PRIMARY 5 FRENCH LANGUAGE LESSON NOTES

FIRST TERM

WEEK 1: RÉVISION - LES SALUTATIONS ET L'ALPHABET

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Recite the French alphabet correctly, knowing the key sounds that are different from English.
2. Exchange appropriate greetings in French for different times of the day and situations.
3. Count reliably from 1 to 20 in French.
4. Introduce themselves simply using "Je m'appelle" and state their age using "J'ai ... ans".

CONTENT

1. L'Alphabet (The Alphabet) The French alphabet has the same 26 letters as the English alphabet, but many letters sound very different. It is like learning new sounds for old friends.

- The Key Difference: In French, we say the letter names, not the sounds they make in words. For example, the letter 'A' is called "ah", not "ay".
- Pronunciation Guide: Let's learn the names. Listen and repeat.
 - A (ah), B (bay), C (say), D (day), E (euh - like the 'u' in 'up'), F (eff), G (jay), H (ash)
 - I (ee), J (ji), K (kah), L (ell), M (em), N (en), O (oh), P (pay)
 - Q (ku), R (air - a soft sound from your throat), S (ess), T (tay), U (ew - purse your lips), V (vay), W (doobl-vay)
 - X (eeks), Y (ee-grek), Z (zed).

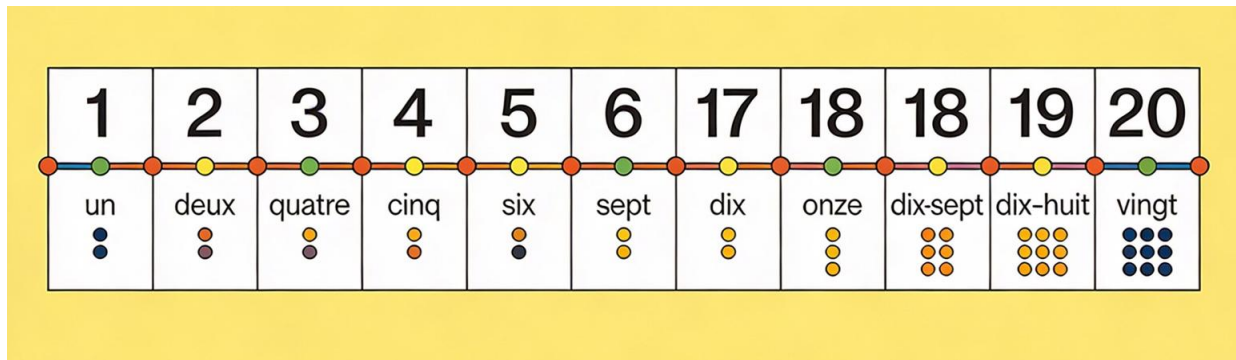

A A: ah	B B: bé	C C: cé	D D: dé	E E: é	è F: eff
G G: jay	I H: ash	ka J: jota	L L: ell	M N: en	en O: oh
P P: pé	Q Q: ku	Rr R: err	Ss S: ess	T T: té	té U: oo
V V: vé	V W: double vé	X X: iks	Y X: iks	Z Y: igrek	J Z: zed

2. Les Salutations (Greetings) Greetings are our first words to someone. We use different ones depending on the time and who we are talking to.

- Bonjour: Good morning / Hello. We use this from when we wake up until the evening. We say it to our teacher, parents, and strangers. (Example: You walk into class and say "Bonjour, Monsieur/Madame" to your teacher.)
- Bonsoir: Good evening. We use this when it starts to get dark, from late afternoon.
- Salut: Hi / Hello. This is informal, for friends and people you know very well. (Example: Meeting your friend at the playground.)
- Au revoir: Goodbye. A polite way to leave anyone.
- Bonne nuit: Good night. Only used when someone is going to sleep.
- Comment ça va?: How are you? A friendly question.
- Ça va bien, merci: I am fine, thank you. A good reply.

3. Les Nombres 1 – 20 (Numbers 1-20) Numbers help us count everything—our books, friends, pencils. Let's count to 20.

- 1 – Un, 2 – Deux, 3 – Trois, 4 – Quatre, 5 – Cinq, 6 – Six, 7 – Sept, 8 – Huit, 9 – Neuf, 10 – Dix
- 11 – Onze, 12 – Douze, 13 – Treize, 14 – Quatorze, 15 – Quinze, 16 – Seize, 17 – Dix-sept, 18 – Dix-huit, 19 – Dix-neuf, 20 – Vingt

4. Se Présenter (Introducing Oneself) When you meet someone new, you tell them who you are.

- My name is... : Je m'appelle [Name]. This means "I call myself".
 - Example: Je m'appelle Chinedu. (My name is Chinedu).
- I am... years old : J'ai [Number] ans. This means "I have ... years".
 - Example: J'ai dix ans. (I am ten years old).
- Putting it together: "Bonjour! Je m'appelle Aisha. J'ai neuf ans."

EVALUATION

1. When should you say "Bonsoir" instead of "Bonjour"?
2. Pronounce the letters G and J in French. Why is it important not to mix them up? (Hint: G is for Garri, J is for Jollof).
3. Your friend has 15 sweets. How do you say that number in French?
4. What is the English meaning of "Au revoir"? When would you say it?

