PRIMARY 1 ISLAMIC STUDIES LESSON NOTES

FIRST TERM

WEEK 1: ARABIC ALPHABET (PART 1).

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Identify the first seven Arabic letters (Alif to Kha).
- Pronounce the letters correctly.
- Write the letters: أ, ب, ت, ث, ج, ح, خ .
- Differentiate between letters with dots and letters without dots.

CONTENT

1. Introduction to Arabic Letters

The Arabic language is the language of the Qur'an. It is the language Allah chose for His final book. There are special letters we use to write Arabic, just like we use A, B, C in English. Today we will learn the first seven letters. They are the building blocks for Arabic words.

- Alif (ا): Looks like a straight standing stick. It is tall and does not join to the letter before it.
- Alif: |||
- Ba (ب): Looks like a small boat or a smile with one dot under it.
- Ta (ت): Looks like a boat with two dots on top, like two little eyes.
- Tha (ث): Looks like a boat with three dots on top, like three little stars.
- Jim (ج): Has a big, round belly with one dot inside, like a jellybean in a bowl.
- Ha (ح): Has a big, round belly but no dot inside. It is an empty bowl.
- Kha (خ): Has a big belly with one dot on top of its head, like a hat.

2. Pronunciation and Sound Formation

- Alif: says "aa" like the 'a' in "father". It is a long, open sound.
- Ba: comes from closing your lips and opening them (ba-ba-ba), like the sound of a baby.
- Ta: is a soft sound from the tip of the tongue touching the top teeth.
- Tha: is pronounced by putting the tip of the tongue between the teeth (soft 'th' like in "think").
- Jim: is a strong sound (ja) that comes from the middle of the mouth, like the 'j' in "jam".
- Ha: comes deep from the throat. It is a clean 'h' sound, like you are breathing on a mirror.
- Kha: is a scratching sound from the top of the throat, like gently clearing your throat.

3. Writing Practice We write Arabic from right to left. This is the opposite of English.

- Alif: Draw a straight line from top to bottom.
- Start here → |||
- Ba, Ta, Tha: Start with a small curve like a smile, then add the dots in the right place.
- Ba: ~. (dot below)

- Jim, Ha, Kha: Draw a small head (like a backwards 'c') and then a big curved belly below the line.
- Jim: c) (dot inside)

EVALUATION

- Which letter looks like a tall stick?
- How many dots does the letter Ba (ب) have, and where are they?
- Where is the dot for the letter Jim (ج)—inside, on top, or below?
- Pronounce the letter Tha (ث). Put your tongue between your teeth.
- Which letter has a dot on its head: Ha (ح) or Kha (خ)?

ASSIGNMENT

- Write the letter Alif (ا) five times in a row from right to left.
- Draw the letter Ba (ب) three times and put the dot in the correct place each time.
- Match the letter to its sound by drawing a line:
- Alif (aa)
- Ba (ba)
- Jim (ja)

WEEK 2: ARABIC ALPHABET (PART 2).

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Identify the letters Dal, Dhal, Ra, Zay, Sin, Shin, and Sad.
- Differentiate between similar letters (Dal/Dhal, Ra/Zay, Sin/Shin).
- Pronounce the letters clearly.
- Write the letters correctly.

CONTENT

1. Continuation of Arabic Letters

- Dal (د): Looks like a small sitting chair or a backward 'C'.
- Dhal (ذ): Looks like Dal but has one dot on top, like a little flag.
- Ra (ر): Slides down like a banana or a slide in the park.
- Ra: \ \
- Zay (ز): Slides down like Ra but has one dot on top of the slide.
- Sin (س): Has three sharp teeth at the top and a big tummy below.

- It hisses like a snake: "sss".
- Shin (ش): Looks like Sin but has three dots on top of its teeth, like three berries.
- Sad (ص): Has a loop head (like a little knot) and a big, round tummy.
- It has a strong, heavy sound.

2. Differentiation Between Similar Letters

- Dal vs. Dhal: Dal has no dot. Dhal has a dot on top.
- You bite your tongue a little for Dhal (like the 'th' in "that").
- Ra vs. Zay: Ra has no dot and sounds like a growl.
- Zay has a dot and makes a buzzing sound "Zzz" like a bee.
- Sin vs. Shin: Sin has no dots and makes a hissing sound "sss".
- Shin has three dots and makes a shushing sound "shhh", like telling someone to be quiet.

3. Writing Practice

- Dal/Dhal: Start with a small curve sitting on the line.
- Dal: c
- Dhal: c. (dot above)
- Ra/Zay: Start above the line and slide down below the line in one smooth motion.
- Sin/Shin/Sad: Make the teeth (for Sin/Shin) or the loop (for Sad) above the line, then scoop the tummy below.

EVALUATION

- Which letter has a dot: Dal (د) or Dhal (ذ)?
- What sound does the letter Zay (ز) make? Can you buzz like a bee?
- How many dots does Shin (ش) have?

- Write the letter Ra (ر) on your slate.
- Identify this letter: س. Does it hiss or shush?
- Pronounce the letter Sad (ص) heavily. Feel it in your chest.

ASSIGNMENT

- Write Dal (د) and Dhal (ذ) three times each. Circle the one with the dot.
- Circle the letter that has three dots: (ش/س).
- Color the letter Sad (ص) in your workbook. Its strong sound is like a drum.

WEEK 3: ARABIC ALPHABET (PART 3).

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Identify the letters Dad, Ta, Za, Ayn, Ghayn, Fa, and Qaf.
- Distinguish between heavy and light sounds.
- Write the letters correctly.
- Pronounce the letters with correct articulation.

CONTENT

1. Continuation of Arabic Letters

- Dad (ض): Looks like Sad (ص) but has a dot on top.
- It is a very heavy sound, like a big, deep drum.
- Ta (ط): Has a loop and a stick standing on it. It is heavy.
- Za (ظ): Looks like Ta but has a dot on top. It is also heavy.
- Ayn (ع): Looks like a small 'c' sitting on top of a big 'c'.
- It is an open mouth sound from deep in the throat, like you are surprised "aaa?".

- Ayn: _ ()
- Ghayn (غ): Looks like Ayn but has a dot on top.
- It is a gargling sound, like water in your throat.
- Fa (ف): Has a round head, a flat body, and one dot on top.
- It is a light sound like "fa" in "fun".
- Qaf (ق): Has a round head, a deep curvy body, and two dots on top.
- It is a heavy sound from the back of the mouth, like a frog croaking.

2. Heavy and Light Letters Some letters fill up your mouth with sound when you say them. These are called heavy letters. Your mouth feels full.

- Heavy Letters: Dad (ض), Ta (ط), Za (ظ), Qaf (ق). They have a strong, deep echo.
- Light Letters: Fa (ف) is light and easy, like a feather.

3. Writing Practice

- Ta/Za: Draw the loop first, then add the straight stick through it.
- Ayn/Ghayn: Draw a small curve above the line and a big curve below. They look like two eyes.
- Fa/Qaf: The circle head sits on the line. Fa's body is flat.
- Qaf's body goes deep below the line, like a deep bowl.
- Fa: o-
- Qaf: o~ (goes deeper)

EVALUATION

- Which letter has a dot: Ta (ط) or Za (ظ)?
- How many dots does Qaf (ق) have? Is it a heavy or light letter?
- Is Fa (ف) a heavy letter or a light letter? Say it softly.
- Write the letter Ayn (ع). Remember the two curves.

