PRIMARY 2 NIGERIAN HISTORY LESSON NOTES

FIRST TERM

---

WEEK 1: WHAT IS HISTORY?

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Define history simply as the study of past events.
- Mention two things history tells us about.
- State one reason why we study history.

CONTENT

Meaning of History

History is a story about the past. It tells us about things that happened long ago, even before we, our parents, or our grandparents were born. It is like a giant storybook about people, places, and important events from olden days. History helps us answer the question: "What happened before today?"

What History Tells Us

History gives us information about:

Past Events: It tells us about what happened yesterday, last year, or hundreds of years ago. For example, it tells us how our town was founded or about a great festival that happened long ago.

People: It teaches us about our ancestors (grandparents, great-grandparents, and those who came before them) and important leaders, heroes, and heroines who lived before us.

Places: It shows us how our towns, villages, and cities looked in the past. It can tell us if a place was once a forest, a busy market, or a kingdom.

Why We Study History There are good reasons to learn about the past:

To Understand Today: Knowing what happened before helps us understand why things are the way they are now. For example, history tells us why we speak the languages we do or celebrate certain festivals.

To Learn Lessons: We learn from the good things and mistakes people made in the past so we can make better choices today and in the future.

To Know Our Roots: It helps us know where we come from, who our family is, and what our culture is about. It gives us a sense of identity and pride.

EVALUATION

1. What is history?
2. Does history tell us about the future or about things that have already happened?
3. Who are ancestors?
4. Mention one reason why it is important to study history.
5. Is history about things happening right now?

ASSIGNMENT

- Ask your parents or an elder at home to tell you one story about your family's past (e.g., where your great-grandparents lived).
  - Draw a picture of something old you have seen before (like an old radio, a bicycle, or a clay pot).
  - Write down in your notebook: "History tells us about the past."

WEEK 2: SOURCES OF HISTORY

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Define "sources of history."
- List three ways we can learn about the past.
- Differentiate between oral and written sources.
- Mention one thing we can find in a museum.

CONTENT

What are Sources of History?

Sources of history are the things that give us information or clues about the past. They are like pieces of a puzzle that help historians (people who study history) put together the story of what happened long ago.

How We Learn About the Past (Types of Sources)

There are three main ways we can learn about history:

Oral Sources: These are stories, songs, poems, and proverbs told by word of mouth. They are passed down from older people (like our grandparents, parents, and elders) to younger people.

Example: Your grandfather telling you how he went to school.

Written Sources: These are pieces of information that are written or printed on paper or other materials.

Examples: History books in the library, old letters, diaries, newspapers, and government records.

Physical/Material Sources: These are objects from the past that we can see and touch. They are also called artefacts.

Examples: Old buildings (like palaces), statues (monuments), tools (like stone axes), traditional clothes, pottery, coins, and photographs.

Museums A museum is a special building where old, important, and valuable things (artefacts) are collected, kept safe, and shown to the public. When we visit a museum, we can see history with our own eyes! We might see:

- Old pots and cooking utensils.
- Traditional weapons and tools.
- Crowns, beads, and royal clothes.
- Artworks and sculptures from long ago.

EVALUATION

1. What do we call the stories about the past that our elders tell us?
2. Is a history textbook in your school bag a written source or an oral source?
3. Mention two things that are physical sources of history.
4. What is a museum?
5. Can an old family photograph tell us about the past?

6. Give one example of a written source.

ASSIGNMENT

- Bring an old photograph of your family to class next week (ask your parents for permission first).
  - Ask your grandmother or grandfather to tell you a short story from when they were young. Listen carefully.
  - Draw a picture of a book to represent written sources of history.

WEEK 3: OUR PERSONAL HISTORY

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Explain what personal history means.
- Mention two important events in their own lives.
- Identify a document that shows when they were born.
- Draw a simple family tree showing parents and self.

CONTENT

Everyone Has a History

Just like Nigeria has a big history, you have your own small history too! Your personal history is the story of your own life from the day you were born until today. It is made up of all the things you have done, seen, and learned.

Important Events in My Life

My Birth: The day you were born is the very beginning of your personal history. Your Birth Certificate is an important official paper that shows your name, your date of birth, your parents' names, and where you were born.

First Steps and First Words: When you started walking and talking.

First Day of School: The day you started Nursery school or Primary 1.

Birthdays: Every year you celebrate becoming one year older.

A Special Trip or Visit: Going to a new place or visiting relatives.

My Family's History Your personal history is connected to your family's history.

Where we come from: Your parents and grandparents come from a particular village, town, or city. That place is part of your family's history and yours too.

Family Tree: A family tree is a diagram that shows how members of a family are related to each other. It looks like a tree with branches. A simple one starts with you, connected to your parents.

Grandfather --- Grandmother | Father --- Mother | YOU

EVALUATION

1. What is the name of the important paper that shows when and where you were born?
2. Mention one special event that has happened in your life.
3. What is a family tree?
4. Is your first day at school part of your personal history?
5. Who are the people in a simple family tree (you, your father, and your mother)?
6. Do you have a personal history? (Yes/No)

ASSIGNMENT

- Ask your parents for your exact date of birth (day, month, year) and write it down in your book.

- Draw a simple tree shape. On the branches, write "Father", "Mother", and "Me" (or your name).
  - Find out and write down the name of the town or village your father comes from.

WEEK 4: EARLY PEOPLE IN NIGERIA

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Describe where early people lived.
- Mention how early people got their food.
- State two tools early people used.
- Explain why they lived in groups.

CONTENT

Living Long Ago

Thousands of years ago, the first people lived in the area we now call Nigeria. Life was very different then. There were no cars, no electricity, no shops, and no modern houses made of cement and blocks.

Shelter (Where they lived)

Early people did not build houses like we do today. They found natural places to live and sleep safely:

Caves: Big holes or openings in the sides of hills or mountains. ^/\ Hill ^|| Cave opening |_|

Under Large Trees: The thick branches and leaves provided shade from the sun and some shelter from rain.

Rock Shelters: Areas protected by big, overhanging rocks.

Food (Hunting and Gathering)

There were no supermarkets or markets to buy food. To eat, they had to find food themselves:

Hunting: Men used simple weapons to chase and kill wild animals like antelope, rabbits, and birds for meat.

Gathering: Women and children picked wild fruits, nuts, berries, and edible leaves and roots from the forest.

Tools and Fire

- Fire: They learned to make fire by rubbing dry sticks together or striking stones. Fire was very important:
- To cook meat and make it safe to eat.
- To keep warm at night.
- To scare away wild animals.

