PRIMARY 4 FRENCH LANGUAGE LESSON NOTES

FIRST TERM

WEEK 1: POURQUOI APPRENDRE LE FRANÇAIS? (WHY LEARN FRENCH?).

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- State two reasons why learning French is important.
- List three French-speaking countries in Africa (Francophone countries).
- Identify Nigeria's neighbors that speak French.
- Recite the first 5 letters of the French alphabet.

CONTENT Importance of Learning French: French is not just another subject; it is a key that opens many doors. It is an international language, which means it is spoken by millions of people in many countries around the world, not just in France.

Learning French helps us in our daily lives and future:

- To Communicate: Nigeria shares borders with countries where French is the main language. If you learn French, you can talk to your neighbors, make new friends, and understand them when you visit their markets or towns.
- For Better Opportunities: When you grow up, knowing French can help you get interesting jobs. You could work as a translator (helping people understand each other), in tourism (guiding French visitors around Nigeria), or even for big international organizations.
- For Education and Travel: Many interesting books, cartoons (like Asterix), websites, and news reports are in French. Learning it lets you enjoy them. Also, if you travel to countries like Benin or Niger, you can ask for directions, buy things, and feel more confident.

French in Nigeria and Africa (Francophone Africa): A Francophone country is a country where French is widely spoken. In Africa, there are many!

Nigeria's French-Speaking Neighbors: Look at a map. Nigeria is like a big house with neighbours who speak French. These neighbours are:

- Bénin (Benin Republic) - to the West
- Niger - to the North
- Tchad (Chad) - to the North-East
- Cameroun (Cameroon) - to the East

Other Major Francophone African Countries: French is spoken in many countries across West and Central Africa. Some big ones are:

- Sénégal (Senegal)
- Côte d'Ivoire (Ivory Coast)
- Mali
- Togo

Basic French Alphabet (Introduction): The French alphabet has 26 letters, just like English, but the sounds are often different. It's like learning a new song for familiar letters. Let's start with the first five. We pronounce them clearly and slowly.

- A (ah) - Sounds like the "a" in "father".
- B (bay) - Sounds like "bay" without the 'y' sound at the end.
- C (say) - Sounds like the English word "say".
- D (day) - Sounds like the English word "day".

- E (uh) - Sounds like a short "uh" sound, like the 'e' in "the".

Tip: Your mouth shape is very important in French. For 'E' (uh), keep your lips relaxed and your jaw slightly open.

Motivation and Fun: Learning French is an adventure! You can start by learning simple songs ("Frère Jacques" is a popular one), watching educational cartoons, or learning how to say the names of your favourite Nigerian foods in French. Every new word you learn is a step towards becoming a language expert!

EVALUATION

1. Give one reason why learning French is useful for someone living in a border town in Nigeria. (To communicate and trade with neighbours).
2. Name two countries that share a border with Nigeria where people speak French.

3. Look at the map of Africa. Can you name one Francophone country that is NOT Nigeria's neighbour? (e.g., Senegal, Ivory Coast, Mali).
4. Pronounce the French letter C for the class. (Say).
5. Is the sound of the French letter E similar to the English letter 'E' in "egg"? (No, it sounds like "uh").

ASSIGNMENT

- (Drawing & Writing): Draw a simple outline map of Nigeria.
- On the side where Benin is located, draw a small flag and write "Bénin".
- On the side where Niger is, draw another flag and write "Niger".
- (Oral/Written): Practice saying the first five French letters aloud. Then, write them down with their pronunciation next to them (e.g., A - ah).
- (Oral Research): Ask an older sibling, parent, or guardian: "Do you know any French word?" Write down one word they tell you and find out what it means.

WEEK 2: SALUER (GREETINGS) - PART 1.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Differentiate between formal and informal greetings.
- Say "Good Morning" and "Good Evening" in French.
- Ask "How are you?" in French.
- State three appropriate responses to "How are you?".