- Pronounce the letter Ghayn (غ) correctly. Can you make a gentle gargling sound?

ASSIGNMENT

- Write the letters Fa (ف) and Qaf (ق) two times each. Notice how Qaf is bigger.
 - Put a dot on the correct letter to make it Za: (ظ/ط).
 - Trace the shape of Ayn (ع) in your workbook. It looks like an eye.

WEEK 4: ARABIC ALPHABET (PART 4).

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Identify the final group of letters: Kaf, Lam, Mim, Nun, Ha, Waw, Ya.
- Recite the complete Arabic alphabet from Alif to Ya.
- Identify simple Arabic words formed by connecting letters.
- Write the final letters correctly.

CONTENT

1. Final Letters

- Kaf (ك): Looks like an 'L' with a small 's' inside it. It says "ka".
- Lam (ل): Looks like a hook or an umbrella handle. It says "la".
- Lam: | _|
- Mim (م): Has a small round head and a tail hanging down. It says "ma", like a happy sound.

- Nun (ن): Looks like a bowl with a dot inside. It says "na".
- Ha (ه): Looks like a circle or a pear. It is a soft 'ha' sound, different from ح .
- Waw (و): Looks like a comma or a small '9'. It says "wa" or "oo".
- Ya (ي): Looks like a duck with two dots under it. It says "ya" or "ee".

2. Complete Alphabet Review We will sing the Arabic alphabet song to remember all 28 letters from Alif to Ya. Singing helps us memorize. Alif, Ba, Ta, Tha, Jim, Ha, Kha, Dal, Dhal, Ra, Zay, Sin, Shin, Sad, Dad, Ta, Za, Ayn, Ghayn, Fa, Qaf, Kaf, Lam, Mim, Nun, Ha, Waw, Ya.

3. Connecting Letters (Introduction) Arabic letters like to hold hands when they are in the middle of a word. They connect to each other.

- Example 1: Ba + Alif + Ba = Baab (باب). The two Ba's connect. It means "Door".
- باب
- Example 2: Alif + Ba = Ab (أب). The Alif stands alone, then Ba connects after. It means "Father".
- Example 3: Alif + Mim = Umm (أم). It means "Mother". These are your first Arabic words!

EVALUATION

- What is the last letter of the Arabic alphabet?
- How many dots are under Ya (ي)?
- Write the letter Lam (ل). It looks like a hook.
- What does the Arabic word "Ab" (أب) mean?
- Recite the first five letters of the alphabet in order.

ASSIGNMENT

- Write the full Arabic alphabet from Alif to Ya on one page. Try to sing as you write.
- Circle the letter Mim (م) in this group: (ك ل م ن).

- Write the word "Baab" (باب) which means door. Connect the letters.

WEEK 5: MID-TERM EXAMINATION.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Attempt questions covering the Arabic alphabet (Alif to Ya).

CONTENT Assessment of Weeks 1–4

- Letter Recognition: Showing letter cards for pupils to name.
- Writing: Writing selected letters from memory.
- Pronunciation: Saying the sound of letters the teacher points to.

EVALUATION

- Administer the Mid-Term Test (Written and Oral).

ASSIGNMENT

- Nil.

WEEK 6: MID-TERM BREAK.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the week, pupils should be able to:

- Rest and prepare for the second half of the term.

CONTENT Holiday/Rest No academic work. Time to relax with family.

EVALUATION

- Nil.

ASSIGNMENT

- Nil.

WEEK 7: SURAT AL-FATIHAH (PART 1).

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- State the meaning of "Al-Fatihah" (The Opening).
- Identify Surat Al-Fatihah as the first chapter of the Qur'an.
- Recite verses 1-4 of the Surah with proper pronunciation.
- Memorize the first four verses.

CONTENT

1. Introduction to Surat Al-Fatihah

- Name: "Al-Fatihah" means "The Opening". It opens the Qur'an and opens our prayers.
- It is the first Surah in the Holy Qur'an. It is Surah number 1.
- We recite it in every Rakah (unit) of our Salah (prayer).
- It is so important that if we forget it, our prayer is not complete.
- It is also called * "Ummul-Kitab" * (The Mother of the Book) because it contains the main meanings of the whole Qur'an.

2. Recitation and Meaning (Verses 1-4) We learn with understanding. Let's know what we are saying to Allah.

- Verse 1: * Bismillaahir Rahmaanir Raheem * - "In the name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful."
- We start everything good with Allah's name.
- Verse 2: * Alhamdu lillaahi Rabbil 'aalamin * - "Praise be to Allah, the Lord of the worlds."
- We thank Allah for everything—the sun, trees, animals, and us.
- Verse 3: * Ar-Rahmaanir-Raheem * - "The Most Gracious, the Most Merciful."
- Allah is full of kindness, now and always.
- Verse 4: * Maaliki Yawmid-Deen * - "Master of the Day of Judgment."
- One day, everyone will stand before Allah to be judged for their good and bad deeds.

3. Learning to Memorize

- We repeat each verse after the teacher, like an echo.
- We say it slowly, clearly, and with love.
- We can clap to the rhythm to help us remember.

EVALUATION

- What is the meaning of the name "Al-Fatihah"?
- Which Surah do we read in every single prayer?
- Recite the first verse (* Bismillah... *). Remember to start with Allah's name.
- Who is the "Lord of the worlds" mentioned in verse 2?
- Let's recite verses 1 to 4 together correctly.

ASSIGNMENT

- Practice reciting verses 1-4 at home with your parents. Be a little teacher for them.
 - What does "Ar-Rahman" mean? (The Most Gracious). He is kind to everyone.
 - Is Surat Al-Fatihah the first chapter or the last chapter of the Qur'an?

WEEK 8: SURAT AL-FATIHAH (PART 2).

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Recite the complete Surat Al-Fatihah (Verses 1-7).
- Memorize verses 5-7.
- Explain the basic meaning of the prayer in the Surah.
- Demonstrate reciting the Surah as done in Salah.

CONTENT

1. Recitation (Verses 5-7)

- Verse 5: * Iyyaaka na'budu wa iyyaaka nasta'een * - "You alone we worship, and You alone we ask for help."
- We pray only to Allah and ask only Him for help.
- Verse 6: * Ihdinas-Siraatal-Mustaqeem * - "Guide us to the straight path."
- We ask Allah to show us the right way, which is Islam.

- Verse 7: * Siraatal-ladheena an'amta 'alayhim... * - "The path of those whom You have blessed...".
- We want to be like the good people (Prophets, good Muslims), not like the bad people who were angry or lost.
- Ameen: After finishing the Surah in prayer, we quietly say "Ameen", meaning "O Allah, please answer our prayer."

2. Basic Meaning

- In this Surah, we do three things: 1) Praise Allah, 2) Promise to worship only Him, 3) Ask Him for guidance.
- The "straight path" means living as a good Muslim: praying, being honest, kind, and obeying parents.

3. Application in Salah

- When we recite in Salah, we stand still and respectful.
- We put our right hand over our left hand on our chest.
- We look down at the place where our head will touch in prostration (Sujood).
- We recite clearly but not too loud, talking to Allah in our hearts.

