _____ (joli).
2. Translate into French:
 - My brother is tall and hardworking.
 - She has long black hair.
 - The teacher is kind but serious.
3. Write 5 sentences to describe your best friend's appearance and character.

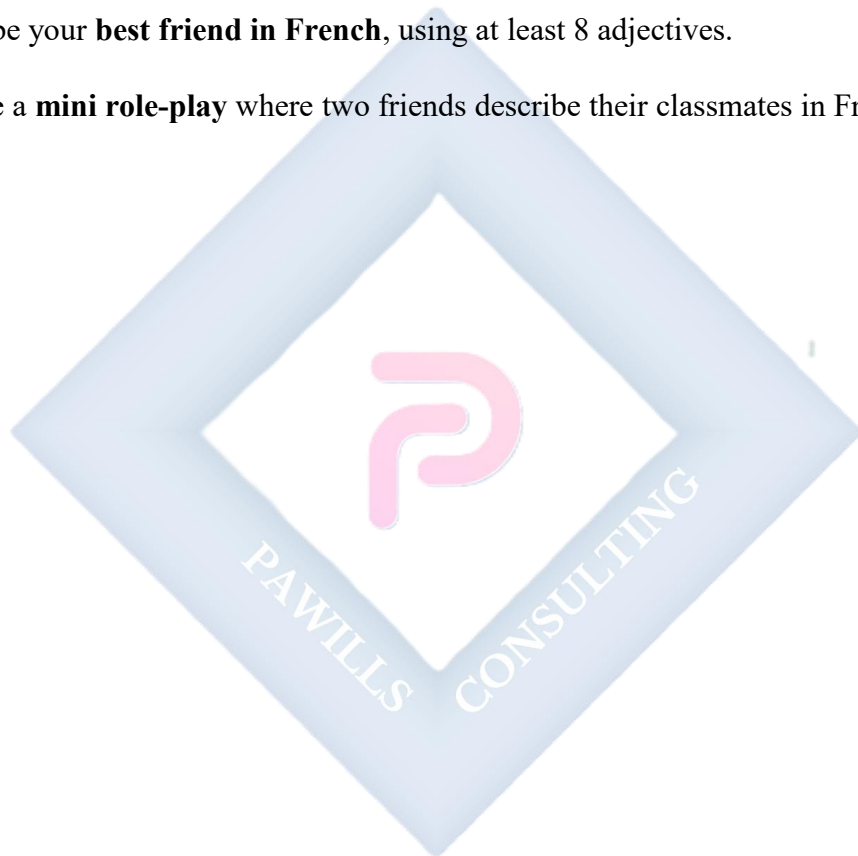

EVALUATION

1. List 5 adjectives for describing physical appearance and 5 for character in French.
2. Explain the rule for adjective agreement in French with examples.
3. Construct 3 sentences to describe a person's physical appearance.

4. Construct 3 sentences to describe a person's character.
5. Translate: "My mother is beautiful, kind, and intelligent."

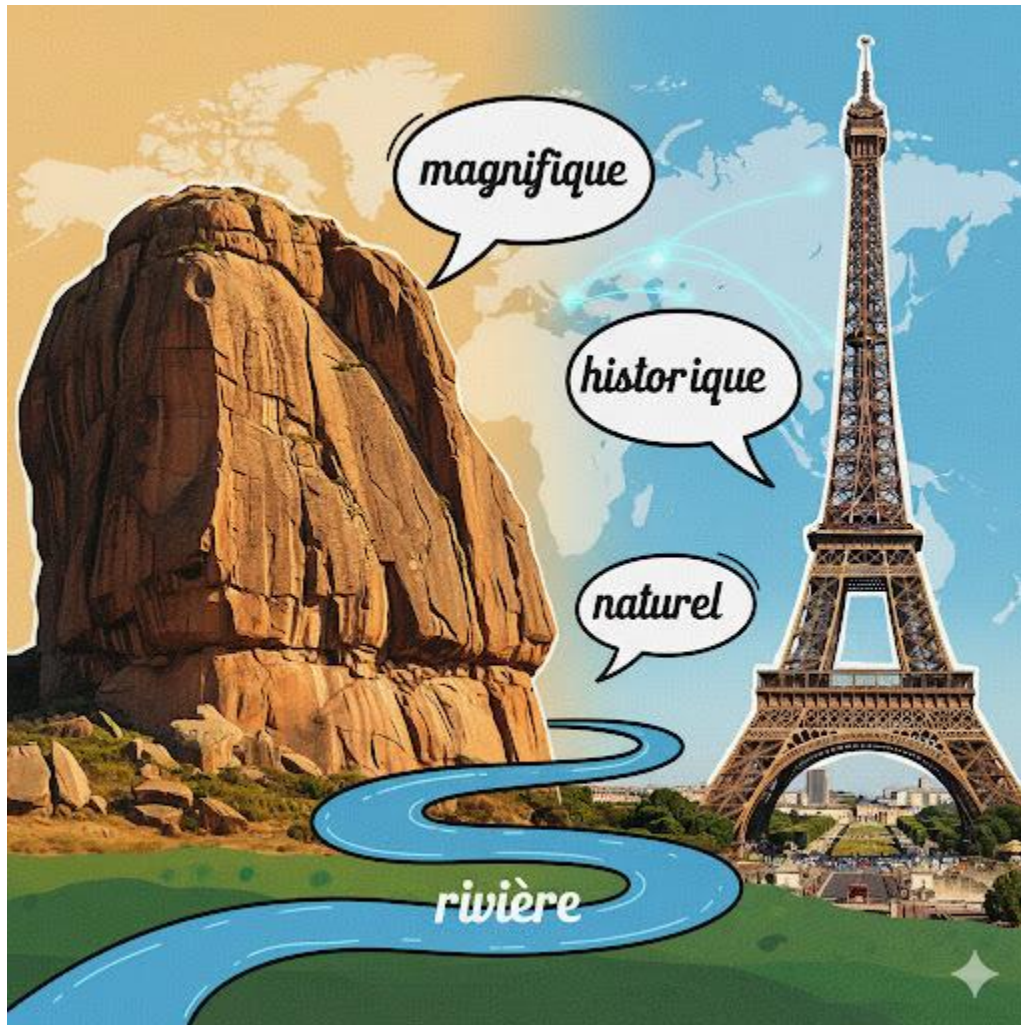

ASSIGNMENT

1. Write a short paragraph in French (6–8 sentences) to describe yourself (appearance + character).
2. Describe your best friend in French, using at least 8 adjectives.
3. Prepare a mini role-play where two friends describe their classmates in French (8–10 lines).

WEEK 2: DÉCRIRE UN PAYSAGE ET DES LIEUX TOURISTIQUES

Identifier les paysages naturels, monuments, sites touristiques et utiliser des adjectifs appropriés

INTRODUCTION

- Describing landscapes and tourist attractions is an important part of communication in French.
- A paysage is a natural or urban view, while un site touristique is a place of interest visited by tourists.
- This lesson focuses on learning vocabulary for natural landscapes, monuments, and popular tourist sites, as well as the correct use of adjectives to describe them.

- Students will be able to describe tourist destinations in Nigeria, Africa, and the French-speaking world, building their descriptive and cultural vocabulary.

VOCABULARY: LANDSCAPES AND NATURAL FEATURES (PAYSAGES NATURELS)

- Une montagne – mountain
- Une colline – hill
- Une plaine – plain
- Une vallée – valley
- Une rivière – river
- Un fleuve – large river

- Un parc national – national park
- Un marché traditionnel – traditional market
- Un village touristique – tourist village
- Un centre culturel – cultural center
- Un site archéologique – archaeological site
- Une station balnéaire – seaside resort

EXAMPLES OF TOURIST SITES

In Nigeria:

- Zuma Rock – un rocher géant situé au Niger
- Erin-Ijesha Waterfalls – des cascades célèbres au sud-ouest du Nigeria
- Yankari National Park – parc national au nord-est du Nigeria
- Osun Sacred Grove – site culturel et religieux classé patrimoine mondial

In France:

- La Tour Eiffel – Eiffel Tower
- Le Louvre – Musée célèbre à Paris
- Le Mont Saint-Michel – abbaye sur une île
- La Côte d’Azur – célèbre région touristique

VOCABULARY: ADJECTIVES FOR DESCRIPTION

- Magnifique – magnificent
- Splendide – splendid
- Beau/belle – beautiful
- Historique – historical
- Culturel(le) – cultural
- Naturel(le) – natural
- Impressionnant(e) – impressive
- Calme – calm/peaceful
- Touristique – touristic
- Ancien(ne) – old/ancient
- Moderne – modern
- Coloré(e) – colorful

GRAMMAR REMINDER: AGREEMENT OF ADJECTIVES WITH PLACES

- Les adjectifs s'accordent en genre et nombre avec le nom:
 - Un paysage magnifique (masculine singular)
 - Une plage magnifique (feminine singular)
 - Des monuments historiques (masculine plural)
 - Des cascades impressionnantes (feminine plural)

SENTENCE EXAMPLES

- Le paysage est magnifique et calme.
- La Tour Eiffel est un monument historique célèbre en France.
- Yankari National Park est un site touristique naturel au Nigeria.
- Les plages de la Côte d’Azur sont splendides et très touristiques.
- Le marché est coloré et animé.