4. Ask "How many?" using the word "Combien?" in a simple question.

CONTENT

1. Les Nombres 21 – 30 (Numbers 21-30) After 20, numbers follow a clear pattern. Think of it as building with blocks: the tens block (20) plus a units block (1, 2, 3...).

- The Special One: For 21, we join 20 and 1 with "et" (and): Vingt-et-un.
- The Pattern: For 22 to 29, we join 20 and the unit with a hyphen (-): Vingt-deux, Vingt-trois, Vingt-quatre...
- The New Ten: 30 is a new word: Trente.

2. Asking "Combien?" (How many?) When you want to know the quantity of something, you ask "Combien?".

- Structure: Combien de + item?
- Example: Combien de crayons? (How many pencils?)
- Answer: You say the number, then the item.
 - Example: Vingt-cinq crayons. (25 pencils). (Imagine counting pencils in a jar.)

3. Simple Calculations (Les Calculs) We can do small maths in French! Here are the words we need:

- + (Plus) is "plus".
- = (Equals) is "égale".
- Example 1: $20 + 2 = 22 \rightarrow$ Vingt plus deux égale vingt-deux. (We are adding 2 pencils to 20).
- Example 2: $10 + 15 = 25 \rightarrow$ Dix plus quinze égale vingt-cinq. (We are adding money: $\text{€}10 + \text{€}15 = \text{€}25$).

CONTENT

1. Les Nombres 31 – 40 (Numbers 31-40) The pattern continues! Now our tens block is Trente (30).

- Special One: 31 is Trente-et-un (30 and 1).
- The Pattern: 32 to 39: Trente-deux, Trente-trois... Trente-neuf.
- New Ten: 40 is Quarante.

2. Les Nombres 41 – 50 (Numbers 41-50) Now our tens block is Quarante (40).

- Special One: 41 is Quarante-et-un.
- The Pattern: 42 to 49: Quarante-deux, Quarante-trois... Quarante-neuf.
- New Ten: 50 is Cinquante.

Tens	Special Number	Pattern Example
30	31	32-39
40	41	42-49
50	51	52-59

3. Practical Use of Numbers

Numbers are not just for counting; we use them every day!

- Age: To say someone's age, we use "a ... ans".
 - Example: Mon père a quarante-cinq ans. (My father is 45 years old).
- Money/Prices: In Nigeria, we use Naira (N). In French, we say the number, then "Nairas".
 - Example: #40 = Quarante Nairas. #50 = Cinquante Nairas. (Like the price of a snack.)
- Phone Numbers: We say each digit separately. "Zéro" is 0.
 - Example: 0803 12 34 567 → Zéro, huit, zéro, trois, un, deux, trois, quatre, cinq, six, sept.

EVALUATION

- The Pattern: 52 to 59: Cinquante-deux, Cinquante-trois... Cinquante-neuf.
- New Ten: 60 is Soixante. (Pronounced "swa-sont").

2. Counting in Tens (Compter par dizaines) Knowing your tens helps you count faster and understand big numbers. Let's chant them!

- 10 – Dix, 20 – Vingt, 30 – Trente, 40 – Quarante, 50 – Cinquante, 60 – Soixante.

3. Simple Subtraction (La Soustraction) Now let's learn to "take away" in French.

- - (Minus) is "moins".

WEEK 1: PARLER DE LA GRANDE FAMILLE (I)

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Identify members of the extended family (grandparents, uncles, aunts, cousins) in French.

3. Introduce their grandfather and grandmother using simple sentences.
4. Draw and label a simple family tree with French terms.

CONTENT

1. Le Vocabulaire de la Famille (Extended Family Vocabulary) Your famille (family) is not just those who live in your house. Your grande famille (extended family) includes all your relatives.

- Les grands-parents: The grandparents. This is a general word for both.
- Le grand-père: The grandfather. (Think of your father's father or mother's father).
- La grand-mère: The grandmother. (Think of your father's mother or mother's mother).

- La tante: The aunt (your parent's sister or your uncle's wife).
- Le cousin: The male cousin.
- La cousine: The female cousin.

2. Les Adjectifs Possessifs (Possessive Adjectives: My) To say "MY" family member, you must know if the person is male or female. It's like choosing the right key for a lock.

- Mon: Means "My" for male family members or masculine words.
 - Examples: Mon grand-père (my grandfather), Mon oncle (my uncle), Mon cousin (my male cousin).
- Ma: Means "My" for female family members or feminine words.

- Examples: Ma grand-mère (my grandmother), Ma tante (my aunt), Ma cousine (my female cousin).
- Mes: Means "My" for plural (more than one).
 - Example: Mes cousins (my cousins – could be a mix of boys and girls).

Important Rule: If a feminine word starts with a vowel (a, e, i, o, u, h), we still use "Mon" to make it easier to say. But for family, mère, tante, cousine, grand-mère all use "Ma".

3. L'Arbre Généalogique (The Family Tree) A family tree is like a map of your family. It shows how everyone is connected.

- Je me réveille. (I wake up). ("Je" + "me" + "réveille")
- Je me lave. (I wash myself).
- Je m'habille. (I get dressed). We say "m'habille" because 'habille' starts with a vowel (h is silent).

- Le matin: The morning. (From waking up until about 12 noon).