EVALUATION

- Recite the verse that means "Guide us to the straight path."
- What special word do we say at the end of the Surah in prayer? (Ameen).
- Who do we ask for help in Verse 5? Do we ask others or only Allah?
- Let's recite the full Surat Al-Fatihah together from memory.
- What does "Ameen" mean?

ASSIGNMENT

- Recite the full Surat Al-Fatihah before sleeping tonight. It is a beautiful prayer.
- Teach your younger brother or sister how to say "Ameen" after Al-Fatihah.

- Draw a simple prayer mat (Sajjadah) in your notebook.

WEEK 9: IMAN (FAITH) - PART 1.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Define Iman as "Faith" or "Belief".
- State the first article of faith (Belief in Allah).
- State the second article of faith (Belief in Angels).
- Mention the number of Articles of Faith (Six).

CONTENT

1. Definition of Iman

- Iman: means Faith or Belief. It is like a strong, invisible tree in our hearts.
- It has two parts: 1) Believing in your heart, 2) Saying it with your mouth.
- For example, we believe in Allah in our heart and say "La ilaha illallah".
- A Muslim must have Iman. It is the root of our religion.

2. The Six Articles of Faith There are six (6) most important things every Muslim must believe in. These are called * Arkan al-Iman * (Pillars of Faith). Pillars hold up a building, and these beliefs hold up our Islam.

3. Article 1: Belief in Allah

- We believe there is only One God, Allah. He has no partners.
- He was not born and does not give birth. He has no father, no mother, and no children.
- He created everything: you, me, the sky, the birds. We must worship only Him.

4. Article 2: Belief in Angels (Malaikah)

- Angels are special creatures made from light (Nur). We cannot see them, but they are real.
- They never get tired, never eat, and never disobey Allah. They always do exactly what Allah commands.
- Angel Jibril (Gabriel): is very important. He brought the Qur'an from Allah to Prophet Muhammad (SAW).

EVALUATION

- What does the word "Iman" mean?
- How many Articles of Faith (Pillars of Iman) do we have? Show me with your fingers.
- Who is the One God we worship?
- What are Angels made from? (Light, fire, clay, or water?)
- Can Angels do bad things or disobey Allah?

ASSIGNMENT

- Write the number "6" in your book to remember the six Articles of Faith. Decorate it.
 - Who is the chief Angel who brought the Qur'an? (Angel Jibril).
 - Color the word "ALLAH" beautifully in your workbook.

WEEK 10: IMAN (FAITH) - PART 2.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- List the remaining four articles of faith.
- Identify the Qur'an as the Book of Allah.
- Mention the name of the last Prophet.
- State that we will be judged on the Day of Judgment.

CONTENT

1. Article 3: Belief in the Books of Allah

- Allah sent down holy books to guide His Prophets and their people.
- He sent the Torah to Musa, the Gospel to Isa, and the Zabur to Dawud.
- The final, most important, and protected book for all people until the end of the world is the Holy Qur'an.

2. Article 4: Belief in the Prophets of Allah

- Allah sent Prophets (Nabi) to teach people how to be good and worship only Allah.

- Some Prophets are Adam (first man), Nuh (built the Ark), Ibrahim (Friend of Allah), Musa (spoke to Allah), and Isa (Jesus).
- The last and final Prophet is Prophet Muhammad (SAW). No prophet will come after him.

3. Article 5: Belief in the Day of Judgment (Yawm al-Qiyamah)

- One day, this world will end. The trumpet will sound.
- Allah will bring everyone who ever lived back to life.
- Everyone will be judged for their actions. Good deeds and bad deeds will be weighed on a scale.
- Good people who believed and did good will go to Paradise (Jannah), a beautiful garden of happiness forever.
- Bad people who disbelieved and did evil will be punished.

4. Article 6: Belief in Divine Decree (Al-Qadr)

- We believe that everything good or bad happens only because Allah knows it and allows it.
- Allah knows everything that has happened and everything that will happen.
- This teaches us to be patient when something bad happens and thankful when something good happens.

EVALUATION

- What is the name of the Holy Book for Muslims?
- Who is the last Prophet of Allah? Can you say "Sallallahu alayhi wasallam" after his name?
- Where do good people go after Judgment Day?
- Who knows everything that will happen in the future?
- Mention the names of two Prophets you remember.

ASSIGNMENT

- Draw a simple picture of a book and write "Qur'an" on it.
 - Ask your parents: "Who was the first Prophet?" Write the name.
 - List the 6 Articles of Faith orally to your parents tonight.

WEEK 11: REVISION.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Recall the Arabic alphabet letters.
- Recite Surat Al-Fatihah correctly.
- List the Six Articles of Faith.
- Demonstrate readiness for the end-of-term examination.

CONTENT

1. Arabic Alphabet Review

- Flashcards game: Teacher shows a letter, pupils shout the name and sound.
- Writing race: Pupils come to the board to write letters from Alif to Mim.

2. Surah Review

- Group recitation: The whole class recites Surat Al-Fatihah together with Tajwid.
- Correction time: Teacher gently corrects common mistakes, like the heavy 'Ha' in Ar-Rahman.

3. Iman Review

- Action game: For each of the 6 pillars, we do an action.
- Allah: Point one finger to the sky (One God).
- Angels: Flap arms like wings.
- Books: Open hands like a book.
- Prophets: Stroke imaginary beard (like a wise man).
- Day of Judgment: Stand up very straight and still (standing for judgment).
- Qadr: Nod head (accepting Allah's will).

EVALUATION

- Oral quiz: Quick questions from all topics.
- Writing test: Write 5 Arabic letters the teacher calls out.

ASSIGNMENT

- Study all notes from Week 1 to Week 10 for the end-of-term examination. Ask your parents to test you.

PRIMARY 1 ISLAMIC STUDIES LESSON NOTES

SECOND TERM

WEEK 1: SURAT AN-NAS.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Identify Surat An-Nas as a chapter in the Holy Qur'an.
- State the meaning of "An-Nas" (Mankind/People).
- Recite Surat An-Nas clearly with correct pronunciation.
- Mention who we seek protection from in this Surah (The Whisperer/Shaytan).

CONTENT

1. Introduction to Surat An-Nas

- Surat An-Nas is the 114th and last chapter in the Holy Qur'an.
- "An-Nas": means "The People" or "Mankind". It is about all humans.

- It is a very important prayer for protection. The Prophet (SAW) taught us to recite it before sleeping.

2. Recitation and Meaning

- Verse 1: * Qul a'oodhu bi Rabbin-naas * - "Say: I seek refuge with the Lord of Mankind."
- (Allah is our Master).
- Verse 2: * Malikin-naas * - "The King of Mankind." (Allah is our King).
- Verse 3: * Ilaahin-naas * - "The God of Mankind." (Allah is the only one we worship).
- Verse 4: * Min sharril-waswaasil-khannaas * - "From the evil of the whisperer who withdraws."
- Verse 5: * Alladhee yuwaswisu fee sudoorin-naas * - "Who whispers evil into the chests of mankind."
- Verse 6: * Minal-jinnati wan-naas * - "From among the jinn and mankind."
- (The whisperer can be an evil jinn or a bad person).