ORAL PRACTICE

1. Students name landscapes and monuments shown in pictures in French.
2. Each student describes their favorite tourist place in Nigeria or another country.
3. Role-play: Two students act as a tourist and a guide; the guide describes tourist attractions.

WRITTEN PRACTICE

1. Match the French words with their English meanings (landscape and monument vocabulary).
2. Write 5 French sentences describing a place you visited.
3. Label a map or picture of a tourist site with its French names.

EVALUATION

1. Define paysage and site touristique in French.
2. List 5 natural landscapes and 5 monuments or tourist attractions in French.
3. Explain adjective agreement rules with examples.
4. Describe a famous Nigerian tourist site in French (3 sentences).

5. Describe a French tourist attraction in French (3 sentences).

ASSIGNMENT

1. Write a short descriptive paragraph in French (6–8 sentences) about a natural landscape you like (real or imaginary).
2. Prepare a poster or drawing of a Nigerian tourist attraction and label it in French.
3. Research and write in French about one famous tourist site in a Francophone country (5–6 sentences).

WEEK 3: EXPLIQUER SES HABITUDES

Expressions pour parler de la routine quotidienne et des activités régulières

MA ROUTINE QUOTIDIENNE

INTRODUCTION

- In French, explaining your habits and daily routine helps you communicate about your lifestyle and schedule.
- This lesson focuses on vocabulary, verbs, and expressions for describing daily activities (la routine quotidienne) and regular habits (les habitudes).
- Students will learn how to express frequency (how often they do something) and time expressions to talk about routines accurately.

VOCABULARY: DAILY ROUTINE EXPRESSIONS

- Se réveiller – to wake up
- Se lever – to get up
- Se laver – to wash oneself
- Se brosser les dents – to brush one's teeth
- Se coiffer – to do one's hair
- S'habiller – to get dressed
- Prendre le petit-déjeuner – to have breakfast
- Aller à l'école – to go to school
- Aller au travail – to go to work
- Étudier / faire ses devoirs – to study / do homework
- Déjeuner – to have lunch
- Goûter – to have a snack
- Dîner – to have dinner
- Se reposer – to rest
- Se coucher – to go to bed
- Dormir – to sleep

VOCABULARY: EXPRESSIONS OF FREQUENCY (FREQUENCY ADVERBS)

- Toujours – always
- Souvent – often
- Parfois – sometimes

- Rarement – rarely
- Jamais – never
- Tous les jours – every day
- Chaque semaine – every week
- Le matin – in the morning
- L'après-midi – in the afternoon
- Le soir – in the evening

GRAMMAR FOCUS: REFLEXIVE VERBS IN THE PRESENT TENSE

- Reflexive verbs indicate that the action is done by the subject to themselves.
- Structure: Sujet + pronom réfléchi + verbe
 - Je me lève à 6 heures.
 - Tu te brosses les dents.
 - Il/elle se couche tard.
- Reflexive pronouns:
 - Je me, Tu te, Il/elle/on se, Nous nous, Vous vous, Ils/elles se.

SENTENCE EXAMPLES

- Je me lève à 6 heures du matin.
- Je vais à l'école tous les jours.
- Après l'école, je fais mes devoirs et je regarde la télévision.
- Le soir, ma famille dîne ensemble.
- Je me couche à 9 heures.

ORAL PRACTICE

1. Students say their morning, afternoon, and evening routines aloud in French.
2. Practice asking and answering questions:
 - À quelle heure te lèves-tu? (What time do you get up?)
 - Que fais-tu après l'école? (What do you do after school?)
3. Pair activity: Students describe each other's habits.

WRITTEN PRACTICE

1. Complete a fill-in-the-blank exercise with reflexive verbs in the correct form.
2. Write 5 French sentences describing your morning activities.
3. Create a timetable of your daily routine in French.

CULTURAL NOTE

- In France and Francophone countries, breakfast is often light (coffee, bread, or croissant).
- School days and mealtimes may differ compared to Nigeria, offering students insight into cultural diversity.

EVALUATION

1. Define routine quotidienne and habitudes régulières in French.
2. List 5 reflexive verbs used to describe daily routines.
3. Translate these into French:
 - I go to school at 7 a.m.
 - She brushes her teeth every morning.

- They go to bed late.
- 4. Write 4 sentences about what you do after school.
- 5. Describe your daily morning schedule in French (at least 3 sentences).

ASSIGNMENT

1. Write a paragraph in French (8–10 sentences) about your daily routine from morning to night.
2. Create a weekly schedule in French showing your activities (school, hobbies, chores).
3. Interview a family member or friend about their daily habits, then write 5 sentences in French to describe their routine.

WEEK 4: PARLER D'UN ÉVÉNEMENT PASSÉ (LES SOUVENIRS)

Utilisation du passé composé et de l'imparfait; raconter un souvenir

INTRODUCTION

- To speak French fluently, it is important to describe past events clearly.
- In this lesson, students will learn how to use the passé composé (perfect tense) and imparfait (imperfect tense) to narrate experiences and memories.
- The passé composé is used for completed actions, while the imparfait is used for background descriptions, repeated actions, or states in the past.
- Students will practice telling personal memories and stories using both tenses correctly.

VOCABULARY: EXPRESSIONS OF TIME FOR PAST EVENTS

- Hier – yesterday
- Avant-hier – the day before yesterday
- La semaine dernière – last week
- Le mois dernier – last month
- L'année dernière – last year
- Il y a deux jours – two days ago
- Quand j'étais petit(e) – when I was small
- Autrefois – in the past
- Souvent – often
- Toujours – always
- Rarement – rarely
- Un jour – one day

GRAMMAR: PASSÉ COMPOSÉ

Formation:

- Avoir/Être + participe passé (past participle)
- Example:
 - J'ai mangé (I ate / I have eaten)
 - Elle est allée (She went)
- Verbs conjugated with être: mostly verbs of movement (aller, venir, arriver, partir, entrer, sortir, etc.) and reflexive verbs.

Examples:

- Hier, j'ai étudié mes leçons.
- Elle est arrivée à 8 heures.
- Nous avons visité un musée.

GRAMMAR: IMPARFAIT

Formation:

- Take the nous form of the present tense, remove -ons, add endings:
 - Je -ais, Tu -ais, Il/Elle -ait, Nous -ions, Vous -iez, Ils/Elles -aient.

Use:

- Describing background (time, weather, feelings).
- Habitual or repeated past actions.
- Ongoing actions when something else happened.

Examples:

- Quand j'étais enfant, je jouais souvent au football.
- Il faisait beau hier.
- Nous regardions la télé quand le téléphone a sonné.

WHEN TO USE PASSÉ COMPOSÉ VS IMPARFAIT

Passé Composé	Imparfait
A single, completed action.	Description or setting the scene.
Sequence of events.	Habitual/repeated actions.

Interrupting action.	Action being interrupted.
----------------------	---------------------------

Example:

- Je regardais la télé quand il est entré.
(I was watching TV when he came in.)

EXAMPLES OF SENTENCES ABOUT SOUVENIRS

- Quand j'étais petit(e), j'habitais au village avec mes grands-parents.
- Il y a deux ans, nous avons voyagé à Abuja.
- C'était une belle journée; il faisait chaud et nous avons joué au parc.