Tools: They made simple but useful tools from materials around them:

Stone: Sharp stones used as knives or axes (Stone Age).

Wood: Sticks used as spears or digging tools.

Bones: Animal bones could be used as needles or fish hooks.

Living Together They lived in small groups or families. Living together was safer because:

- They could protect each other from wild animals.
- They could work together to hunt bigger animals.

- They could help take care of the children and the elderly.

EVALUATION

1. Where did early people live? (Mention one place).
2. How did early people get meat to eat?
3. What did they use to make their first simple tools? (Stone/Wood).
4. Why was fire important to early people? (Give one reason).
5. Did early people have supermarkets to buy food from?
6. Why did early people live in groups?

ASSIGNMENT

- Draw a picture of a simple stone tool (like a sharp, pointed rock).
  - Write down two things early people ate (e.g., Meat from animals, Wild fruits).
  - At home, use chairs and a blanket to build a small pretend "cave" or shelter. See what it feels like to sit inside.

WEEK 7: HOW PEOPLE CAME TO NIGERIA.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Define the word "migration."
- Give two reasons why people moved from place to place.
- Mention the name of an ancient group of people in Nigeria (Nok).
- Identify what the Nok people were famous for making.

CONTENT

Moving from Place to Place

Long ago, people did not always stay in one place forever. They moved from one area to another to find a better life. This movement of people to settle in a new place is called Migration.

Why People Migrated

People moved for different reasons:

To Find Food and Water: If the animals they hunted moved away or if a river dried up, people would follow or move to a new area with more resources.

For Safety: To run away from enemies, wild animals, or dangerous events.

For Better Land: To find good soil for farming and fertile land for planting crops.

For Peace: To escape fighting or wars between different groups.

Where People Settled

People liked to settle in places that would help them survive easily:

Near Rivers: For drinking water, fishing, and for the fertile soil good for farming.

In Forests or Grasslands: For hunting animals and gathering wild fruits.

The Nok People One of the oldest known groups of people in Nigeria were the Nok people. They lived in what is now North-Central Nigeria (around present-day Kaduna, Plateau, and Nasarawa states).

- They are famous for their amazing Terracotta sculptures. Terracotta is baked clay.
- They made very detailed human and animal figures, as well as pottery.
- They were also among the first people in the region to learn how to use iron to make stronger and better tools and weapons.

EVALUATION

1. What is migration?
2. Why did people move to new places long ago? (Give one reason).
3. Where did people like to settle? (Near rivers or in deserts?)
4. Who were the Nok people?
5. What material did the Nok people use to make their famous sculptures?
6. Did the Nok people use iron?

ASSIGNMENT

- Draw a simple clay pot or jar.
  - Ask your parents if your family has ever moved from one house or town to another.
  - Write down in your book: "Migration means moving to live in a new place."

WEEK 8: MAJOR ETHNIC GROUPS IN NIGERIA.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- List the three major ethnic groups in Nigeria.
- Mention the region where each major group is mostly found.
- State two other ethnic groups in Nigeria.
- Explain that Nigeria has many different languages.

CONTENT

Many Groups, One Country

Nigeria is a big and beautiful country with many different groups of people. These groups are called Ethnic Groups or tribes. There are over 250 ethnic groups in Nigeria! Each group has its own unique culture.

The Three Major Ethnic Groups

The three largest ethnic groups are:

Hausa-Fulani: They are mostly found in the Northern part of Nigeria. They speak the Hausa and Fulfulde languages. Many are farmers and traders.

- Yoruba: They are mostly found in the South-Western part of Nigeria. They speak the Yoruba language. They are known for their rich culture, art, and commerce.
- Igbo (Ibo): They are mostly found in the South-Eastern part of Nigeria. They speak the Igbo language. They are known for trading, craftsmanship, and enterprise.

Other Important Ethnic Groups Besides the big three, Nigeria has many other important and large ethnic groups, such as:

- Ijaw (in the Niger Delta region)
- Tiv (in Benue State, North-Central)
- Kanuri (in Borno State, North-East)
- Edo (in Edo State)
- Ibibio and Efik (in Akwa Ibom and Cross River States)

Diversity is Our Strength Each ethnic group has its own:

- Language
- Traditional food (e.g., Tuwo for Hausa, Amala for Yoruba, Fufu for Igbo)
- Traditional clothes (e.g., Babban Riga, Agbada, Isiagu)
- Music and dance
- Festivals and ceremonies

This wonderful variety is what makes Nigeria a very colorful and interesting country. We say Nigeria is a multi-ethnic nation.

EVALUATION

1. How many major ethnic groups are in Nigeria?

2. Which major ethnic group is mostly found in the Northern part of Nigeria?
3. Which major group is found in the South-East?
4. Which major group is found in the South-West?
5. List two other ethnic groups in Nigeria apart from the three major ones.
6. Does everyone in Nigeria speak the same language? (Yes/No)

ASSIGNMENT

- Find out and write down how to say "Good Morning" in Hausa ("Ina kwana?"), Igbo ("Ututu oma"), and Yoruba ("E kaaro").
- Draw a simple outline map of Nigeria (just an oblong shape). Divide it roughly into North, South-West, and South-East.
- Write down which ethnic group you and your family belong to.

WEEK 9: EARLY KINGDOMS AND EMPIRES.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Define a kingdom.
- Mention three ancient kingdoms or empires in Nigeria.
- State who ruled these kingdoms.
- Describe these kingdoms as powerful and rich.

CONTENT

What is a Kingdom?

A kingdom is a place or land that is ruled by a King (or a Queen). It is usually made up of many towns and villages under the king's authority. Long ago, before Nigeria became one country, there were many powerful and well-organized kingdoms and empires here.

Famous Old Kingdoms and Empires

Some of the great ancient states in Nigeria were:

The Kanem-Bornu Empire: A very strong and long-lasting empire in the North-East (around Lake Chad). It was powerful and known for trade and learning.

The Oyo Empire: A powerful Yoruba kingdom in the South-West. It had a strong cavalry (soldiers on horses) and was very influential.

The Benin Kingdom: A famous and highly organized kingdom in Edo land (South-South). They were famous for their advanced art, especially bronze and brass sculptures, and their strong city walls.

The Sokoto Caliphate: A very large Islamic empire in the North founded by Usman dan Fodio. It united many Hausa states under one leadership.

