PRIMARY 2 ISLAMIC STUDIES LESSON NOTES

FIRST TERM

WEEK 1: SURATUL-LAHAB.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Narrate the story of Abu Lahab briefly.
- Recite verses 1-3 of Suratul-Lahab in Arabic.
- State the meaning of the first three verses in simple English.
- Explain the lesson regarding kindness to others.

CONTENT

The Story of Abu Lahab

Suratul-Lahab is a chapter in the Holy Qur'an (Surah 111). It tells us about a man named Abu Lahab. Abu Lahab was the uncle of Prophet Muhammad (SAW), but he was very unkind. He did not support the Prophet and tried to stop people from listening to the message of Islam. He would even throw thorns in the Prophet's path to hurt him. Because he was cruel and disobeyed Allah, this Surah was revealed to warn him.

Recitation of Verses 1-3 We recite the first part of the Surah like this:

- Tab bat yadaa abee Lahabinw-wa tabb
- Maa aghna 'anhu maaluhu wa ma kasab
- Sa yas laa naran zaata lahab

Meaning of Verses 1-3

- Verse 1: May the hands of Abu Lahab be ruined, and ruined is he. (This means his power and ability to do harm will be destroyed).
- Verse 2: His money and all the things he gathered will not help him. (For example, his wealth, big house, or servants cannot save him from Allah's punishment).
- Verse 3: He will be thrown into a blazing fire. (This is the fire of Hell, which is very hot).

Lesson on Kindness This story teaches us that being family with a Prophet or a good person is not enough. We must be good ourselves. For example, if your brother is a good student, you must also study hard. We must be kind to people and listen to the truth. Allah does not like those who are cruel or stop others from doing good. Kindness is like a beautiful scent—it makes everyone happy.

EVALUATION

1. Who was Abu Lahab to Prophet Muhammad?
2. Was Abu Lahab a kind man?
3. Recite the first verse of Suratul-Lahab.
4. Will Abu Lahab's money save him?
5. Where does the Surah say he will be thrown?
6. Does Allah like people who are cruel?

ASSIGNMENT

- Practice reciting verses 1-3 at home with your parents.

- Draw a picture of a hand (representing "hands of Abu Lahab" mentioned in the verse).
 - Tell one person in your family why we should be kind.

WEEK 2: SURATUL-LAHAB.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Recite verses 4-5 of Suratul-Lahab.
- Identify who is mentioned in verse 4.
- Recite the complete Surah from memory.
- State the main lesson about wealth (money).

CONTENT

Recitation of Verses 4-5 Today we complete the Surah.

- Wam ra-atuh hamma latal-hatab
- Fee jeediha hablum mim-masad

Meaning of Verses 4-5

- Verse 4: And his wife as well—the carrier of firewood (thorns). (She carried thorny branches to hurt the Prophet).
- Verse 5: Around her neck will be a rope of twisted fiber. (This describes her punishment in the Hereafter).

Explanation Abu Lahab's wife (Umm Jamil) was also very unkind. She used to carry thorny wood and place it on the path where the Prophet walked to hurt his feet. Allah tells us that she will also be punished for her bad actions. When two people do bad things together, they will both be punished.

Main Lesson: Wealth cannot buy Paradise Abu Lahab was a rich man, but his money could not save him from Allah's punishment. This teaches us that having a lot of money or big houses does not make us special to Allah. Imagine two boxes: one full of gold but empty of good deeds, and one with no gold but full of prayers and kindness. Allah loves the box with good deeds. Only good actions, prayer, and kindness make us special to Allah.

EVALUATION

1. Recite the last two verses of Suratul-Lahab.
2. Who is the woman mentioned in verse 4?
3. What did she carry to hurt the Prophet?
4. Can money save a bad person from punishment?
5. Recite the full Suratul-Lahab.
6. What does Allah look at: our money or our good actions?

ASSIGNMENT

- Recite the complete Suratul-Lahab three times before going to bed.
 - Write down: "Money cannot buy Paradise."
 - Help your parents with a small chore to show good behavior.

WEEK 3: SIGNIFICANCE OF THE NAMES OF ALLAH (11-20).

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Mention three names of Allah between numbers 11 and 15.
- State the meaning of Al-Qawiyy and Al-Waliyy.
- Describe how Allah protects us.

CONTENT

Review

We remember that Allah has 99 beautiful names. These names tell us how great He is, like different keys describing one great King.

Names of Allah (11-15) Here are the next five names we will learn:

1. Al-Qawiyy: The Strong One. Allah is stronger than any superhero, giant, or army.
 - Example: He holds the sky without pillars.
2. Al-Mateen: The Firm One. Allah is solid and unshakable. Nothing can make Him weak or tired.

3. Al-Waliyy: The Protecting Friend. Allah takes care of us like a guardian.
 - Example: Like a mother bird protecting her chicks.
4. Al-Hameed: The Praised One. Everyone praises Allah because He is perfect. The sun, moon, and angels all praise Him.
5. Al-Muhsee: The Counter. Allah knows the number of everything (stars, sand, leaves, even our breaths). Not a single leaf falls without Him knowing.

Allah's Power and Protection Because Allah is Al-Qawiyy (Strong) and Al-Waliyy (Protector), we do not need to be afraid of the dark or bad people. When we are scared, we can say "Ya Allah, Ya Waliyy, protect me." He is always watching over us, like a shepherd watching his sheep.

EVALUATION

1. What does Al-Qawiyy mean?
2. Who is The Protecting Friend?
3. What does Al-Hameed mean?
4. Does Allah know the number of stars in the sky? (Al-Muhsee).
5. Mention one name of Allah you learned today.
6. Who is stronger: a superhero or Allah?

ASSIGNMENT

- Memorize the name Al-Waliyy and its meaning.
 - Write the name Al-Qawiyy in your notebook.
 - Say "Ya Waliyy" (Oh Protector) when you wake up in the morning.

WEEK 4: SIGNIFICANCE OF THE NAMES OF ALLAH (11-20).

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- List three names of Allah between numbers 16 and 20.
- Define the meaning of Al-Muhyi and Al-Mumeet.
- Explain who gives life to babies and plants.

CONTENT

Names of Allah (16-20) Let us learn the next set of beautiful names:

1. Al-Mubdi: The Originator/Beginner. He started everything from nothing. Example: He created the first human, Adam (AS).
2. Al-Mu'eed: The Restorer/Repeater. He can bring things back again. Example: He brings back leaves on trees every spring.
3. Al-Muhyi: The Giver of Life. He makes us alive. Example: A seed in the soil seems dead, then He makes it a plant.
4. Al-Mumeet: The Taker of Life (Creator of Death). He decides when life ends. Everything has a time chosen by Allah.

5. Al-Hayy: The Ever-Living. Allah never dies; He is alive forever. We sleep, but Allah never sleeps.

Life and Death Allah controls everything. When a new baby is born, it is Al-Muhyi giving life. When a plant grows from a dead seed, it is Allah giving life. When people or animals die, it is Al-Mumeet taking the life back. But Allah Himself is Al-Hayy; He never sleeps and never dies. He is like the sun that never sets.

EVALUATION

1. Who is Al-Mubdi?
2. What does Al-Muhyi mean?
3. Who decides when a person dies?
4. Does Allah ever die?
5. What name means "The Ever-Living"?
6. Who makes the plants grow?

ASSIGNMENT

- Look at a plant or flower and say "Subhanallah" (Glory be to Allah who gave it life).
 - Memorize the name Al-Hayy.
 - Tell your sibling or friend that Allah is the one who gives life.

WEEK 5: MID-TERM EXAMINATION.