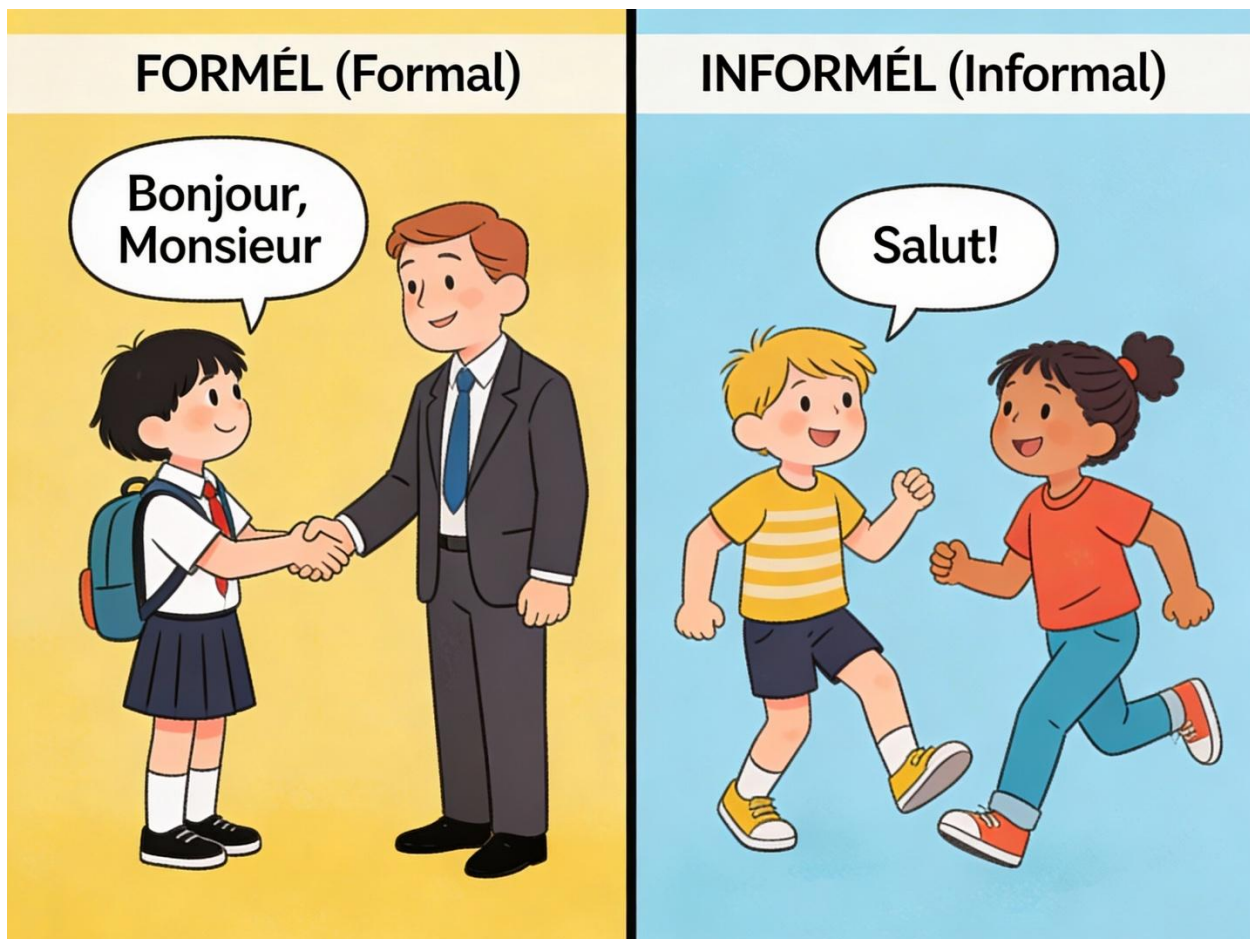

CONTENT Formal vs. Informal Greetings: Knowing the Difference: Knowing who you are talking to is very important in French, just like in Nigerian culture. We use different greetings to show respect.