Rulers of the Kingdoms These kingdoms were ruled by powerful kings who had different titles:

- Oba (in Benin and Yoruba lands)
- Emir (in Hausa/Fulani lands)
- Shehu (in Kanem-Bornu)
- Obi (in some Igbo areas)

Wealth and Power These kingdoms were often rich because they:

Traded: Goods like kola nuts, cloth, salt, gold, and horses with people from other regions and even across the Sahara Desert.

Collected taxes: From traders and farmers.

Had strong armies: To protect their people and territory.

EVALUATION

1. Who is the ruler of a kingdom?
2. Mention one ancient kingdom or empire that was in Nigeria.
3. In which part of Nigeria was the Benin Kingdom located?

4. Which empire was a powerful Yoruba kingdom in the South-West?
5. Were these ancient kingdoms generally poor or rich and powerful?
6. Was the Sokoto Caliphate in the Northern or Southern part of Nigeria?

ASSIGNMENT

- Draw a crown to represent a king.
- Ask your parents: "What is the name of the traditional ruler (King/Chief) in our hometown or local government area?"
- Write down in your book: "Ancient kingdoms in Nigeria were ruled by kings and were often rich and powerful."

WEEK 10: TRADITIONAL OCCUPATIONS.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Define "occupation" as the work people do.
- List four traditional jobs people did long ago.
- Mention what farmers grow.
- Identify the tools used for fishing or hunting.

CONTENT

Work Long Ago

Long ago, most people did not work in offices, banks, or factories like today. Their work was mainly done with their hands and simple tools to get food, shelter, and other needs for their families. A person's job is called their Occupation.

Main Traditional Occupations

- Farming: This was the most common job. People grew food crops to eat and sometimes to sell.

Crops: Yam, cassava, maize (corn), beans, millet, and vegetables.

Tools: Hoe, cutlass, digging stick.

Fishing: People who lived near rivers, lakes, or the sea caught fish.

Tools: Fishing nets, hooks and lines, fish traps, canoe.

Hunting: Brave men went into the forest to catch wild animals for meat, skin, and other uses.

Tools: Bow and arrow, spear, trap, sometimes with dogs.

Trading: People took their farm produce, fish, or handmade goods to the market. They sold them or exchanged (bartered) them for things they needed but did not produce themselves.

Craftsmanship: Skilled people made useful and beautiful items:

Weaving: Making cloth (like Aso Oke) or mats from cotton or raffia.

Pottery: Making pots, bowls, and plates from clay.

Blacksmithing: Making tools (like hoes, knives) and weapons from iron.

Carving: Making wooden masks, stools, and sculptures.

Exchange (Barter Trade) Before there was money (Naira and Kobo), people traded by exchange. For example, a farmer could give a basket of yams to a fisherman in exchange for a basket of fish.

EVALUATION

1. What is an occupation?
2. What do farmers do?
3. Where do fishermen usually work?
4. Name one tool a hunter might use.
5. Mention two crops that Nigerian farmers grow.
6. What is pottery?

ASSIGNMENT

- Ask your parents what their occupation (job) is.
  - Draw a picture of a farming tool (like a hoe or cutlass).
  - List three different things you can buy in a modern market (e.g., tomatoes, soap, clothes).

WEEK 11: REVISION.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Recall the definition of history and sources of history.
- Identify major ethnic groups and early kingdoms.
- Describe how early people lived and worked.

CONTENT

Review of First Term Work

Let us look back at all the important things we learned this term:

What is History?: The story of the past.

Sources of History: How we know about the past—through oral stories, written records, and physical objects/artefacts (found in museums).

Personal History: Your own life story and family tree.

Early People in Nigeria: They lived in caves, hunted and gathered food, used stone tools, and lived in groups for safety.

Migration: People moved to new places for food, safety, and better land (e.g., the Nok people).

Major Ethnic Groups: Hausa-Fulani (North), Yoruba (South-West), Igbo (South-East), and over 250 other groups.

Early Kingdoms/Empires: Powerful states like Kanem-Bornu, Oyo, Benin, and Sokoto Caliphate, ruled by kings.

Traditional Occupations: Farming, fishing, hunting, trading, and crafts like pottery and weaving.

EVALUATION

1. What are the things that give us information about the past called?

2. Mention the three major ethnic groups in Nigeria.
3. Where did the early people in Nigeria live?
4. What were the Nok people famous for making?
5. Name one traditional occupation people had long ago.
6. Why is it important for us to learn history?

ASSIGNMENT

- Study your notes from this term to prepare for your examination.
- Make sure your history notebook is complete, tidy, and all assignments are done.
- Tell your family one interesting thing you learned about Nigerian history this term.

PRIMARY 2 NIGERIAN HISTORY LESSON NOTES

SECOND TERM

WEEK 1: HEROES AND HEROINES IN NIGERIA: WHAT IS A HERO/HEROINE?.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Define who a hero or heroine is in simple terms.
- Mention two qualities of a hero or heroine (e.g., bravery, kindness).
- State why we remember heroes and heroines.
- Draw a picture of someone they consider a hero.

CONTENT

Who is a Hero or Heroine?

A hero (man) or heroine (woman) is a person who does something very brave, good, and important for other people or for their community. They are people who care about others and are willing to help, protect, or fight for what is right, even when it is difficult.

What makes them special? (Qualities) Heroes and heroines often have these qualities:

Bravery/Courage: They are not afraid to face danger or difficulty.

Helpfulness/Kindness: They help people who are in trouble or in need.

Selflessness: They think of other people's needs before their own.

Honesty and Fairness: They stand for truth and justice.

Why we remember them We remember and celebrate heroes and heroines because:

- They make our country, Nigeria, proud.
- Their stories teach us good values and how to be better citizens.
- They inspire us to be brave and helpful in our own lives.
- They set a good example for us to follow.

Examples in everyday life Heroes are not just famous people from long ago or in movies. A hero can be anyone who shows these qualities:

- A firefighter who saves people from a burning house.
- A doctor or nurse who works hard to cure sick people.
- A teacher who patiently helps pupils to learn.
- A parent who works hard to take care of their family.
- A person who stands up for someone who is being bullied.

EVALUATION

1. Who is a hero?
2. What do we call a female hero?
3. Mention one good quality of a hero or heroine.

4. Why do we remember and tell stories about heroes?
5. Can a woman be a hero? (Yes, she is called a heroine)

ASSIGNMENT

- Ask your parents to name one Nigerian hero or heroine they admire.
  - Draw a picture of your personal hero (it can be a family member, a community helper, or a famous person).
  - Write one sentence under your drawing about why you think that person is a hero.