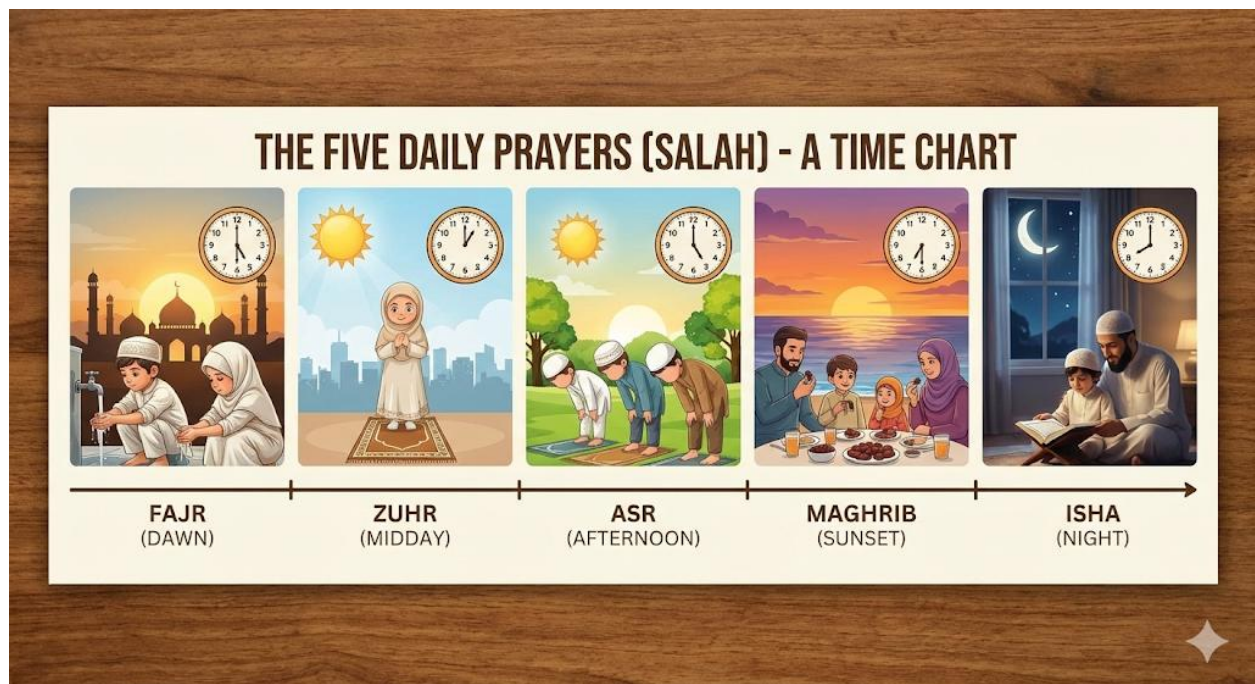

WEEK 6: MID-TERM BREAK.

WEEK 7: THE FIVE DAILY PRAYERS (SALAT).

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Define Salat.
- List the five daily prayers in the correct order.
- State the number of Rak'ats for Fajr and Maghrib.
- Identify the time of day for Zuhr and Isha.

CONTENT

What is Salat? Salat is the special prayer that Muslims perform to worship Allah. It is the second pillar of Islam. We pray to thank Allah for everything He has given us, like our family, food, and health. It is our special time to talk to Allah.

The Five Daily Prayers Muslims pray five times every day. Each prayer has a specific name, time, and number of units (Rak'ats). Think of it like five important meetings with Allah every day.

1. Fajr:

- Time: Early morning (before sunrise, when the sky gets light).

- Rak'ats: 2.
- It starts our day with Allah's remembrance.
- 2. Zuhr:
- Time: Early afternoon (when the sun passes the middle of the sky and starts to go down).
- Rak'ats: 4.
- We take a break in the middle of our day to pray.
- 3. Asr:
- Time: Late afternoon (before sunset).
- Rak'ats: 4.
- We pray before the day ends.
- 4. Maghrib:
- Time: Immediately after sunset (when the sun disappears).
- Rak'ats: 3.
- We thank Allah as the day turns to night.
- 5. Isha:
- Time: At night (when it is fully dark, about 1-1.5 hours after Maghrib).
- Rak'ats: 4.
- Our last prayer before we sleep.

The Adhan Before we pray, we hear the Adhan. This is the call to prayer that tells us it is time to leave what we are doing and talk to Allah. It is like a bell for our spiritual class.

EVALUATION

1. What is Salat?
2. How many times do Muslims pray daily?
3. Which prayer is said in the morning?
4. How many Rak'ats is Maghrib prayer?
5. Which prayer has 2 Rak'ats?
6. What is the name of the night prayer?

ASSIGNMENT

- Write down the names of the 5 prayers in order.
 - Listen for the Adhan (or ask parents when it is time) for Maghrib today.
 - Ask your parents how many Rak'ats are in Zuhr prayer.

WEEK 8: THE FIVE DAILY PRAYERS (SALAT).

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Mention two benefits of praying regularly.
- Identify the special prayer performed on Fridays.
- Differentiate between praying alone and praying in a group (Jama'ah).

CONTENT

Praying Together (Jama'ah)

We can pray alone at home, but it is much better to pray together in a group. This is called Jama'ah. Men usually go to the Mosque (Masjid) to pray together. When we pray together, we get more rewards (blessings) from Allah. It is like doing homework together—it is easier and more fun!

Friday Prayer (Jumu'ah) Friday is a special day for Muslims. Instead of praying Zuhr, Muslims gather in the mosque for a special prayer called Salatul-Jumu'ah. We listen to a sermon (Khutbah) from the Imam before we pray. It is a weekly meeting for all Muslims.

Benefits of Salat

- Discipline: It teaches us to do things on time, just like school starts at a specific time.
- Cleanliness: We wash ourselves (Wudu) before every prayer. This keeps us clean and healthy.
- Closeness to Allah: It keeps us close to our Creator. Talking to Allah makes our hearts happy.
- Peace: It brings peace to our hearts. When we are worried, prayer makes us calm.

EVALUATION

1. Where do Muslims go to pray together?
2. What is the special Friday prayer called?
3. Is it better to pray alone or in a group?
4. Mention one good thing we get from praying.
5. What prayer is replaced by Jumu'ah on Fridays?
6. Who leads the prayer in the mosque? (The Imam).

ASSIGNMENT

- Create a simple "Prayer Timetable" on a piece of paper (Fajr, Zuhr, Asr, Maghrib, Isha) and tick them when you pray.
 - Ask your father or brother about the Friday prayer.
 - Say "It is time for Salat" when you see your family getting ready to pray.

WEEK 9: ETHICS OF OBSERVANCE OF SALAT IN ISLAM.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Define Wudu.
- List three parts of the body we wash during Wudu.
- Explain why we must be clean before prayer.
- Mention one thing that breaks Wudu.

CONTENT

Step 1: Hands

Step 2: Mouth

Step 3: Face

Step 4: Arms

Step 5: Head & Ears

Step 6: Feet

What is Wudu?

Before we stand in front of Allah to pray, we must be clean. Wudu (Ablution) is the special way of washing parts of our body with clean water before Salat. It is like wearing a clean uniform before going to school.

Steps of Wudu We must do it in the correct order:

1. Intention: We plan in our heart to make Wudu for prayer.
2. Hands: Wash hands up to the wrist three times.

3. Mouth & Nose: Rinse mouth and sniff water into the nose three times.
4. Face: Wash the whole face three times.
5. Arms: Wash arms up to the elbows three times.
6. Head & Ears: Wipe the head once and clean the ears with wet fingers.
7. Feet: Wash feet up to the ankles three times.

Simple Wudu Order:

1. Hands --> 2. Mouth & Nose --> 3. Face | 4. Arms --> 5. Head & Ears --> 6. Feet

Cleanliness Our clothes and the place where we pray must also be clean. If we use the toilet, pass wind, sleep deeply, or bleed, our Wudu is broken, and we must do it again before praying. Cleanliness shows respect to Allah.