Formal Greetings (Politesse): We use these with people we respect, people older than us, or people we don't know very well. Examples: your teacher, your principal, your friend's parents, a market stall owner.

- Bonjour (bohn-zhoor): This means "Good day" or "Hello". It is the most common and polite greeting. You use it from the time you wake up until around 6:00 PM.
- Bonsoir (bohn-swahr): This means "Good evening". You use it from around 6:00 PM until you go to bed.
- Bonne nuit (bun nwee): This means "Good night". You only use this when someone is going to sleep. It is not an evening greeting.

Informal Greetings (Amiable): We use these with people of the same age, close friends, or family members (like siblings).

- Salut (sah-loo): This is a casual "Hi" or "Bye". It's friendly and relaxed.
- Coucou (koo-koo): This is a very playful, informal "hello," like "peekaboo" or "hey there!" often used with close friends or young children.

Asking "How Are You?" (Comment ça va?): After saying "Bonjour" or "Salut", it is polite to ask about the person's well-being.

- Formal Question: Comment allez-vous? (koh-mohn tah-lay voo). This is the respectful way to ask an adult or someone important.
- Informal Question: Comment ça va? (koh-mohn sah vah) or simply Ça va? (sah vah). This is what you use with friends and classmates.

How to Respond (Les Réponses): When someone asks you "Ça va?", you can reply in many ways:

- Ça va bien. (sah vah byehn) - I am fine.
- Très bien. (treh byehn) - Very well.
- Comme ci, comme ça. (kohm see, kohm sah) - So-so. (You say this while making a flat, side-to-side hand gesture).

- Oui, ça va. Merci. (Wee, sah vah. Mair-see) - Yes, I'm okay. Thank you.

It is always polite to say "Merci" (Thank you) after responding, and you can also ask back: "Et toi?" (And you?) to your friend or "Et vous?" to an adult.

EVALUATION

1. You meet your headteacher at the school gate at 8 AM. What is the correct French greeting to use? (Bonjour).
2. Your friend Amina comes to play at 4 PM. What casual greeting can you use? (Salut).
3. What does "Bonsoir" mean and when do you use it? (Good evening, used after 6 PM).
4. How would you ask your classmate, Chinedu, "How are you?" in French? (Comment ça va? / Ça va?).
5. How do you say "Very well" in French? (Très bien).
6. When is it correct to say "Bonne nuit"? (Only when someone is going to bed to sleep).

ASSIGNMENT

- (Written): What French greeting would you use at these times? Write your answer.
 - a) 10:00 in the morning (meeting a neighbour): _____
 - b) 7:00 in the evening (seeing your uncle): _____
 - (Role-play/Oral): With a partner at home, practice a greeting. One person says "Bonjour" or "Salut", the other asks "Ça va?", and the first person replies "Ça va bien, merci. Et toi?".
 - (Written): Write the French phrase for "I am fine, thank you."

WEEK 3: SALUER (GREETINGS) - PART 2.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Mention three ways to say goodbye in French.
- Identify "Magic Words" (polite expressions) in French.
- Perform a simple greeting role-play.
- Describe the French custom of "la bise."

CONTENT Saying Goodbye (Les Au Revoir): Just like greetings, there are different ways to say goodbye depending on when you will see the person again.

- Au revoir (oh ruh-vwahr): This is the standard, polite "Goodbye". You can use it in most situations, formal or informal.
- À bientôt (ah byehn-toh): This means "See you soon". Use it when you expect to see the person again in a few days or weeks.
- À demain (ah duh-mahn): This means "See you tomorrow". Perfect for your classmates at the end of the school day.

The "Magic Words" (Les Mots Magiques): These are short, powerful words that make you sound polite and respectful. They are like magic because they make people happy to help you!