WEEK 2: HEROES AND HEROINES IN NIGERIA: QUEEN AMINA OF ZAZZAU.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Identify who Queen Amina was.
- Mention the town where Queen Amina ruled.
- State two things Queen Amina did for her people.
- Describe Queen Amina's character (e.g., brave, strong).

CONTENT

Who was Queen Amina?

Queen Amina (also known as Amina of Zazzau) was a very famous and powerful Hausa warrior queen. She lived in the 16th century (about 500 years ago) and ruled a kingdom called Zazzau (which is present-day Zaria in Kaduna State).

A Brave Warrior and Leader

Queen Amina was not a queen who just sat on the throne. She was a skilled fighter and military leader! She personally led her army into battle on horseback. She fought many wars to protect her people from enemies and to expand the territory of her kingdom, making it larger and more powerful.

Her Achievements

Building Walls for Protection: She is most famous for ordering the building of strong, high mud walls around the cities in her kingdom. These walls, called "Ganuwar Amina" (Amina's Walls), were like fortresses that protected the people inside from attacks by enemies. They provided safety and security.

Expanding Trade and Influence: By making her kingdom safe and powerful, she created peace that allowed trade to flourish. Traders felt safe to bring their goods, which made her kingdom wealthy.

Her Character Queen Amina is remembered as a brave, strong, fearless, and intelligent leader. She was a heroine who used her strength to defend her people.

EVALUATION

1. Who was Queen Amina?
2. Which kingdom (present-day city) did she rule?
3. Was she a weak queen or a strong warrior leader?
4. What did she build around cities to protect her people?
5. Did she lead her army to war?

ASSIGNMENT

- Draw a simple wall or fortress to represent the protective walls of Zazzau.
- Ask your parents to help you find Zaria on a map of Nigeria. In which state is it?
- Write down in your book: "Queen Amina was a brave warrior queen who built walls to protect her people."

WEEK 3: HEROES AND HEROINES IN NIGERIA: MOREMI OF ILE-IFE.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Identify Moremi as a brave Yoruba woman.
- Mention the town where Moremi lived (Ile-Ife).
- Explain simply how she saved her people.
- Define the word "sacrifice."

CONTENT

Who was Moremi?

Moremi Ajasoro was a very brave, beautiful, and clever queen and heroine from Ile-Ife in Yorubaland. Ile-Ife is an ancient city regarded as the spiritual homeland of the Yoruba people.

The Problem Facing Ile-Ife

Long ago, the people of Ile-Ife were being constantly attacked and raided by mysterious enemies. These raiders were called the "Igbo" in the story (important note: this refers to forest dwellers/raiders, not the Igbo ethnic group). They covered themselves with grass and raffia leaves, making them look like spirits or bushes, which terrified the people of Ife.

Moremi's Great Sacrifice

Sacrifice means giving up something important or valuable for a greater good. Moremi loved her people so much that she made a big sacrifice. She allowed herself to be captured by the enemy raiders. While living among them as a captive, she was very observant. She discovered their secret: they were not spirits, but ordinary men using grass costumes to hide. She also learned that they were afraid of fire.

Saving Her People

Moremi managed to escape and returned to Ile-Ife. She told her people the secret: use fire against them! The people of Ife then used burning torches to fight the raiders. When the fire touched the dry grass costumes, the raiders were defeated and ran away. Ile-Ife was saved because of Moremi's bravery, wisdom, and sacrifice.

EVALUATION

1. Who was Moremi?
2. Where did she live?
3. Why were the people of Ile-Ife so afraid of their enemies?
4. How did Moremi find out the enemies' secret?
5. What did the people of Ife use to defeat the enemies? (Water or Fire?)

ASSIGNMENT

- Write down the name of the town that Moremi saved: Ile-Ife.
- Draw a picture of a burning torch (a stick with flames).
- Tell the story of Moremi's bravery to a friend or a younger sibling at home.

WEEK 4: HEROES AND HEROINES IN NIGERIA: OBA EWUARE OF BENIN.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Identify Oba Ewuare as a King of Benin.
- Mention two things Oba Ewuare built.
- State why he was called "The Great."
- Recognize Benin art (bronze heads).

CONTENT

Who was Oba Ewuare?

Oba Ewuare was a very powerful and important King (Oba) of the Benin Kingdom (in present-day Edo State). He ruled in the 15th century and is often called "Ewuare the Great" because of the many wonderful things he did to make Benin strong and beautiful.

Making Benin Strong and Beautiful

Rebuilding the City: When he became king, parts of Benin City had been destroyed. He rebuilt the city, making it bigger, better planned, and more beautiful.

Building a Great Palace: He built a huge and magnificent palace for the Obas of Benin. The palace was a center of administration and culture.

Promoting Art and Culture: Oba Ewuare greatly supported artists. During his reign, the famous Benin bronze casters and ivory carvers produced some of their most beautiful works. They made detailed statues, plaques, and heads using bronze (a mixture of copper and tin) and brass. These artworks told the history of the kingdom and are famous all over the world today.

A Wise and Powerful Ruler He was not just a builder and art lover. He was also known as:

- A powerful warrior who expanded the kingdom.
- A wise magician and medicine man.
- A fair judge who made good laws to help his people live in peace and prosperity.

EVALUATION

1. Who was Oba Ewuare?
2. Which kingdom did he rule?
3. What did he build for the King to live in?
4. What material (bronze/wood) was used to make the famous Benin art heads?
5. Why is he called "Ewuare the Great"?

ASSIGNMENT

- Draw a simple crown or coral bead necklace (like an Oba would wear).
- Write down in your book: "Oba Ewuare the Great was a famous king who made the Benin Kingdom strong and promoted beautiful art."
- Ask your parents if they have ever seen a picture or video of Benin bronze artwork.

WEEK 5: MID-TERM EXAMINATION.

WEEK 6: MID-TERM BREAK.

---

WEEK 7: HEROES AND HEROINES IN NIGERIA: USMAN DAN FODIO.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Identify Usman dan Fodio as a great scholar.
- Mention the empire he founded (Sokoto Caliphate).
- State two things he loved (Islam and Education).
- Explain why he is a hero.

CONTENT

Who was Usman dan Fodio?

Shehu Usman dan Fodio was a very wise, learned, and religious leader in Hausa land (Northern Nigeria) in the late 18th and early 19th centuries. He was a teacher, writer, scholar, and reformer.

A Lover of Knowledge and Piety

He loved education and learning. He read and wrote many books about Islam, law, good governance, and righteous living. He believed strongly in justice and fairness. He traveled around teaching people and was unhappy to see how some local rulers were treating their people unfairly and not following Islamic principles.