3. Significance and Lessons

- This Surah teaches us that Allah is the Lord, King, and God of everyone. He is in charge.
- The "whisperer" is Shaytan (the devil). He whispers bad thoughts like "Take that toy!" or "Don't listen to your mother!"
- Whenever we feel scared, angry, or have a bad thought, we should immediately recite Surat An-Nas and ask Allah for protection.

EVALUATION

- What does "An-Nas" mean?
- Who is the Lord and King of Mankind?

- Who whispers evil thoughts into our hearts?
- Recite the first verse of Surat An-Nas: "Qul a'oodhu..."
- Is Surat An-Nas the first chapter or the last chapter of the Qur'an?

ASSIGNMENT

- Recite Surat An-Nas three times before going to bed for protection.
 - How many verses are in Surat An-Nas? (Ask your parents or count: 6).
 - Write "An-Nas" in your notebook and decorate it.

WEEK 2: SURAT AL-FALAQ.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Identify Surat Al-Falaq as a chapter for protection.
- State the meaning of "Al-Falaq" (The Daybreak/Dawn).
- Recite Surat Al-Falaq with correct pronunciation.
- Mention one thing we seek protection from (darkness, magic, jealousy).

CONTENT

1. Introduction to Surat Al-Falaq

- Surat Al-Falaq is a short, powerful chapter we read to ask Allah for safety from all evils.
- "Al-Falaq": means "The Daybreak" or "Dawn"—the time when the morning light splits the darkness.
- It is a symbol of Allah bringing safety and light.

2. Recitation and Meaning

- Verse 1: * Qul a'oodhu bi Rabbil-falaq * - "Say: I seek refuge with the Lord of the Daybreak."

- Verse 2: * Min sharri maa khalaq * - "From the evil of what He has created."
- (Like harmful animals, sickness).
- Verse 3: * Wa min sharri ghaasiqin idhaa waqab * - "And from the evil of darkness when it spreads."
- (Being scared of the dark).
- Verse 4: * Wa min sharrin-naffaathaati fil-'uqad * - "And from the evil of those who blow on knots."
- (This means from magic or spells).
- Verse 5: * Wa min sharri haasidin idhaa hasad * - "And from the evil of a jealous person when he envies."

3. Understanding Protection We ask Allah, the Lord of light, to protect us from:

- Physical harm: From bad things in creation.
- Fear of darkness: The scary feeling at night.
- Magic: Bad spells or tricks people might do.
- Jealousy: When someone is not happy for you and might wish you harm.
- We say "Masha Allah" to protect ourselves from envy.

EVALUATION

- What does "Al-Falaq" mean? (Daybreak/Dawn).
- Who do we ask for protection in this Surah? (Allah, the Lord of Daybreak).
- Mention one evil thing mentioned in the Surah (e.g., Darkness, Magic, Envy).
- Recite the last verse of Surat Al-Falaq.
- Let's recite the full Surah together.

ASSIGNMENT

- Recite Surat Al-Falaq in the morning when you wake up, thanking Allah for the new day.

- Draw a picture of the Sun rising (Daybreak). Color it.
 - What should you say when you are scared of the dark? (Recite Al-Falaq).

WEEK 3: SURAT AL-IKHLAS.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- State the meaning of Surat Al-Ikhlās (Purity/Sincerity).
- Explain simply that Allah is One (Tawhid).
- Recite Surat Al-Ikhlās correctly.
- Mention that Allah has no parents or children.

CONTENT

1. Introduction to Surat Al-Ikhlās

- This Surah is very special. It is one-third of the Qur'an in reward! It describes who Allah is.
- "Al-Ikhlās": means "Purity" or "Sincerity". It purifies our belief.
- It teaches us Tawhid (Monotheism), which means believing in only One God, with no partners, no equals.

2. Recitation and Meaning

- Verse 1: * Qul Huwa-l-laahu Ahad * - "Say: He is Allah, the One." (Ahad means absolute One).
- Verse 2: * Allaahu-Samad * - "Allah, the Eternal Refuge." (Everyone needs Him, He needs no one).
- Verse 3: * Lam yalid wa lam yoolad * - "He neither begets nor is born."
- Verse 4: * Wa lam yakul-lahu kufuwan ahad * - "And there is no one equal to Him."

3. Understanding Tawhid

- Allah is One (Ahad): Not two or three. He is unique.
- Lam yalid: He has no children. Jesus (Isa) is a prophet, not the son of God.
- Lam yoolad: He has no parents. He was not born like us. He has always existed.
- Kufuwan ahad: There is nobody like Allah. Not in power, not in knowledge, not in anything.
- He is the Greatest.

EVALUATION

- What does "Ahad" mean?
- Does Allah have a father or mother?
- Does Allah have a son or daughter?
- Is there anyone equal to or like Allah?
- Let's recite Surat Al-Ikhlās together with love.

ASSIGNMENT

- Recite Surat Al-Ikhlās three times. It is like reciting the whole Qur'an!
- Write the number "1" big in your book to remember Allah is One.
- Tell your friend today: "Allah is One."

WEEK 4: REVIEW OF QUR'ANIC SURAHS.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Recite the four Surahs learned (Al-Fatihah, An-Nas, Al-Falaq, Al-Ikhlās) from memory.
- Identify which Surah to read for specific purposes (e.g., Protection, Praise).
- Pronounce the Arabic letters correctly while reciting.

CONTENT

1. Comprehensive Recitation We will practice all the Surahs we have learned. They are like special gifts from Allah.

- Surat Al-Fatihah: The opening prayer for Salah. It is a conversation with Allah.
- Surat Al-Ikhlās: It tells us who Allah is (Tawhid).
- Surat Al-Falaq: We read it to seek protection from external harms (darkness, magic, envy).
- Surat An-Nas: We read it to seek protection from internal harms (bad whispers in our heart).

2. Group Recitation

- The class will recite together like a beautiful choir. We will focus on rhythm and clear pronunciation.
- We will stand up respectfully as if we are in prayer.

3. Individual Recitation

- Each pupil will have a turn to recite one Surah of their choice.
- The teacher will be like a gentle coach, helping to fix any mistakes in pronunciation.

EVALUATION

- Which Surah talks about the "Daybreak"?
- Which Surah says "Allah is One (Ahad)"?
- Which Surah do we read in every prayer?
- Recite Surat An-Nas.
- Recite Surat Al-Ikhlās.

ASSIGNMENT

- Practice all four Surahs at home. Be a star reciter for your family.
 - Ask your parents or an elder to listen to you recite and give you a smile.
 - Which is your favourite Surah? Write its name in your notebook and say why.

WEEK 5: MID-TERM EXAMINATION.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Attempt questions based on the Surahs covered from Week 1 to Week 4.

CONTENT Assessment of Weeks 1–4

- Recitation of An-Nas, Al-Falaq, and Al-Ikhlās.
- Meanings of key words (An-Nas = Mankind, Al-Falaq = Daybreak, Ahad = One).
- Simple concept of Tawhid (Oneness of Allah).

EVALUATION

- Administer the Mid-Term Test (Oral Recitation and Short Written Answers).

ASSIGNMENT

- Nil.

WEEK 6: MID-TERM BREAK.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the week, pupils should be able to:

- Rest and prepare for the second half of the term.

CONTENT Holiday/Rest No academic work. Enjoy a well-deserved break.

EVALUATION

- Nil.

ASSIGNMENT

- Nil.

