PRIMARY 5 ISLAMIC STUDIES LESSON NOTES

FIRST TERM

WEEK 1: SURATUL-ALAQ (AL-QUR'AN) I

OBJECTIVES

By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. State the English meaning of "Al-Alaq" (The Clot).
2. Identify where Suratul-Alaq was revealed (Makkah).
3. Recite the first five verses of Suratul-Alaq in Arabic.
4. Narrate the story of the first revelation to Prophet Muhammad (SAW).

CONTENT

1. Introduction to Suratul-Alaq Suratul-Alaq is the 96th chapter of the Holy Qur'an. Imagine the Qur'an as a big book with 114 chapters; this is number 96. It has 19 verses, which are like sentences in the chapter. The word "Al-Alaq" means "The Clot." A clot is a tiny, thick piece of blood. Before a baby is formed in its mother's stomach, it starts as something as small and simple as a clot. This shows us that Allah's power can create a complete human being from something very tiny. This Surah is called a "Makkan Surah" because it was revealed to Prophet Muhammad (SAW) when he was in the city of Makkah, before he moved to Madinah.

2. The Story of the First Revelation This is a very special story about how the Qur'an first began. Prophet Muhammad (SAW) used to go to a quiet cave on Mount Hira, near Makkah, to think deeply about Allah and the world.
- The Cave of Hira: The cave was a small, quiet space. The Prophet liked peace and quiet to worship Allah away from the noise of the city.

- Angel Jibril (Gabriel): One day, while he was in the cave, the Angel Jibril appeared to him. Jibril is a special angel made from light who brings Allah's messages. Jibril held something and said, "Iqra!" which means "Read!" or "Recite!"
 - The Prophet's Response: The Prophet (SAW), who did not know how to read or write, replied honestly, "Ma ana biqari" which means "I am not one who can read." Angel Jibril hugged him firmly and asked him to "Read!" again. This happened three times. Finally, Angel Jibril himself recited the first five verses of Suratul-Alaq. The Prophet (SAW) repeated the words after him. This was the first revelation of the Qur'an.
3. Reading Arabic Text (Verses 1-5) Let us learn the first five words that started the Qur'an. Listen carefully and repeat after your teacher.
- Bismillahir Rahmanir Rahim (In the name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful).
1. Iqra bismi rabbikallazi khalaq. (Read! In the name of your Lord who created.)

2. Khalaqal insana min 'alaq. (He created man from a clot.)
3. Iqra wa rabbukal akram. (Read! And your Lord is the Most Generous.)
4. Allazi 'allama bil qalam. (Who taught by the pen.)
5. Allamal insana ma lam ya'lam. (He taught man that which he knew not.)
6. Pronunciation Practice Let's practice these important words slowly:
 - Iqra (Ik-ra): This means "Read". It is the very first command from Allah.
 - Rabbika (Rab-bi-ka): This means "Your Lord". Your Lord is Allah who takes care of you.
 - Khalaq (Kha-la-q): This means "Created". Allah is the one who created everything we see.

EVALUATION

1. "Al-Alaq" means a tiny piece of thick blood. What does this teach us about how Allah creates human beings?
2. Was Suratul-Alaq revealed in Makkah or Madinah?
3. Who came to Prophet Muhammad (SAW) in the Cave of Hira?
4. The first word revealed was "Iqra." What should you do when you hear this command?
5. Try to recite: "Iqra bismi rabbikallazi khalaq."
6. If Suratul-Alaq is the 96th chapter, is it near the beginning, middle, or end of the Qur'an?

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Oral) Tell the story of the first revelation to one person at home.
2. (Drawing) Draw a simple mountain with a cave to help you remember where the revelation started.
3. (Written) Write down the meaning of the word "Iqra" in your notebook.

WEEK 2: SURATUL-ALAQ (AL-QUR'AN) II

OBJECTIVES

By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Recite the complete Arabic text of Suratul-Alaq (Verses 1-19).
2. Translate the first five verses into English.
3. Explain the importance of "Reading in the name of your Lord."
4. Discuss the importance of knowledge in Islam.

CONTENT

1. Complete Arabic Text We will now learn to recite the whole Surah, from verse 1 to verse 19. We will listen and repeat carefully to get the pronunciation (Tajweed) right. Verses 6 to 19 talk about how some people become proud and forget Allah when they become rich, and they warn us not to be like that.
2. Translation of Verses 1-5 Let's understand what the first five verses mean in English:
3. Read! Start by saying "In the name of your Lord," the Lord who made everything – the sun, the moon, the trees, and you.
4. He is so powerful that He made human beings from something as small as a clot of blood.
5. Read! And know that your Lord is the Most Generous. He is the one who gives us everything for free – air, water, family, food.
6. He is the One who taught human beings how to write using the pen.
7. He taught people things they never knew before. For example, you didn't know how to read or do maths until Allah made it possible for you to learn.

اقامت	حواخت
Iqra	 Read
Rabbika	 Your Lord
Rabbika	 Most Generous
Akram	Pen
Qalam

3. Importance of "Read in the Name of Your Lord" The Surah doesn't just say "Read." It says "Read in the name of your Lord." This is very important. It means:

- Purpose: Whatever we learn – be it Islamic Studies, Mathematics, Science, or English – we should do it to please Allah and to use the knowledge in good ways.
- Start with Allah: Before you open your book to study, remember to say "Bismillah" (In the name of Allah). This invites Allah's blessing into your learning.
- Islam loves Education: The very first command was to read! This shows that seeking knowledge is one of the most important things in Islam.

4. Importance of Knowledge Allah describes Himself as "The Most Generous" who taught by the "Pen."

- All Knowledge is from Allah: We know nothing by ourselves. Who taught the first person how to write? Allah. Who gives teachers the ability to teach? Allah.

- The Pen is a Gift: The pen (and today, pencils, computers, chalkboards) is a tool from Allah. It helps us write down knowledge so we don't forget. We can write our homework, a story, or a beautiful verse from the Qur'an.
- Seeking Knowledge is Worship: When you sit in class to learn, with a good intention, you are actually worshipping Allah. It is an act called Ibadah.

EVALUATION

1. What does "Iqra bismi rabbikallazi khalaq" mean in English?
2. According to the Surah, what was the first material Allah used to create man?
3. Who gave human beings the knowledge of how to use a pen?
4. The verse says Allah "taught man that which he knew not." Can you give one example of something you know now that you didn't know in Primary 1?
5. Why do you think Allah made "reading" the very first command?
6. Name one tool for learning that is a gift from Allah, mentioned in this Surah.

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Written) Write the English translation of verses 1, 2, and 3 in your notebook.
2. (Listing) List three subjects you learn at school (e.g., Mathematics, Basic Science). Next to each, write one way that knowledge can be used to help others.
3. (Practical) For one day, try to say "Bismillah" quietly before you start reading any book or doing any written work.

WEEK 3: SURATUL-ALAQ (AL-QUR'AN) III

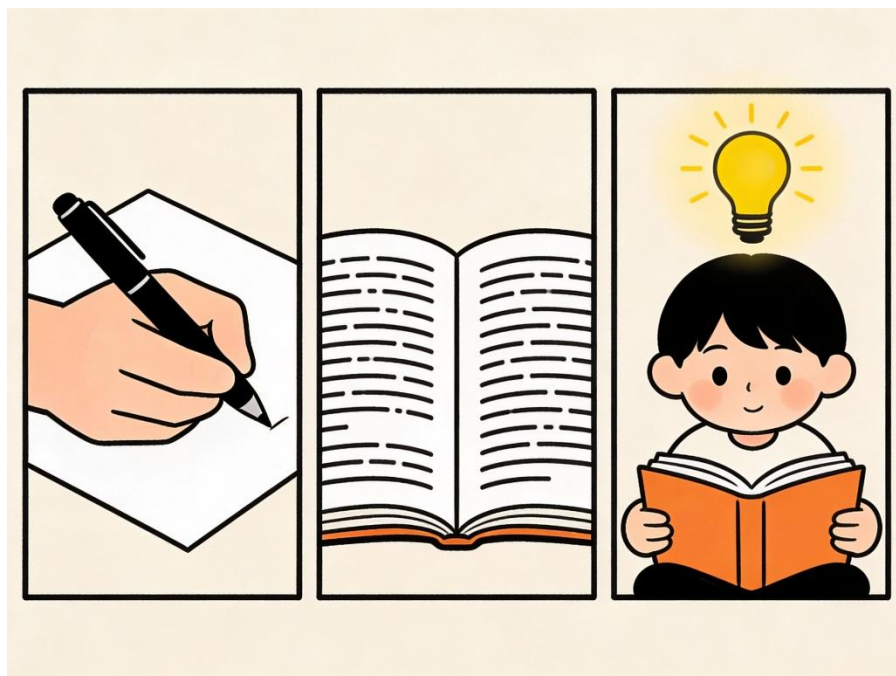

OBJECTIVES

By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Memorize the entire Suratul-Alaq.
2. Explain the significance of the pen and writing.
3. List three lessons learned from the Surah.
4. Apply the lessons of seeking knowledge in daily life.

CONTENT

1. Memorization of Suratul-Alaq Today, we will work on remembering the whole Surah by heart. We will recite together, then in small groups, and finally individually. Pay special attention to the last part (verses 6-19) which teaches us not to be arrogant or to stop others from praying to Allah.
2. Significance of the Pen (Al-Qalam) In verse 4, Allah swears by the Pen. Why is the pen so special?
 - It Preserves Knowledge: Think about it. If your grandfather wants to tell you a story about his childhood, he can write it down. Without writing, stories, history, and science facts would be forgotten.
 - It Shares Knowledge: Your textbook was written by someone with a pen (or typed on a computer, which is like a modern pen). This allows knowledge to travel from the teacher who wrote it to you in your classroom.
 - An Honored Tool: The pen was mentioned in the very first revelation! This shows how much Allah values knowledge and the tools we use to gain it.

3. Lessons from the Surah From Suratul-Alaq, we learn many beautiful lessons:

- Lesson 1: Seek Knowledge. Every Muslim, boys and girls, must try their best to learn useful things. Your "job" as a pupil is your worship.
- Lesson 2: Be Humble, Not Proud. The Surah warns us about people who become arrogant when they get money or power. We must remember that all our abilities and knowledge are gifts from Allah. We have nothing to boast about.
- Lesson 3: Worship Allah. The Surah ends by commanding us to prostrate (do Sujud) and get closer to Allah. The best knowledge leads us to worship Allah more.
- Lesson 4: Be Grateful. We must always say "Alhamdulillah" (Thank you, Allah) for teaching us what we did not know.

4. Application in Daily Life How do we use these lessons every day?

- In School: Listen to your teacher, do your homework, and read your books seriously. This is how you obey the command "Iqra!"
- At Home: Share what you learned with your parents or siblings. Teaching others is also a good deed.
- In Character: When you get a high score, thank Allah. Don't look down on others who are still learning. Be humble and helpful.

EVALUATION

1. Recite the last verse of Suratul-Alaq: "Kalla la tuti 'hu wasjud waqtarib".
2. What bad quality does the Surah warn us about? Is it laziness or arrogance?
3. What action does the last verse of the Surah tell us to do? (To prostrate).
4. Mention two things you can do this week to act on the command to "Read."
5. If knowledge wasn't written down, how would it affect your learning in school?
6. True or False: Only teachers and adults should seek knowledge.

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Written) Write a short note (3 lines) thanking Allah for one thing He has taught you this year.
2. (Research) Ask an older person at home or look in your Qur'an: Which verse number in Suratul-Alaq is the "Sajdah" (prostration) verse? (Answer: Verse 19).
3. (Oral/Practical) Practice reciting the entire Suratul-Alaq perfectly for a test. Recite it to yourself before you sleep.

WEEK 4: SURATUL-QARIAT (AL-QUR'AN) I

OBJECTIVES

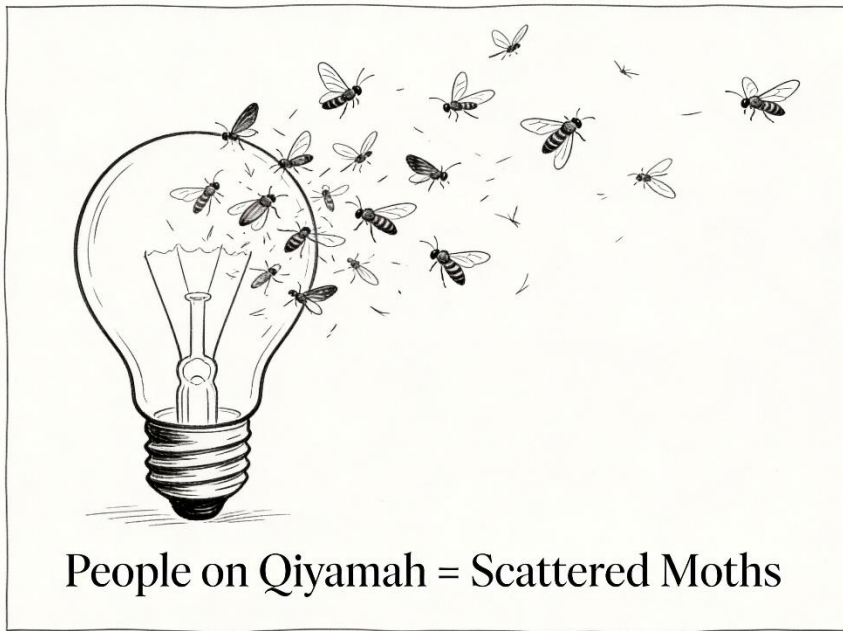

By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. State the meaning of "Al-Qariat" (The Striking Hour).
2. Read the Arabic text of Suratul-Qariat with correct pronunciation.
3. Describe the events of the Day of Judgment mentioned in the Surah.
4. Explain why we should prepare for the Hereafter.