EVALUATION

1. What is Wudu?
2. Can we pray without Wudu?
3. Mention two parts of the body we wash during Wudu.
4. What must we do if we use the toilet before prayer?
5. Should our clothes be dirty or clean for prayer?
6. Do we wash our feet or our knees during Wudu?

ASSIGNMENT

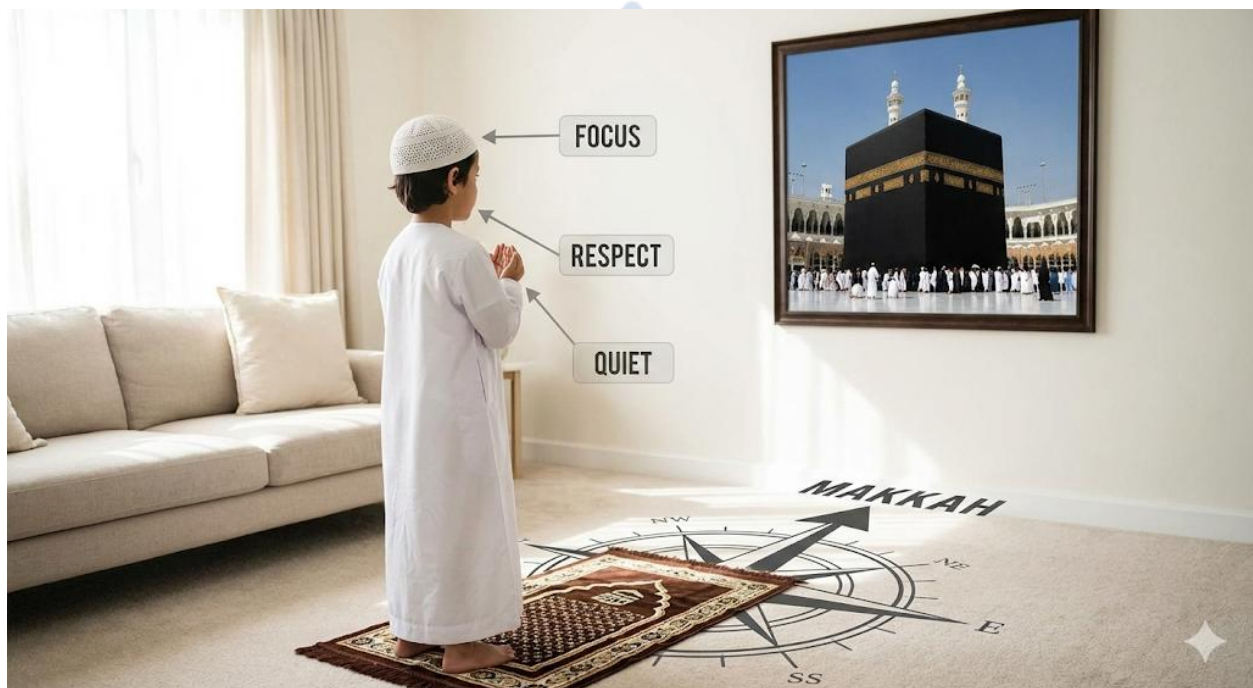

- Practice performing Wudu at home (ask a parent to watch you).
 - Draw a simple picture of a tap and water.
 - List three body parts you wash in Wudu.

WEEK 10: ETHICS OF OBSERVANCE OF SALAT IN ISLAM.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Identify the direction we face during prayer.
- Describe how to behave while praying.
- Mention two phrases Muslims say after prayer.

CONTENT

The Qiblah

When Muslims pray, we all face one direction. This direction is called the Qiblah. The Qiblah is the direction of the Ka'bah in the holy city of Makkah. It shows that Muslims are one family, united in worship, like flowers all facing the sun.

You || v [Ka'bah in Makkah] <-- All Muslims face this direction.

Behavior during Salat When we are praying, we are standing before the King of Kings, Allah.

Therefore:

- We must stand still and straight, like a soldier on duty.
- We must not look around, laugh, or play.

- We must not talk to our friends.
- We must focus only on Allah and the words we are reciting.

After the Prayer When we finish praying, we sit quietly and remember Allah (Dhikr). We say:

- Subhanallah (Glory be to Allah) - 33 times.
- Alhamdulillah (All praise is due to Allah) - 33 times.
- Allahu Akbar (Allah is the Greatest) - 33 times.

Then we make Dua (ask Allah for what we want), like asking for good health or to help our parents.

EVALUATION

1. What is the Qiblah?
2. Where is the Ka'bah located?
3. Is it good to laugh or play during Salat?
4. Who are we standing in front of when we pray?
5. What does Alhamdulillah mean?
6. What should we do after finishing the prayer?

ASSIGNMENT

- Ask your parents to show you the Qiblah direction in your house.
 - Practice sitting quietly for 1 minute as if you finished praying.
 - Write down "Allahu Akbar" and its meaning.

WEEK 11: REVISION.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Recite Suratul-Lahab.
- Mention the 5 daily prayers.
- Demonstrate the steps of Wudu.

CONTENT

General Review This week we will go over everything we learned this term:

- Suratul-Lahab: The story of Abu Lahab and his wife. The lesson that money and family ties cannot buy Paradise if we are not good. Only kindness and good deeds matter.
- Names of Allah: We learned names like Al-Qawiyy (The Strong), Al-Waliyy (The Protector), Al-Muhyi (The Giver of Life), and Al-Hayy (The Ever-Living). These names help us understand and love Allah more.
- Salat: The five prayers (Fajr, Zuhr, Asr, Maghrib, Isha). Their times, number of Rak'ats, and importance as our daily connection to Allah.
- Ethics: How to perform Wudu (the washing) and how to behave quietly and respectfully during prayer facing the Qiblah.

Let's practice together!

EVALUATION

1. Recite Suratul-Lahab.
2. What is the meaning of Al-Hayy?
3. How many Rak'ats is Fajr?
4. What comes first: Wudu or Salat?
5. Where is the Qiblah?
6. Why do we pray?

ASSIGNMENT

- Check that your note is up to date.

- Prepare for the holiday.
- Practice the 5 daily prayers during the break.