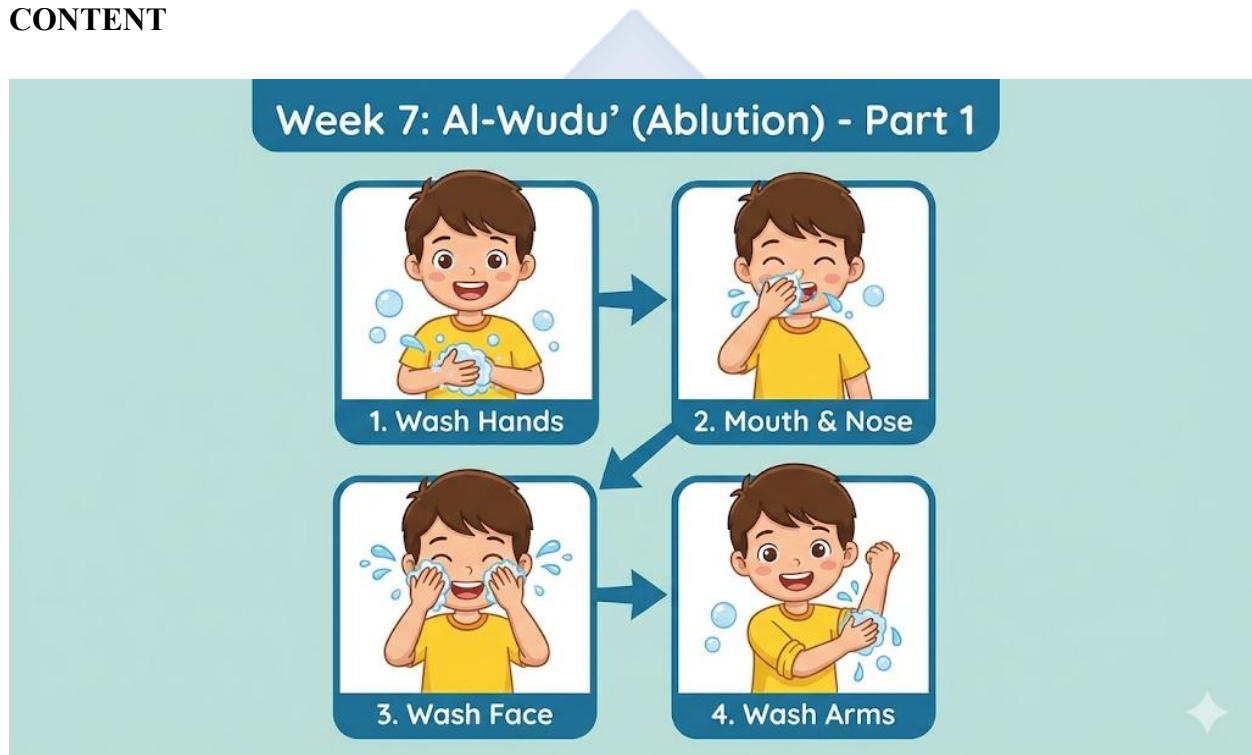

WEEK 7: AL-WUDU' (ABLUTION) - PART 1.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Define Wudu as ritual washing before prayer.
- State that we need clean water for Wudu.
- Mention the first step of Wudu (Intention/Niyyah).
- Demonstrate washing the face and arms.

CONTENT

1. Definition and Importance

- Wudu (Ablution): is a special way of washing specific parts of our body before we stand for Salah (prayer).
- Allah loves those who are clean, both outside and inside. "Purification is half of faith."
- We cannot pray Salah without Wudu. It is a key to having our prayers accepted.

2. Prerequisites

- Water: We must use clean, pure water. It should have no colour, smell, or taste.

- If water is dirty, we cannot use it for Wudu.
- Niyah (Intention): Before we start, in our heart we must think: "I am making Wudu to pray for Allah."
- We don't say it out loud, we just feel it inside.

3. Steps of Wudu (1-4)

- Step 1: Say "Bismillah" (In the name of Allah).
- Then wash both hands up to the wrists, three times. Let water go between fingers.
- Step 2: Take water in your right hand, rinse your mouth three times (swish and spit).
- Then, sniff water into your nose and blow it out, three times. This cleans inside.
- Step 3: Wash your whole face three times.
- From the top of your forehead to the bottom of your chin, and from one ear to the other.
- Step 4: Wash your right arm first, from fingertips to above the elbow, three times.
- Then wash your left arm the same way. The right side gets priority in Islam.

EVALUATION

- What is Wudu?
- Can we use muddy or soapy water for Wudu?
- What do we say before starting Wudu?
- Which arm do we wash first?
- How many times do we wash our face in Wudu?

ASSIGNMENT

- Practice washing your hands and face the Wudu way with clean water at home.
- Draw a picture of a jug or tap with clean water.
- Ask your parents to show you how they wash their arms for Wudu. Watch carefully.

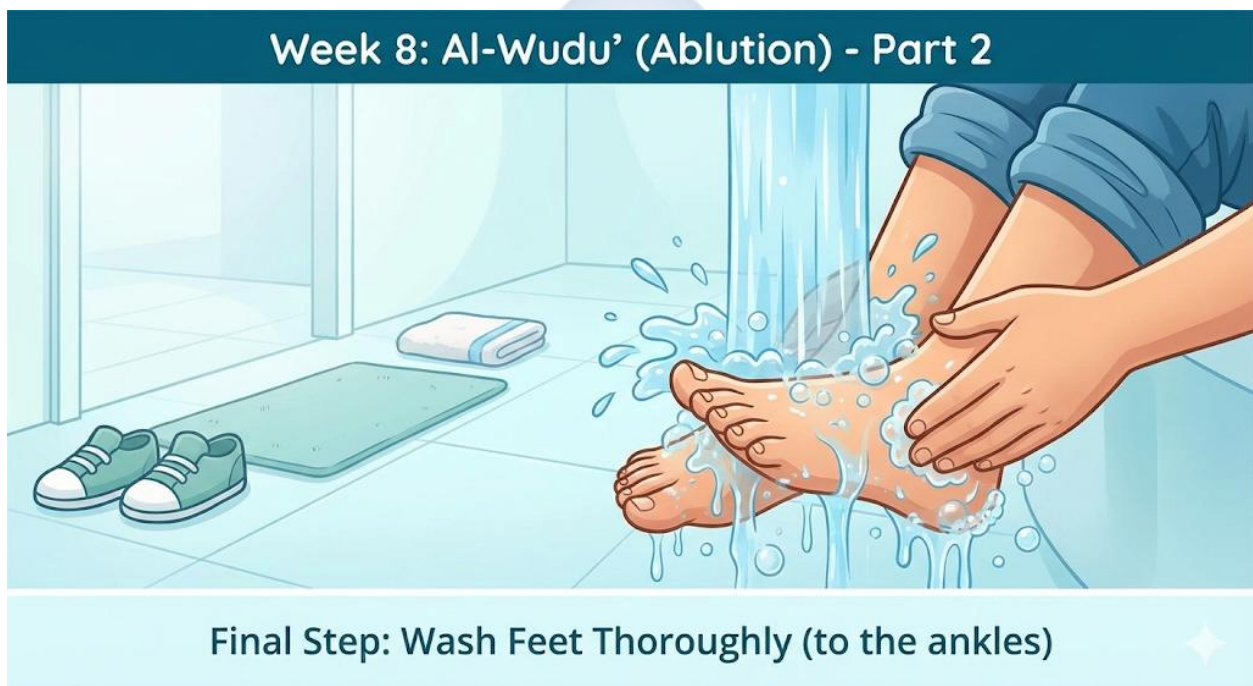

WEEK 8: AL-WUDU' (ABLUTION) - PART 2.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Demonstrate wiping the head and ears.
- Demonstrate washing the feet.
- Mention two things that spoil Wudu.
- Perform the complete Wudu sequence.