CONTENT

1. Introduction to Suratul-Qariat Suratul-Qariat is the 101st chapter of the Qur'an. It is a short Surah with 11 powerful verses. It is a Makkan Surah. The word "Al-Qari'ah" means The Striking Calamity or The Sudden Shock. It is one of the names for the Day of Judgment (Yawmul Qiyamah). Think of the loudest, most surprising sound you've ever heard – like a sudden, huge thunderclap that shakes everything. That day will be a million times more shocking.
2. Arabic Text Reading Let's learn to read the beginning of this Surah clearly. Repeat after your teacher:
 - Al-Qari'ah (The Striking Calamity!)
 - Mal-Qari'ah (What is the Striking Calamity?)
 - Wa ma adraka mal-Qari'ah (And what can make you know what it is?)
 - Yawma yakunun nasu kal farashil mabthuth (A Day when people will be like scattered moths).
 - Wa takunul jibalu kal 'ihnil manfush (And the mountains will be like carded wool).
3. Description of the Day of Judgment The Surah gives us two powerful pictures to help us imagine that scary Day:
 - Picture 1: People like Scattered Moths. Imagine a dark room with a bright lamp. Moths fly around the lamp in a crazy, confused, and scared way, bumping into each other. On that Day, strong people, leaders, and children will all be equally terrified and scattered like those moths, not knowing where to go.

- Picture 2: Mountains like Carded Wool. Mountains are the biggest, hardest, and most solid things we see. We think they can never move. But on that Day, Allah will make them as light and soft as fluffy wool that can be blown away by the wind. This shows that Allah's power is greater than anything we think is strong.

4. Preparation for the Hereafter This Day is 100% sure to come. Since we know it will happen, we must prepare for it now, just like you prepare for an important exam.
- How to Prepare: We prepare by collecting good deeds. Good deeds are like marks for the exam of the Hereafter.
- Examples of Good Deeds: Praying your five daily Salah on time, being honest, obeying your parents, helping a friend, sharing your food, and speaking kindly.
- Avoid Bad Deeds: We must try to stop bad habits like lying, stealing, fighting, or being mean. Preparing means doing more good and less bad every single day.

EVALUATION

1. "Al-Qari'ah" is a name for a very scary day. What is the English name for that day?
2. How many verses does Suratul-Qariat have?
3. On that Day, people will be as confused as scattered insects. What insect is mentioned?
4. What will happen to the strong, giant mountains?
5. Why is that Day called "The Striking Hour" or "The Sudden Shock"?
6. Try to recite: "Al-Qari'ah, Mal-Qari'ah, Wa ma adraka mal-Qari'ah."

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Written) Write the translation of this line: "Al-Qari'ah, Mal-Qari'ah".
2. (Drawing) Draw the two pictures from the lesson: 1) A mountain. 2) A pile of soft wool. This will help you remember the amazing power of Allah.
3. (Practical) Choose one good deed (e.g., helping with a chore, praying Dhuhr on time) and do it today to start preparing for the Hereafter.

WEEK 5: MIDTERM EXAMINATION

(Assessment of topics covered in Weeks 1-4)

WEEK 6: MIDTERM BREAK

(Rest and relaxation period)

WEEK 7: SURATUL-QARIAT (AL-QUR'AN) II

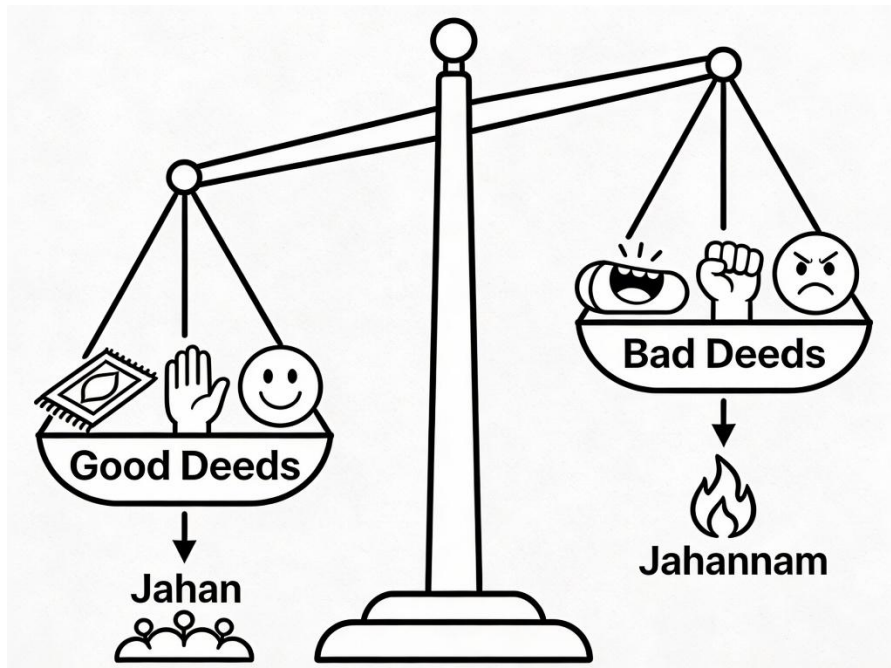

OBJECTIVES

By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Recite and memorize the complete Surat-ul-Qariat.
2. Translate the verses regarding the weighing of deeds.
3. Differentiate between heavy scales and light scales.
4. Identify "Hawiyah" as mentioned in the Surah.

CONTENT

1. Complete Arabic Text and Memorization Let's learn the rest of the Surah, from verse 6 to the end. These verses tell us what will happen to people after the scary events of the Day of Judgment. We will recite and repeat to memorize the entire Surah.
 - Fa amma man thaqulat mawazinuh... (Then as for him whose scales are heavy...)
 - Fa huwa fi 'ishatir radiyah. (He will be in a pleasant life [Paradise].)
 - Wa amma man khaffat mawazinuh... (But as for him whose scales are light...)
 - Fa ummuhu hawiyah. (His abode will be a pit [Hell].)
2. The Weighing of Deeds (Al-Mizan) On the Day of Judgment, every single action we ever did will be shown. Allah will use a perfect scale, called Al-Mizan, to weigh our good deeds and our bad deeds.
 - Heavy Scale: Imagine your scale is like a big bowl full of good things: your prayers, your kindness, your honesty, your help to parents. If this bowl is heavy and sinks down, it means you have more good deeds. The result? A happy, peaceful life forever in Jannah (Paradise).
 - Light Scale: Imagine your scale is almost empty, with just a few good deeds, or it's filled with bad things like lies, laziness in prayer, and hurting others. If this bowl is light and goes up, it means your bad deeds are more. The result is very sad.

3. What is "Hawiyah"? For the person with the light scale, the Qur'an says: "Fa ummuhu hawiyah" – His home will be Hawiyah. Then it asks: "Wa ma adraka ma hiyah?" (And what will make you know what that is?). The answer is terrifying: "Narun hamiyah" – A blazing fire! Hawiyah is another name for Jahannam (Hell), a place of severe punishment for those who rejected Allah and did evil.
4. Lessons on Good Deeds The message is clear: Start collecting good deeds now! Good deeds are not only big things. A smile to your mother, helping a classmate, sharing your snack, reading one page of the Qur'an – all these add weight to your scale. Even removing a harmful thing like a stone from the road is a good deed. We must be like smart farmers who plant good seeds every day to get a big harvest on Judgment Day.

EVALUATION

1. If the scale of your good deeds is heavy, what is your final home?
2. What will happen to a person whose scale of good deeds is very light?
3. "Hawiyah" is a deep pit. What is it actually?
4. What does "Narun hamiyah" mean in English?
5. Recite the last three verses of Suratul-Qariat.
6. What is the name of the scale Allah will use to weigh deeds?

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Drawing) Draw your own balance scale. On the heavy side, write or draw three good deeds you did this week.
2. (Written) Write the meaning of "Fa huwa fi 'ishatir radiyah" in your own simple words.
3. (Practical) Tonight, before you sleep, think of one good deed you can do tomorrow to make your scale heavier. Tell your parent or guardian about your plan.

WEEK 8: AYAT 12-19 OF SURATUL LUQMAN (AL-QUR'AN) I

OBJECTIVES

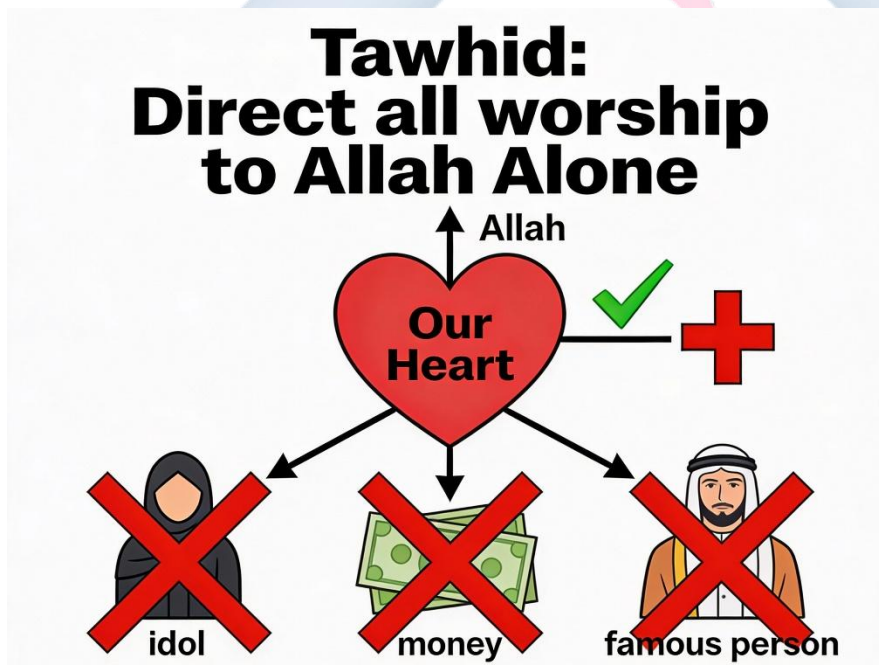

By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Identify Luqman as a wise man mentioned in the Qur'an.
2. Read the Arabic text of verses 12-15 of Suratul Luqman.
3. Explain the first advice of Luqman: Gratitude to Allah.
4. State the danger of Shirk (associating partners with Allah).

CONTENT

1. Introduction to Suratul Luqman Surah Luqman is the 31st chapter of the Qur'an. It is special because it tells us about a very wise man named Luqman. He was not a Prophet, but Allah gave him great wisdom (Hikmah). He used this wisdom to teach his son the most important lessons in life. We can think of him as a wonderful father and a great teacher.
2. Arabic Text Reading (Verses 12-13) Let's read the beginning of Luqman's story. Repeat after your teacher carefully.
 - Wa laqad ataina Luqmanal hikmata anishkur lillah... (And indeed, We gave Luqman wisdom, [saying], "Be grateful to Allah...")
 - Wa iz qala Luqmanu libnihi wa huwa ya'izuhu ya bunayya la tushrik billah... (And [remember] when Luqman said to his son while he was instructing him, "O my son, do not associate [anything] with Allah...")
3. Wisdom and Gratitude The first thing Allah tells us about Luqman is that he was given wisdom, and the first part of that wisdom is to be grateful to Allah (Shukr).
 - Gratitude is Wisdom: A wise person knows that everything good they have – their life, health, family, food – is a gift from Allah. Saying "Alhamdulillah" (All praise is for Allah) is a sign of wisdom.

- Who Benefits? When you are grateful, you benefit yourself. It makes Allah happy and brings more blessings. If you are ungrateful, you only harm yourself. Allah does not need our thanks; He is rich and powerful without it.
- 4. The Greatest Sin: Shirk Luqman's first and most serious advice to his son was about Tawhid – worshiping Allah alone.
- The Warning: He said, "Ya bunayya la tushrik billah" – "O my son, do not commit Shirk."
- What is Shirk? Shirk means to believe that anyone or anything shares Allah's power or deserves to be worshiped besides Allah. Examples include praying to idols, statues, or believing a powerful person or a jinn can solve problems without Allah's will.
- Why is it So Bad? Luqman explains: "Innash shirka lazulmun 'azim" – "Indeed, Shirk is a great injustice." It is the greatest wrong because it gives the right of the Creator to His creation. It is the only sin that Allah will not forgive if a person dies without sincerely repenting from it.