PRIMARY 2 ISLAMIC STUDIES LESSON NOTES

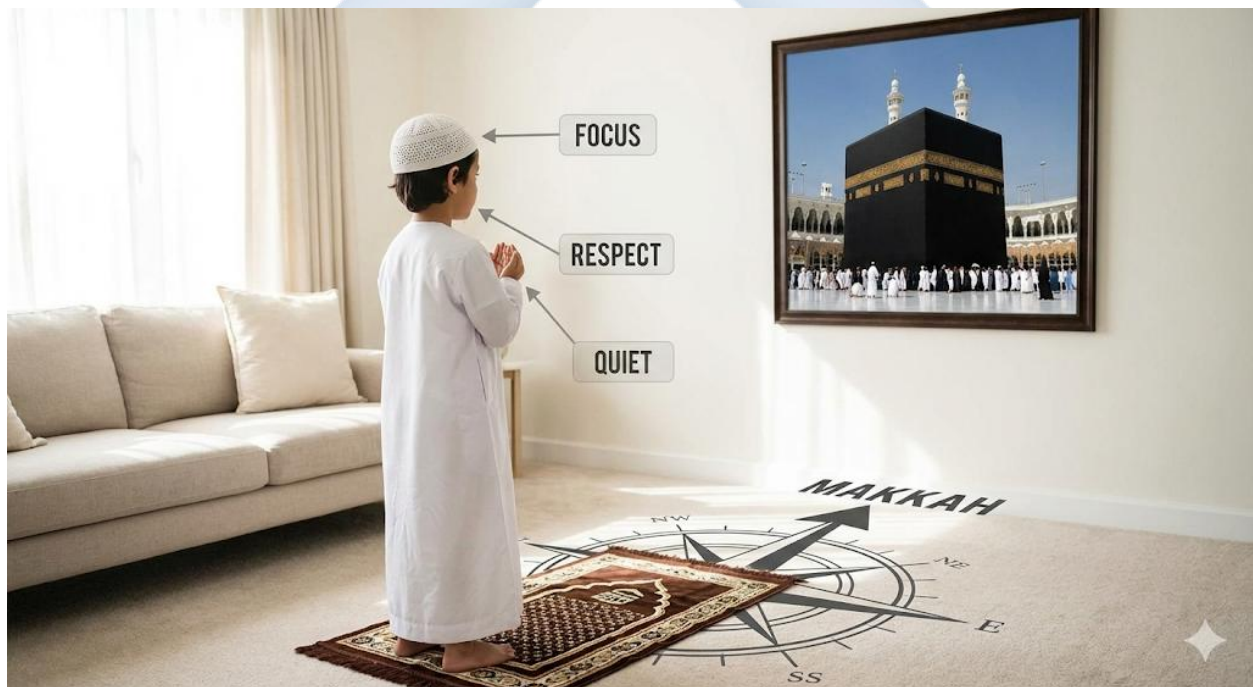

SECOND TERM

WEEK 1: SURATUN-NASR.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Define the meaning of "Nasr".
- Recite verse 1 and verse 2 of Suratun-Nasr in Arabic.
- State the simple meaning of the first two verses.
- Pronounce the Arabic words correctly.

CONTENT

Introduction to Suratun-Nasr

Suratun-Nasr is a very special chapter (Surah 110) in the Holy Qur'an. The word "Nasr" means "Help" or "Victory". This Surah was revealed to Prophet Muhammad (SAW) towards the end of his life when Islam became very strong and many people accepted it. It is a happy Surah about success.

Reciting Verse 1 We recite the first verse like this:

- Iza jaa-a nasrul-lahi wal-fath

Meaning of Verse 1 This means: "When the help of Allah and the victory comes." It tells us that Allah promised to help the Prophet (SAW) and the Muslims win. All good success comes from Allah, not just from our own power.

Reciting Verse 2 We recite the second verse like this:

- Wa ra-aitan naasa yadkhuloona fee deenil laahi afwajah

Meaning of Verse 2 This means: "And you see the people entering into the religion of Allah in crowds." It tells us that many people started becoming Muslims in large groups, not just one by one. Imagine people joining a line for a great gift—that's how they entered Islam.

EVALUATION

1. What does "Nasr" mean?
2. Recite the first verse of Suratun-Nasr.
3. What happens in the second verse? (People enter Islam).
4. Whose help brings victory?
5. Did people enter Islam one by one or in crowds?
6. Is this Surah found in the Holy Qur'an?

ASSIGNMENT

- Practice reciting verses 1 and 2 at home with your parents.
 - Write down the meaning of "Nasr" in your notebook.
 - Draw a simple picture of a crowd of people (stick figures) to show "Afwajah".

WEEK 2: SURATUN-NASR.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Recite verse 3 of Suratun-Nasr.
- Recite the complete Surah from memory.
- Mention two lessons we learn from this Surah.
- State what we should do when we succeed or win.

CONTENT

Reciting Verse 3 Today we complete the Surah. The last verse is:

- Fasabbih bihamdi rabbika was taghfir, innahu kaana tawwaaba

Meaning of Verse 3 This means: "So glorify the praises of your Lord and ask for His forgiveness. Indeed, He is the One who accepts repentance." When we get a victory, we shouldn't just celebrate; we should thank Allah and ask Him to forgive our mistakes.

Main Lessons

- Be Humble: Even when we win or pass our exams, we should not be proud or boastful. We should thank Allah. Remember, the help came from Him.
- Ask for Forgiveness: We should always say "Astaghfirullah" (I ask Allah for forgiveness) because we make mistakes every day.
- Gratitude: Victory comes only from Allah, so we must praise Him. Saying "Alhamdulillah" is very important.

When to Recite We can recite this Surah during our daily Salat because it is short and easy to remember. It reminds us to be grateful.

EVALUATION

1. Recite the last verse of Suratun-Nasr.
2. What should we do when Allah gives us victory?
3. What does "Astaghfirullah" mean?
4. Recite the full Suratun-Nasr.
5. Does Allah accept our forgiveness?
6. Should we be proud and boastful when we win?

ASSIGNMENT

- Recite the complete Suratun-Nasr for your family.
- Write down: "I will thank Allah when I succeed."
- Say "Subhanallah" (Glory be to Allah) 10 times.

WEEK 3: BRIEF HISTORY OF PROPHET MUSA (AS).

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Identify the bad king who lived in the time of Prophet Musa.
- Describe how Musa's mother saved him.
- Mention where the basket was placed.
- State who found Baby Musa.

CONTENT

The Bad King

Long ago in Egypt, there was a very cruel king called Fir'awn (Pharaoh). He was mean to the people of Israel and made them work as slaves. He had a dream that a boy would challenge him, so he ordered his soldiers to kill all baby boys born to the Israelites.

Baby Musa in the Basket

When Prophet Musa (AS) was born, his mother was afraid. But Allah sent her peace and told her not to worry. She put baby Musa in a special basket made waterproof with tar so water would not get inside. She trusted Allah completely.

The River Nile

She put the basket gently on the River Nile. It floated away. Allah watched over the baby to keep him safe. The river's current carried the basket like a gentle boat.

Saved by the Queen The basket floated to Pharaoh's palace. Pharaoh's wife (Asiya), who was a kind woman, found the basket. She saw the beautiful baby and loved him immediately. She convinced Pharaoh to let her keep him. Sometimes, Allah puts goodness in the hearts of unlikely people.

Back to Mother The baby was crying and hungry. He refused milk from every nurse. Musa's sister, who was watching nearby, suggested, "Shall I guide you to a family who will nurse him for you?" They brought Musa's real mother! She fed him, and he stopped crying. Allah kept His promise to return him to his mother safely.

EVALUATION

1. What was the name of the bad king?
2. Why did Musa's mother put him in a basket?
3. Which river did the basket float on?
4. Who found the baby?
5. Did Pharaoh kill baby Musa?
6. Who ended up feeding the baby?

ASSIGNMENT

- Draw a basket on water.
 - Ask your parents who Asiya was.
 - Tell the story of baby Musa to a friend.

WEEK 4: BRIEF HISTORY OF PROPHET MUSA (AS).

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Identify where Allah spoke to Prophet Musa.
- Mention the name of Musa's brother who helped him.
- Describe the two miracles Allah gave Musa.
- State what Musa asked Pharaoh to do.

CONTENT

Musa in Madyan

Musa grew up in the palace but later had to leave Egypt after an incident. He went to a place called Madyan. He was a good man who helped two girls water their sheep at a well when others were unfair. Because of his kindness, he became a shepherd there for many years.

The Burning Bush

One night, while traveling, Musa saw a fire on a mountain called Tur. When he went close, Allah spoke to him from a burning bush! The bush was on fire but not burning up. Allah told him, "Go to Pharaoh and tell him to let My people go." Musa was chosen for a great mission.

Musa's Helper

Musa was afraid he could not speak well, so Allah gave him his brother, Harun (Aaron), to help him speak and support him. Brothers can make a great team!

Miracles

Allah gave Musa special powers (miracles) to show Pharaoh that his message was true:

- The Staff: His walking stick could turn into a big, real snake when he threw it down.
- The Shining Hand: When he put his hand in his pocket and took it out, it shone bright white like the moon, without any sickness.

The Contest

Musa and Harun went to Pharaoh. Pharaoh called his best magicians. The magicians threw their ropes, and they looked like snakes crawling. Musa threw his staff, and it became a real big snake that ate all their magic ropes! The magicians saw this truth and immediately fell down, believing in Allah. Truth always wins.