ORAL PRACTICE

1. Students describe a childhood memory using both tenses.
2. Pair activity: Ask and answer questions about past events:
 - Qu'est-ce que tu as fait hier? (What did you do yesterday?)
 - Comment était ton école primaire? (What was your primary school like?)
3. Group storytelling: Each student adds a sentence to narrate a story.

WRITTEN PRACTICE

1. Fill in the blanks with the correct form of passé composé or imparfait.
2. Write 5 sentences describing a trip or a holiday in the past.
3. Write 3 sentences describing your childhood.

CULTURAL NOTE

- In French culture, storytelling often includes details about the weather, time, and atmosphere to set the scene.
- The imparfait is very common in literature to describe scenes or ongoing actions, while the passé composé advances the action.

EVALUATION

1. Conjugate aller, manger, jouer in passé composé.
2. Conjugate être, avoir, regarder in imparfait.
3. Translate into French:
 - I went to the market last week.
 - When I was small, I liked playing football.
 - We visited Lagos two years ago.
4. Write 5 sentences describing your activities yesterday.
5. Write 3 sentences describing your childhood habits.

ASSIGNMENT

1. Write a short paragraph (8–10 sentences) narrating your most memorable holiday or event, using both passé composé and imparfait.
2. Create a timeline of 5 important events in your life and describe them in French.
3. Write a dialogue in French where two friends discuss what they did last weekend.

WEEK 6: DÉCRIRE UN OBJET

Vocabulaire des formes, couleurs, matières; parler de l'usage d'un objet

INTRODUCTION

In this lesson, students will learn how to describe objects in French by mentioning their size, shape, color, material, and use. This skill is essential in communication, especially when identifying or asking for items in shops, giving instructions, or describing possessions.

KEY VOCABULARY

1. Shapes – Les formes

- Rond(e) – round
- Carré(e) – square
- Rectangulaire – rectangular
- Ovale – oval
- Triangulaire – triangular
- Allongé(e) – elongated

2. Sizes – Les tailles

- Grand(e) – big
- Petit(e) – small
- Long(ue) – long
- Court(e) – short
- Large – wide
- Étroit(e) – narrow

3. Colors – Les couleurs

- Rouge – red
- Bleu(e) – blue
- Vert(e) – green
- Jaune – yellow
- Noir(e) – black
- Blanc(he) – white
- Marron – brown
- Gris(e) – grey
- Orange – orange

- Violet(te) – purple

4. Materials – Les matières

- En bois – made of wood
- En métal – made of metal
- En plastique – made of plastic
- En verre – made of glass
- En tissu – made of fabric
- En cuir – made of leather
- En papier – made of paper

5. Usage – L'utilisation

- C'est pour écrire. – It's for writing.
- On l'utilise pour cuisiner. – It's used for cooking.
- On s'en sert pour travailler. – We use it for working.
- Il sert à... – It is used to...

GRAMMAR FOCUS: ADJECTIVES

- Position: In French, most adjectives come after the noun, except a few (BAGS: Beauty, Age, Goodness, Size).
 - Example:
 - Une petite table ronde (a small round table).
- Agreement: Adjectives agree with the gender and number of the noun.
 - Example:
 - Une chaise verte (feminine, singular).

- Des livres rouges (plural).

SAMPLE SENTENCES

- C'est une chaise en bois. Elle est confortable et solide.
- Le téléphone est rectangulaire et noir.
- La bouteille est en plastique; on l'utilise pour conserver de l'eau.
- J'ai un sac en cuir marron.
- Cette table est grande et ronde.

ORAL PRACTICE ACTIVITIES

1. Object Guessing Game: Teacher describes an object; students guess:
 - Exemple: "C'est petit, en métal, on l'utilise pour écrire." → Réponse: "Un stylo!"
2. Show and Tell: Students bring an object from their bag, describe it in French.
3. Pair Work: One student describes an object; partner draws it based on the description.

WRITTEN PRACTICE

1. Write 5 sentences describing any classroom object.
2. Match pictures of objects with their correct French descriptions.
3. Write a short descriptive paragraph about your favorite object at home.

CULTURAL NOTE

In French markets and shops, precise descriptions of size, material, and color are common when requesting items. Knowing how to describe objects well helps in real-life communication when shopping or giving directions.

EVALUATION

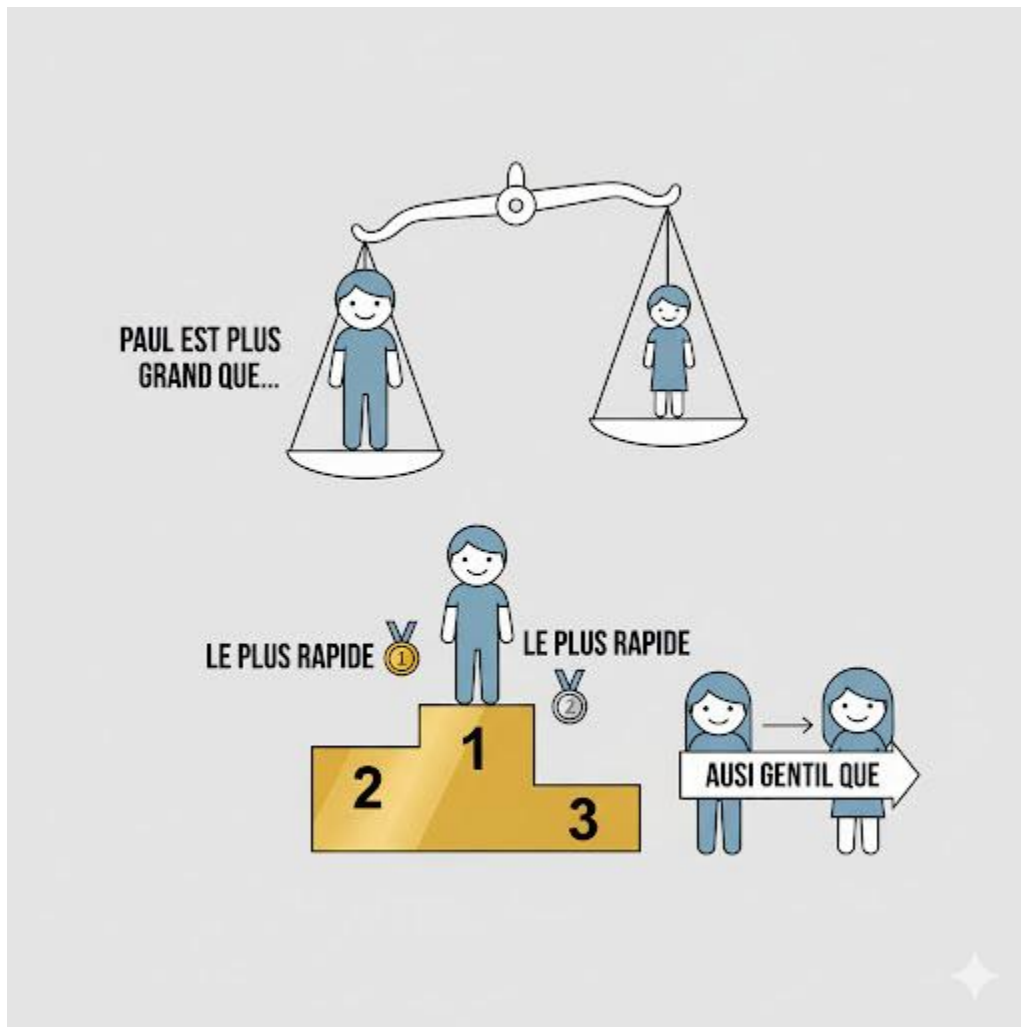

1. Translate the following into French:
 - The bottle is made of glass.
 - I have a small, black phone.
 - This bag is used for school.
2. Fill in the blanks with appropriate adjectives:
 - La table est _____ (big and round).
 - C'est une chaise _____ (wooden and comfortable).
3. Write 5 sentences describing any objects in your classroom.
4. Give two sentences stating the use of each of the following:
 - Stylo, Ordinateur, Chaise.

ASSIGNMENT

1. Choose any object in your house and write a descriptive paragraph of 8–10 sentences in French about its color, shape, size, material, and use.
2. Draw or paste a picture of the object and label its parts in French.
3. Prepare a 2-minute oral presentation describing an object you use every day.