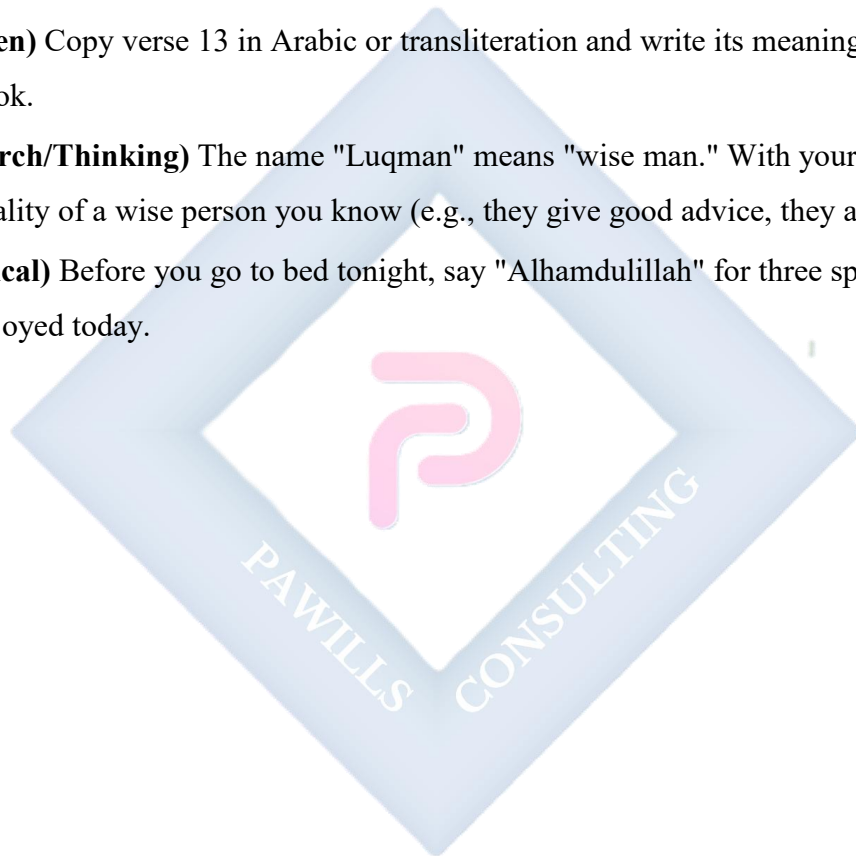

EVALUATION

1. Luqman was not a Prophet. What special gift did Allah give him?
2. What is the first sign of a wise person according to these verses?

3. Luqman's first advice to his son was, "O my son, do not _____ with Allah." (Fill in the blank).
4. What does "Shirk" mean in simple words?
5. Why is Shirk called "a great injustice"?
6. When we eat our food and say "Alhamdulillah," which lesson from Luqman are we following?

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Written) Copy verse 13 in Arabic or transliteration and write its meaning in your notebook.
2. (Research/Thinking) The name "Luqman" means "wise man." With your parent, discuss one quality of a wise person you know (e.g., they give good advice, they are patient).
3. (Practical) Before you go to bed tonight, say "Alhamdulillah" for three specific things you enjoyed today.

WEEK 9: AYAT 12-19 OF SURATUL LUQMAN (AL-QUR'AN) II

OBJECTIVES

By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Translate and explain verses 14-19.
2. List Luqman's advice regarding parents.
3. Explain the advice on Prayer, Patience, and Humility.
4. Describe the proper manner of walking and speaking.

CONTENT

1. Kindness to Parents (Verses 14-15) Right after teaching about Allah's rights, Luqman talks about the rights of parents. This shows how important they are in Islam.
 - Mother's Struggle: Allah commands us to be good to our parents. Our mothers carried us for nine months in weakness, feeling tired and sick. Then they fed us from their own milk for two whole years.
 - Our Duty: We must thank Allah first, and then thank our parents. We obey them, speak kindly to them, and help them.
 - Important Exception: If your parents ever tell you to disobey Allah or commit Shirk (like worship an idol), you must not obey them in that one thing. But you must still live with them in this world in a kind and respectful way. Allah's command comes first.
2. Allah Sees Everything (Verse 16) Luqman teaches his son that Allah's knowledge is complete.
 - Nothing is Hidden: He says even if a deed is as tiny as a mustard seed (a very, very small seed), and it is hidden inside a rock, or in the far heavens and earth, Allah will bring it forth. This means we should always do good, even secretly, and avoid bad deeds, even if no human sees us, because Allah sees everything.

Allah sees everything, even what is hidden.

3. Key Pieces of Advice (Verse 17) Luqman gives three powerful commands:

- 1. Establish Prayer (As-Salah): This is your direct connection with Allah. Do your five daily prayers on time and with concentration.
- 2. Enjoin Good and Forbid Evil: This means you should encourage people to do good things (like praying, sharing) and gently advise them to stop bad things (like fighting, lying). Start with yourself first!
- 3. Be Patient: Whatever problem or difficulty comes your way – like failing a test, being sick, or losing something – face it with patience (Sabr). Patience is a key to success.

4. Good Manners (Verses 18-19) Luqman teaches us how to behave with people.

- Don't Be Arrogant: "Do not turn your face away from people in pride." Don't look down on others because you think you are better. "Do not walk proudly on the earth." Don't walk like you own everything.
- Walk Moderately: Walk in a balanced way – not too fast like you're running away, not too slow like you're lazy, and don't drag your feet noisily.
- Lower Your Voice: "Lower your voice." Speak gently and softly. Luqman says the harshest, ugliest sound is the loud braying of a donkey. A loud, rough voice is unpleasant to hear.

EVALUATION

1. For how many years does the Qur'an say a mother commonly breastfeeds her child?
2. Should you obey your parent if they ask you to tell a lie to help them?
3. Does Allah know about a good deed you did secretly to help your sibling?
4. What are the three main pieces of advice Luqman gave in verse 17?
5. Why should we not shout or speak with a very harsh voice?
6. How should a Muslim walk according to Luqman?

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Written) List three good manners Luqman taught his son from verses 18-19.
2. (Research) Which animal's voice is described as the harshest in the Qur'an? Draw a simple picture of that animal.
3. (Practical) "Enjoin good." Today, encourage one person (a friend or sibling) to do one good thing, like sharing or cleaning up.

WEEK 10: AYAT 12-19 OF SURATUL LUQMAN (AL-QUR'AN) III

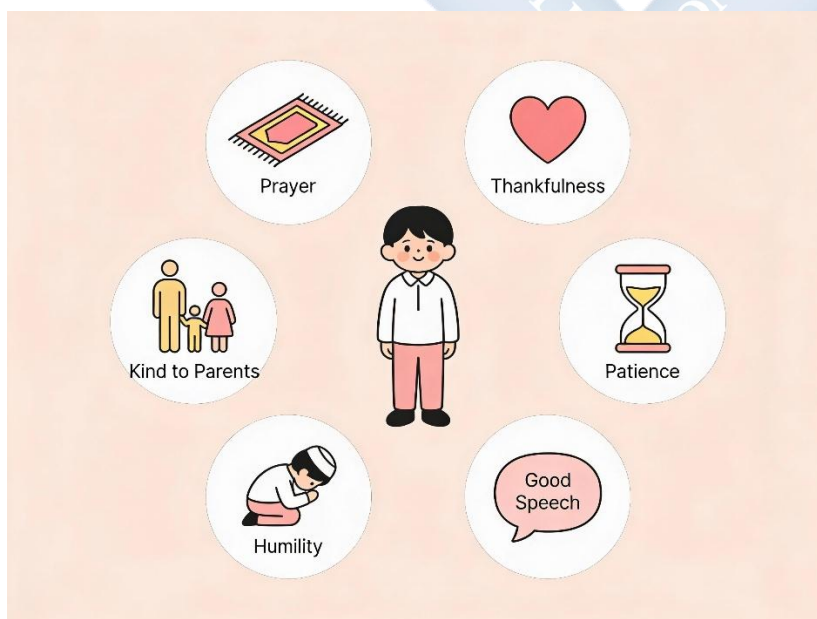

OBJECTIVES

By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Memorize verses 12-19 of Suratul Luqman.
2. Discuss the practical application of Luqman's wisdom in daily life.
3. Demonstrate social etiquette (greeting, walking, speaking) based on the verses.
4. Explain the relationship between wisdom and character.

CONTENT

1. Memorization Practice Today, we will put all the verses together (12-19) and practice reciting them from memory. We will do this in groups and pairs to help each other remember the beautiful advice of Luqman.
2. Character Building: The Complete Muslim Luqman's advice is like a recipe for building a perfect Muslim character. It covers every part of life:
 - Spiritual Character: Worship only Allah (Tawhid) and pray on time (Salah).
 - Social Character: Be grateful, be kind to parents, and enjoin good.
 - Personal Character: Be patient, humble, and have good manners in walking and talking.

3. Practical Application – Let's Role Play! We learn best by doing. Let's act out some scenes to practice Luqman's advice:
 - Scene 1 (Respect): How do you greet your parent when they come home? (Smile, say "As-salamu alaykum," don't turn away).
 - Scene 2 (Speech): Your friend is shouting angrily at another pupil. How do you advise them with a soft voice? (Say gently, "Let's talk calmly, shouting is not good.").
 - Scene 3 (Walking): Show the difference between walking arrogantly (chest out, nose up, stomping), walking lazily (dragging feet), and walking moderately (calm, balanced steps).
4. The Order of Love: Allah First, Then Parents Luqman's teachings show us the perfect order of our love and obedience:
5. Allah is First. Our worship and ultimate obedience is for Him alone.
6. Parents Come Next. Right after Allah, we must honor, obey, and be kind to our parents. This teaches us that respecting parents is one of the highest duties in Islam, right after worshipping Allah.

EVALUATION

1. Recite the part of the verse that talks about walking moderately.
2. Why is humility (not being proud) important for a Muslim?
3. What is one kind thing you can do for your mother when she looks tired?
4. If you lose your favorite pen, what did Luqman advise you to have? (Patience).
5. Does a wise person shout when they are angry or speak calmly?
6. Who knows about every single deed, big or small, that we do?

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Project) Make a small poster titled "LUQMAN'S WISDOM FOR ME." Draw or write 5 key points from his advice. Decorate it.
2. (Oral/Practical) Practice reciting verses 12-19 perfectly for revision.
3. (Written) Write one promise to yourself: "I promise to try to lower my voice when I am excited or angry, starting from today."

WEEK 11: REVISION

CONTENT

Today, we will revise all the major topics from this term to prepare for our final examination.

- Suratul-Alaq: We revised the story of the first revelation in the Cave of Hira. The first command was "Iqra!" (Read). We learned about the importance of seeking knowledge for Allah's sake and the significance of the pen.
- Suratul-Qariat: We revised the description of the scary Day of Judgment (Al-Qari'ah) where people will be like scattered moths and mountains like wool. We learned about the weighing of deeds on Al-Mizan and the results: heavy scale → Jannah (Paradise), light scale → Hawiyah (Hellfire).
- Suratul Luqman: We revised the advice of the wise man Luqman to his son. Key lessons include: Be grateful to Allah, avoid Shirk, be kind to parents, establish Prayer, be patient, enjoin good, forbid evil, be humble, walk moderately, and speak softly.
- Recitation Check: The teacher will listen to each pupil recite parts of the Surahs we have learned to check memorization.
- Question and Answer Session: This is your chance to ask any question from the term's topics that you still find difficult. Let us clarify everything before the exam.

PRIMARY 5 ISLAMIC STUDIES LESSON NOTES

SECOND TERM

WEEK 1: SURATUL-TIN (AL-QUR'AN) I

OBJECTIVES

By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Define the meaning of "At-Tin" and identify the position of the Surah in the Qur'an.
2. Read the Arabic text of Suratul-Tin with correct pronunciation.
3. List the four things Allah swore by in the Surah.

CONTENT

1. Introduction to Suratul-Tin Suratul-Tin is the 95th chapter of the Holy Qur'an. The word "At-Tin" means "The Fig." A fig is a sweet and healthy fruit that grows on trees. This Surah is called a "Makki Surah" because it was revealed to Prophet Muhammad (SAW) while he was in the holy city of Makkah, before the migration to Madinah. This Surah is a short but powerful reminder from Allah about the special creation of human beings.
2. Reading the Arabic Text To read the Qur'an correctly and beautifully, we must pronounce each Arabic letter from its proper place in the mouth and throat. This correct pronunciation is called Tajweed. The Surah begins with a beautiful sound: "Wat-teeni waz-zaitun" (By the fig and the olive). Listen carefully to your teacher's recitation and repeat each word. Pay special attention to stretching the letters where needed (like the 'ee' sound in Teen) and making clear stops.
3. The Four Oaths of Allah In the first three verses, Allah makes an oath. When Allah swears by something, it is to show us its great importance and to make us pay close attention to the message that comes next. Allah swears by four magnificent things:
 - 1. The Fig (At-Tin): This is a delicious fruit full of vitamins. Allah created it for us to enjoy and be healthy. Swearing by it reminds us of Allah's kindness in providing our food.

- 2. The Olive (Az-Zaytun): The olive tree gives us olives to eat and olive oil to use for cooking, lighting lamps in old times, and even for good health. It is a very useful tree.
- 3. Mount Sinai (Tur Sinin): This is the famous mountain where Prophet Musa (Moses), peace be upon him, spoke directly to Allah and received the Torah. It is a place of great history and revelation.
- 4. The City of Security (Al-Balad Al-Amin): This is the holy city of Makkah. It is called the "Secure City" because Allah has made it a place of peace where all fighting is forbidden. The Ka'bah, the house of Allah, is located there.