EVALUATION

1. What job did Musa do in Madyan?
2. Where did Allah speak to Musa?
3. Who was Musa's brother?
4. What did Musa's stick turn into?
5. What happened to Musa's hand?
6. Who won the contest: Musa or the magicians?

ASSIGNMENT

- Draw a stick turning into a snake.
 - Write "Let my people go" in your notebook.
 - Name the brother of Prophet Musa.

WEEK 5: MID-TERM EXAMINATION.

WEEK 6: MID-TERM BREAK.

WEEK 7: BRIEF HISTORY OF PROPHET MUSA (AS).

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Describe how the people felt when they reached the Red Sea.
- State what miracle happened at the Red Sea.
- Narrate what happened to Pharaoh and his army.
- Mention one lesson from the story.

CONTENT

Leaving Egypt

After many warnings and plagues, Pharaoh finally let the people go. Musa led them out of Egypt. But soon, Pharaoh's heart hardened again. He chased them with his huge army and fast chariots to bring them back to slavery.

Trapped at the Sea

Musa and his people reached the big Red Sea. They were stuck! The water was in front of them, and Pharaoh's angry army was behind them. The people were very scared and thought it was the end. Musa said, "Do not be afraid, Allah is with us. He will show us a way."

The Sea Splits

Allah told Musa to hit the sea with his staff. WHOOSH! A great miracle happened. The sea split into two parts. The water stood up like high walls on both sides, and a dry path appeared in the middle. The people walked across safely on dry ground.

Pharaoh Drowns

Pharaoh and his soldiers, in their pride, tried to follow them on the dry path. When Musa and his people were safe on the other side, Allah commanded the water to crash back down. Pharaoh and his bad army were all drowned. Allah saved the believers from the tyrant.

Lesson We learn to trust Allah completely. Even when things look impossible—like a sea in front of you—Allah can make a way for us. We should have strong faith (Iman).

EVALUATION

1. Did Pharaoh chase the people?
2. What sea did they have to cross?
3. What did Musa use to hit the sea?
4. Did the people swim or walk on dry ground?
5. What happened to Pharaoh in the end?
6. Who saved Prophet Musa?

ASSIGNMENT

- Act out the scene of hitting the sea with a staff (use a stick or ruler).
 - Draw two walls of water with a path in the middle.
 - Write down: "Allah helps good people."

WEEK 8: BRIEF HISTORY OF PROPHET ISA (AS).

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Identify the mother of Prophet Isa (Jesus).
- State the name of the angel who visited Maryam.
- Describe the miracle of Isa's birth.
- Mention what baby Isa did in the cradle.

CONTENT

Maryam the Good Woman

Prophet Isa (Jesus) had a very pious mother named Maryam (Mary). She loved to pray to Allah and stayed in a special room in the place of worship (the temple). She was known for her purity and devotion.

Angel Jibreel Visits

One day, Angel Jibreel (Gabriel) came to Maryam in the form of a man. He told her that Allah would give her a special son. Maryam was surprised because she had no husband. The Angel said, "It is easy for Allah. When He decides something, He only says 'Be' and it is."

A Special Birth

Prophet Isa was born without a father. This was a great miracle from Allah, showing His absolute power to create as He wills. When he was born, Maryam was alone, tired, and hungry under a palm tree. Allah provided fresh dates from the tree and a stream of water for her right there.

Baby Speaks!

When Maryam brought the baby home, people asked her bad questions, pointing fingers. She did not speak but pointed to the baby. Suddenly, the tiny baby Isa spoke from the cradle! He said, "Indeed, I am a servant of Allah. He has given me the Book and made me a Prophet." The people were amazed. A baby talking is a clear sign of Allah's power.

EVALUATION

1. Who was the mother of Prophet Isa?
2. Did Prophet Isa have a father?
3. Who brought the message to Maryam?
4. What did Allah give Maryam to eat?
5. What miracle did baby Isa perform?
6. What did baby Isa say he was?

ASSIGNMENT

- Write the name of Prophet Isa's mother.
 - Draw a palm tree with dates.
 - Tell your parents that Prophet Isa spoke when he was a baby.

WEEK 9: BRIEF HISTORY OF PROPHET ISA (AS).

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- State Prophet Isa's main message.
- List two miracles Prophet Isa performed when he grew up.
- Explain how he performed these miracles (by whose permission?).
- Identify the bird miracle.

CONTENT

Isa the Prophet

Isa (AS) grew up to be a kind and obedient son to his mother. When he became a Prophet, his main message was to worship only Allah (Tawheed) and to be good, honest, and kind to others. He called people back to the true path.

Miracles of Isa (AS)

Allah gave Prophet Isa wonderful powers to prove he was a true Prophet. He always said "Bismillah" (In the name of Allah) before doing them, showing they were by Allah's permission, not his own power.

- Clay Birds: He would make the shape of a bird out of clay, breathe into it by Allah's leave, and it would become a real flying bird!
- Healing: He healed people who were born blind so they could see.
- Curing Sickness: He cured people with bad skin diseases (lepers) with a touch.
- Raising the Dead: He even brought dead people back to life by Allah's permission, saying "Stand up by Allah's leave."

The Lesson

Prophet Isa was kind, gentle, and helped the poor, sick, and needy. We should also try to help others whenever we can. His miracles show Allah's power and mercy.

EVALUATION

1. Who did Prophet Isa tell people to worship?
2. Did Isa perform miracles by his own power or Allah's permission?
3. What did he make out of clay?
4. What happened to the blind people he touched?
5. Can you mention one other miracle he did?
6. Was Prophet Isa kind to sick people?

ASSIGNMENT

- Mold a bird shape using clay or playdough.
- Write down: "Prophet Isa healed the sick by Allah's permission."
- Help someone who is not feeling well (even by bringing them water or a blanket).

WEEK 10: BRIEF HISTORY OF PROPHET MUHAMMAD (SAW) - BIRTH.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Mention the city where Prophet Muhammad (SAW) was born.
- State the names of his father and mother.
- Identify the name of his nurse.
- Explain what happened to the nurse's family when Muhammad stayed with them.

CONTENT

Birth of the Prophet

Prophet Muhammad (SAW) was born in the holy city of Makkah, in Arabia. He was born on a Monday, in the "Year of the Elephant" (a famous year when an army with elephants tried to attack Makkah but was destroyed by birds sent by Allah).

His Parents

- Father: Abdullah (He died before the Prophet was born, while traveling).
- Mother: Aminah.

- Grandfather: Abdul-Muttalib (He was the leader of Makkah and loved the baby very much. He named him 'Muhammad', which means 'the Praised One').

Life in the Desert

In those days, babies in cities were often sent to live in the fresh, clean air of the desert with a Bedouin family. This made them strong and good at speaking pure Arabic. A kind and poor nurse named Halima As-Sa'diyah took baby Muhammad to care for him.

Blessings

Halima's family was very poor. Her donkey was old and slow, her sheep were thin and gave little milk. But as soon as she took baby Muhammad, blessings poured in!

- Her donkey became fast and strong.
- Her goats gave plenty of milk, more than enough for everyone.
- Her home became full of happiness and goodness. She knew this was a special, blessed baby sent by Allah.

EVALUATION

1. Where was Prophet Muhammad born?
2. What was his father's name?
3. What was his mother's name?
4. Who was Halima?
5. What happened to Halima's animals?
6. Was the baby a blessing to Halima?

ASSIGNMENT

- Draw a simple family tree with Abdullah, Aminah, and Muhammad.
 - Ask your parents what "The Year of the Elephant" means.
 - Write the name of the Prophet's nurse: HALIMA.

WEEK 11: REVISION.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Recite Suratun-Nasr.
- Retell the story of Prophet Musa and the Red Sea.
- Mention the miracles of Prophet Isa.
- Name the parents of Prophet Muhammad (SAW).