CONTENT

1. Remaining Steps of Wudu

- Step 5 (Wiping Head): Wet your hands fresh. Wipe your whole head once, from the front hairline to the back, then back to the front.
- Your hair should get wet.
- Step 6 (Ears): With the same water on your fingers, clean your ears.
- Use your index fingers for inside and thumbs for behind the ears. Do this once.
- Step 7 (Feet): Wash your right foot first, up to the ankle, three times.

- Make sure water goes between all your toes! Then wash the left foot the same way.

2. Sunnah Acts (Good Practices)

- Washing each part three times is Sunnah (the way of the Prophet).
- Using the Miswak (tooth-cleaning stick) to clean teeth before Wudu is a beautiful Sunnah.

3. Things that Nullify (Spoil) Wudu Wudu is like a clean suit. Some things make it dirty, so we need a new one.

1. Going to the toilet (passing urine or stool).
2. Passing wind (farting).
3. Falling asleep deeply (where you don't know what's happening around you). If any of these happen, our Wudu is broken. We must do Wudu again before praying.

EVALUATION

- For the head, do we wash it with lots of water or wipe it with wet hands?
- Which foot do we wash first in Wudu?
- What happens to our Wudu if we go to the toilet?
- How many times do we wipe our head? (Once).
- Show me with your hands how to clean your ears for Wudu.

ASSIGNMENT

- Perform a complete Wudu at home before Maghrib prayer. Ask an adult to watch you.
 - List two body parts we wash in Wudu (e.g., face, feet).
 - What are two things that break Wudu?

WEEK 9: PROPHETS OF ALLAH (SWT) - PART 1.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Define a Prophet as a messenger of Allah.
- Identify Prophet Adam (AS) as the first man and Prophet.
- Narrate simply the story of Prophet Nuh (AS) and the Ark.
- Mention one lesson from Prophet Nuh's story (Obedience).

CONTENT

1. Who is a Prophet?

- A Prophet (Nabi) is a special, chosen man. Allah sends him to teach people how to be good, how to worship only Allah, and to give them good news and warnings.
- Prophets are the best of all people. They never lie, cheat, or do bad things.

2. Prophet Adam (AS)

- Prophet Adam was the first man created by Allah from clay.
- He was also the first Prophet.
- He lived with his wife, Hawwa (Eve), in Jannah (Paradise) before coming to earth.

- He is the father of all human beings. We are all from the family of Adam.

3. Prophet Nuh (AS) - Noah

- After many years, people forgot Allah. They worshipped idols (statues) and did bad things.
- Allah sent Prophet Nuh to warn them for 950 years! But only a few people listened.
- Allah told Nuh to build a huge ship (the Ark) far from the sea. People laughed at him.
- Then, a great flood came with heavy rain. Nuh, his family, and the believers (and two of every animal) went into the Ark and were safe.
- The bad people who disobeyed drowned. This story teaches us to obey Allah and His Prophets.

EVALUATION

- Who was the first Prophet sent by Allah?
- What did Prophet Nuh build when people laughed at him?
- Why did Allah send the great flood?
- Who is the father of all human beings?
- What happens to people who disobey Allah and His messengers?

ASSIGNMENT

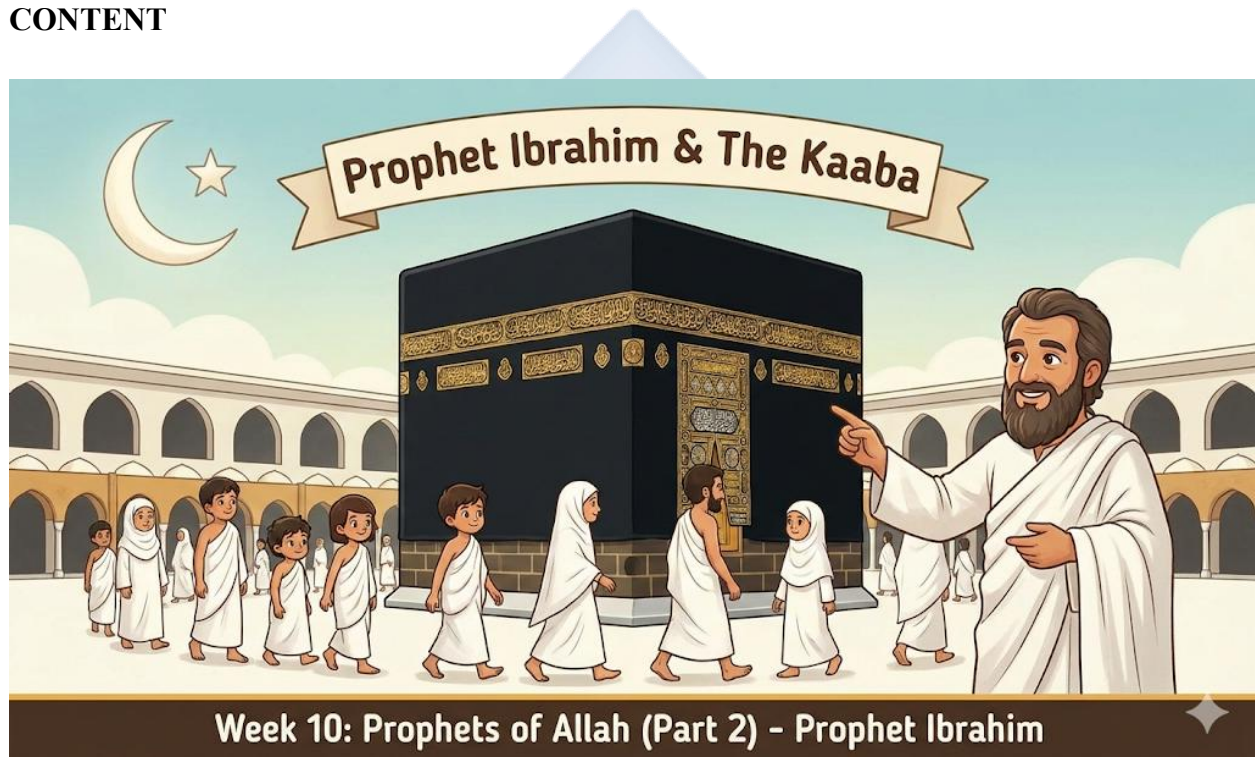

- Draw a big boat (Ark) on water. You can add animals looking out.
 - Who is the first man created by Allah? Write his name.
 - Write the name "Adam" three times.

WEEK 10: PROPHETS OF ALLAH (SWT) - PART 2.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Identify Prophet Ibrahim (AS) as the friend of Allah.
- Identify Prophet Musa (AS) and Prophet Isa (AS).
- Identify Prophet Muhammad (SAW) as the final Prophet.
- State one key fact about each Prophet.