EVALUATION

1. If "At-Tin" means a fruit, which fruit is it?
2. Is Suratut-Tin closer to the beginning or the end of the Qur'an? (Hint: It is number 95 out of 114).
3. Where was this Surah revealed to the Prophet (SAW)?
4. Name the two fruits Allah swore by in the first verse.
5. "Al-Balad Al-Amin" means the Secure City. Which holy city is this?

6. Which Prophet spoke to Allah at Mount Sinai?

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Oral) Practice reciting the first four verses of Suratul-Tin at home three times, listening to the correct Tajweed from a parent or recording if possible.
2. (Written) Write down the names of the two fruits and the two places Allah swore by in your exercise book.
3. (Drawing) Draw a simple mountain to represent Mount Sinai, the place where Prophet Musa (AS) received Allah's message.

WEEK 2: SURATUL-TIN (AL-QUR'AN) II

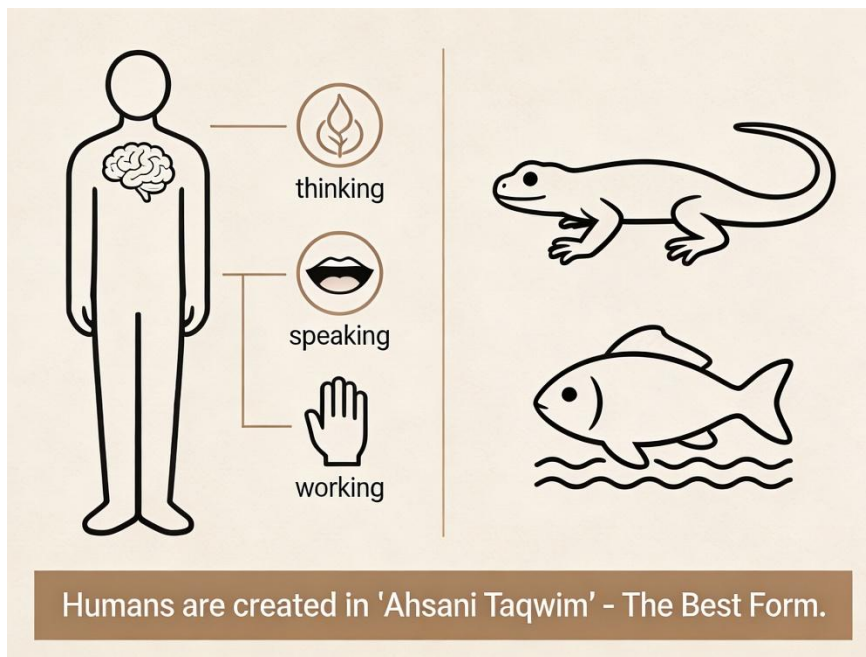

OBJECTIVES

By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Recite the complete Suratul-Tin from memory.
2. Explain the meaning of "Ahsani Taqwim" (The Best Form).
3. Differentiate between those who will have a never-ending reward and those who are the "lowest of the low."

CONTENT

1. Memorization of Suratul-Tin Last week, we learned to read the Surah. Now, we will work on memorizing all 8 verses. Memorizing the Qur'an is a wonderful act of worship. Each letter you memorize brings you a reward from Allah. Let's recite together, then in pairs, and finally try on our own without looking.
2. Man Created in the Best Form (Ahsani Taqwim) In verse 4, Allah declares: "Laqad khalaqnal insana fi ahsani taqwim." This means, "We have certainly created man in the best of stature (or form)." Look at how wonderfully Allah made us:
 - Our Body: We stand upright on two legs, freeing our hands to work, write, and create. We have a powerful brain to think, learn, and solve problems.
 - Our Senses: We can see beautiful colors, hear lovely sounds, taste delicious food, and feel love and kindness.
 - Our Soul: Allah gave us a soul and the ability to know right from wrong, to believe in Him, and to worship Him. No animal or mountain has this ability. We are the best of creation in our form and potential. We must be thankful to Allah every day for this amazing gift.

3. Believers vs. Disbelievers: Two Different Paths Even though Allah created us perfectly, He also gave us free will – the choice to obey or disobey Him. The Surah explains the two possible endings:
- The Path Downwards: If a person chooses to disobey Allah, do bad deeds, and reject faith, they waste their beautiful form. They become "Asfala Safilin" – the lowest of the low. This means they will be in the lowest and worst place in the Hereafter.
 - The Path Upwards: But there is a glorious exception! The person who believes (has Iman) in Allah and His messengers, and does righteous good deeds (Amalus-salihat) like praying, being honest, and helping others – their reward will never end! "Falahum ajrun ghairu mamnun" – For them is a reward uninterrupted and never-ending (Paradise).

This teaches us that our true value is not in our looks or wealth, but in our faith and good character.

EVALUATION

1. Recite the first three verses of Suratul-Tin from memory.
2. What does "Ahsani Taqwim" mean?
3. Give one example of how the human body is made in the "best form."

4. What happens to a person who has a beautiful body but disobeys Allah and does bad deeds?
5. Who will receive a reward that never stops or ends?
6. Complete this sentence: "We have certainly created man in the _____ of form."

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Oral) Recite the full Suratul-Tin to your parent or guardian and ask them to listen to your pronunciation.
2. (Written) In your notebook, write the full English translation of verse 4: "We have certainly created man in the best of stature."
3. (Practical) List three "righteous good deeds" (Amalus-salihat) you can do this week to follow the upward path (e.g., help clean the house, visit a sick relative, learn a new Du'a).

WEEK 3: SURATUL AD-DUHA (AL-QUR'AN) I

OBJECTIVES

By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. State the meaning of "Ad-Duha" and identify the reason for its revelation.
2. Read the Arabic text of Suratul Ad-Duha fluently.
3. Explain the comfort Allah gave to Prophet Muhammad (SAW) in this Surah.

CONTENT

1. Introduction and Background Suratul Ad-Duha is the 93rd chapter of the Qur'an. The word "Ad-Duha" means "The Morning Brightness" – that beautiful, clear light of the sun after sunrise. This Surah was revealed at a very specific and sad time for the Prophet (SAW). For a short while, the revelation from Angel Jibril stopped coming. The enemies of Islam in Makkah, the non-believers, started mocking the Prophet. They said, "Muhammad's Lord has abandoned him and hates him now!" This made Prophet Muhammad (SAW) feel very sad and worried.
2. Reading the Arabic Text The Surah starts with two beautiful oaths from Allah about different times of day. Listen and repeat:
 - "Wad-duha" – By the morning brightness! (Picture the peaceful, hopeful morning sun).
 - "Wal-laili iza saja" – And by the night when it covers with darkness! (Picture the quiet, resting night). These two opposites (bright day and dark night) show that Allah is in control of all time, and He never forgets His servants.
3. Allah's Consolation to the Prophet Allah revealed this Surah as a direct message of love and comfort to His Prophet. Allah said: "Ma wadda'aka rabbuka wa ma qala" – "Your Lord has not taken leave of you, [O Muhammad], nor has He detested [you]." This means: "Allah has not left you alone, and He is not angry with you." It was like a warm hug from Allah to remove the Prophet's sadness. Allah then gave him wonderful news: "Wa lal-akhiratu khairul laka minal-ula" – "And the Hereafter is better for you than the first [life]." This promise of Paradise is better than anything in this world.

Lesson for Us: Whenever we feel lonely, sad, or think Allah has forgotten us (maybe when we are sick, or fail a test), we must remember this Surah. Allah is always with us. Our future with Him is always brighter if we are patient and good.

EVALUATION

1. "Ad-Duha" refers to a beautiful time of day. What time is it?
2. Why was Prophet Muhammad (SAW) feeling sad before this Surah was revealed?
3. What lie were the non-believers spreading about the Prophet?
4. What does "Wal-laili iza saja" mean in English?
5. Did Allah really abandon or become angry with His Prophet?
6. What lesson can you learn for yourself when you feel sad or alone?

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Written) Copy the first 3 verses of Suratul Ad-Duha in Arabic (or in transliteration) neatly into your notebook.
2. (Thinking/Writing) Write one sentence explaining why this Surah is called a "Surah of Hope and Comfort."
3. (Oral) Ask a family member to help you pronounce the opening words "Wad-duha" correctly, with the emphasis on the "Du" sound.

WEEK 4: SURATUL AD-DUHA (AL-QUR'AN) II

OBJECTIVES

By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Translate the verses regarding the orphan, the lost, and the needy.
2. List three favors Allah did for Prophet Muhammad (SAW) mentioned in the Surah.
3. Describe how we should treat orphans and beggars based on the teachings of the Surah.

CONTENT

1. Translation and Allah's Favors In this part of the Surah, Allah reminds the Prophet (SAW) – and us – of past blessings. Sometimes when we are worried about the future, remembering past goodness gives us strength. Allah mentions three specific favors:
 - Favor 1: "Did He not find you an orphan and give [you] refuge?" The Prophet's father died before he was born, and his mother died when he was six years old. An orphan is a child with no parents. But Allah did not leave him alone. He made his grandfather Abdul-Muttalib and later his uncle Abu Talib take loving care of him.
 - Favor 2: "And He found you lost and guided [you]." Before Prophethood, the Prophet knew the world was not right with its idols. Allah guided him to the truth of Islam and chose him as the final Messenger.
 - Favor 3: "And He found you poor and made [you] self-sufficient." He grew up without much wealth, but later Allah blessed him with enough sustenance and a loving family like Khadijah (RA).
2. How to Treat the Vulnerable Because Allah was so kind to the Prophet, He now commands him (and all of us who follow him) to be kind to others. The Surah gives three clear commands:
 - Command 1: "Therefore, do not oppress the orphan." An orphan needs extra love. We must not be mean to them, take their things, or make them feel alone. We should share with them, play with them, and speak to them kindly.
 - Command 2: "And do not drive away the beggar." If someone asks us for help (like food, water, or money), we should not shout at them or chase them away. If we can help, we should. If we cannot, we should at least speak to them politely and say "May Allah provide for you."

- Command 3: "But proclaim the blessings of your Lord." We should talk about the good things Allah gave us – our home, food, health – and thank Him openly. Sharing our blessings with others is the best way to proclaim them.

Allah's Favors to the Prophet (SAW)	T	Our Duty to Others
1  refuge		1  orphan
2  guidance		2  beggar
3  provision		3  proclaim blessings

3. Gratitude in Action Gratitude (Shukr) is not just saying "Alhamdulillah." True gratitude is using Allah's blessings to do good. If Allah gave you knowledge, teach someone. If He gave you food, share it. If He gave you a strong voice, use it to speak kindly, not to shout. This is how we live by Suratul Ad-Duha.

EVALUATION

1. What difficult situation was the Prophet in as a child, and how did Allah help him?
2. What does the Surah command us not to do to an orphan?
3. If a person comes to your door asking for help, what should you not do?

4. How can we "proclaim the blessings" of Allah in a practical way?
5. Translate this in simple words: "Wa amma binimati Rabbika fahadith." ("And as for the favor of your Lord, report [it]").
6. Why did Allah remind the Prophet of his past before giving him new commands?

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Written) Write down three specific things you are thankful to Allah for today (e.g., "I can see," "I have a school to go to," "I ate breakfast").
2. (Thinking/Writing) Imagine there is a new pupil in your class who is an orphan. Explain in two sentences how you would make them feel welcome and happy.
3. (Oral/Memorization) Memorize the last verse of Suratul Ad-Duha: "Wa amma binimati Rabbika fahadith."

WEEK 5 & 6: MIDTERM EXAMINATIONS AND BREAK

(Note: These weeks are designated for Midterm Examinations and Midterm Break in the Scheme of Work. Lesson notes are not required for these weeks. Regular teaching resumes in Week 7.)

WEEK 7: SIGNIFICANCE OF BELIEF IN LIFE AFTER DEATH (TAWHID) I

OBJECTIVES

By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Define "Yaumul-Qiyamah" and "Al-Akhirah."
2. Identify belief in the Last Day as the fifth article of faith.
3. Mention three signs of the Day of Judgment.

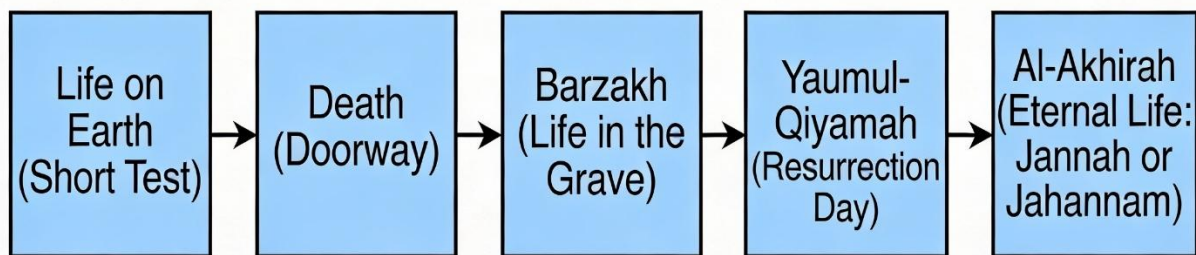

CONTENT

1. Concept of Life After Death Muslims believe that our life on Earth is like a test or a temporary journey. Death is not the end; it is like a door from this world to the next.
 - Yaumul-Qiyamah: This means "The Day of Resurrection" or "The Day of Standing." It is the day when the angel Israfil will blow the trumpet, and every single person who ever lived – from Prophet Adam to the last person on Earth – will be brought back to life by Allah's power. We will all stand before Allah.
 - Al-Akhirah: This means "The Hereafter." It is the real, everlasting life that comes after we die and are resurrected. It will never end. This world is like a short dream compared to Al-Akhirah.
2. The Fifth Article of Faith Belief in the Last Day is the Fifth Article of Faith (Iman). A Muslim must believe in six things: 1. Allah, 2. His Angels, 3. His Books, 4. His Messengers, 5. The Last Day, and 6. Divine Decree (Qadr). You cannot be a true believer if you think this life is all there is. Believing in the Last Day is like knowing there is a final exam after school; it makes us study (do good deeds) seriously.
3. Signs of the Day of Judgment Before the big Day comes, Allah will show some signs (Alamat) to warn people. Some major signs include:
 - The sun will rise from the west instead of the east. After this sign, repentance will no longer be accepted.
 - True knowledge will disappear, and ignorance will spread. People will stop learning about Islam.