CONTENT

Review of Second Term This week we will remember all the great stories and lessons we learned:

- Suratun-Nasr: Allah's help and victory. The lesson to be grateful and humble when we succeed.
- Prophet Musa: The basket in the river, the burning bush, the contest with magicians, and the great miracle of splitting the Red Sea to save the believers.
- Prophet Isa: Born without a father by Allah's power, spoke in the cradle, healed the blind, cured the sick, and made clay birds fly—all by Allah's permission.
- Prophet Muhammad (SAW): Born in Makkah to Aminah and Abdullah, nursed by Halima who received blessings because of him.

These stories teach us about trust in Allah, truth, and the power of miracles.

EVALUATION

1. What does "Nasr" mean?
2. Who found baby Musa in the river?
3. What did Musa's staff turn into?
4. Who was the mother of Prophet Isa?
5. What happened to the clay birds Isa made?
6. Who was the father of Prophet Muhammad?

ASSIGNMENT

- Check that your notebook is neat and complete.
- Pick your favorite story from this term and tell it to your family.
- Prepare for the holiday!

PRIMARY 2 ISLAMIC STUDIES LESSON NOTES

THIRD TERM

WEEK 1: BRIEF HISTORY OF PROPHET MUHAMMAD (SAW) - CHILDHOOD.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Mention the age of Prophet Muhammad (SAW) when his mother died.
- Identify the two family members who took care of him after his parents died.
- Describe the work Prophet Muhammad did as a young boy.
- State the special name people called him because he was honest.

CONTENT

Becoming an Orphan

When Prophet Muhammad (SAW) was just six years old, his mother, Aminah, died during a journey. He became an orphan (a child with no parents) because his father, Abdullah, had died before he was born. Even as a child, he learned about loss and dependence on Allah.

His Grandfather's Love After his mother died, his grandfather, Abdul-Muttalib, took him into his house. His grandfather loved him very much, gave him special attention, and let him sit on his own mat—a place of honor. However, when Muhammad (SAW) was eight years old, his grandfather also passed away.

Living with his Uncle After his grandfather died, his kind uncle, Abu Talib, took him in. Abu Talib was not rich, but he shared everything he had with Muhammad (SAW). He treated him like his own son, protecting and loving him throughout his life.

Working as a Shepherd As a young boy, Muhammad (SAW) did not just sit idle. He worked as a shepherd. He looked after sheep and goats in the hills and valleys around Makkah. This job taught him to be patient, responsible, and caring for animals. It also gave him time to think about Allah's creation.

Al-Ameen (The Trustworthy) Even as a child, Muhammad (SAW) never told a lie. He was kind, honest, and well-behaved. Everyone in Makkah—young and old—liked and respected him. They gave him a special nickname: "Al-Ameen," which means "The Trustworthy One." People trusted him to keep their valuable things safe, settle their arguments fairly, and always tell the truth.

EVALUATION

1. How old was the Prophet when his mother died?
2. Who took care of him immediately after his mother died?
3. Who took care of him after his grandfather died?
4. What job did the Prophet do as a young boy?
5. What does the name "Al-Ameen" mean?
6. Did the Prophet ever tell lies?

ASSIGNMENT

- Write down the name "Al-Ameen" and its meaning in your notebook.
- Draw a simple picture of a sheep.
- Mention one way you can be honest like the Prophet (e.g., returning a found pencil).

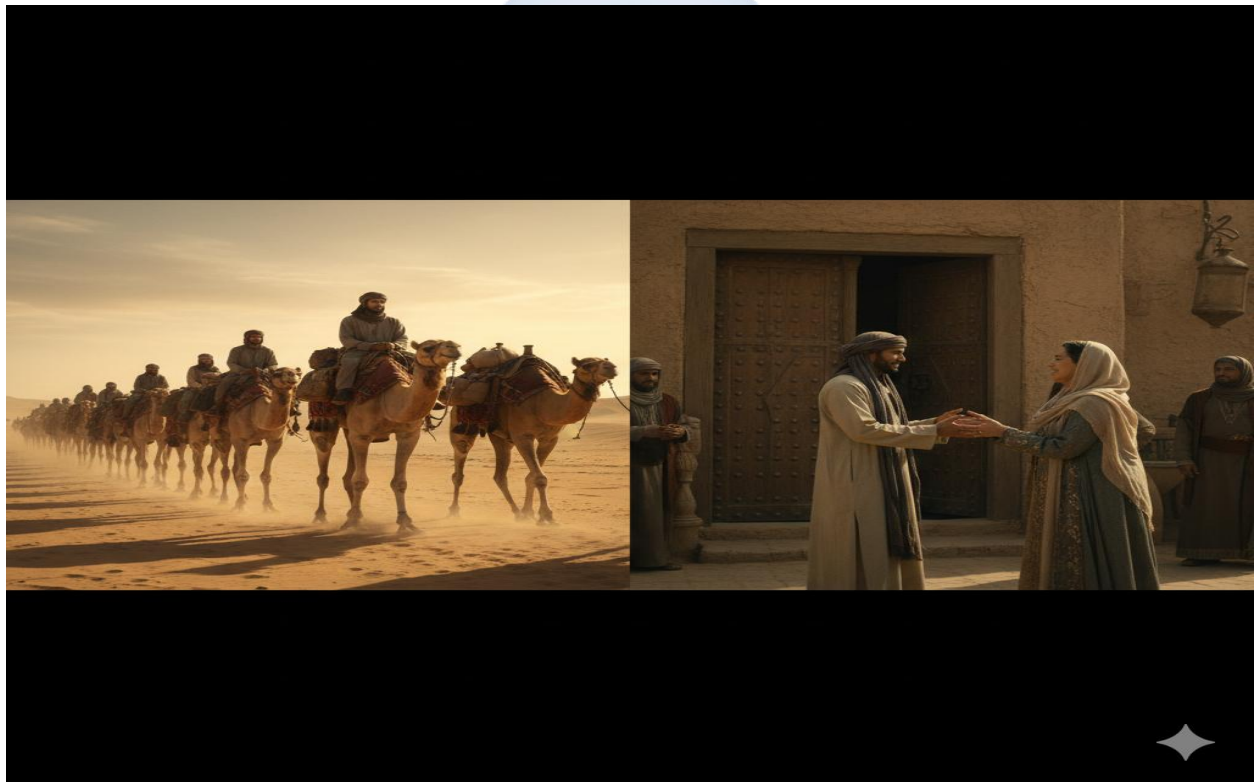

WEEK 2: BRIEF HISTORY OF PROPHET MUHAMMAD (SAW) - YOUTH TO MARRIAGE.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Describe the Prophet's character as a young man.
- Mention the job the Prophet did when he grew older.
- Identify the woman Prophet Muhammad worked for and later married.
- State why Khadijah liked Prophet Muhammad.

CONTENT

A Young Trader

As Muhammad (SAW) grew into a young man, he became a trader (businessman). He would travel with trade caravans to far places like Syria to buy and sell goods like dates, cloth, and perfume. He was famously known for being very honest in his business. He never cheated anyone, even if it meant less profit.

Meeting Khadijah

There was a rich, respected, and wise widow in Makkah named Khadijah bint Khuwaylid. She was known as "At-Tahira" (the Pure One). She needed someone honest and reliable to take her goods to sell in Syria. She heard about Muhammad's honesty (Al-Ameen) and hired him for the job.

Success and Marriage

Muhammad (SAW) did a great job for Khadijah and brought back more profit than expected. Khadijah was very impressed by his excellent character, honesty, hard work, and the good reports about him from her servant who traveled with him. Even though she was older, wealthy, and had many suitors, she decided she wanted to marry him because of his noble qualities.

A Happy Family

Muhammad (SAW) accepted through his uncle, and they got married. They loved and respected each other very much and lived happily for 25 years before she passed away. Allah blessed them with children. Khadijah was the first wife of the Prophet, the first person to believe in him when he became a Prophet, and his greatest supporter.