CONTENT

1. Prophet Ibrahim (AS) - Abraham

- He is called "Khalilullah" (the Friend of Allah). He loved Allah very much.
- He built the Ka'bah in Makkah with his son Ismail.
- It is the house of Allah we face in prayer.
- He is the father of many Prophets, like Ismail and Ishaq.

2. Prophet Musa (AS) - Moses

- He was sent to save the Children of Israel from a cruel king called Fir'aun (Pharaoh).

- Allah gave him miracles: His stick turned into a big snake, and his hand became bright white.
- He also split the Red Sea with his stick so his people could escape.

3. Prophet Isa (AS) - Jesus

- He is a great Prophet of Allah. He had no father; his mother was the pious lady Maryam.
- By Allah's permission, he performed miracles: he spoke as a baby, healed the blind, and brought a clay bird to life.

4. Prophet Muhammad (SAW)

- He is the Last and Final Prophet (Seal of the Prophets). No Prophet will come after him.
- The Holy Qur'an was revealed to him through Angel Jibril over 23 years.
- He taught us Islam perfectly—how to pray, be honest, and be kind.
- We must love him more than anyone and follow his Sunnah.

EVALUATION

- Who built the Ka'bah in Makkah?
- Which Prophet split the sea with his stick?
- Who is the mother of Prophet Isa (AS)?
- Who is the last Prophet of Allah? Can you send peace upon him?
- Which holy book was given to Prophet Muhammad (SAW)?

ASSIGNMENT

- Write the full name of the Last Prophet: "Muhammad".
- Ask your parents to tell you the name of Prophet Ibrahim's son who helped build the Ka'bah (Ismail).
- Draw a simple stick (representing the Staff of Musa).

WEEK 11: REVISION.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Recite the learned Surahs correctly.
- Demonstrate the steps of Wudu without assistance.
- Recall the names of the Prophets discussed.
- Prepare for the end-of-term examination.

CONTENT

1. Surah Revision

- Group recitation of An-Nas, Al-Falaq, and Al-Ikhlās. We will focus on clarity.
- Checking for correct Tajwid, like stretching the 'aa' in Ahad.

2. Wudu Practical

- Pupils will form lines. Using a basin of water (or miming at their seat), they will perform the steps of Wudu in order while the teacher watches.
- Teacher will check: Did you start with Bismillah? Right arm first? Wash between toes?

3. Prophets Quiz

- Quick-fire questions:
- Who was the first Prophet? (Adam)
- Who built the Ark? (Nuh)
- Who is the Friend of Allah? (Ibrahim)
- Who split the sea? (Musa)
- Who is the last Prophet? (Muhammad SAW)

EVALUATION

- Oral testing: Each pupil recites one Surah.
- Practical observation: Teacher checks Wudu steps.
- Simple written quiz: Match the Prophet to his key fact.

ASSIGNMENT

- Study all lesson notes from Week 1 to Week 10 for the examination. Make a chart of the Prophets.

PRIMARY 1 ISLAMIC STUDIES LESSON NOTES

THIRD TERM

WEEK 1: MORAL CONDUCT - OBEDIENCE TO ALLAH (PART 1).

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Define obedience (Ta'ah) simply as doing what Allah wants.
- State why it is important to obey Allah.
- Mention "Salah" (Prayer) as a major way to obey Allah.
- Recite a simple phrase about obeying Allah.

CONTENT

1. Definition of Obedience (Ta'ah)

- Obedience: means listening carefully to instructions and doing exactly what we are told to do.
- In Islam, obedience to Allah is called Ta'ah.

- It means doing what Allah loves (like praying, being honest) and staying away from what Allah hates (like lying, stealing).

2. Importance of Obeying Allah

- Allah is our Creator. He made us, so He knows what is best for us, just like a maker knows his toy.
- When we obey Allah, He becomes happy with us. His pleasure is the most important thing.
- Obeying Allah is the key to entering Jannah (Paradise), a place of endless happiness.

3. Ways of Showing Obedience

- We show obedience by praying on time. Prayer is a direct command from Allah.
- We show obedience by telling the truth, even when it's hard.
- We show obedience by being kind and helpful to our parents.

4. Performing Salah as Obedience

- The most important way to obey Allah is by performing Salah (Prayer) five times a day.
- We pray because Allah commanded us to, not just because we feel like it.
- When we hear the Adhan (call to prayer), we should stop playing, watching TV, or eating and get ready to pray.
- This shows we put Allah first.

5. Qur'anic Verse on Obedience

- Allah says in the Qur'an (4:59): "Obey Allah and obey the Messenger..."
- This means we must follow Allah's words in the Qur'an and the teachings of Prophet Muhammad (SAW).

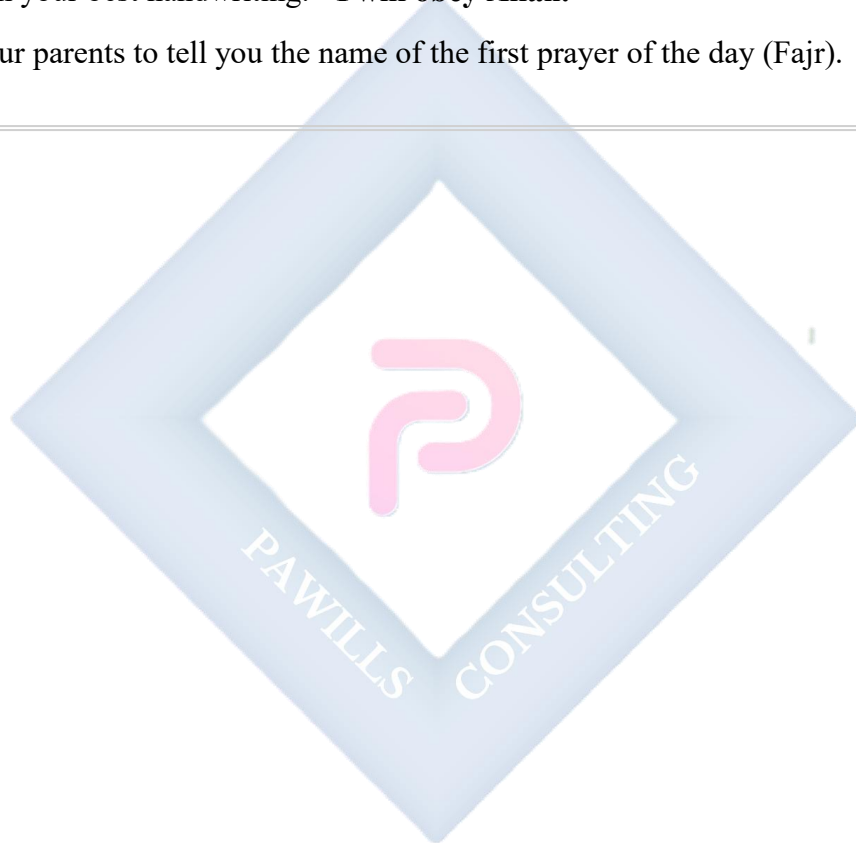

EVALUATION

- What does "Ta'ah" mean?
- Who created us and knows what is best for us?

- Where will obedient people go? (Jannah).
- How many times a day do we pray to obey Allah? (Five).
- What should you do when you hear the Adhan (call to prayer)?
- Does Allah love those who obey Him? (Yes!).