Founding the Sokoto Caliphate

His teachings attracted many followers. He led a peaceful movement that later became a jihad (struggle) to correct the wrongdoing. This struggle was successful and led to the creation of a very large and well-organized Islamic empire called the Sokoto Caliphate (with its capital in Sokoto). It became one of the largest states in Africa at that time.

His Legacy Usman dan Fodio is remembered as a hero because:

- He fought against corruption and injustice.
- He promoted education and literacy for all.
- He established a system of government based on Islamic law and justice.
- He united many Hausa states under a common cause.

EVALUATION

1. Who was Usman dan Fodio?
2. What was the name of the large empire he helped to found?
3. Did he believe education was important?
4. In which part of Nigeria did he live and work? (North/South)
5. Why is he respected as a hero and scholar today?

ASSIGNMENT

- Draw a picture of an open book to represent knowledge and learning.
- Write down the name of the empire he founded: "Sokoto Caliphate".
- Mention one thing Usman dan Fodio produced because he was learned: Books/Writings.

WEEK 8: HEROES AND HEROINES IN NIGERIA: NANA OF ITSEKIRI.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Identify Nana of Itsekiri as a powerful trader.
- Mention where Nana lived (Niger Delta).
- State who Nana fought against.
- Explain why he fought.

CONTENT

Who was Nana Olomu?

Nana Olomu (also known as Nana of Itsekiri) was a very rich, powerful, and influential merchant (trader) and chief in the Niger Delta region in the late 19th century. He was a leader of the Itsekiri people.

A Great and Powerful Trader

His main business was the palm oil trade. Palm oil was very valuable at that time. He controlled trade along the Benin River. He had a large fleet of canoes and many people working for him. He was so powerful that he was like the governor of the river area.

Fighting for Economic Rights

When the British came to Nigeria, they wanted to take control of all the trade, especially the profitable palm oil trade. They tried to force rules on powerful traders like Nana. Nana refused to let the British take away his people's right to control their own trade and resources. He said "No!" He bravely fought against the British to protect his people's business, land, and independence.

A Symbol of Resistance

Although the British had more powerful weapons (guns and ships) and eventually defeated him, Nana is remembered as a hero because:

- He was brave and stood up for what belonged to his people.
- He resisted foreign control and fought for the economic rights of Nigerians.

EVALUATION

1. Who was Nana of Itsekiri?
2. What was his main job or occupation?
3. Which region of Nigeria (Niger Delta/Sahara) did he live in?
4. Who did he fight against to protect his trade?
5. Why did he fight them? (To protect his people's business/to become a king)

ASSIGNMENT

- Draw a canoe on a river to represent his trading fleet.
- Write down in your book: "Nana Olomu was a brave trader who fought for his people's rights."

- Ask your parents what "Palm Oil" is used for in cooking at home.

WEEK 9: HEROES AND HEROINES IN NIGERIA: FUNMILAYO RANSOME-KUTI.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Identify Funmilayo Ransome-Kuti as a women's rights activist.
- Mention one thing she fought for.
- State which group of people she led protests for.
- Describe her as fearless.

CONTENT

Who was Funmilayo Ransome-Kuti?

Funmilayo Ransome-Kuti was a teacher, political leader, and a very strong fighter for women's rights in Nigeria in the 20th century. She is often called the "Mother of Women's Rights" or the "Lioness of Lisabi." She was also famously the first woman in Nigeria to drive a car!

Fighting for Women's Rights

She saw that women, especially market women, were being treated unfairly. They were forced to pay very high taxes that made it hard for them to do their business and take care of their families.

She organized and led thousands of market women in protests against the Alake (the King) of Egbaland. Their protest was so powerful and peaceful that it led to the temporary removal of the Alake and the cancellation of the unfair taxes. This showed the power of women standing together.

Promoting Education and Freedom

She strongly believed that girls should have the right to go to school and get an education, just like boys. She traveled to different countries to speak about freedom, human rights, and the importance of women in society.

A Fearless Leader

Funmilayo Ransome-Kuti was known for being fearless, bold, and intelligent. She was not afraid to speak truth to power and demand justice for women.

EVALUATION

1. Who was Funmilayo Ransome-Kuti?
2. What did she fight for? (Women's rights/Children's play)
3. Which group of people did she lead in a famous protest? (Market women/Farmers)
4. Was she a quiet woman or a fearless leader who spoke up?
5. What was special about her and cars in Nigerian history?

ASSIGNMENT

- You can ask your parents if they know the name of Funmilayo's famous musician son (Fela Anikulapo-Kuti).
- Write down this important statement in your book: "Women have rights too."
- Draw a simple car to help remember she was the first Nigerian woman to drive one.

WEEK 10: HEROES AND HEROINES IN NIGERIA: HERBERT MACAULAY.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Identify Herbert Macaulay as the "Father of Nigerian Nationalism."
- Explain what he wanted for Nigeria (Freedom).
- Mention the tool he used to speak the truth (Newspapers).
- State one political action he took.

CONTENT

Who was Herbert Macaulay?

Herbert Macaulay is one of Nigeria's most important national heroes. You can find his portrait on the One Naira coin! He is called the "Father of Nigerian Nationalism" because he was one of the first and strongest voices to fight for Nigeria to become a free and independent country, no longer ruled by the British.

Fighting for Freedom with Words

He did not fight with guns or swords. He fought with his pen, his voice, and his ideas. He started a newspaper called "The Lagos Daily News." He used this newspaper to write articles exposing the unfair ways Nigerians were being treated by the British colonial government. He told the truth and demanded better treatment and rights for Nigerians.

A Political Pioneer

He founded the first Nigerian political party, the Nigerian National Democratic Party (NNDP). He brought different people together to demand that Nigerians should be allowed to rule themselves in their own country. He organized meetings, wrote petitions, and gave powerful speeches. What he wanted: Independence and Self-Government for Nigeria.

EVALUATION

1. Who is known as the "Father of Nigerian Nationalism"?
2. On which Nigerian coin can we find his picture?
3. How did he mainly fight for Nigeria's freedom? (Using newspapers and politics/Using a sword)
4. What was his main goal for Nigeria?
5. Did he use violent weapons to fight?

ASSIGNMENT

- If possible, ask your parents to show you a One Naira coin and look at the face on it. That is Herbert Macaulay.
  - Create a fun name for your own class newspaper (e.g., "Primary 2 Pioneer News").
  - Write down in your book: "Herbert Macaulay used newspapers and politics to fight for Nigeria's freedom."