EVALUATION

1. What job did Muhammad (SAW) do as a young man?
2. Was the Prophet honest in his business?
3. Who was the rich woman the Prophet worked for?
4. Why did Khadijah want to marry Muhammad (SAW)?
5. Did they have children together?
6. Is it good to cheat when selling things?

ASSIGNMENT

- Ask your parents the names of two of the Prophet's children (e.g., Qasim, Ruqayyah, Fatimah).
- Write down: "Honesty is the best policy."

- Role-play a scene where you are selling something honestly to a friend (e.g., a toy).

WEEK 3: SURATUL-KAFIRUN.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Define the meaning of "Al-Kafirun".
- Recite verses 1-3 of Suratul-Kafirun.
- State the simple meaning of the first three verses.
- Explain why we should not worship idols.

CONTENT

Introduction to Suratul-Kafirun

Suratul-Kafirun is Chapter 109 of the Holy Qur'an. The word "Al-Kafirun" means "The Disbelievers" (those who do not believe in One God). This Surah was revealed when the disbelievers (Quraish leaders) in Makkah tried to make a deal with the Prophet: they asked him to worship their idols for one year, and they would worship his God for one year. This Surah was the clear answer.

Reciting Verses 1-3 Let us learn the first part:

- Qul yaa-ai yuhal kafiroon

- Laa a'budu ma t'abudoon
- Wa laa antum 'aabidoona maa a'bud

Meaning of Verses 1-3

- Verse 1: Say, "O you disbelievers!"
- Verse 2: "I do not worship what you worship." (I do not worship idols made of stone or wood).
- Verse 3: "And you do not worship what I worship." (You do not worship Allah, the One True God).

The Lesson The Prophet told them clearly and firmly that he worships only Allah. He would never bow down to stones or statues, even for a single day. Our worship is for Allah alone. Idols cannot hear, see, or help anyone.

EVALUATION

1. What does "Al-Kafirun" mean?
2. Recite the first verse of the Surah.
3. Who do Muslims worship?
4. Do Muslims worship idols?
5. What did the Prophet tell the disbelievers?
6. Is this Surah in the Qur'an?

ASSIGNMENT

- Practice reciting verses 1-3 at home.
- Write down: "I worship only Allah."
- Draw a circle and write "Allah" inside it to show He is One and has no partners.

WEEK 4: SURATUL-KAFIRUN.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Recite verses 4-6 of Suratul-Kafirun.
- Recite the complete Surah from memory.
- State the meaning of the last verse.
- Mention the main lesson of the Surah (Respect).

CONTENT

Reciting Verses 4-6 Now we finish the Surah:

- Waa laa ana 'abidum maa 'abattum
- Waa laa antum 'aabidoona maa a'bud
- Lakum deenukum wa liya deen

Meaning of Verses 4-6

- Verse 4: "And I will not worship what you worship." (This is repeated for emphasis).

- Verse 5: "And you will not worship what I worship." (This is also repeated).
- Verse 6: "For you is your religion, and for me is my religion."

Main Lesson: Respect and Firm Belief The last verse is very important. It teaches us two big lessons:

- Be Firm: We must be firm in our own faith. We never compromise on worshiping Allah alone.
- Be Respectful: We should not fight or force people because they have a different religion. We simply say, "You have your way, and I have mine." We remain good Muslims, but we are kind and peaceful to everyone. We do not insult other people's beliefs.

EVALUATION

1. Recite the last verse of Suratul-Kafirun.
2. What does "Lakum deenukum wa liya deen" mean?
3. Should we fight people who are not Muslims?
4. Should we worship their idols just to make them happy?
5. Recite the full Surah.
6. What is the main lesson of this Surah?

ASSIGNMENT

- Recite the complete Suratul-Kafirun for your family.
- Write down the meaning of the last verse.
- Tell a friend that Islam teaches us to be firm in our faith and to respect others.

WEEK 5: MID-TERM EXAMINATION.

WEEK 6: MID-TERM BREAK.

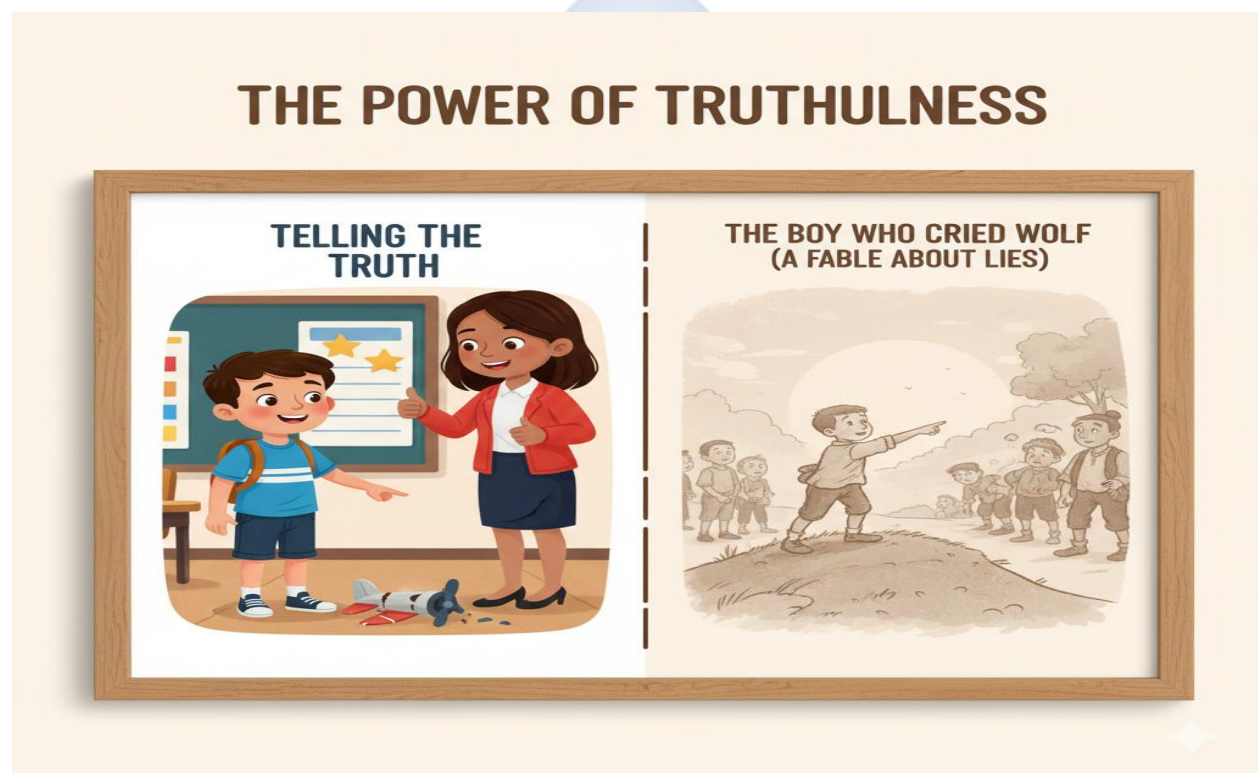

WEEK 7: MORAL TEACHINGS OF ISLAM.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Define truthfulness.
- Narrate the story of "The Boy Who Cried Wolf" briefly.
- State why Allah loves truthful people.
- Explain the consequence of lying.

CONTENT

What is Truthfulness?

Truthfulness (As-Sidq) means saying exactly what happened. It means not telling lies, not exaggerating, and not hiding the truth. Prophet Muhammad (SAW) always told the truth, even before he became a Prophet. He said, "Truthfulness leads to righteousness, and righteousness leads to Paradise."

The Danger of Lying

If you tell lies, people will stop trusting you. Even when you tell the truth later, they might not believe you. Lying (Al-Kadhib) is very harmful. It breaks trust, which is like breaking a glass—hard to fix.