- S'il vous plaît (seel voo pleh) - Please (formal).
- S'il te plaît (seel tuh pleh) - Please (informal, to a friend).
- Merci (mair-see) - Thank you.
- De rien (duh ryehn) - You're welcome (Literally "It's nothing").
- Excusez-moi (ex-koo-zay mwah) - Excuse me (to get attention politely).
- Pardon (pahr-dohn) - Sorry (for a small bump) or Excuse me (to get past someone).
- Désolé(e) (day-zoh-lay) - Sorry (for a mistake. Add 'e' if you are a girl: Désolée).

A Simple Greeting Role-Play: Let's put it all together in a short conversation between two friends, Kofi and Aisha.

- Kofi: Salut, Aisha! (Hi, Aisha!)

- Aisha: Salut, Kofi! Ça va? (Hi, Kofi! How are you?)
- Kofi: Ça va bien, merci. Et toi? (I'm fine, thank you. And you?)
- Aisha: Très bien! Au revoir! (Very well! Goodbye!)
- Kofi: À demain! (See you tomorrow!)

Cultural Note: Greetings in France (La Bise): In France and some other French-speaking countries, friends and family often greet each other with "la bise" (lah beez). This is not a kiss on the lips. It is a light touch of the cheeks while making a soft kissing sound in the air. They usually do it twice (left cheek, then right cheek). It's a sign of friendship.

In Nigeria: We don't typically do la bise. We shake hands, wave, or give a respectful nod. It's important to know about other cultures, but in your French class, a smile and a "Bonjour" are perfect!

La Bise

EVALUATION

1. What is the most common French word for "Goodbye"? (Au revoir).
2. You will see your friend in class tomorrow. What can you say instead of "Au revoir"? (À demain).
3. What is the "magic word" you say when you ask for a pencil? (S'il te plaît / S'il vous plaît).
4. What does "Merci" mean? (Thank you).
5. What is "la bise"? (A French custom of greeting by touching cheeks).
6. If you step on someone's foot, which word do you say? (Pardon or Désolé(e)).

ASSIGNMENT

- (Matching): Draw lines to match the French word to its English meaning:
 - Merci -> Thank you
 - Pardon -> Sorry / Excuse me
 - Au revoir -> Goodbye
 - S'il vous plaît -> Please
 - (Written): Write the French phrase you would use when you want to ask your teacher for help politely. (_____, Madame/Monsieur).
 - (Drawing Practical): Draw two simple stick-figure friends waving to each other. In a speech bubble, write the French word for "Goodbye".

WEEK 4: SE PRÉSENTER (INTRODUCING ONESELF) - PART 1.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Introduce themselves by stating their names in French.
- Ask someone for their name.
- State their nationality in French.
- List the basic personal pronouns (I, You, He, She).

CONTENT Saying Your Name (Je m'appelle...): The most important thing to tell someone is your name! In French, there are two main ways:

- Je m'appelle... (zhuh mah-pell...): This literally means "I call myself...". It is the most common and natural way to say "My name is..."
- Example: Je m'appelle Chiamaka. (My name is Chiamaka.)
- Je suis... (zhuh swee...): This means "I am...". It is also correct but is a bit more direct.
- Example: Je suis Ahmed. (I am Ahmed.)

Asking Someone's Name: To make a new friend, you need to ask their name. Remember the difference between formal ("vous") and informal ("tu").

- Informal (to a classmate or child): Comment tu t'appelles? (koh-mohn too tah-pell?) - What is your name?
- Formal (to a teacher or adult): Comment vous appelez-vous? (koh-mohn voo zah-play voo?) - What is your name?

Stating Your Nationality (Être Nigérian(e)): To say where you are from, we use "Je suis" (I am) + your nationality. In French, the nationality word changes for boys and girls.