WEEK 11: REVISION.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- List three heroes/heroines learned this term.
- Match the heroes to their achievements.
- Explain why it is good to be a hero.

CONTENT

Review of Second Term Heroes and Heroines

Let us remember the brave and great Nigerians we learned about this term:

Queen Amina of Zazzau: The warrior queen who built strong walls to protect her cities.

Moremi of Ile-Ife: The brave and clever woman who sacrificed her freedom to discover the secret of her town's enemies and saved her people with fire.

Oba Ewuare of Benin: The great king who rebuilt Benin City, built a grand palace, and promoted famous bronze art.

Usman dan Fodio: The scholar and reformer who founded the Sokoto Caliphate and promoted education and justice.

Nana Olomu of Itsekiri: The powerful trader who fought against the British to protect his people's palm oil trade.

Funmilayo Ransome-Kuti: The fearless women's rights activist who led market women in protest against unfair taxes and fought for girls' education.

Herbert Macaulay: The "Father of Nigerian Nationalism" who used newspapers and politics to fight for Nigeria's independence from British rule.

Why Be a Hero?

It is good to learn from heroes because they show us how to be brave, helpful, stand for truth, and love our country. We may not all do big things like them, but we can be heroes in small ways by being kind, honest, and helping others.

EVALUATION

1. Which heroine built protective walls around her cities?
2. Which heroine saved the people of Ile-Ife by using fire?
3. Whose face is on the One Naira coin?
4. Who was the first woman in Nigeria to drive a car?
5. Who was the great scholar and teacher who founded the Sokoto Caliphate?
6. Who was the powerful trader from the Niger Delta who resisted the British?

ASSIGNMENT

- Study your notes on all the heroes and heroines for your examination.
  - Choose your favorite hero or heroine from the list and tell your family one thing about them.
  - Make sure your history notebook for this term is complete and neat.

PRIMARY 2 NIGERIAN HISTORY LESSON NOTES

THIRD TERM

---

WEEK 1: POLITICAL DEVELOPMENTS: COLONIAL PERIOD IN NIGERIA.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Define the word "colonial" simply.
- Mention the name of the country that ruled Nigeria long ago.
- Explain why the British first came to Nigeria.
- Describe how Nigerians felt about being ruled by strangers.

CONTENT

What does Colonial Mean?

Colonial describes a situation where a strong foreign country takes control of another country and its people. Imagine if a stranger came into your house, started telling everyone what to do, ate your food, and made all the rules without asking you. That is similar to colonialism. The foreign country is called the colonial master, and the controlled country is called a colony.

The British in Nigeria

The foreign country that ruled Nigeria was Britain (also called Great Britain or the United Kingdom). The British people came to Nigeria in ships.

First as Traders: They first came to buy and sell things. They were very interested in Nigerian goods like palm oil, palm kernel, rubber, cocoa, and groundnuts.

Then as Rulers: Later, they wanted more control over the land and trade. They used their power and agreements with some local rulers to gradually take over. They made new laws and told Nigerians how to govern themselves.

Nigeria as a British Colony

For many years, Nigeria was a British colony. This meant that the British government in London made the most important decisions for Nigeria. A British Governor was sent to rule in Nigeria.

How Nigerians Felt

Most Nigerians were not happy about this. They wanted to rule their own land. They did not like strangers from another country making laws for them in their own home. They felt it was unfair and began to desire freedom and independence.

EVALUATION

1. What does it mean when one country rules and controls another country?
2. Which European country ruled Nigeria as a colony?
3. Did the British first come to Nigeria mainly to trade or to rule?
4. Were Nigerians happy to be ruled by the British?
5. What do we call a country that is controlled by another country? (A colony/An empire)

ASSIGNMENT

- Ask your parents or grandparents if they know any stories from the "colonial days" or "British time."
  - Draw a picture of a ship sailing on the sea (showing how the British came to Nigeria).
  - Write down in your book: "Nigeria was once ruled by Britain as a colony."

WEEK 2: POLITICAL DEVELOPMENTS: NIGERIAN LEADERS WHO FOUGHT FOR FREEDOM.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Mention three Nigerian leaders who fought for freedom.
- State the nickname of Dr. Nnamdi Azikiwe.
- Explain how these leaders fought (did they use guns?).
- Define "freedom" in this context.

CONTENT

Fighting for Freedom

Many brave and educated Nigerian men and women stood up and said, "We want to rule ourselves! We want to be free!" These people are called Nationalists or Freedom Fighters. They loved Nigeria deeply and worked hard to end colonial rule.

Our Great Nationalist Heroes

Here are some of the most important leaders:

- Dr. Nnamdi Azikiwe: A very popular and inspiring leader. He was fondly called "Zik" or "Zik of Africa." He was a great speaker and writer.

Chief Obafemi Awolowo: A strong and clever leader from the Western Region. He strongly believed in free education for all children.

Sir Ahmadu Bello: A respected prince and leader from the Northern Region. He was called the "Sardauna of Sokoto." He worked hard to develop the North.

Sir Abubakar Tafawa Balewa: A gentle and respected teacher who became a great political leader. He was known for his calm and "Golden Voice."

Their Weapon: Words and Ideas

These leaders did not fight the British with guns, arrows, or violence. They fought with:

Words: in powerful speeches.

Ideas: in newspapers and books.

Organisation: by forming political parties and groups.

Negotiations: and discussions with the British government.

They peacefully demanded the right for Nigerians to govern themselves. This fight is called the struggle for independence. Freedom in this context means Self-Government or Independence – the ability for Nigerians to make their own laws, choose their own leaders, and control their own resources.

EVALUATION

1. Mention the names of two Nigerian leaders who fought for independence.
2. Who was called "Zik of Africa"?
3. Did these nationalist leaders use guns and bombs to fight the British?
4. What was the title of Sir Ahmadu Bello? (The Sardauna of _____)
5. What did these leaders want for Nigeria?

ASSIGNMENT

- Ask your parents to show you a picture of Dr. Nnamdi Azikiwe (his portrait is on the 500 Naira note).
- Write down the names of three Nigerian nationalist heroes.
- Draw a picture of a person standing and speaking with a megaphone or in front of a crowd, to represent how they fought with words.

WEEK 3: POLITICAL DEVELOPMENTS: NIGERIA'S INDEPENDENCE.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Define independence.
- State the exact date Nigeria gained independence.
- Describe what happened to the flags on that day.
- Mention who came from Britain to represent the Queen.