- Wealth will increase greatly, but people will be less happy and grateful.
- Disrespect for parents will become common. Children will be rude to their elders.

Knowing these signs helps us stay on the right path and not be surprised when we see strange things happening in the world.

The Muslim's Belief About Life

EVALUATION

1. What is the meaning of "Yaumul-Qiyamah"?
2. Belief in the Last Day is number ____ among the six Articles of Faith.
3. Does a Muslim believe that life finishes completely after death? Explain your answer.
4. Mention two signs that will appear before the Day of Judgment.
5. What is the difference between "Dunya" (this world) and "Al-Akhirah" (the Hereafter)?
6. Why is it important to believe that we will be judged after death?

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Written) List the six articles of faith in their correct order in your notebook.
2. (Research/Oral) Ask your parents or an Islamic teacher to tell you one more sign of the Day of Judgment (e.g., the coming of Imam Mahdi, Dajjal) and write it down.
3. (Thinking/Writing) Write one sentence explaining why a good Muslim should not be overly afraid of death.

WEEK 8: SIGNIFICANCE OF BELIEF IN LIFE AFTER DEATH (TAWHID) II

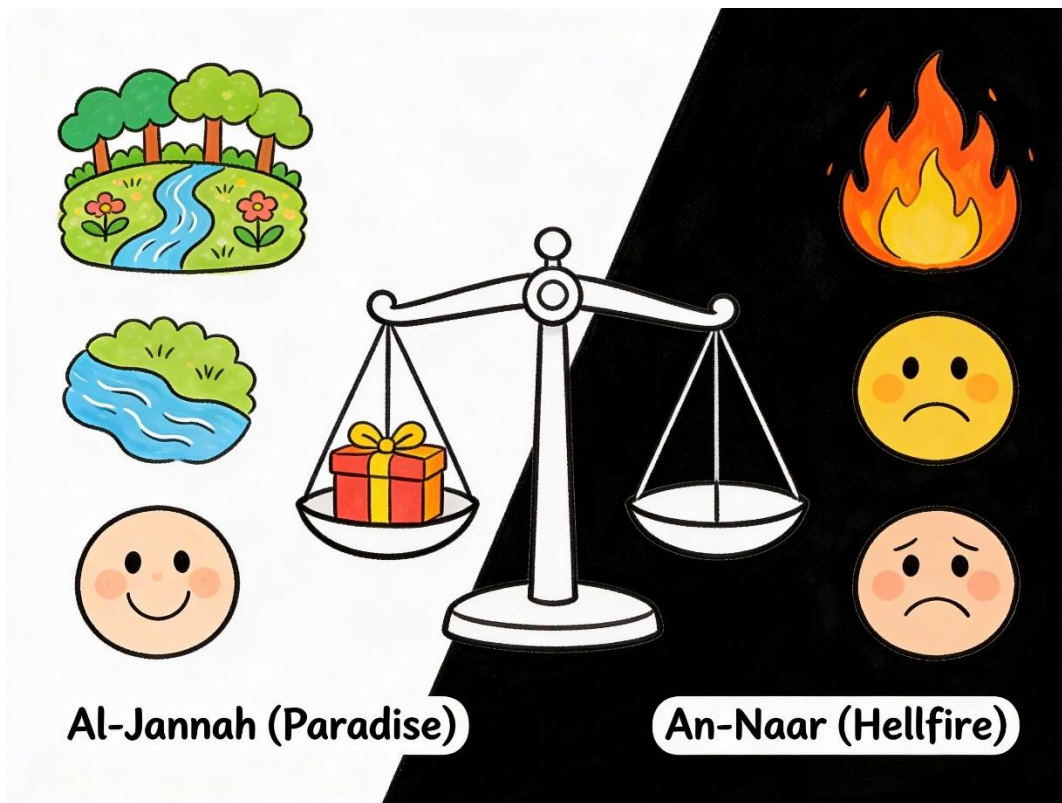

OBJECTIVES

By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Describe the events of the Day of Judgment (The Trumpet and Gathering).
2. Differentiate between Al-Jannah (Paradise) and An-Naar (Hellfire).
3. Explain how belief in the Hereafter affects a Muslim's behavior.

CONTENT

1. Events of the Day of Judgment Let's imagine what will happen on that awesome Day:
 - First Blow of the Trumpet (As-Sur): The Angel Israfil will blow the trumpet. Everything that is alive – humans, animals, birds, insects – will die instantly. The whole universe will be destroyed.
 - Second Blow of the Trumpet: After a period only known to Allah, Israfil will blow again. Immediately, everyone will be brought back to life from their graves! We will all be gathered on a vast, flat field called Al-Mahsher.
 - Accountability: Here, we will receive our "Book of Deeds." If you lived a good life, you will get your book in your right hand, and it will make you happy. If you lived a bad life, you will get it in your left hand or from behind your back, and you will be filled with shame. Our deeds will be weighed on the Scale of Justice (Al-Mizan).
2. Al-Jannah vs. An-Naar: The Two Final Homes
 - Al-Jannah (Paradise): This is the home of eternal happiness, peace, and joy for the believers. Imagine the most beautiful garden you can think of, with rivers of pure water, milk, honey, and shade. There is no sadness, sickness, or tiredness there. Everyone will have whatever they wish for.
 - An-Naar (Hellfire): This is the home of punishment for those who rejected Allah and did evil without repenting. It is a place of fierce fire, extreme heat, pain, and sadness. Its fuel will be people and stones. May Allah protect us all from it.

3. How This Belief Changes Our Behavior Believing in this Day with certainty makes us better people every day. It is like having a wise parent watching over you, encouraging you to do good.

- Honesty: You will be honest even if you find a lost item and no one sees you, because Allah sees.
- Kindness: You will help others, even strangers, to add good deeds to your scale.
- Avoiding Evil: You will avoid lying, stealing, or bullying because you fear Allah's punishment and shame on that Day. This belief gives our life purpose and makes us responsible citizens who want to make the world better.

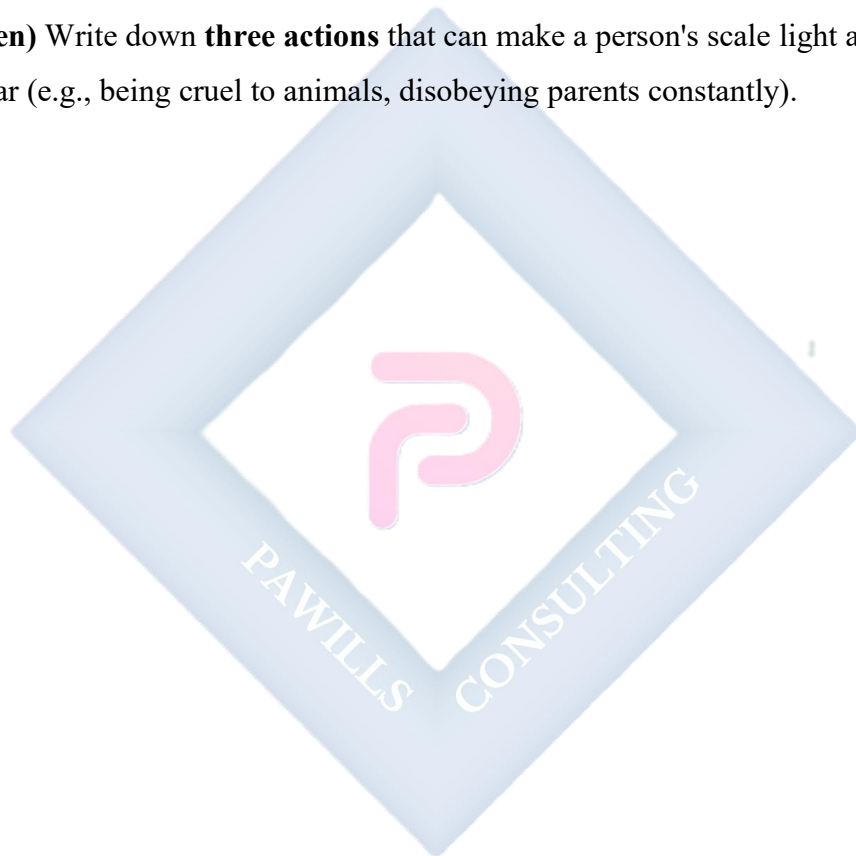

EVALUATION

1. Which Angel is responsible for blowing the trumpet (As-Sur)?
2. What happens when the trumpet is blown for the second time?
3. In which hand will a righteous person receive their Book of Deeds?
4. Describe Al-Jannah using your own simple words.
5. For whom is An-Naar (Hellfire) prepared?

6. How does believing in the Day of Judgment help a pupil behave better in school? (e.g., not cheating in exams).

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Drawing) Draw a simple balance scale (Al-Mizan) in your book. On one side, write "Good Deeds" and draw it heavier (lower). On the other side, write "Bad Deeds."
2. (Written) Write down three actions that can make a person's scale heavy and lead them to Jannah (e.g., praying in the mosque, feeding a hungry person).
3. (Written) Write down three actions that can make a person's scale light and lead them to An-Naar (e.g., being cruel to animals, disobeying parents constantly).

WEEK 9: AS-SAWM (FASTING) AND ITS IMPORTANCE (FIQH) I

OBJECTIVES

By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

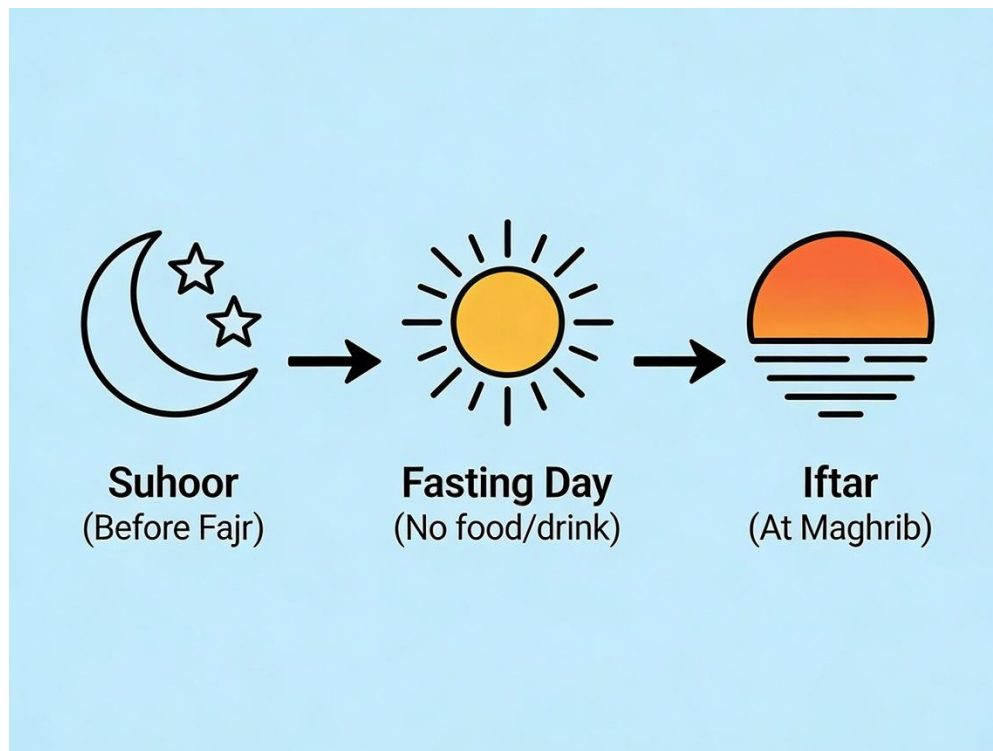

1. Define As-Sawm and identify it as the fourth pillar of Islam.
2. List three categories of people who must fast.
3. Explain the terms "Suhoor" and "Iftar."