- I am Nigerian (a boy says): Je suis Nigérian. (zhuh swee Nee-jay-ree-ahn)
- I am Nigerian (a girl says): Je suis Nigériane. (zhuh swee Nee-jay-ree-ahn) Notice the extra 'e' at the end for a girl.

This rule is common: for many nationalities, we add an 'e' for the feminine form.

Basic Personal Pronouns (Les Pronoms Personnels): Pronouns are small words we use instead of repeating a name. They are the subject of a sentence (who is doing the action).

- Je (zhuh) - I
- Tu (too) - You (informal, singular)
- Il (eel) - He
- Elle (ell) - She

Important: Vous (voo) can mean "You" (formal, to one person) OR "You" (plural, to a group).

EVALUATION

1. How do you say "My name is Bola" in French? (Je m'appelle Bola).
2. You meet a new student in your class. How do you ask for their name? (Comment tu t'appelles?).

3. If you are a girl, how do you say "I am Nigerian" in French? (Je suis Nigériane).
4. What is the French pronoun for "He"? (Il).
5. What is the French pronoun for "She"? (Elle).
6. Complete this sentence in French: "_____ m'appelle Tunde." (Je).

ASSIGNMENT

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Count from 1 to 20 in French.
- State their age in French.
- Ask someone "How old are you?".
- Identify their gender (Boy or Girl) in French.

CONTENT Numbers 1-20 (Les Nombres de 1 à 20): Numbers are very useful! We need them for age, counting, and later for telling time. Let's learn them with a rhythm or a song to make it easier.

- 1-10: Un (uh), Deux (duh), Trois (twah), Quatre (kat-ruh), Cinq (sank), Six (sees), Sept (set), Huit (weet), Neuf (nuhf), Dix (dees).

Pronunciation Tip: For 17, 18, 19, think "Ten-seven", "Ten-eight", "Ten-nine". The 'x' in dix becomes a 'z' sound before sept and huit.

Stating Your Age (Quel âge as-tu?): In English, we say "I am 9 years old." In French, we use the verb "avoir" (to have). We say "I have 9 years."

- Question (Informal): Quel âge as-tu? (kel ahzh ah too?) - How old are you?
- Answer: J'ai ____ ans. (zhay ____ ahn) - I am ____ years old.
- Example: J'ai neuf ans. (I am 9 years old.)
- Example: J'ai dix ans. (I am 10 years old.)
- J'ai is the contraction of Je + ai (I have).

Stating Your Gender: This is a simple but important part of introducing yourself.

- I am a boy: Je suis un garçon. (zhuh swee uhn gar-sohn)
- I am a girl: Je suis une fille. (zhuh swee oon fee-yuh)

Note: "Un" is used for masculine words (garçon), "une" for feminine words (fille).

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- List three different ways to say goodbye based on time.
- Use expressions to wish someone well.
- Match the correct farewell to the situation.

CONTENT More Ways to Say Goodbye: We already know "Au revoir". But French has special phrases for different situations, just like we might say "Safe journey!" in English.

- Adieu (ah-dyuh): This is a very formal and final "Farewell". It implies you might not see the person for a very long time or ever again. Use it rarely.
- Salut (sah-loo): Remember, this friendly word means both "Hi" and "Bye" when talking to friends.

Time-Specific Goodbyes: These are useful because they tell the person when you expect to see them next.

- À tout à l'heure! (ah toot ah luhr) - See you later! (Used when you will see the person again later the same day, like after break time).
- À ce soir! (ah suh swahr) - See you tonight! (If you have plans to meet in the evening).
- À la prochaine! (ah lah proh-shen) - Until next time! (A friendly, general phrase for when you'll meet again, but you're not sure exactly when).

Wishing Someone Well (Les Souhaits): It is very polite and kind to wish someone a good day, weekend, or holiday as you leave.