CONTENT

What is Independence?

Independence means freedom from the control of another country. It is when a colony becomes a free and sovereign nation. For a person, it is like when you grow up and can make your own decisions. For Nigeria, it meant we could now govern ourselves, make our own laws, and manage our own affairs without asking Britain for permission.

October 1, 1960 – A Day of Glory On Saturday, October 1, 1960, Nigeria became an independent country! It was a day of great joy, celebration, and pride for all Nigerians.

The Independence Day Celebration

The British Representative: Princess Alexandra of Kent came from Britain to represent Queen Elizabeth II. She handed over the constitutional documents (symbols of power) to Nigerian leaders.

The Flag Ceremony: This was the most symbolic moment. At midnight (12:00 AM) on October 1st, in Tafawa Balewa Square in Lagos:

- The British flag, called the Union Jack, was slowly lowered.
- The new Nigerian flag, the Green-White-Green, was proudly raised high for the first time.

Nationwide Joy: There were parades, dances, fireworks, singing, and prayers all over the country. People celebrated being masters of their own destiny.

EVALUATION

1. What does independence mean for a country?
2. When is Nigeria's Independence Day? (Give the full date).
3. Which flag was raised up high on Independence Day?
4. Which flag was lowered during the ceremony?
5. Which royal person came from Britain to represent the Queen at the independence ceremony?

ASSIGNMENT

- Draw the Nigerian flag in your book.
- Colour it correctly: two Green vertical stripes at the sides and one White vertical stripe in the middle.
- Write the historic date "October 1, 1960" clearly under your drawing.

WEEK 4: POLITICAL DEVELOPMENTS: FIRST LEADERS OF INDEPENDENT NIGERIA.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Name the first Prime Minister of Nigeria.
- Name the first President of Nigeria.
- Explain simply what these leaders did.
- Describe the feeling of Nigerians at that time.

CONTENT

Our First Leaders

After independence, Nigerians had to choose their own leaders to run the new country. These were the first Nigerians to hold these top positions:

Sir Abubakar Tafawa Balewa: He became the First Prime Minister of Nigeria. The Prime Minister was the head of the government, responsible for the day-to-day running of the country.

- Dr. Nnamdi Azikiwe: He became the First President of Nigeria. The President was the Ceremonial Head of State, representing the unity of the nation.

Building a New Nation These leaders had a huge and important job. They had to:

- Build a new government for all Nigerians.
- Build schools, hospitals, roads, and railways to develop the country.
- Make good laws to keep peace and promote progress.
- Unite the different regions and ethnic groups to work together as one Nigeria.

A Time of Pride and Hope

Nigerians were very proud and full of hope. After many years of being ruled by foreigners, they were now in charge of their own country. There was a strong feeling that with hard work, Nigeria could become a great and prosperous nation.

EVALUATION

1. Who was the first Prime Minister of independent Nigeria?
2. Who was the first President of Nigeria?
3. Were these first leaders British or Nigerian?
4. Mention one big task they had after independence (e.g., building schools).
5. Why were Nigerians feeling proud at that time?

ASSIGNMENT

- Write a short "Thank You" note in your book to the first leaders of Nigeria for their hard work in leading the new nation. (You can start with "Dear Sir Tafawa Balewa and Dr. Azikiwe...").
- Ask your parents if they can show you a picture of Sir Tafawa Balewa (his portrait is on the 5 Naira note).

- Draw a stick figure wearing a traditional cap (like a fila or tuwo) to represent a Nigerian leader.

WEEK 5: MID-TERM EXAMINATION.

---

WEEK 6: MID-TERM BREAK.

---

WEEK 7: POLITICAL DEVELOPMENTS: NIGERIAN SYMBOLS AND IDENTITY.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Describe the Nigerian flag.
- State the meaning of the Green and White colors.
- Mention two other national symbols.
- Explain what the Eagle and Shield represent on the Coat of Arms.

CONTENT

The National Flag

Our flag is a symbol of our nation. It has three vertical stripes.

Two Green Stripes (on the sides): The color Green represents Nigeria's rich agriculture and natural wealth – our fertile land, forests, and natural resources.

One White Stripe (in the middle): The color White represents Peace and Unity. It is a prayer and a hope that all the different people in Nigeria will live together in peace.

Other Important National Symbols

These are special emblems that belong to every Nigerian and represent our country:

The National Anthem: "Nigeria We Hail Thee..." This is our official national song. We stand at attention when it is sung to show respect.

The National Pledge: "I pledge to Nigeria my country..." This is a solemn promise we make to be loyal, faithful, and honest to our nation.

- The Coat of Arms: This is the official seal or badge of Nigeria. Each part has a meaning:

The Black Shield: Represents Nigeria's fertile soil.

The White "Y" Shape (Wavy Pall): Represents the two major rivers: River Niger and River Benue, which meet in Nigeria.

The Red Eagle: Stands for Strength and Pride.

The Two White Horses: Stand for Dignity.

The Ground with Flowers (Costus Spectabilis): Represents the beauty of our land.

The Motto: "Unity and Faith, Peace and Progress" – our national goals.

EVALUATION

1. What do the two green parts of the Nigerian flag represent?
2. What does the white part in the middle of the flag stand for?
3. Mention two other national symbols besides the flag.
4. What does the Eagle on the Coat of Arms symbolize? (Strength/Peace)
5. What does the black shield on the Coat of Arms represent?
6. Which two famous Nigerian rivers are shown by the "Y" shape on the Coat of Arms?

ASSIGNMENT

- Recite the National Pledge correctly to your parents at home. Remember to stand at attention.

- Draw a simple shield shape and color it black.
  - Write down in your book: "Green stands for Agriculture, White stands for Peace and Unity."

WEEK 8: POLITICAL DEVELOPMENTS: UNITY IN NIGERIA.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Explain what "Unity" means.
- Mention two things that are different about Nigerians (Language, Tribe).
- State why we need to be united.
- Demonstrate unity through a class activity.

CONTENT

Different but One

Nigeria is like a big family with many different members. In our Nigerian family:

- We speak different languages (Hausa, Yoruba, Igbo, Efik, Kanuri, Tiv, etc. – over 500 languages!).
- We belong to different ethnic groups or tribes (over 250).
- We wear different traditional clothes.

- We eat different delicious foods.
- We practice different religions (Christianity, Islam, Traditional beliefs).

What is Unity?

Unity does not mean we are all the same. It means coming together and working as one team despite our differences. It means agreeing to live together in peace, respect each other, and help one another. "Unity in Diversity" is our strength.