WEEK 8: COMPARER

Employer les comparatifs et superlatifs pour comparer personnes, objets et situations

INTRODUCTION

In this lesson, students will learn how to compare people, objects, and situations in French using comparative and superlative structures. Comparison is an important communication skill in describing similarities, differences, and degrees of qualities. This lesson will strengthen vocabulary, grammar, and expression for effective real-life interactions in conversations, essays, and descriptions.

KEY VOCABULARY

- Plus... que – more... than
- Moins... que – less... than
- Aussi... que – as... as
- Le plus / La plus / Les plus – the most
- Le moins / La moins / Les moins – the least
- Bon(ne) – good
- Meilleur(e) – better
- Mauvais(e) – bad
- Pire / Plus mauvais(e) – worse
- Grand(e) – big/tall
- Petit(e) – small/short
- Cher/chère – expensive/dear
- Facile – easy
- Intéressant(e) – interesting

COMPARATIVES: STRUCTURE AND EXAMPLES

1. Comparing adjectives:

- Plus + adjective + que → more... than
 - Exemple: Marie est plus grande que Paul. (Marie is taller than Paul.)
- Moins + adjective + que → less... than
 - Exemple: Ce livre est moins intéressant que l'autre. (This book is less interesting than the other.)

- Aussi + adjective + que → as... as
 - Exemple: Ton sac est aussi cher que le mien. (Your bag is as expensive as mine.)

2. Comparing adverbs:

- Plus + adverb + que
 - Exemple: Il parle plus vite que moi. (He speaks faster than me.)
- Moins + adverb + que
 - Exemple: Elle danse moins bien que sa sœur. (She dances less well than her sister.)

3. Irregular comparatives:

- Bon → meilleur(e) → le meilleur(e) (good → better → the best)
- Mauvais → pire/plus mauvais(e) → le pire/le plus mauvais (bad → worse → the worst)
- Bien → mieux → le mieux (well → better → the best)

SUPERLATIVES: STRUCTURE AND EXAMPLES

1. Superlative of adjectives:

- Le / La / Les + plus + adjective → the most
 - Exemple: Marie est la plus intelligente de la classe. (Marie is the most intelligent in the class.)
- Le / La / Les + moins + adjective → the least
 - Exemple: C'est le moins cher. (It's the least expensive.)

2. Superlative of adverbs:

- Il chante le mieux. (He sings the best.)

- Elle travaille le plus sérieusement. (She works the most seriously.)

SAMPLE SENTENCES

- Cette voiture est plus rapide que celle-ci. (This car is faster than that one.)
- Mon sac est moins lourd que ton sac. (My bag is less heavy than your bag.)
- Ce film est aussi intéressant que le livre. (This film is as interesting as the book.)
- Paul est le plus gentil garçon de la classe. (Paul is the nicest boy in the class.)
- C'est le moins cher de tous les magasins. (It's the cheapest of all the shops.)

ORAL PRACTICE ACTIVITIES

1. Pair Comparison Practice:

- Students pair up to describe and compare objects in their school bags.
- Example: “Mon stylo est plus long que ton crayon.”

2. Role-Play Game:

- One student plays a shopkeeper and another plays a customer; they compare prices, colors, and sizes of objects.

3. Classroom Comparison Challenge:

- Students compare classmates: “Jean est plus grand que Marie. Marie est la plus sportive de la classe.”

WRITTEN PRACTICE

1. Write 5 sentences comparing items in your classroom.
2. Write 5 superlative sentences about your friends or family.

3. Fill in blanks with correct comparative or superlative forms:

- Ce livre est _____ (more interesting) que celui-là.
- Marie est _____ (the best) élève de la classe.
- Paul court _____ (faster) que Jean.

CULTURAL NOTE

In French culture, comparisons are frequently used in advertising to persuade customers. Superlatives like le meilleur and le plus rapide are commonly used in product branding. Understanding comparison structures also helps students appreciate French literature and conversation styles.

EVALUATION

1. Translate into French:
 - This table is bigger than that one.
 - He is the best student in the class.
 - My house is less expensive than your house.
2. Compare two of your favorite objects using at least three different comparative structures.
3. Write three superlative sentences about your school.
4. Correct the mistakes:
 - Marie est le plus belle fille de la classe.
 - Paul est aussi intelligent que plus moi.

ASSIGNMENT

1. Write ten sentences comparing members of your family, using both comparative and superlative structures.
2. Choose three objects at home and describe them, highlighting differences in size, color, material, and cost.
3. Prepare a short dialogue (6–8 lines) between two friends comparing their schools, clothes, or hobbies.

WEEK 9: DATER ET MESURER LE TEMPS

Savoir donner la date, l'heure; employer les expressions temporelles

INTRODUCTION

In this lesson, students will learn how to express dates, time, and temporal expressions in French. Mastering this topic will allow them to communicate effectively about schedules, birthdays, historical events, and daily routines. Understanding French date and time systems is also important for reading timetables, calendars, travel information, and planning activities.

KEY VOCABULARY

Days of the Week (Les jours de la semaine):

- Lundi (Monday)
- Mardi (Tuesday)
- Mercredi (Wednesday)
- Jeudi (Thursday)
- Vendredi (Friday)
- Samedi (Saturday)
- Dimanche (Sunday)

Months of the Year (Les mois de l'année):

- Janvier, Février, Mars, Avril, Mai, Juin, Juillet, Août, Septembre, Octobre, Novembre, Décembre

Time Vocabulary (Le vocabulaire de l'heure):

- Quelle heure est-il ? – What time is it?
- Il est... heure(s). – It is... o'clock.
- Midi – Noon
- Minuit – Midnight
- Et quart – Quarter past
- Et demie – Half past
- Moins le quart – Quarter to
- Heure pile – Sharp, exactly on the hour
- Matin (morning), Après-midi (afternoon), Soir (evening), Nuit (night)

Temporal Expressions:

- Aujourd'hui – Today

- Hier – Yesterday
- Demain – Tomorrow
- La semaine prochaine – Next week
- La semaine dernière – Last week
- Le mois prochain – Next month
- L’année dernière – Last year
- Tous les jours – Every day
- Souvent – Often
- Toujours – Always
- Jamais – Never

HOW TO GIVE THE DATE

Structure:

- Aujourd’hui, c’est le + number + month (+ year).
- Example: Aujourd’hui, c’est le 29 août 2025.
- Use “le premier” for the first day of the month:
 - Exemple: C’est le premier janvier.

Questions:

- Quelle est la date aujourd’hui ? (What is today’s date?)
- C’est quel jour ? (What day is it?)

HOW TO TELL THE TIME

Using the 12-hour Clock

- Il est deux heures. (It's 2 o'clock.)
- Il est trois heures et quart. (It's a quarter past 3.)
- Il est quatre heures et demie. (It's half past 4.)
- Il est cinq heures moins le quart. (It's a quarter to 5.)

Using the 24-hour Clock (Common in France)

- Il est treize heures. (It's 1 p.m.)
- Il est dix-huit heures trente. (It's 6:30 p.m.)
- Il est vingt et une heures. (It's 9 p.m.)

EXAMPLES

1. Aujourd'hui, c'est le mardi 29 août 2025.
2. Mon anniversaire est le 10 mars.
3. Le train part à 15h45.
4. Hier, nous sommes allés au marché.
5. Demain, il fera beau.

ORAL PRACTICE ACTIVITIES

1. Calendar Drill:

- The teacher points to a date on a calendar, and students state it in French.
- Example: "C'est le vingt-trois octobre."

2. Role-Play Activity:

- Students act out making an appointment:
 - "On se voit quand ?"

- “Jeudi prochain à trois heures et demie.”

3. Clock Reading Game:

- Show different times on a clock (real or drawn) and students read them aloud in French.

WRITTEN PRACTICE

1. Write today's date and the birthdays of three family members in French.
2. Write down your school timetable in French, stating the day and time of each subject.
3. Fill in blanks:
 - Aujourd'hui, nous sommes _____ (Monday).
 - Il est _____ heures et quart.
 - Mon anniversaire est _____ (on July 14th).

CULTURAL NOTE

In French-speaking countries, the day precedes the month when writing the date:

- 29/08/2025 → 29th August 2025

They also frequently use the 24-hour clock for official schedules, such as in transport timetables, TV programs, and offices.