- Bonne journée! (bun zhoor-nay) - Have a good day! (Say this during the daytime when you are leaving someone).
- Bon week-end! (bohn weekend) - Have a good weekend! (Say this on a Friday or Saturday).
- Bonnes vacances! (bun vah-kahns) - Have a good holiday! (When someone is going on a break).

- Bonne soirée! (bun swah-ray) - Have a good evening! (Said when leaving in the evening).

EVALUATION

1. What does "À tout à l'heure" mean and when do you use it? (See you later today).
2. Your teacher is leaving school at 3 PM. What polite wish can you say? (Bonne journée!).
3. Translate "Have a good weekend" to French. (Bon week-end!).
4. True or False: You can use "Salut" to say goodbye to your friend. (True).

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Express gratitude when leaving a place.
- Construct a simple dialogue combining greetings and farewells.

- Merci beaucoup. (mair-see boh-koo) - Thank you very much.
- Merci pour tout. (mair-see poor too) - Thank you for everything. (Great when leaving a party or a visit).
- Merci bien. (mair-see byehn) - Thanks a lot. (Another way to say thank you).

Building a Complete, Polite Conversation: A good conversation has a clear start, middle, and end. Let's build one step-by-step.

- Greeting: Start with a polite "Bonjour" or friendly "Salut".
- Ask about well-being: Show you care by asking "Comment ça va?"

PRIMARY 4 FRENCH LANGUAGE LESSON NOTES

SECOND TERM

WEEK 1: PRÉSENTER LES MEMBRES DE LA FAMILLE PROCHE (PRESENTING CLOSE FAMILY MEMBERS) - PART 1.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- List the French names for close family members (Father, Mother, Brother, Sister).
- Use the correct possessive adjectives ("mon" and "ma") to introduce family members.
- Introduce a family member using "Voici" or "C'est".
- Construct simple sentences stating family members they have.

CONTENT Introduction to Family Vocabulary (La Famille): The family is the most important group of people in our lives. In French, we call it "la famille" (lah fah-mee). Today, we learn the names of the people who live in our home.

- Le père (luh pair) / Papa - The father / Dad. Think of your dad, the head of the family.
- La mère (lah mair) / Maman - The mother / Mom. Think of your mum, who cares for everyone.
- Le frère (luh frair) - The brother. This is any boy who shares the same parents as you.
- La sœur (lah sur) - The sister. This is any girl who shares the same parents as you.

Saying "My" in French: Possessive Adjectives (Mon / Ma): In English, we say "my father" and "my mother." The word "my" doesn't change. In French, the word for "my" changes depending on whether the family member is male or female.

- Mon (mohn): This means "my" and is used before masculine words. Père and frère are masculine.
- Mon père (my father)
- Mon frère (my brother)

- Ma (mah): This means "my" and is used before feminine words. Mère and sœur are feminine.
- Ma mère (my mother)
- Ma sœur (my sister)

Memory Trick: Mon sounds a bit like "man" (for males). Ma sounds like "mama" (for females).

MASCULIN		FÉMININ

Mon père	Mon frère	Ma mère	Ma sœur

Introducing Your Family (Voici / C'est): When you want to show someone a picture or point out a family member, you use special phrases:

- Voici... (vwah-see): This means "Here is...". It's perfect when you are showing a photo or presenting someone.
- Example: Voici mon père. (Here is my father.)

- C'est... (say): This means "This is..." or "He/She is...". It's a very common and natural way to introduce someone.
- Example: C'est ma mère. (This is my mother.)

Talking About What You Have (J'ai...): To say who is in your family, you use the verb "avoir" (to have). The form for "I have" is "J'ai" (zhay).

- J'ai un frère. (I have a brother.) - 'Un' is used for one masculine thing/person.
- J'ai une sœur. (I have a sister.) - 'Une' is used for one feminine thing/person.
- J'ai deux sœurs. (I have two sisters.) - For more than one, we don't use un/une.