Why Unity is Very Important

- Strength: A broomstick alone is easy to break. But many broomsticks tied together in a bundle are very strong. Nigeria is strong when we are united.

Peace: Unity helps to prevent fights, conflicts, and wars between different groups.

Progress: When we work together as one, we can build better schools, better roads, and develop our country faster. We can solve problems more easily.

National Pride: A united Nigeria is respected by other countries in the world.

Our National Motto: "Unity and Faith, Peace and Progress." Unity comes first because it is the foundation for everything else.

EVALUATION

1. Does everyone in Nigeria speak the same language?
2. What does Unity mean?
3. Give one reason why unity is important for Nigeria.
4. Is it good to hate or fight someone because they are from a different tribe or religion?
5. Complete this phrase: "One Nigeria, One _____." (People/Destination)

ASSIGNMENT

- Draw a circle of people (stick figures) holding hands to show unity.

- In class or at home, ask a friend: "Which ethnic group are you from?" Then tell them yours. Say "That's nice!"
  - Write down in your book with pride: "I am a proud Nigerian."

WEEK 9: POLITICAL DEVELOPMENTS: IMPORTANT PLACES IN NIGERIAN HISTORY.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Mention two important places in Nigerian history.
- Identify where the President lives.
- State what is kept in a museum.
- Explain why we should protect these places.

CONTENT

Places that Tell Our Story

There are special buildings, monuments, and natural sites in Nigeria that are important to our history. They remind us of key events and help us learn about our past.

Important Historical Places

Independence Building (Lagos): Also known as the Federal Secretariat, it is a very tall building in Lagos where important government work was done soon after independence.

Aso Rock (Abuja): This is a very large rock formation in the capital city, Abuja. The Presidential Villa (where the President lives and works) and other important government buildings are located near it. "Aso" means "Victorious" in the language of the original settlers.

National Museum (Lagos and others): This is a building where historical artefacts are kept, preserved, and displayed. You can see old crowns, bronze works, pottery, traditional weapons, and archaeological finds there. It's like a house of history.

Tafawa Balewa Square (Lagos): This is a large public square. It is historically important because it was here that the Nigerian flag was first raised at independence on October 1, 1960. It is named after our first Prime Minister.

Protecting Our Heritage

We must take care of these important places. We should:

- Not litter or damage them.
- Visit them with respect to learn.
- Tell others about their importance.

By protecting them, we keep our history alive for our children and grandchildren.

EVALUATION

1. Near which famous rock in Abuja does the President of Nigeria live and work?
2. What important event happened at Tafawa Balewa Square in Lagos on October 1, 1960?
3. What kind of objects do we find in a National Museum?
4. Is the Independence Building located in Abuja or Lagos?
5. Why is it important to keep these places safe and clean?

ASSIGNMENT

- Ask your parents if they have ever visited Lagos or Abuja, and what they saw there.

- Draw a big, tall rock to represent Aso Rock.
  - Write down the name of the place where the President lives: The Presidential Villa, Aso Rock, Abuja.

WEEK 10: POLITICAL DEVELOPMENTS: BEING A GOOD NIGERIAN CITIZEN.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Define who a citizen is.
- List three ways to be a good citizen.
- Explain why we must obey laws.
- Pledge to be a good Nigerian.

CONTENT

Who is a Citizen?

A citizen is a legal member of a country. If you were born in Nigeria or your parents are Nigerian, you are a citizen of Nigeria. It means Nigeria is your country, and you have both rights and responsibilities.

How to be a Good Citizen

To help make Nigeria a better place for everyone, we must all try to be good citizens. Good citizens:

- Love their Country: They are proud to be Nigerian. They respect the national symbols (flag, anthem, pledge).

Obey Laws and Rules: They follow the laws of the country and the rules at home, in school, and in the community. Laws help to keep order and safety for everyone.

Respect the Rights of Others: They are kind, tolerant, and respectful to other people, no matter their tribe, religion, or background.

- Perform their Duties: They do their work well. For pupils, your duty is to go to school, learn hard, and be well-behaved.

Care for the Environment: They keep their surroundings clean. They do not throw litter on the road or destroy public property.

- Participate and Help: They vote when they are older. They help people in need in their community.

We are the Future

You, the children of Nigeria, are the future leaders, doctors, teachers, engineers, and farmers of this country. If you learn to be good, responsible, and hardworking citizens now, you will help build a great, peaceful, and prosperous Nigeria in the future.

EVALUATION

1. Are you a citizen of Nigeria?
2. Mention two things a good citizen does.
3. What should you do when the National Anthem is playing? (Stand at attention/Sit down)
4. Is it good for a citizen to break the laws of the country?
5. Who are the future leaders and builders of Nigeria?

ASSIGNMENT

- Stand in front of a mirror, place your right hand on your chest, and recite the National Pledge clearly and with meaning.
- Do a good citizen action: pick up litter (rubbish) around your house or street and put it in the dustbin.
- Draw a picture of yourself helping someone (like helping an elderly person carry something or sharing with a friend) to show good citizenship.

WEEK 11: REVISION.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Recall the date of independence.
- Identify national symbols and leaders.
- Explain the importance of unity.

Review of Third Term Work

Let's remember the journey of Nigeria becoming a modern nation:

Colonial Rule: The period when Britain ruled Nigeria as a colony.

Freedom Fighters (Nationalists): Heroes like Azikiwe (Zik), Awolowo, Ahmadu Bello, and Tafawa Balewa who fought for independence with words and ideas.

- Independence: October 1, 1960 – the day Nigeria became free. The Nigerian flag (Green-White-Green) was raised.

First Leaders: Sir Abubakar Tafawa Balewa (First Prime Minister) and Dr. Nnamdi Azikiwe (First President).

National Symbols: The Flag (Green for Agriculture, White for Peace), Coat of Arms, National Anthem, and Pledge.

- Unity: Living together in peace despite our many differences (tribes, languages). It is our strength.

Citizenship: Our responsibility to be good, law-abiding, and patriotic Nigerians.

EVALUATION

1. Who was the first Prime Minister of independent Nigeria?
2. What is the meaning of the white color on the Nigerian flag?

3. When do we celebrate Nigeria's Independence Day?
4. What is the name of the famous rock in Abuja where the President's office is?
5. Mention one simple way you can be a good citizen.

ASSIGNMENT

- Study all your notes from this term to prepare for your final examination.
- Ensure your Nigerian History notebook for the year is complete, neat, and well-organized.
- Practice singing the National Anthem correctly and with understanding.