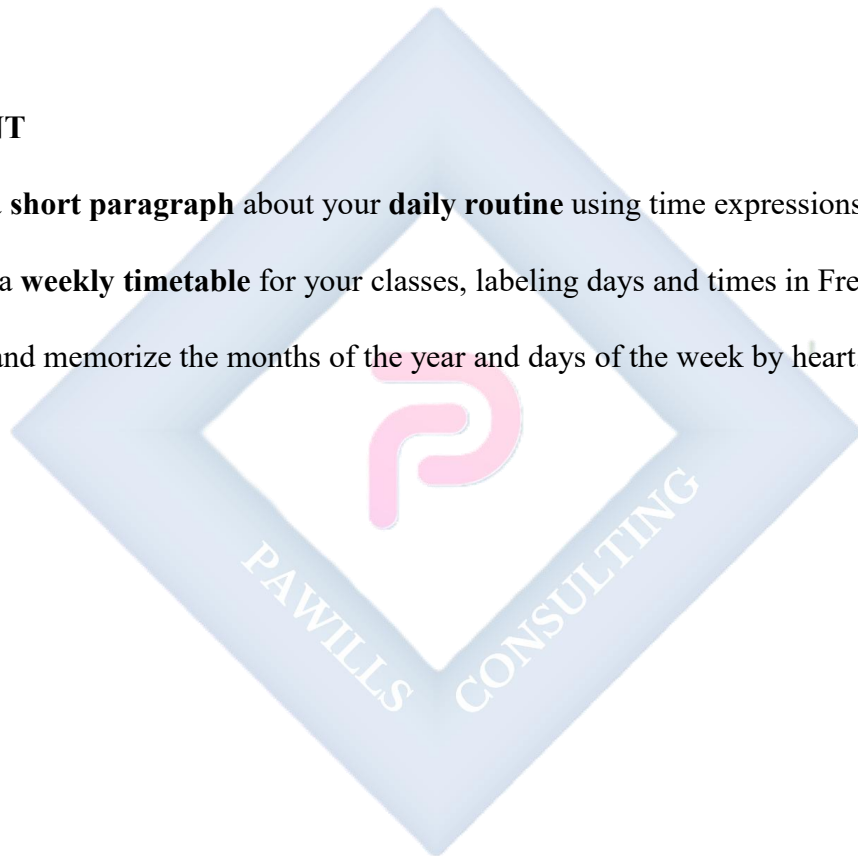

EVALUATION

1. State today's date in French.
2. What is the difference between “midi” and “minuit”?
3. Say these times in French:

- 7:30 a.m.
 - 11:45 a.m.
 - 9:15 p.m.
4. Translate:
- Yesterday was Sunday.
 - Tomorrow will be Wednesday.

ASSIGNMENT

1. Write a short paragraph about your daily routine using time expressions.
2. Create a weekly timetable for your classes, labeling days and times in French.
3. Learn and memorize the months of the year and days of the week by heart.

WEEK 10: RACONTER SA JOURNÉE

Contenu: Organisation d'un récit chronologique au présent et au passé

A. Vocabulaire des activités quotidiennes

- se réveiller – to wake up
- se lever – to get up
- se laver – to wash
- prendre le petit déjeuner – to take breakfast
- aller à l'école – to go to school

- étudier – to study
- rentrer à la maison – to return home
- se reposer – to rest
- faire les devoirs – to do homework
- se coucher – to sleep

B. Marqueurs de temps (Chronologie)

To organize a chronological narrative:

- D’abord – first
- Ensuite / Puis – next / then
- Après – after
- Plus tard – later
- Enfin – finally
- Le matin / L’après-midi / Le soir – morning / afternoon / evening

C. Le présent pour raconter une routine

Exemple:

Le matin, je me réveille à 6h. Ensuite, je me lave et je prends mon petit déjeuner. Puis je vais à l’école.

Teacher explains that present tense is used for habitual actions.

D. Le passé composé pour raconter une journée passée

Structure:

Sujet + auxiliaire (avoir/être) + participe passé

Exemples:

- Je me suis réveillé(e) à 6 heures.
- J'ai pris mon petit déjeuner.
- Je suis allé(e) à l'école.
- J'ai étudié et j'ai fait mes devoirs.
- Je me suis couché(e) à 21 heures.

Teacher highlights the difference between:

- Présent (routine)
- Passé composé (one past day's events)

E. Exemple de récit chronologique (Modèle)

Au présent :

Chaque jour, je me réveille à 6h. D'abord, je me lave et je m'habille. Ensuite, je prends mon petit déjeuner. À 7h30, je vais à l'école. L'après-midi, je rentre à la maison, je me repose et je fais mes devoirs. Enfin, je me couche à 21h.

Au passé composé :

Hier, je me suis réveillé(e) à 6h. Ensuite, je me suis lavé(e) et j'ai pris mon petit déjeuner. Puis, je suis allé(e) à l'école. L'après-midi, je suis rentré(e) à la maison, j'ai fait mes devoirs et je me suis reposé(e). Enfin, je me suis couché(e) à 21h.

Classroom Activities

Activity 1: Oral Practice

Students read the model sentences aloud and describe their own morning routine.

Activity 2: Sentence Arrangement

Teacher gives mixed sentences; students rearrange them chronologically.

Activity 3: Writing Task

Students write a short paragraph either:

- “Raconte ta journée habituelle.” (present)
or
- “Raconte la journée d’hier.” (past)

EVALUATION

Students should be able to:

- Use at least 5 verbs correctly in present or past tense.
- Organize events using marqueurs de temps.
- Produce a simple chronological paragraph of 6–8 sentences.

Example questions:

1. Écris trois activités que tu fais le matin.
2. Transforme au passé composé: Je vais à l’école.
3. Utilise 3 marqueurs de temps dans un récit court.

ASSIGNMENT

Write a short composition (8–10 lines) on:

“Hier, comment as-tu passé ta journée ?”

WEEK 1: RELATER UN ÉVÉNEMENT PASSÉ

Employer le passé composé, l'imparfait et les adverbess temporels pour situer les actions

INTRODUCTION

In this lesson, students will learn to narrate past events in French using the passé composé (perfect tense) for completed actions and the imparfait (imperfect tense) for descriptions, repeated actions, or background information. Students will also practice using adverbs of time to indicate when events happened.

KEY VOCABULARY

Common Adverbs of Time (Les adverbess temporels)

- Hier – Yesterday
- Avant-hier – The day before yesterday
- La semaine dernière – Last week
- L'année dernière – Last year
- Il y a deux jours – Two days ago
- Souvent – Often
- Toujours – Always
- Parfois – Sometimes
- D'habitude – Usually
- Pendant que – While
- Quand – When

GRAMMAR FOCUS

1. Le Passé Composé (Perfect Tense)

Use: To describe completed actions/events that happened at a specific time.

Formation:

- Subject + auxiliary verb (avoir or être) + past participle.
- Example:
 - J'ai mangé. (I ate.)
 - Elle est allée au marché. (She went to the market.)

Examples with time markers:

- Hier, nous avons joué au football. (Yesterday, we played football.)
- Il y a deux jours, j'ai visité ma tante. (Two days ago, I visited my aunt.)

2. L'Imparfait (Imperfect Tense)

Use: To describe repeated actions, background scenes, age, weather, emotions in the past.

Formation:

- Take the nous form of the present tense, remove “-ons”, add endings:
 - Je -ais, Tu -ais, Il/elle -ait, Nous -ions, Vous -iez, Ils/elles -aient
- Example:
 - Quand j'étais petit, je jouais souvent au parc. (When I was little, I often played at the park.)
 - Il faisait beau hier. (The weather was nice yesterday.)

3. Contrast between Passé Composé and Imparfait

Passé Composé	Imparfait
Completed actions/events	Descriptions, background, ongoing actions
Example: Hier, j'ai vu un film.	Example: Le film était très intéressant.

EXAMPLES OF USE

- Quand j'étais enfant, je jouais au ballon tous les jours.
- Hier soir, nous avons regardé un film à la télévision.
- Il pleuvait quand je suis sorti.

CLASS ACTIVITIES

1. Sentence Transformation:

Convert present tense sentences into passé composé or imparfait.

2. Timeline Game:

Students place actions in chronological order using “hier”, “avant-hier”, “il y a...”.

3. Role-Play:

Students pair up and narrate a weekend or holiday experience, mixing both tenses.