EVALUATION

1. What is the French word for "The Mother"? (La mère).
2. Translate "Mon frère" into English. (My brother).
3. Do we say "Mon mère" or "Ma mère"? Why? (Ma mère, because 'mère' is feminine).

5. Translate into English: "C'est ma mère." (This is my mother.)

- Example: Mon oncle, il s'appelle Tunde. (My uncle, his name is Tunde.)
- For females (Elle s'appelle...): This means "Her name is..." or "She is called...".

- J'ai trois cousins. (I have three [male] cousins.)

PRIMARY 4 FRENCH LANGUAGE LESSON NOTES

THIRD TERM

WEEK 1: COMPTEUR DE 0 À 20 (COUNTING FROM 0 TO 20) - PART 1.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Count from 0 to 10 in French with correct pronunciation.
- Count at least five objects in the classroom using French numbers.
- Perform simple addition sums in French (e.g., $2 + 3 = 5$).
- Write the French spelling for numbers 0-10.

CONTENT Numbers 0-10 (Les Nombres de Zéro à Dix): Numbers are the foundation for so many things—telling time, giving your age, and even buying things at the market. Let's start with the basics.

- 0: Zéro (zay-roh) - Like the "zero" in a football score.
- 1: Un (uh) - Sounds like the beginning of "under".
- 2: Deux (duh) - Rhymes with "duh". Lips are rounded.
- 3: Trois (twah) - Sounds like "twah". The 'r' is soft.
- 4: Quatre (kat-ruh) - Sounds like "cat" with an 'r'. The 'e' is silent.
- 5: Cinq (sank) - Sounds like "sank" a ship. The 'q' is silent.
- 6: Six (sees) - Sounds like the English word "seas".
- 7: Sept (set) - Sounds like the English word "set".
- 8: Huit (weet) - Sounds like "weet". The 'h' is silent.
- 9: Neuf (nuhf) - Sounds like "nuh" with a soft 'f' at the end.
- 10: Dix (dees) - Sounds like "dees". The 'x' sounds like 's'.

Pronunciation is Key: Let's practice as a class, using claps or stamps for each number to feel the rhythm.

Counting Real Objects (Compter les Objets): Now, let's use our numbers to count things we can see. Point to objects as you count.

- Un stylo. (One pen.)
- Deux cahiers. (Two notebooks.)
- Trois livres. (Three books.)
- Quatre élèves. (Four pupils.)
- Cinq chaises. (Five chairs.)

Activity: The teacher holds up a number of pencils. Pupils shout out the correct French number.

Simple Math in French (Les Maths Simples): In French, we use the word "plus" (plooo) for addition and "égale" (ay-gal) for equals.

- Un plus un égale deux. ($1 + 1 = 2$)
- Deux plus trois égale cinq. ($2 + 3 = 5$)
- Cinq plus quatre égale neuf. ($5 + 4 = 9$)

Think of it like a recipe: Two mangoes plus three more mangoes equals a bowl of five mangoes!

EVALUATION

1. Count from un to cinq (1 to 5) out loud for the class.
2. What is the French word for Seven? (Sept).
3. Solve this simple sum in French words: Trois plus deux égale...? (Cinq).
4. Write the French word for the number 10. (Dix).
5. How do you say "Zero" in French, like when a team has no goals? (Zéro).

ASSIGNMENT

- (Written): Write the following numbers in French words: 4 (quatre), 8 (huit), 3 (trois), 9 (neuf), 0 (zéro).
- (Drawing & Counting): Draw six simple balls (or any object) on a paper. Underneath, write "Six ballons".
- (Math in French): Solve this and write the answer in French words: $5 + 2 =$ Cinq plus deux égale sept.

WEEK 2: COMPTEUR DE 0 À 20 (COUNTING FROM 0 TO 20) - PART 2.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Count from 11 to 20 in French.
- Ask "How many?" using the phrase "Combien de...?".
- State their age using French numbers (J'ai... ans).
- Count objects up to 20.