CONTENT

1. Meaning and Obligation of Fasting The Arabic word "As-Sawm" means Fasting. In Islam, fasting means to stay away from specific things from the break of dawn (Fajr) until sunset (Maghrib), with the intention (Niyyah) of pleasing Allah alone. The things we stay away from are: 1. Food, 2. Drink, 3. Bad speech (like lying, arguing), and 4. Marital relations. Fasting during the month of Ramadan is the Fourth Pillar of Islam. It is compulsory (Fardh) for every Muslim who is able.
2. Who Must Fast? (Conditions for Fasting) Fasting is obligatory for people who meet these conditions:
 - Muslim: You must believe in Allah and His messenger.
 - Adult/Baligh: You have reached the age of puberty (signs include growth of body hair for boys, menstruation for girls). Children are encouraged to practice fasting for a few hours to get used to it, but it is not compulsory for them.
 - Sane (Aqil): You must be of sound mind and understand what you are doing.
 - Healthy and Resident: You must be physically healthy and not travelling a long journey. Sick people and travellers are excused, but they must make up the missed fasts later when they are well or have returned home.
3. Suhoor and Iftar: The Blessed Meals
 - Suhoor: This is the pre-dawn meal we eat before the Fajr prayer begins. It is a blessed meal. Even if you are not very hungry, try to eat a little date or drink some water. The Prophet (SAW) said there is a blessing in Suhoor. It gives us energy and strength for the day of fasting.

- Iftar: This is the meal we eat immediately after sunset (at Maghrib time) to break our fast. It is a joyful moment! It is a Sunnah (the Prophet's tradition) to break our fast with fresh dates or water. We say the Du'a: "Dhahaba-dh-dhama'u wabtallatil-'urooqu wa thabatal-ajru insha'Allah" (The thirst is gone, the veins are moistened, and the reward is confirmed, if Allah wills).

EVALUATION

1. What is the Arabic word for the fasting we do in Ramadan?
2. Fasting is the _____ Pillar of Islam.
3. From which prayer time to which prayer time do Muslims fast?
4. Who are two types of people who are allowed not to fast during Ramadan? (They must make it up later).
5. What is the meal we eat very early in the morning before fasting called?

6. What should we preferably use to break our fast, following the Sunnah of the Prophet (SAW)?

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Research/Practical) Ask your parents: "What time does Suhoor end (Fajr begins) in our city today?" Write down the time.
2. (Written) Write down the names of the 5 Pillars of Islam in order.
3. (Personal/Writing) If you have fasted before, write one sentence about how it makes you feel. If you haven't, write one sentence about what you think the hardest part might be and why it is still important.

WEEK 10: AS-SAWM (FASTING) AND ITS IMPORTANCE (FIQH) II

OBJECTIVES

By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. State three spiritual or social benefits of fasting.
2. List three things that spoil (break) the fast.
3. Explain the significance of Laylatul-Qadr.

CONTENT

1. Benefits of Fasting: More Than Just Hunger Fasting is a special training program for our body and soul. Its benefits are many:
 - Taqwa (God-Consciousness): This is the main goal! Fasting teaches us to remember Allah and fear disobeying Him, even when we are alone and hungry. It strengthens our self-control.
 - Self-Discipline: We learn to control our desires (for food, drink, anger) for Allah's sake. This helps us in all parts of life.
 - Empathy: When we feel hunger and thirst, we remember our poor and needy brothers and sisters who feel this way every day. This makes us more generous and willing to help them (through Zakat and Sadaqah).
 - Health Benefits: It gives our stomach and digestive system a rest. It helps cleanse the body. Doctors say it can be very good for health when done correctly.
2. Things That Break The Fast For our fast to be valid, we must avoid these things intentionally:
 - 1. Eating or Drinking anything on purpose. (If you forget and eat or drink, your fast is still valid! Just stop when you remember and continue).
 - 2. Intentional Vomiting. (If you vomit by accident, it does not break the fast).
 - 3. Bad Behavior. Using foul language, fighting, backbiting, or lying destroys the reward of the fast, even if the fast itself remains. The Prophet (SAW) said if someone does not stop false speech and acting upon it, "Allah has no need for him to give up his food and drink."

3. Laylatul-Qadr and Eid-ul-Fitr

- Laylatul-Qadr (The Night of Power/Decree): This is the most blessed night of the year, hidden in the last ten odd nights of Ramadan (21st, 23rd, 25th, 27th, 29th). Worship on this one night is better than worship for 1,000 months (over 83 years)! Muslims spend these nights in extra prayer (Tahajjud), reading Qur'an, and making Du'a, especially asking for forgiveness.
- Eid-ul-Fitr (The Festival of Breaking the Fast): This is the celebration on the 1st of Shawwal, the day after Ramadan ends. It is a day of joy, gratitude, and sharing. We perform the Eid prayer, wear nice clothes, give a special charity called Zakatul-Fitr before the prayer, and visit family and friends. It is forbidden to fast on this day.

EVALUATION

1. What is the main spiritual goal or benefit of fasting? (Hint: It starts with 'T').
2. How does fasting help us understand and help poor people?
3. If you are fasting and you accidentally take a sip of water, thinking it is night, is your fast broken?
4. Mention two things that can intentionally break a fast.
5. What is "Laylatul-Qadr" and why is it so special?
6. Which happy festival do Muslims celebrate at the end of Ramadan?

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Art/Practical) Design a simple "Eid Mubarak" greeting card on a piece of paper. You can decorate it with moons, stars, and masjids.
2. (Written) Write down the translation of "Laylatul-Qadr" and one thing you would like to pray for on that night.
3. (Self-Reflection) List three bad habits you think you should try to stop especially during Ramadan (e.g., wasting time, speaking harshly, leaving prayers late).

WEEK 11: REVISION

OBJECTIVES

By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Recall key concepts taught from Week 1 to Week 10.
2. Clarify any difficult topics through questions and answers.
3. Demonstrate readiness for the upcoming examination.

CONTENT

General Review Today is for revising everything we have learned this term. Let's go through the main topics:

- Al-Qur'an (Surah Revision):
 - Suratul-Tin: The four things Allah swore by (Fig, Olive, Mount Sinai, Makkah). The lesson that humans are created in the best form (Ahsani Taqwim), but our true value is in our faith and good deeds.
 - Suratul Ad-Duha: Allah's comfort to the Prophet. The three past favors (Orphan, Guided, Provided for). The three commands (Don't oppress the orphan, don't drive away the beggar, proclaim Allah's blessings).
- Tawhid (Belief):
 - Belief in Life After Death: Yaumul-Qiyamah (Resurrection Day) and Al-Akhirah (Hereafter).
 - Events: The Trumpet, Gathering, Book of Deeds, The Scale (Mizan).
 - The Two Final Homes: Al-Jannah (Paradise) and An-Naar (Hellfire).
- Fiqh (Islamic Ruling):
 - Fasting (As-Sawm): The Fourth Pillar. Who must fast? Meaning of Suhoor and Iftar. Things that break the fast. Benefits of fasting (Taqwa, discipline, empathy). Laylatul-Qadr and Eid-ul-Fitr.

EVALUATION (Teacher will conduct an interactive oral quiz or a fun question-and-answer game covering random questions from the term's topics.)

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Written Preparation) Read through all your Islamic Studies notes from this term carefully.
2. (Practical Preparation) Ensure your pen, pencil, and eraser are ready for the examination.
3. (Oral Practice) Practice reciting Suratul-Tin and Suratul Ad-Duha one more time to ensure you remember them well.

PRIMARY 5 ISLAMIC STUDIES LESSON NOTES

THIRD TERM

WEEK 1: ZAKAT (ALMSGIVING) AND ITS SIGNIFICANCE (FIQH) I

OBJECTIVES

By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Define Zakat and state its position as a pillar of Islam.
2. Differentiate between Zakat and Sadaqah.
3. List three types of wealth on which Zakat is paid.
4. Identify four categories of people who can receive Zakat.

CONTENT

1. Meaning of Zakat The word "Zakat" means purification and growth. Think of it like weeding a garden. When you remove the weeds (purification), the good plants grow better. In Islam, Zakat is the compulsory act of giving a fixed portion of your extra wealth to the poor and needy. It is the Third Pillar of Islam. Just as Salah purifies our souls, Zakat purifies our wealth and our hearts from greed. It is a test from Allah to see if we will share His blessings.
2. Difference Between Zakat and Sadaqah It is very important to understand the difference:
 - Zakat:
 - It is compulsory (Fardh). Every Muslim who meets the conditions must pay it.
 - It has a fixed amount: usually 2.5% (or 1/40th) of your saved wealth.
 - It is paid once a year, after you have had the wealth for one full Hijri year.
 - It can only be given to specific eight categories of people mentioned in the Qur'an.
 - Sadaqah:
 - It is voluntary charity. It is highly rewarding but not obligatory.
 - You can give any amount, at any time.

- It can be given to anyone in need, even to animals or for building a mosque or school.
- Even a smile is a Sadaqah!

ZAKAT	SADAQAH
 Compulsory	 Voluntary
2.5%	Any Amount
Once a Year	Anytime
8 Specific Groups	Anyone/Anything Good

3. Types of Wealth and Nisab You don't pay Zakat on every single thing you own. You pay on wealth that is growing or can grow. This wealth must reach a minimum value called Nisab. If your wealth is less than the Nisab, you do not pay Zakat that year. The Nisab is equal to the value of 87.48 grams of gold or 612.36 grams of silver. Types of wealth that require Zakat include:

- Money: Cash savings in your box or bank, gold, and silver jewelry meant for savings (not regular wear).
- Business Goods: Items in a shop meant for selling, like clothes, shoes, or food.
- Farm Produce: Crops like rice, maize, or fruits from your farm.

- Livestock: Animals like cattle, sheep, goats, and camels that are raised for trade or milk.
4. Recipients of Zakat (Who can receive it?) Allah tells us exactly who should get Zakat in Surah At-Tawbah (9:60). We will learn four of the eight categories today:
 5. Al-Fuqara (The Poor): People who have nothing or very little—not enough for their basic needs for a day.
 6. Al-Masakin (The Needy): People who have a little, but not enough to live comfortably. They struggle to make ends meet.
 7. Al-Amilun (The Collectors): The honest people appointed by the Islamic leader to collect, organize, and distribute the Zakat. They get paid from the Zakat fund for their work.
 8. Al-Gharimun (The Debtors): People who are in deep debt and cannot pay it back, as long as the debt was not for sinful purposes.

EVALUATION

1. Which number pillar of Islam is Zakat?
2. The word "Zakat" means purification and _____.
3. What is one main difference between Zakat and Sadaqah?
4. What is the name for the minimum amount of wealth one must have before paying Zakat?
5. Give two examples of wealth on which Zakat is paid.
6. Who are the "Fuqara"? What about the "Masakin"?

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Research/Oral) Ask your parents: Do we pay Zakat on the clothes we wear every day or on our bicycles? (The answer is generally No, because they are for personal use, not for growing wealth).
2. (Written) In your notebook, write down the 3rd and 4th Pillars of Islam.
3. (Drawing) Draw a simple sack or treasure chest and label it "Zakat Fund – For the Poor and Needy."

WEEK 2: ZAKAT (ALMSGIVING) AND ITS SIGNIFICANCE (FIQH) II

OBJECTIVES

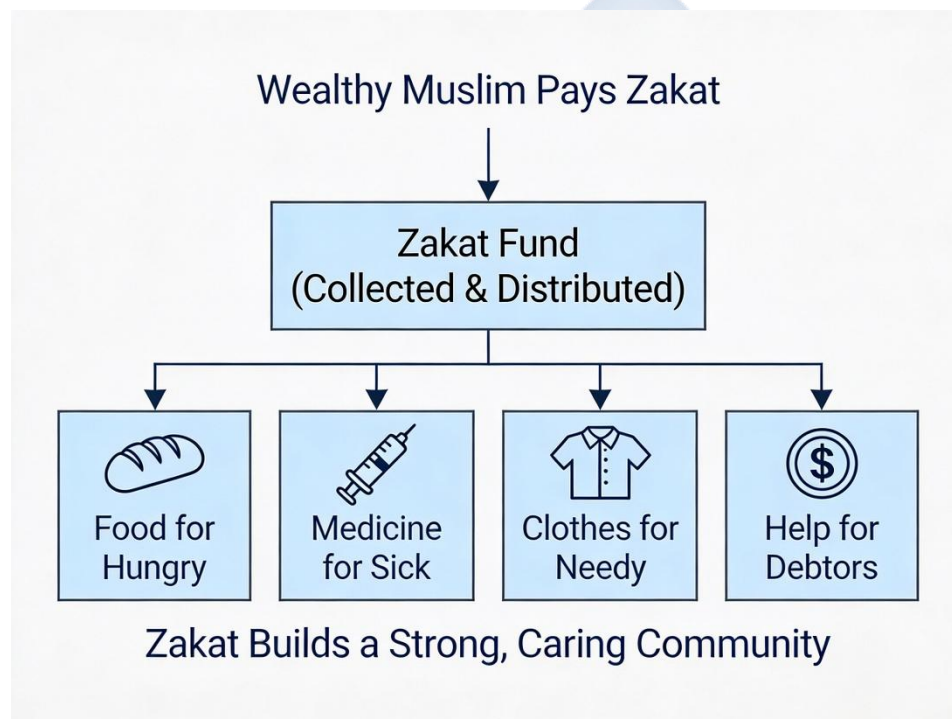

By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Explain the spiritual benefit of Zakat regarding wealth purification.
2. Describe how Zakat helps the economy and the poor.
3. State why generosity is important in building a happy community.