WRITTEN PRACTICE

1. Write 5 sentences in passé composé about what you did yesterday.
2. Write 5 sentences in imparfait describing your childhood.
3. Combine both in a paragraph:
 - Start with background (imparfait).
 - Then narrate completed actions (passé composé).

CULTURAL NOTE

In French literature and storytelling, the imparfait sets the scene or describes background information, while passé composé moves the story forward with key actions.

EVALUATION

1. Conjugate “manger” and “aller” in passé composé for je, tu, il/elle.
2. Conjugate “avoir” and “être” in imparfait for je, nous, ils/elles.
3. Translate:
 - Yesterday, I went to the market.

- When I was small, I often played football.
4. Write 6 sentences about your last weekend using both tenses.

ASSIGNMENT

Write a short paragraph (6–8 sentences) narrating your last holiday. Use both passé composé and imparfait with time markers.

WEEK 2: RAPPORTER UN FAIT RÉCENT

Utilisation du passé composé avec venir de et autres structures pour exprimer l'actualité immédiate

INTRODUCTION

This lesson teaches students how to report very recent events in French using the structure “venir de + infinitif” (to have just done something), alongside the passé composé to discuss events that happened a short while ago. Students will also practice expressions that mark immediacy and recency in conversations, helping them describe news or updates naturally.

KEY VOCABULARY & EXPRESSIONS

French Expression	English Meaning
Je viens de...	I have just...
Il vient d'arriver.	He has just arrived.
Nous venons de terminer le travail.	We have just finished the work.
Tout à l'heure	Just now / A while ago
Il y a un instant	A moment ago
Récemment	Recently

GRAMMAR FOCUS

1. Venir de + Infinitif

Structure:

- Sujet + venir (conjugué au présent) + de + infinitif
- Used to talk about an action that just happened.

Examples:

- Je viens de manger. (I have just eaten.)
- Elle vient de rentrer. (She has just come back.)
- Nous venons de commencer la leçon. (We have just started the lesson.)

2. Passé Composé (Review)

- Use avoir/être + past participle for completed actions in the near past:
 - J'ai vu Paul il y a cinq minutes. (I saw Paul five minutes ago.)
 - Il est parti tout à l'heure. (He left just now.)

3. Time Expressions for Recent Past

- Il y a un instant – A moment ago
- Tout à l’heure – Earlier / Just now
- Récemment – Recently
- Il y a peu de temps – Not long ago

EXAMPLES

- Je viens de recevoir un message. (I’ve just received a message.)
- Ils viennent de terminer leurs devoirs. (They have just finished their homework.)
- Nous avons parlé à ton ami tout à l’heure. (We spoke to your friend just now.)

CLASS ACTIVITIES

1. Substitution Drill:

- Replace verbs in sentences:
 - Je viens de ____ (manger, finir, voir, appeler).

2. Pair Practice:

- Students tell their partner 3 things they’ve just done.

3. Mini-News Reports:

- Students create a short “TV news” update using venir de + infinitif.

4. Timeline Game:

- Arrange sentences in order of immediacy:
 - Hier, ce matin, tout à l’heure, à l’instant.

WRITTEN PRACTICE

1. Complete these sentences:

- Je viens de _____.
- Nous venons de _____.

2. Translate into French:

- He has just eaten.
- They have just arrived.

3. Write a short paragraph (4–5 sentences) describing what you and your family have just done.

CULTURAL NOTE

French speakers often use venir de instead of passé composé to emphasize recency, making it sound more natural in conversation.

EVALUATION

1. Conjugate venir in the present tense.
2. Write 3 sentences using venir de + infinitif.
3. Write 3 sentences using passé composé with a time marker for a recent event.
4. Role-play: Interview a classmate and ask what they've just done.

ASSIGNMENT

Write a short dialogue between two friends who are catching up. Each must use venir de + infinitif at least twice to describe recent activities.

WEEK 3: COMPRENDRE UN RÉCIT / ÉCRIRE SON JOURNAL

Lecture et compréhension de récits simples; rédaction de son journal intime

INTRODUCTION

In this lesson, students will learn to read and understand simple stories (récits) in French and develop skills to write their own diary entries (journal intime). The focus is on improving reading comprehension, identifying key narrative elements, and expressing personal thoughts and experiences in written French.

KEY VOCABULARY

French Expression / Word	English Meaning
Un récit	A story / narrative
Un personnage	A character
L'intrigue	Plot
Le lieu / le cadre	Place / setting
Le temps	Time (when events happened)
Une expérience	An experience
Hier / avant-hier	Yesterday / day before
L'année dernière	Last year
Heureux / triste / en colère	Happy / sad / angry
Cher journal...	Dear diary...

GRAMMAR & WRITING FOCUS

1. Narrative Tenses

- Passé composé: Completed actions/events in a story.
 - Ex: Hier, j'ai vu mes amis au parc.
- Imparfait: Background description or repeated actions.
 - Ex: Il faisait beau et il y avait beaucoup de monde.

2. Structure of a Journal Entry

A French journal intime typically includes:

1. Date: Samedi 28 février
2. Salutation: Cher journal,

3. Narrative: Describe what happened, feelings, opinions.
4. Closing remark: Bonne nuit, à demain, etc.

Example:

Samedi 28 février

Cher journal,

Aujourd'hui, j'ai passé une journée formidable. Je suis allé(e) au marché avec ma mère. Il faisait beau. J'ai acheté des fruits et rencontré mes amis. Je suis très content(e).

Bonne nuit !

CLASS ACTIVITIES

1. Reading Comprehension Practice:

- Read a short story (5–6 sentences).
- Students answer questions: Who? Where? What happened? When? How did the character feel?

2. Vocabulary Sorting:

- Sort words into categories: Emotions, Actions, Places.

3. Timeline Activity:

- Arrange events in the correct sequence based on a given text.

4. Guided Writing:

- Teacher models writing a simple diary entry. Students write their own guided entry.

5. Peer Sharing:

- In pairs, students share one diary sentence aloud.

EXAMPLES OF RÉCITS

- “Hier, nous sommes allés à l’école très tôt. La pluie tombait fort. Nous avons joué au foot après les cours. J’étais très fatigué mais content.”

EVALUATION

1. Explain in French what a récit is.
2. Identify narrative elements (characters, place, time) in a given story.
3. Translate sentences into French:
 - I was happy yesterday because I saw my friends.
 - Last week, it was raining.
4. Write a 5-sentence journal entry describing yesterday’s events.

ASSIGNMENT

1. Write a diary entry (6–8 sentences) describing a memorable day last week.
2. Write 5 new French sentences using passé composé and imparfait together.
3. Prepare a short oral summary of a personal experience to present in class next week.

WEEK 4: DIRE CE QUE L'ON VA FAIRE

Utilisation du futur proche et du futur simple; parler de ses intentions

INTRODUCTION

This lesson introduces students to talking about future plans and intentions in French. Students will learn to distinguish between the futur proche (near future) and futur simple (simple future) and use these tenses to describe what they are going to do soon or later. This skill helps students express intentions, plans, and predictions clearly.

KEY VOCABULARY

French Expression	English Meaning
Demain	Tomorrow
Bientôt	Soon
Plus tard	Later
La semaine prochaine	Next week
L'année prochaine	Next year
Je vais...	I am going to...
Nous allons...	We are going to...
Je ferai...	I will do...
Il pleuvra	It will rain
Mon projet	My plan

1. Futur proche (Near future)

- Structure: Sujet + aller (au présent) + verbe à l'infinitif
- Used for actions happening very soon or planned.
- Examples:
 - Je vais manger. (I am going to eat.)
 - Nous allons voyager demain. (We are going to travel tomorrow.)

2. Futur simple (Simple future)

- Structure: Sujet + verbe à l'infinitif + terminaisons du futur (-ai, -as, -a, -ons, -ez, -ont)
- Used for actions that will happen later or in a general future.

- Endings:
 - Je parlerai, tu parleras, il/elle parlera, nous parlerons, vous parlerez, ils/elles parleront.
- Examples:
 - J'irai à Paris. (I will go to Paris.)
 - Ils finiront leurs devoirs. (They will finish their homework.)

3. Differences

Futur proche	Futur simple
For immediate plans	For distant future or predictions
"I am going to..."	"I will..."
Ex: Je vais étudier ce soir.	Ex: J'étudierai à l'université plus tard.