CONTENT Numbers 11-20 (Les Nombres de Onze à Vingt): Let's continue our number journey! Notice a pattern from 17 to 19: they are like "ten-seven," "ten-eight," "ten-nine."

- 11: Onze (onz) - Sounds like "onz".
- 12: Douze (dooz) - Rhymes with "ooze".
- 13: Treize (trez) - Sounds like "trez". The 'ei' sounds like 'e' in "bed".
- 14: Quatorze (kah-torz) - Sounds like "kah-torz".
- 15: Quinze (kanz) - Sounds like "kanz".
- 16: Seize (sez) - Sounds like "says" without the 'y'.
- 17: Dix-sept (dee-set) - Literally "ten-seven."
- 18: Dix-huit (dee-zweet) - "Ten-eight." The 'x' in dix becomes a 'z' sound here.
- 19: Dix-neuf (dee-nuhf) - "Ten-nine."
- 20: Vingt (van) - Sounds like "van" with a soft 't'. The 'g' is silent.

Asking "How Many?" (Combien?): This is a very useful question for shopping, sharing, and playing games.

- Combien? (kohm-byehn) - How many? / How much?
- Combien de...? (kohm-byehn duh) - How many [things]?
- Example: Combien de livres? (How many books?)
- Answer: Cinq livres. (Five books.)
- Example: Combien de frères as-tu? (How many brothers do you have?)

Using Numbers in Real Sentences: Let's use these numbers in sentences we already know.

- Age: J'ai douze ans. (I am twelve years old.) - Remember, we use "J'ai" (I have) for age.
- Family: J'ai deux sœurs. (I have two sisters.)
- Classroom: Il y a vingt élèves dans ma classe. (There are twenty pupils in my class.) "Il y a" (eel ee ah) means "there is/are".

- State the time using "du matin" or "du soir".

- Question: Quelle heure est-il? (kel lur ay-teel) - What time is it? You can think of it as "Which hour is it?"

Telling Time on the Hour (L'Heure Pile): We tell time using "Il est" (eel ay) which means "It is." For times on the hour, we say the number plus "heure(s)".

- 1:00: Il est une heure. (It is one o'clock.) - Une is used because heure is feminine.
- 2:00: Il est deux heures. (It is two o'clock.) - For 2 and above, add an 's' to heure.
- 3:00: Il est trois heures.
- 10:00: Il est dix heures.
- 12:00 (Noon): Il est midi. (mee-dee)
- 12:00 (Midnight): Il est minuit. (mee-nwee)

Special Note: For 1 o'clock, we use "une heure". For all others (2, 3, 4...), we use "deux heures, trois heures...".

Parts of the Day (Les Moments de la Journée): We add these phrases to make the time more clear, especially since 6:00 could be morning or evening!

- Le matin (luh mah-tan) - The morning (from sunrise to about 12 PM).
- L'après-midi (lah-preh-mee-dee) - The afternoon (from 12 PM to about 6 PM).

CONTENT Half Past, Quarter Past, and Quarter To: Now let's learn to tell time more precisely, just like we look at the minute hand on a clock.

- Half Past (30 minutes): et demie (ay duh-mee).
- Example: Il est deux heures et demie. (It is 2:30.)
- Quarter Past (15 minutes): et quart (ay kar).
- Example: Il est trois heures et quart. (It is 3:15.)
- Quarter To (45 minutes): moins le quart (mwan luh kar). This means "minus the quarter." We say the next hour, minus a quarter.
- Example: Il est quatre heures moins le quart. (It is 3:45.) Literally: "It is four o'clock minus a quarter."

Think of it like a cake: If you have a cake cut into 4 quarters, et quart means you have one piece. Moins le quart means one piece is missing from the full cake (the next hour).

Daily Routines with Time (La Routine Quotidienne): Let's talk about what we do at different times of the day. This is called our routine.