CONTENT

1. Spiritual Significance of Zakat Paying Zakat is not just a financial transaction; it is a deep act of worship with amazing benefits for the giver:
 - Purification of Wealth: It removes greed, selfishness, and love of money from our hearts. It is like cleaning our wealth from spiritual dirt.
 - Purification of the Soul: It teaches us to be generous and to care for others more than ourselves.
 - Gratitude to Allah: By giving away a part, we acknowledge that all wealth belongs to Allah. We are just caretakers. Giving is a way of saying "Thank You, Allah."
 - Blessing and Increase: Allah promises in the Qur'an that charity does not decrease wealth. Instead, Allah replaces it with blessings, barakah, and sometimes even more wealth.
2. Economic and Social Impact of Zakat Zakat is a brilliant system that helps the whole community, like a powerful engine for good:
 - Helps the Poor and Needy: It provides immediate help for food, clothing, medicine, and shelter. This reduces suffering, hunger, and desperate begging.
 - Circulation of Wealth: Money doesn't get stuck with only a few rich people. Zakat ensures it flows from the rich to the poor, so everyone in society benefits. This is like watering all plants in a garden, not just one.
 - Reduces Crime and Envy: When people's basic needs are met through Zakat, they are less likely to steal or commit crimes out of desperation. It also reduces jealousy and hatred between the rich and the poor.

3. Building a Caring and United Community (Ummah) Zakat builds strong bonds of brotherhood and sisterhood in Islam.
- Love, Not Hatred: When the rich give to the poor, the poor feel cared for and loved. They pray for the rich instead of resenting them.
 - Shared Responsibility: It teaches us that we are all responsible for each other. If one part of the Muslim body is sick, the whole body feels pain. Zakat is the cure.
 - A Happy Society: A community where everyone looks out for one another is a peaceful, strong, and happy community. Zakat is a key tool to build this.

EVALUATION

1. What bad feeling does Zakat remove from the heart of the person who pays it?
2. How does paying Zakat show that we are grateful to Allah?
3. Explain in one sentence: How does Zakat help a poor family in your neighborhood?
4. Why does Zakat help to create love instead of jealousy between people?
5. What does Allah promise about the wealth of a person who pays Zakat sincerely?
6. True or False: Zakat only makes rich people feel good about themselves. (False: Its main goal is to help the poor and purify the giver's wealth).

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Reflection/Writing) Write one sentence about how you would feel if you used your own money to buy food for a hungry person.
2. (Practical Thinking) List three things a poor person could buy with Zakat money to improve their life (e.g., seeds to plant, a tool for work, school books for their child).
3. (Oral/Explanation) Explain to a family member in your own words why Zakat is good for the whole community, not just the poor.

WEEK 3: KHULAFU RASHIDUN - UTHMAN IBN AFFAN (SIRAH) I

OBJECTIVES

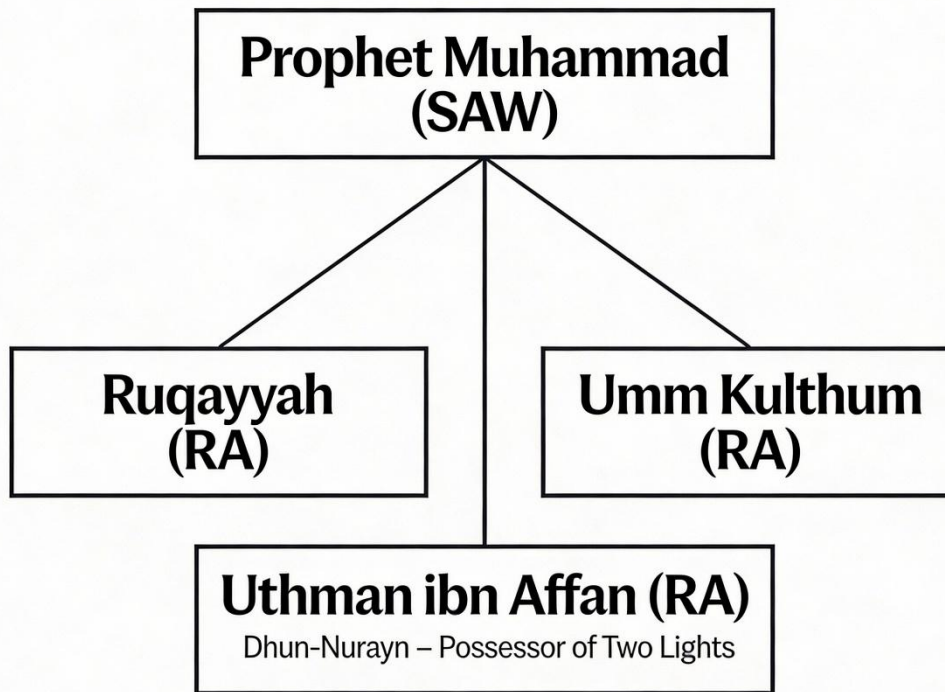

By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Identify Uthman ibn Affan as the third Caliph of Islam.
2. Describe Uthman's character and his acceptance of Islam.
3. Explain why he was called "Dhun-Nurayn" (Possessor of Two Lights).

CONTENT

1. Who was Uthman ibn Affan? Uthman ibn Affan (May Allah be pleased with him - RA) was one of the earliest and closest companions of Prophet Muhammad (SAW). He was the third man to lead the entire Muslim community after the Prophet's death. He became the Third Rightly Guided Caliph (Khaleefah). He was born into a very wealthy and respected family in Makkah.
2. Character and Acceptance of Islam Uthman (RA) was known for his excellent character even before Islam. When his best friend, Abu Bakr (RA), invited him to Islam, he accepted immediately because he recognized the truth. His main qualities were:
 - Extreme Modesty and Shyness (Haya): He was so shy that the Prophet (SAW) said even the angels feel shy of Uthman!
 - Incredible Generosity: He used his vast wealth only to help Islam and Muslims. He bought a well for Muslims to have free water, financed the army, and bought freedom for many Muslim slaves who were being tortured.
3. Dhun-Nurayn (Possessor of Two Lights) Uthman (RA) had a unique honour that no other companion had. He married two daughters of Prophet Muhammad (SAW).
 - First, he married Ruqayyah (RA). She was very dear to the Prophet. When she became ill, the Prophet (SAW) allowed Uthman to stay behind from a battle to care for her.
 - After Ruqayyah passed away, the Prophet (SAW) gave him his other daughter, Umm Kulthum (RA), in marriage. Because he married two daughters of the "Light of Guidance" (the Prophet), he was given the beautiful title "Dhun-Nurayn," which means

"The Possessor of Two Lights." This shows his high status and the Prophet's great love and trust for him.

EVALUATION

1. Uthman ibn Affan was the _____ Rightly Guided Caliph.
2. Which close companion of the Prophet first invited Uthman to Islam?
3. Mention two famous character traits of Uthman (RA).
4. What does the Arabic title "Dhun-Nurayn" mean in English?
5. Why was Uthman given this special title?
6. Name one of the Prophet's daughters that Uthman married.

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Written) Write down the title "Dhun-Nurayn" and its meaning in your notebook.
2. (Research) Find out and write the names of the First Caliph (Abu Bakr) and the Second Caliph (Umar).

3. (Writing) Write one sentence describing Uthman's generosity, using your own words (e.g., He used his money to free slaves and help the poor).

WEEK 4: KHULAFU RASHIDUN - UTHMAN IBN AFFAN (SIRAH) II

OBJECTIVES

By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Mention the major achievement of Uthman regarding the Holy Qur'an.
2. Describe how Uthman died (Martyrdom).
3. List two lessons we can learn from his life.

CONTENT

1. The Caliphate and The Qur'an Uthman (RA) ruled as Caliph for about twelve years. His greatest service to Islam and to all Muslims until today was the Compilation and Standardization of the Qur'an.
 - The Problem: As Islam spread to new lands like Persia and North Africa, people from different tribes began reciting the Qur'an with slight dialect differences. This threatened to cause confusion and disagreement over the true words.
 - The Solution: Uthman (RA) acted decisively. He gathered the original, complete copy of the Qur'an that was compiled during Abu Bakr's time and kept with Hafsa (RA), the Prophet's wife. He ordered a committee to make several exact copies from it.
 - The Result: He sent these official copies to major Muslim cities and ordered that all other personal copies be checked against them and corrected or destroyed. The Qur'an we read today in every corner of the world is the same, unchanged copy from Uthman's time. This protected the Qur'an forever.
2. Expansion of Islam and His Martyrdom During his rule, the Islamic state grew very large. Muslim armies reached far places like North Africa and parts of Central Asia. However, in the later years, some rebels and trouble-makers spread false rumours and caused unrest. They eventually surrounded his house in Madinah. Uthman (RA), known for his patience and refusal to shed Muslim blood, stayed inside. Sadly, while he was fasting and reading the Qur'an, the rebels broke in and killed him. He died as a martyr (Shaheed), holding the Holy Book he had worked so hard to protect.
3. Lessons from His Life

- Lesson 1: Generosity and Sacrifice. Use your wealth and resources to help the Deen of Allah and your community, not just for yourself.
- Lesson 2: Modesty and Patience. Be humble and patient even when people are unfair to you. Uthman never fought back against the rebels to avoid Muslim bloodshed.
- Lesson 3: Love for the Qur'an. We must love, read, memorize, and protect the Qur'an. It is our greatest treasure.

EVALUATION

1. For roughly how many years did Uthman (RA) rule as Caliph?
2. What is Uthman's (RA) most famous and lasting achievement for all Muslims?
3. Why did he need to make standard copies of the Qur'an?
4. What was Uthman (RA) doing at the moment he was killed? (Two things: He was fasting and...).
5. Name one region of the world where Islam spread during his rule.
6. What lesson do we learn from Uthman's refusal to fight the rebels who surrounded his house?

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Drawing) Draw a picture of a beautiful, closed book. On the cover, write "Al-Qur'an Al-Kareem".
2. (Written) Write three words that best describe Uthman ibn Affan (RA) (e.g., Generous, Patient, Protector of Qur'an).
3. (Practical) Ask your parent or guardian to show you a copy of the Qur'an at home. Look at its clear Arabic script and remember Uthman's service.

WEEK 5 & 6: MIDTERM EXAMINATIONS AND BREAK

(Note: These weeks are designated for Midterm Examinations and Midterm Break in the Scheme of Work. Lesson notes are not required for these weeks. Regular teaching resumes in Week 7.)

WEEK 7: KHULAFU RASHIDUN - ALI IBN ABI-TALIB (SIRAH) I

OBJECTIVES

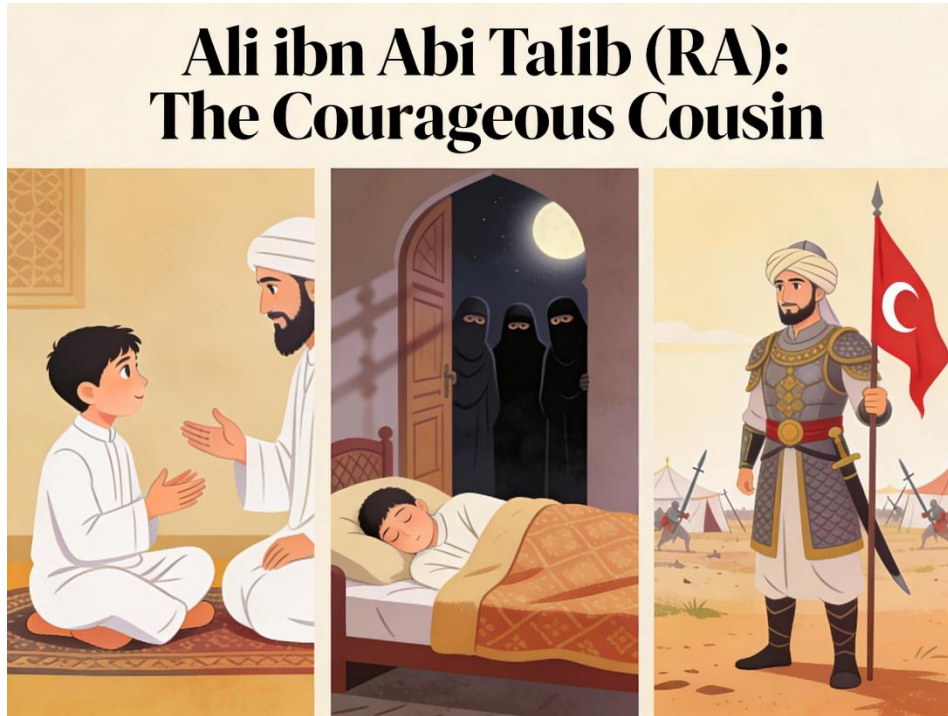

By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Identify Ali ibn Abi-Talib as the fourth Caliph.
2. Describe his relationship with Prophet Muhammad (SAW).
3. Mention two examples of his courage.

CONTENT

1. Who was Ali ibn Abi-Talib? Ali ibn Abi Talib (RA) was the cousin of Prophet Muhammad (SAW). He was also raised in the Prophet's own house from a very young age. He holds the special honour of being the first child (male) to accept Islam, doing so when he was only about ten years old. He later became the Fourth and final Rightly Guided Caliph.
2. His Close Relationship with the Prophet (SAW) Ali (RA) was like a son and a beloved student to the Prophet.
 - Family Ties: To make their bond even stronger, the Prophet (SAW) gave his most beloved daughter, Fatimah (RA), in marriage to Ali (RA). Their children, Hasan and Husayn (RA), were the beloved grandsons of the Prophet.
 - A Treasure of Knowledge: The Prophet (SAW) once said, "I am the city of knowledge, and Ali is its gate." This means if you want to learn the deep knowledge of Islam from the Prophet, Ali was one of the main paths to it. He was extremely wise and brave.
3. His Legendary Courage and Bravery Ali (RA) was famous for his unmatched bravery in battle, earning him the title "Asadullah" (The Lion of Allah).
 - Example 1: The Night of Hijrah. When the disbelievers planned to kill the Prophet (SAW) in his sleep, the Prophet asked Ali to sleep in his bed. Ali (RA) bravely agreed, knowing the killers would come for him. He risked his life so the Prophet could escape safely to Madinah.