TIME EXPRESSIONS TO NOTE

- Demain (tomorrow)
- Ce soir (tonight)
- Bientôt (soon)
- Dans deux jours (in two days)
- L'année prochaine (next year)
- Plus tard (later)

CLASS ACTIVITIES

1. Teacher Demonstration:

- Write sentences in futur proche and futur simple on the board; explain differences.

2. Group Practice:

- Students convert present-tense sentences into futur proche and futur simple.

3. Pair Work:

- One student asks: “Qu’est-ce que tu vas faire ce week-end ?” (What are you going to do this weekend?)
- Partner responds using futur proche or futur simple.

4. Future Plans Poster:

- Groups create a poster of what they “will do” in five years (in French).

EXAMPLES OF SENTENCES

- Ce soir, je vais réviser mes leçons. (Tonight, I am going to revise my lessons.)
- Nous irons à Lagos pour les vacances. (We will go to Lagos for the holidays.)
- Demain, elle va rencontrer ses amis. (Tomorrow, she is going to meet her friends.)
- Dans cinq ans, je serai médecin. (In five years, I will be a doctor.)

EVALUATION

1. Define futur proche and futur simple in French.
2. Write the conjugation of aller in the present tense.
3. Transform these sentences into futur proche:
 - Je mange un sandwich.
 - Nous partons en vacances.

4. Transform these into futur simple:

- Je finis mes devoirs.
- Tu vas à l'école.

ASSIGNMENT

1. Write 10 sentences about what you will do this weekend (5 in futur proche, 5 in futur simple).
2. Write a short paragraph (6–8 sentences) about your plans for next year in French.
3. Create 5 French questions to ask a classmate about their future plans.

WEEK 6: FAIRE DES PROJETS

Exprimer ses projets personnels et scolaires; vocabulaire de planification; futur simple

INTRODUCTION

This lesson focuses on talking about projects, ambitions, and future plans in French. Students will learn essential vocabulary for making and discussing plans (school-related or personal), and they will practice expressing these plans in the futur simple tense. This prepares them for real-life conversations about aspirations, goals, and planning in French.

KEY VOCABULARY

French Word/Phrase	English Meaning
Un projet	A project
Planifier	To plan
Mon avenir	My future
Objectif	Goal / objective
L'année prochaine	Next year
Après les examens	After exams
Je voudrais...	I would like...
Je serai...	I will be...
Je ferai...	I will do...
Nous réussirons...	We will succeed...

GRAMMAR FOCUS: FUTUR SIMPLE

The futur simple is used to talk about future actions, ambitions, and predictions.

- Structure: Sujet + verbe à l'infinitif + terminaisons (-ai, -as, -a, -ons, -ez, -ont).
- Endings:
 - Je parlerai
 - Tu parleras
 - Il/elle parlera
 - Nous parlerons
 - Vous parlerez
 - Ils/elles parleront

Examples:

- Je réussirai mes examens. (I will pass my exams.)
- Nous voyagerons en France. (We will travel to France.)
- Ils auront un projet important. (They will have an important project.)

VOCABULARY FOR PLANNING

French	English
Organiser mon avenir	Organize my future
Choisir une carrière	Choose a career
Faire des études	To study
S'inscrire à l'université	To enroll in university
Trouver un emploi	Find a job
Voyager à l'étranger	Travel abroad
Obtenir un diplôme	Get a degree

CLASS ACTIVITIES

1. Warm-up Discussion:

Teacher asks students in French:

- “Quels sont vos projets pour l'année prochaine ?” (What are your plans for next year?)
- “Que ferez-vous après vos études ?” (What will you do after your studies?)

2. Pair Activity – Future Goals Dialogue:

- Students interview each other about future plans and write a summary in French.

3. Group Project Planning:

- Groups create a mock school event plan (a concert, an exhibition, etc.) using futur simple.

4. Role Play:

- One student plays a career counselor; the other describes their future career plans.

SAMPLE SENTENCES

- Je ferai mes devoirs ce soir. (I will do my homework tonight.)
- Nous préparerons un projet scientifique. (We will prepare a science project.)
- L'année prochaine, j'irai au lycée. (Next year, I will go to high school.)
- Dans dix ans, je serai médecin. (In ten years, I will be a doctor.)

TIME EXPRESSIONS FOR PLANS

- Bientôt (soon)
- Dans un an / deux ans (in a year/two years)
- L'année prochaine (next year)
- Après l'école (after school)
- À l'avenir (in the future)

EVALUATION

1. Conjugate the verb faire (to do/make) in the futur simple.
2. Write 5 sentences describing your school plans for next term.
3. Complete this sentence:
 - Dans cinq ans, je _____. (In five years, I will...)

4. Translate into French:

- We will travel to France next year.
- She will choose her career after university.

ASSIGNMENT

1. Write a short paragraph (8–10 sentences) about your future dreams and ambitions in French.
2. Create a simple plan for your next holiday (in French) using at least 5 futur simple sentences.
3. Prepare a 3-line dialogue with a classmate about your future studies or career.

WEEK 8: CONSOLIDATION ORALE ET ÉCRITE

Exercices de dialogues, jeux de rôles et production écrite sur les unités 9–13

CONSOLIDATION ORALE ET ÉCRITE

INTRODUCTION

This week is dedicated to reinforcing all concepts and skills learned in Units 9–13 through intensive oral and written practice. Students will consolidate their mastery of describing events, narrating in the past and future, expressing plans, and understanding narratives. The aim is to strengthen confidence in communication and writing, while reviewing grammar structures (passé composé, imparfait, futur proche, futur simple).

SKILLS FOCUS

Skill Area	Focus Activities
Speaking	Role-plays, debates, dialogues, storytelling
Listening	Listening to classmates' presentations, comprehension exercises
Reading	Reading comprehension of short texts and dialogues
Writing	Writing summaries, short essays, journal entries

REVIEW OF UNITS 9–13 (CONTENT SUMMARY)

Unit Topic	Key Focus
9 Dater et mesurer le temps	Dates, telling time, time expressions
10 Relater un événement passé	Passé composé, imparfait, sequencing actions
11 Rapporter un fait récent	"Venir de" + infinitive, expressions of immediate past
12 Comprendre un récit / écrire journal	Reading narratives, writing journal entries
13 Dire ce que l'on va faire	Futur proche, futur simple, expressing intentions

CLASS ACTIVITIES

1. Oral Warm-Up:

- Quick-fire Q&A session: Teacher asks about students' past events, current actions, and future plans.
- Example questions:
 - Qu'as-tu fait hier soir ? (What did you do last night?)
 - Que feras-tu demain ? (What will you do tomorrow?)

2. Role-Playing:

- Students act out real-life scenarios based on Units 9–13 (e.g., planning a trip, reporting news, describing an event).

3. Dialogue Practice:

- Pair students to prepare a short dialogue including at least one past, present, and future tense.

4. Written Consolidation:

- Students write:
 - A short diary entry about yesterday.
 - A plan for their next holiday.

5. Group Presentation:

- Groups present a mini-sketch integrating past and future tense expressions.

GRAMMAR & VOCABULARY REINFORCEMENT

- Past Tenses: Passé composé vs. Imparfait (sequencing events, descriptions)
- Future Tenses: Futur proche vs. Futur simple
- Time Expressions: Hier, aujourd’hui, demain, bientôt, il y a deux jours, dans une semaine
- Transition Words: D’abord, ensuite, après, enfin, cependant, donc

SAMPLE SENTENCES FOR PRACTICE

- Hier, nous avons visité le musée. (Yesterday, we visited the museum.)
- Je viens de finir mes devoirs. (I just finished my homework.)
- Demain, nous irons au marché. (Tomorrow, we will go to the market.)

- L'année prochaine, je commencerai le lycée. (Next year, I will start high school.)