Story: The Boy Who Cried Wolf

There was a shepherd boy who was bored. He liked to trick people for fun. He would shout, "Wolf! Wolf! Help! The wolf is eating the sheep!" The villagers would stop their work and run to help him, but he would laugh and say, "I was just joking, there is no wolf." He did this many times. One day, a real wolf came to attack the sheep. The boy shouted, "Wolf! Wolf! Please help!" but nobody came because they thought he was lying again. The wolf ate many of his sheep. This teaches us that lying is dangerous and makes us lose help when we really need it.

Allah Loves the Truth

Allah tells us in the Qur'an to be with those who are truthful. Truthfulness leads to Paradise, while lying leads to punishment and a bad reputation. A truthful person feels peace in their heart.

EVALUATION

1. What does it mean to be truthful?
2. Who was the most truthful man? (Prophet Muhammad).
3. Why did the villagers not help the boy when the real wolf came?
4. Is it good to tell "small" lies or jokes that are lies?
5. Where does truthfulness lead us? (Paradise).
6. Does Allah love liars?

ASSIGNMENT

- Make a promise to your parents that you will always tell the truth this week.
 - Write "I will not tell lies" three times in your notebook.
 - Tell the story of the Boy Who Cried Wolf to your sibling.

WEEK 8: MORAL TEACHINGS OF ISLAM.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Explain why parents are special.
- List three ways to help parents at home.
- State how we should speak to our parents.
- Identify who else we should respect besides parents.

CONTENT

Kindness to Parents (Birrul Walidain)

Our parents take care of us from when we are babies. They feed us, clothe us, teach us, and love us. Allah tells us in the Qur'an to be very good to them. Kindness to parents is a key to Paradise. The Prophet said that Paradise lies under the feet of mothers.

How to Help Parents

We can show kindness by doing small things without being asked:

- Helping with house chores (sweeping, washing plates, setting the table).
- Running errands for them (getting something from another room).
- Keeping our rooms and toys tidy so they don't have to clean up after us.
- Obeying them when they tell us to do something good.

Respectful Speech

We must never shout at our parents or use a harsh voice. We should not even say "Uff!" (a sound of annoyance) to them. We should always use polite words like "Please," "Thank you," "Yes, Mum/Dad," and "May Allah reward you."

Respecting Elders

We must also respect our teachers, grandparents, uncles, aunts, and anyone older than us. When an older person is speaking, we should listen quietly and not interrupt. Greeting them first is a sign of respect.

EVALUATION

1. Who takes care of us at home?
2. Mention two ways you can help your mother or father.
3. Is it okay to shout at your parents?
4. What should you say when you want something? (Please).
5. Who else should we respect?
6. Does Allah like children who disobey their parents?

ASSIGNMENT

- Do one special chore for your parents today without being asked (e.g., fold clothes).
- Say "Thank you for taking care of me" to your parents.
- List three older people you know and respect (e.g., Teacher, Grandfather, Neighbor).

WEEK 9: MORAL TEACHINGS OF ISLAM.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Define Sadaqah (Charity).
- List two ways to be kind to friends and neighbors.
- Explain what to do when someone hurts us.
- Mention the importance of sharing.

CONTENT

Kindness to Everyone

Islam teaches us to be kind to everyone, not just our family. We should be kind to our neighbors (whether Muslim or not), friends, classmates, and even animals. The Prophet said, "The best among you are those who are best to others."

Sharing and Charity (Sadaqah)

- Sharing: If we have food, toys, or books, we should share with those who don't have. Sharing brings joy and friendship.

- Sadaqah: Giving money, food, or help to the poor and needy is called Sadaqah. Even a smile, a kind word, or removing a harmful thing from the road is Sadaqah! It does not have to be money.

Forgiveness If someone steps on your toe by mistake, breaks your toy, or says something mean and then says "Sorry," you should forgive them. Do not fight, shout, or hold a grudge (keep being angry). Allah loves those who forgive. Forgiveness makes your heart light.

Good Manners (Adab)

- We greet people with "As-salamu alaykum" (Peace be upon you).
- We do not fight, push, or use bad language.
- We help those in need, like helping a blind person cross the road or carrying something for an elder.

EVALUATION

1. What is Sadaqah?
2. Is smiling a form of charity?
3. What should you do if you have two biscuits and your friend has none?
4. If someone says "Sorry," what should you do?
5. How do Muslims greet each other?
6. Should we be kind to animals? (Yes, e.g., give water to a thirsty dog).

ASSIGNMENT

- Give something (even a small fruit, a sweet, or a coin) to someone in need.
 - Share your snack or lunch with a friend at school.
 - Practice saying "I forgive you" if someone upsets you.

WEEK 10: MORAL TEACHINGS OF ISLAM.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- List three ways to keep the body clean.
- Explain why we must keep our environment clean.
- Define patience (Sabr).
- State what we should do when things are hard.

CONTENT

CLEANLINESS & PATIENCE

CLEANLINESS
(Oral Hygiene)

CLEANLINESS
(Environment)

PATIENCE
(Homework)

Friday, January 23, 2026

Cleanliness (Taharah)

The Prophet (SAW) said, "Cleanliness is half of faith." Allah loves those who are clean, both inside (heart) and outside (body). We keep our body clean by:

- Bathing: Taking a bath or shower every day, especially after playing.
- Brushing Teeth: Using a toothbrush or Miswak (chewing stick) every morning and night.

- Washing Hands: Before and after eating, and after using the toilet.
- Clean Clothes: Wearing neat and clean clothes, especially for prayer.
- We should also clip our nails and keep our hair tidy.

Clean Environment

A Muslim keeps their surroundings clean. We must not throw rubbish on the floor. We should put it in the bin. We should help clean our room, classroom, and school compound. A clean environment keeps us healthy and pleases Allah.

Patience (Sabr) Patience (Sabr) means staying calm and not getting angry or giving up when things are difficult or not going our way.

- If you are sick, be patient, take medicine, and pray to Allah for healing.
- If your homework is hard, try again, ask your teacher or parents for help politely. Don't tear your book!
- If someone is annoying you, be patient and walk away.
- Allah is with those who are patient, and He gives them a great reward.

EVALUATION

1. Mention two things we do to keep our body clean.
2. When should we wash our hands?
3. Where should we throw rubbish?
4. What does "Sabr" mean?
5. What should we do if our homework is hard?
6. Does Allah love dirty places?

ASSIGNMENT

- Help clean your classroom or your room at home today.
- Make sure to brush your teeth tonight before sleeping.
- Draw a dustbin and write "Keep Clean" on it.

WEEK 11: REVISION.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Recite Suratul-Kafirun.
- Retell the story of the Prophet's childhood.
- List three moral values learned this term.

CONTENT

Review of Third Term We will review all the important things we learned this term:

- Prophet Muhammad (SAW): His life as an orphan, cared for by his grandfather and uncle. His honesty (Al-Ameen), his work as a shepherd and honest trader, and his marriage to the noble Khadijah.
- Suratul-Kafirun: The Surah about firm belief in One God. We do not worship idols. The lesson of respect: "For you is your religion, and for me is my religion."
- Morals: Being truthful (and the story of the Boy Who Cried Wolf), respecting and helping parents, giving charity (Sadaqah) and sharing, cleanliness of body and environment, and having patience (Sabr) during difficulties.

These teachings help us become better Muslims and better people.

EVALUATION

1. Who was the first wife of Prophet Muhammad?
2. What does "Al-Kafirun" mean?
3. Recite the last verse of Suratul-Kafirun.
4. Why is lying bad?
5. Mention one way to respect your parents.
6. What is the meaning of "Al-Ameen"?

ASSIGNMENT

- Ensure all your notes are complete and neat.
- Practice reciting Suratul-Kafirun perfectly.

- Do a good deed today to end the term well (e.g., help a sibling, clean up).