- Example 2: The Hero of Battles. In battles like Badr and Khaybar, Ali (RA) was always at the front. At Khaybar, he carried the Muslim flag and conquered a mighty fortress. His strength and faith were legendary.

EVALUATION

1. Who was the first child to accept the message of Islam?
2. How was Ali (RA) related to Prophet Muhammad (SAW) by blood? (He was his _____).
3. Which daughter of the Prophet (SAW) did Ali marry?
4. What title was Ali (RA) given because of his bravery in fighting for Islam?
5. What dangerous task did Ali (RA) perform on the night the Prophet migrated to Madinah?
6. What are the names of Ali and Fatimah's two famous sons?

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Written) Write the names of the Four Rightly Guided Caliphs in their correct order: 1. _____, 2. _____, 3. Uthman, 4. Ali.
2. (Writing) Write one sentence explaining why you think Ali (RA) was called "The Lion of Allah."

3. (Research) Find out the name of Ali's father (Abi Talib) and write it down.

WEEK 8: KHULAFU RASHIDUN - ALI IBN ABI-TALIB (SIRAH) II

OBJECTIVES

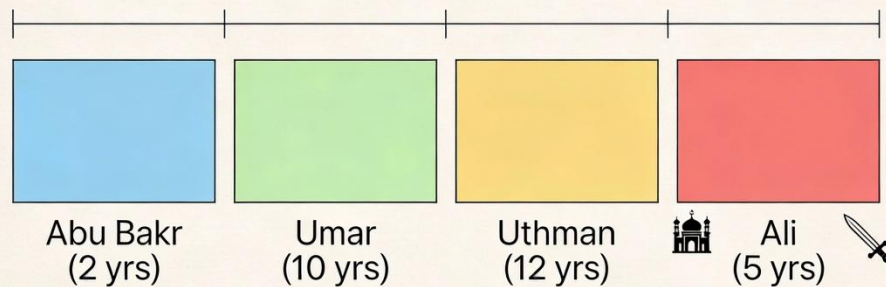

By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. State the duration of Ali's caliphate.
2. Describe his character as a leader (Justice and Knowledge).
3. Explain the circumstances of his death.

CONTENT

1. Ali's Caliphate: A Time of Difficulty Ali (RA) became the Caliph after the martyrdom of Uthman (RA). His rule lasted from 656 to 661 CE (about 4-5 years). This was a very difficult and divided time in Muslim history. Some groups rebelled, and there were misunderstandings and even battles between Muslims. Ali (RA) always tried to bring peace, unity, and justice, even when it was very hard.
2. Justice and Wisdom: The Hallmarks of His Rule Despite the troubles, Ali (RA) is remembered as a model of justice and deep knowledge.
 - Justice ('Adl): He lived a very simple life. He did not take extra money from the public treasury for himself or his family. He treated everyone equally in his court—whether they were a powerful general or a poor old woman.
 - Wisdom and Knowledge: He was a fountain of wise sayings. One of his most famous is: "A person who teaches me one letter, I become his servant." This shows his incredible humility and love for learning. He valued knowledge more than anything.
3. His Martyrdom Sadly, like Umar and Uthman before him, Ali (RA) was also martyred. One morning, while he was leading the Fajr (dawn) prayer in the mosque of Kufa (in Iraq), a man with a poisoned sword attacked him. Ali (RA) was injured and died from his wounds a few days later. His death marked the end of the era of the Khulafa'ur Rashidun (The Rightly Guided Caliphs). The Muslim community would never be united under a single leader in the same way again.

The Era of the Rightly Guided Caliphs

EVALUATION

1. Which prayer was Ali (RA) leading when he was attacked?
2. Was Ali's time as Caliph mostly peaceful or filled with challenges?
3. Why is Ali (RA) famous as a judge and leader? (Because of his _____).
4. Complete this wise saying of Ali (RA): "A person who teaches me one letter becomes my _____."
5. In which city did Ali (RA) die?
6. Who was the last of the Four Rightly Guided Caliphs?

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Reflection/Writing) Write down one lesson you learned from the life of Ali ibn Abi Talib (RA) (e.g., the importance of bravery, justice, or seeking knowledge).
2. (Drawing) Draw a simple timeline showing the order of the 4 Caliphs. Use arrows: Abu Bakr -> Umar -> Uthman -> Ali.
3. (Art/Writing) Write the word "JUSTICE" in big, bold letters in your book and decorate the page around it.

WEEK 9: WOMEN IN THE QUR'AN - LESSONS (SIRAH/TAHDIB)

OBJECTIVES

By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Identify two women mentioned in the Qur'an as bad examples and two as good examples.
2. Briefly tell the story of Asiyah (Wife of Fir'awn).
3. Explain the lesson that family relations do not guarantee salvation.

CONTENT

1. Bad Examples: The Wives of Nuh and Lut The Qur'an mentions the wives of two great Prophets as examples of disbelief and betrayal, even though they were married to righteous men.
 - Wife of Prophet Nuh (Noah): She did not believe in her husband's message. She secretly supported his enemies and mocked his preaching.
 - Wife of Prophet Lut (Lot): She also disbelieved. She would inform the evil people of her town when guests came to her husband's house.
 - THE KEY LESSON: This teaches us a powerful truth: Being close to a good person (like a prophet, parent, or scholar) does not automatically make you good or save you. Your own faith and actions are what count on the Day of Judgment.
2. Good Examples: Asiyah and Maryam
 - Asiyah, Wife of Pharaoh (Fir'awn): She was married to the worst tyrant on earth, a man who claimed to be God! But in her heart, she believed in the One True God, Allah. She secretly believed in Prophet Musa (Moses). When Pharaoh discovered her faith, he tortured her terribly. While being tortured, she prayed a beautiful prayer mentioned in the Qur'an: "My Lord, build for me near You a house in Paradise... and save me from Pharaoh and his deeds." Allah accepted her prayer, and she died as a martyr. She is a model of incredible faith and courage.
 - Maryam (Mary), Mother of Isa (Jesus): She is the only woman mentioned by name in the Qur'an. A whole chapter is named after her! She was chosen by Allah for her purity, devotion, and obedience. She was not a prophet, but Allah gave her the miracle of giving birth to Prophet Isa (Jesus) without a father. She is a model of purity, patience, and complete trust in Allah.

Women in the Qur'an: Your Own Faith Matters Most

Bad Examples		Good Examples

Whispering	detraying	Asiyah	Maryam

- The Ultimate Lesson: Personal Responsibility Allah will judge each person individually. Asiyah went to Paradise even though her husband was in Hell. The wife of Nuh went to Hell even though her husband was in Paradise. We cannot ride on someone else's good deeds. We must build our own faith and character.

EVALUATION

- Name one woman mentioned in the Qur'an as a bad example for believers.
- Name one woman mentioned in the Qur'an as a good example for believers.
- Who was Asiyah's husband, and what kind of man was he?
- Did the wife of Prophet Nuh (AS) believe in Allah and support her husband?
- Who is the mother of Prophet Isa (Jesus), peace be upon him?

6. What is the main lesson from the story of the wife of Prophet Nuh?

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Written) Write the names of the four women discussed in today's lesson (Two good, two bad).
2. (Reflection/Writing) Write two sentences about why you admire Asiyah or Maryam (choose one).
3. (Drawing) Draw a simple, beautiful house. Label it "My House in Jannah" – inspired by Asiyah's brave prayer.

WEEK 10: ISLAMIC RULES OF CONDUCT I (TAHDIB)

OBJECTIVES

By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. Define "Adab."
2. List three ways to show respect to parents.
3. Explain the proper manner of speaking to others.

CONTENT

1. What is Adab? The word "Adab" means good manners, etiquette, and proper behavior. It is how a Muslim should behave in every situation to please Allah and respect His creation. Good Adab is a sign of strong faith.
2. Adab with Allah (Our Creator) Our first and most important manners are towards Allah:
 - Worship Him correctly: Perform our five daily Salah on time, with concentration and humility.
 - Respect His Name: Say "Bismillah" (In the name of Allah) before starting anything good. Say "Alhamdulillah" (Praise be to Allah) when finishing or when we get something good.
 - Remember Him often: Make Dhikr (like Subhanallah, Alhamdulillah, Allahu Akbar) throughout the day.
3. Adab with Parents After Allah, our parents have the greatest right over us. The Qur'an commands us to be excellent to them.
 - Obey them immediately when they call us, unless they ask us to disobey Allah.
 - Speak to them softly and kindly. Never raise your voice at them. The Qur'an says we should not even say "Uff" (a word of annoyance or sigh) to them.
 - Help them physically with house chores, running errands.
 - Pray for them: Always make this Du'a: "Rabbighfir li waliwalidayya" (My Lord, forgive me and my parents).
4. Adab with Elders, Teachers, and in Speech

- Elders and Teachers: Stand up as a sign of respect when they enter. Listen attentively when they speak. Never interrupt them rudely.
- General Speech Manners:
 - Always speak the truth.
 - Do not gossip (Gheebah) – talking about someone's faults behind their back is like eating your dead brother's flesh!
 - Do not use bad words, curse, or insult.
 - If you have nothing good to say, it is better to remain silent. The Prophet (SAW) said, "Whoever believes in Allah and the Last Day, let him speak good or remain silent."

EVALUATION

1. What is the meaning of the Islamic term "Adab"?
2. What is the small word of annoyance ("Uff") that the Qur'an forbids us from saying to our parents?
3. Mention one way we show respect to Allah through our manners.
4. How should you behave when your teacher is explaining a lesson?
5. What should a Muslim do if they are about to gossip or say something hurtful?
6. Is backbiting (gossiping) considered a bad manner in Islam?

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Memorization) Memorize the short prayer for parents: "Rabbir hamhuma kama rabbayanee sagheera" (My Lord, have mercy upon them as they brought me up when I was small).
2. (Practical) List three specific things you will do for your parents today to show good Adab (e.g., bring them a glass of water, tidy your room without being asked).
3. (Writing) Write this promise in your notebook: "I will try my best to always speak the truth."

WEEK 11: ISLAMIC RULES OF CONDUCT II (TAHDIB)

OBJECTIVES

By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

1. State the Islamic greeting and its reply.
2. Demonstrate proper table manners (eating etiquette).
3. Mention two ways to be a good friend and neighbor.

CONTENT

1. Adab of Greeting Greeting is the key to spreading peace and love. The Islamic greeting is:
 - To say: "As-salamu alaykum" which means "Peace be upon you."
 - To reply: "Wa alaykumu as-salam wa rahmatullahi wa barakatuh" which means "And upon you be peace, and the mercy of Allah, and His blessings." The shorter reply is "Wa alaykumu as-salam." You should greet people you know and even those you don't know. The one who greets first is better in the sight of Allah.
2. Adab with Neighbors and Friends
 - Neighbors: A Muslim must be good to their neighbor. Do not disturb them with loud noise (from music, shouting). Share food with them sometimes. Check on them if they are sick. The Prophet (SAW) said being a good neighbor is so important that he almost thought it would be made an inheritance (a right you get automatically)!
 - Friends: A good friend is a great blessing. Be the friend who: Keeps secrets, forgives mistakes, shares good things, and gives good advice. Avoid friends who encourage you to do bad things.
3. Table Manners (Eating Etiquette) Islam teaches us how to eat in a clean, polite, and thankful way:
 - a. Wash your hands before and after eating.
 - b. Say "Bismillah" (In the name of Allah) before you start.
 - c. Eat with your right hand. The left hand is for cleaning.
 - d. Eat from the side of the plate or bowl that is closest to you. Don't reach over to the best pieces in the middle or from someone else's side.

- e. Do not waste food. Take only what you can finish.
- f. Do not blow on hot food. Wait for it to cool.
- g. When finished, say "Alhamdulillah" (Praise be to Allah). Lick your fingers clean, for you don't know which part of the food has the blessing.

- 4. The Importance of Cleanliness The Prophet (SAW) said: "Cleanliness is half of faith." A Muslim should be clean in body, clothes, and environment. This includes: taking a bath (Ghusl) when required, doing Wudu for prayer, clipping nails, brushing teeth (Siwak), and keeping your home and school compound tidy.

EVALUATION

- 1. What is the full Islamic greeting you should say when you meet someone?
- 2. What is the minimum correct reply to this greeting?
- 3. Which hand should a Muslim use for eating?
- 4. What should you say before starting your meal?
- 5. What is one duty you have towards your neighbor?
- 6. What should you do before and after eating a meal? (Mention two actions).

ASSIGNMENT

1. (Practical/Oral) Practice the full Islamic greeting and reply with three different people at home today.
2. (Written) In your notebook, write down the 7 steps of proper eating etiquette we learned.
3. (Drawing/Art) Trace your right hand on a page. Inside it, write: "This is my clean hand for eating, writing, and giving Salam." Decorate it.