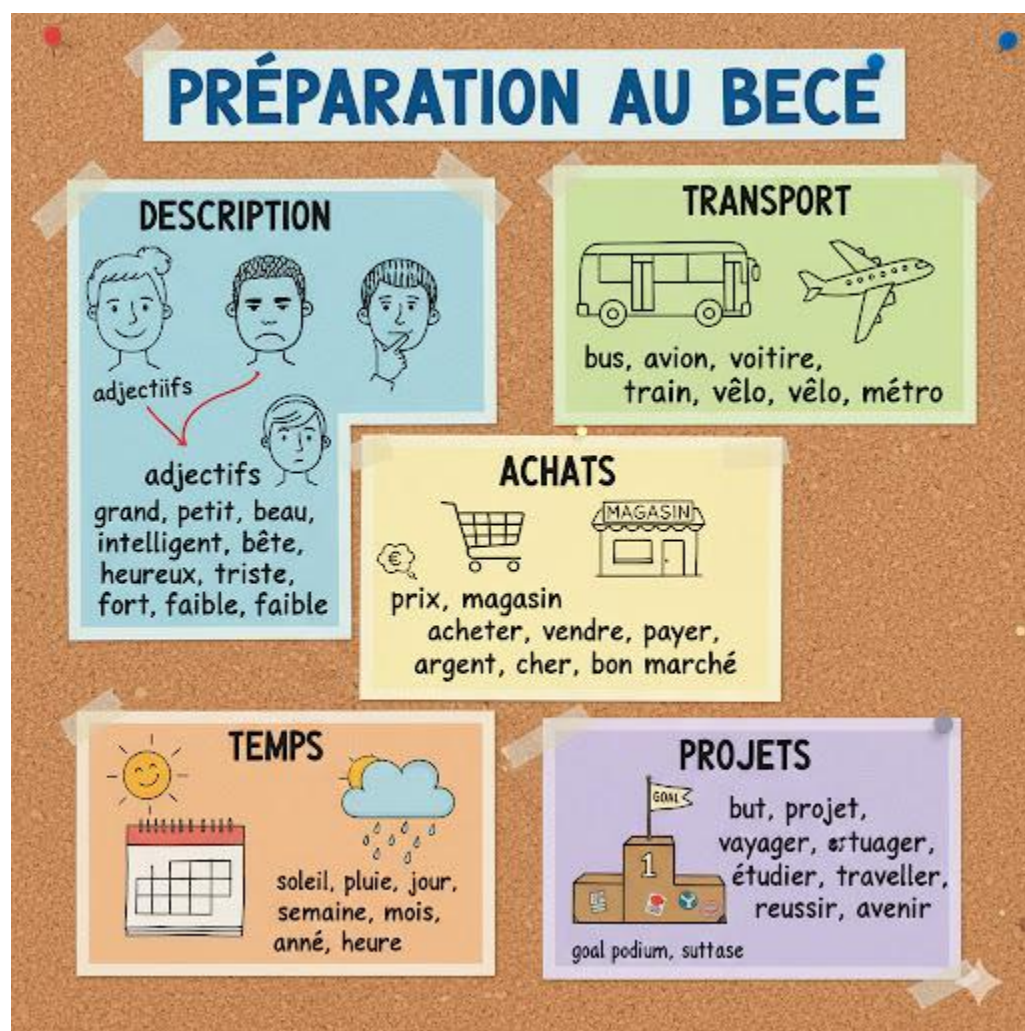

ASSESSMENT & EVALUATION

1. Oral Presentation: Students narrate a past experience and a future plan in French.
2. Written Test: Write a paragraph of 8–10 sentences combining past, present, and future tenses.
3. Listening Comprehension: Teacher reads a short story; students answer questions.
4. Peer Assessment: Students evaluate each other's dialogues for fluency and accuracy.

ASSIGNMENT

1. Write a short letter (in French) to a friend, recounting a past event and inviting them to a future activity.
2. Prepare 5 sentences using passé composé, 5 sentences using futur proche, and 5 sentences using futur simple.
3. Practice a 3-minute oral presentation about your week and plans for the next holiday.

WEEK 9: PRÉPARATION AU BECE (PARTIE I)

INTRODUCTION

This week focuses on targeted preparation for the Basic Education Certificate Examination (BECE). Students will review essential grammar, focusing on past tenses (passé composé, imparfait), future forms (futur proche, futur simple), and comparatives and superlatives. The lessons will ensure students can apply these concepts accurately in speaking, writing, and comprehension tasks during the exam.

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Grammar Point	Key Notes and Examples
Passé Composé	Auxiliary verbs (avoir/être) + past participle. Ex: J'ai mangé. (I ate.) / Il est parti. (He left.)
Imparfait	Used for background descriptions and repeated actions. Ex: Quand j'étais petit, je jouais au foot.
Futur Proche	Aller + infinitive. Ex: Je vais étudier demain. (I'm going to study tomorrow.)
Futur Simple	Infinitive + endings. Ex: Je parlerai français. (I will speak French.)
Comparatives	Plus... que, moins... que, aussi... que. Ex: Elle est plus grande que moi.
Superlatives	Le plus... / le moins... Ex: C'est le plus beau monument. (It's the most beautiful monument.)

PRACTICE SENTENCES

- Hier, nous avons regardé un film. (Yesterday, we watched a movie.)
- Quand j'étais jeune, je faisais du vélo tous les jours. (When I was young, I used to ride a bike every day.)
- Demain, je vais réviser mes leçons. (Tomorrow, I'm going to revise my lessons.)
- Plus tard, je voyagerai en France. (Later, I will travel to France.)
- Cette ville est plus grande que la mienne. (This city is bigger than mine.)
- C'est le plus bel endroit du pays. (It's the most beautiful place in the country.)

ASSESSMENT & EVALUATION

1. Written Test:

- Conjugate given verbs in passé composé, imparfait, futur proche, futur simple.

- Rewrite sentences using comparatives or superlatives.

2. Oral Assessment:

- Students narrate a past experience and talk about their future goals.

3. Mock BECE Questions:

- Past BECE grammar questions to test readiness.

ASSIGNMENT

1. Write a short composition (8–10 sentences) narrating what you did last weekend and what you will do next weekend.
2. Create 5 comparative sentences and 3 superlative sentences.
3. Conjugate 10 irregular verbs (avoir, être, aller, faire, venir, pouvoir, vouloir, mettre, prendre, voir) in passé composé, imparfait, futur simple.

WEEK 10: VOCABULAIRE (DESCRIPTION, TRANSPORT, ACHATS, TEMPS, PROJETS)

INTRODUCTION

This week deepens BECE exam preparation by revising essential French vocabulary that students need to answer comprehension, dialogue, and writing questions. The emphasis is on practical, high-frequency vocabulary related to description (people, objects, places), transport, shopping, weather and time expressions, and future plans/projects.

VOCABULARY FOCUS

Theme	Examples of Key Vocabulary
Description (People)	grand(e), petit(e), mince, gros(se), beau/belle, jeune, vieux/vieille, gentil(le), intelligent(e).

Transport	un bus, un taxi, un avion, une moto, un bateau, un arrêt de bus, gare, billet, conducteur(-trice), voyager, prendre.
Shopping/Achats	le prix, combien, bon marché, cher, payer, vendre, acheter, kilo, litre, marché, magasin, caisse.
Time/Weather	aujourd'hui, demain, hier, la semaine prochaine, il pleut, il fait chaud/froid, saison, printemps, été, automne, hiver.
Projects/Future Plans	projet, avenir, planifier, objectif, rêve, carrière, réussir, voyager, étudier.

EXAMPLES OF PRACTICE SENTENCES

- Il est grand, mince et très gentil. (He is tall, slim, and very kind.)
- Je prends le bus tous les matins. (I take the bus every morning.)
- Combien coûte ce livre ? (How much does this book cost?)
- Il fait froid aujourd'hui, mais il fera chaud demain. (It's cold today, but it will be hot tomorrow.)
- Mon projet est de devenir médecin et voyager dans le monde. (My plan is to become a doctor and travel the world.)

ASSESSMENT & EVALUATION

1. Written Test:

- Translate 10 sentences from English to French using this week's vocabulary.
- Match vocabulary words with pictures (transport, shopping items, weather symbols).

2. Oral Test:

- Short oral presentation: Describe a family member or a place using 8+ adjectives.

3. Mock BECE Paper:

- 15 multiple-choice vocabulary questions.
- 1 comprehension passage with vocabulary-based questions.
- Dialogue completion.

ASSIGNMENT

1. Write a short paragraph (8–10 sentences) describing:
 - A trip you took (transport vocabulary).
 - Your favourite market or shop (shopping vocabulary).
2. Create a weather report for 3 days of the week (use weather expressions).
3. Make a vocabulary list of 30 key words (5 each for description, transport, shopping, weather, and projects).