ASSIGNMENT

- Draw a simple prayer mat (rectangle with patterns).
 - Write in your best handwriting: "I will obey Allah."
 - Ask your parents to tell you the name of the first prayer of the day (Fajr).

WEEK 2: MORAL CONDUCT - OBEDIENCE TO ALLAH (PART 2).

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Identify obedience to parents as a command from Allah.
- Mention two ways to obey teachers and elders.
- State that we must follow the Sunnah of Prophet Muhammad (SAW).
- Mention one reward for obedience and one consequence of disobedience.

CONTENT

1. Obedience to Parents (Birr al-Walidayn)

- Allah commands us to be good and obedient to our parents right after commanding us to worship Him alone.
- We obey them by doing what they ask immediately and with a happy face.
- We must speak to them gently and respectfully. Never say "Ugh!" or shout at them.
- Example: If your mother says "clean your room," doing it quickly and well makes Allah and your mother happy.

2. Obedience to Teachers and Elders

- Teachers are like our parents at school. They help us learn good things.
- We must listen quietly when they teach.
- We obey elders (older brothers, sisters, aunts, uncles, neighbours) by showing them respect.
- Simple acts of respect: Stand up when an elder enters the room, say "please" and "thank you," offer them your seat.

3. Following the Sunnah

- Prophet Muhammad (SAW) is the Messenger of Allah. His way of life is called the Sunnah.
- If we love Allah, we must love and copy the Prophet. This is also a form of obedience.
- Examples of Sunnah we can follow: Eating with the right hand, saying "Bismillah" before eating, smiling at others.

4. Rewards and Consequences

- Reward for Obedience: If we obey Allah, our parents, and teachers, Allah gives us peace in our hearts, happiness, blessings in this life, and Jannah in the next life.
- Consequence of Disobedience: If we disobey (lie, be rude, skip prayer), Allah is displeased.
- We may feel sad, worried, get into trouble, or be punished. Disobedience leads away from Jannah.

EVALUATION

- Who commanded us to obey our parents? (Allah).
- How should we speak to our parents? (Gently/respectfully).
- Mention one way to show respect to your teacher. (Listen quietly/stand up).
- Whose way of life is called the "Sunnah"?
- What hand did the Prophet (SAW) use to eat? (Right hand).
- What is a great reward for being obedient? (Jannah).

ASSIGNMENT

- Do something helpful for your mother or father today without being asked (e.g., bring them water).
 - Write in your book: "I respect my teachers."
 - Mention one thing the Prophet did that you can do too today (e.g., smile at three people).

WEEK 3: ISLAMIC MORAL VALUES - PART 1.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Define Truthfulness (Sidq) and Honesty (Amanah).
- State why a Muslim must always speak the truth.
- Define Kindness (Ihsan) as helping others.
- Mention that Prophet Muhammad (SAW) was known as "Al-Amin" (The Trustworthy).

CONTENT

1. Truthfulness (Sidq)

- Sidq: means telling the truth always, no matter what.
- A Muslim does not tell lies, even if they are afraid of getting into trouble.
- Telling the truth might get you a small scolding now, but it keeps you safe from Allah's anger.
- Allah loves those who are truthful. Lies are a bad habit that Shaytan likes, because they lead to more sins.

2. Honesty (Amanah)

- Amanah: means being trustworthy. It means people can trust you with their things and their secrets.
- Example 1: If your friend gives you a toy to keep for a day, you must keep it safe and return it in good condition.
- Don't break it or say it's yours.
- Example 2: If you find a pencil, money, or an eraser on the floor, do not take it.
- Give it to your teacher. This is honesty.

3. Kindness (Ihsan)

- Ihsan: means doing good to others, treating them in the best way.
- We should be kind to people (parents, friends, neighbours) and to animals (giving a thirsty dog water, not hurting a cat).
- Example: Sharing your lunch with a friend who forgot theirs. Giving your seat to an older person on the bus.

4. The Example of the Prophet

- Even before he became a Prophet, Muhammad (SAW) was famous for his honesty.
- The people of Makkah called him "Al-Amin," which means "The Trustworthy One."
- They would keep their valuable things with him for safety.
- We should try to be like him. Let people say about us: "He/She is honest and kind."

EVALUATION

- What is the meaning of "Sidq"? (Truthfulness).
- Is it good to tell a lie to escape punishment? Why or why not?
- What should you do if you find money in the classroom?
- What does "Al-Amin" mean? (The Trustworthy).
- Who was called Al-Amin even before he was a Prophet?
- Mention one way you can be kind to a friend at school.

ASSIGNMENT

- Write the title "Al-Amin" in your notebook and decorate it.
 - Draw a picture of a pencil. This represents a lost item you should return.
 - Share a toy or a snack with your sibling or a friend today. Practice kindness.

WEEK 4: ISLAMIC MORAL VALUES - PART 2.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Explain Patience (Sabr) as not getting angry quickly.
- Demonstrate Gratitude (Shukr) by saying "Al-Hamdulillah".
- Identify Cleanliness (Taharah) as part of faith.
- Mention two examples of good manners (Akhlāq).

CONTENT

1. Patience (Sabr)

- Sabr: means staying calm and not complaining when things are difficult or when you have to wait.
- It means not getting angry quickly. If someone pushes you by mistake, be patient and say "It's okay" instead of pushing back.
- Example: Waiting for your turn on the swing. Not crying or shouting "I want it now!"

2. Gratitude (Shukr)

- Shukr: means thanking Allah for all the blessings He gave us: our life, family, food, home, health.
- We say "Al-Hamdulillah" (Praise be to Allah) when we eat, drink, wake up safe, or finish a task.
- We also say "Thank you" (Jazakallahu Khairan) to people who help us.
- Being grateful to people is also being grateful to Allah.

3. Cleanliness (Taharah)

- Prophet Muhammad (SAW) said: "Cleanliness is half of faith." This shows how important it is.
- We keep our bodies clean by doing Wudu, taking a bath (Ghusl), and clipping our nails.
- We keep our clothes, school uniform, and environment clean. We don't litter. A Muslim is tidy.

4. Good Manners (Akhlaq) and Respect

- A Muslim greets others with "As-Salamu Alaykum" (Peace be upon you). It is a prayer of peace.
- We respect others by not laughing at them if they make a mistake, not calling bad names, and not bullying.
- We use the magic words: "Please" (Min fadlik), "Thank you", and "Sorry" (Asef) when we are wrong.

EVALUATION

- What should you say when you finish eating? (Al-Hamdulillah).
- What does "Sabr" mean? Can you give an example?
- Complete the famous saying: "Cleanliness is half of _____. " (Faith).
- How does a Muslim greet another Muslim? (As-Salamu Alaykum).
- Is fighting and hitting part of good manners? (No).
- Mention one way to keep your body clean. (Take a bath/do Wudu).

ASSIGNMENT

- Write "Al-Hamdulillah" five times in your book. Remember to say it today.
 - Clean your school bag or polish your shoes tonight to practice Taharah.
 - Greet your parents with "As-Salamu Alaykum" when you get home and see the smile on their face.

WEEK 5: MID-TERM EXAMINATION.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Attempt questions based on moral conduct and Islamic values learned from Weeks 1-4.

CONTENT Assessment of Weeks 1–4

- Obedience to Allah and Parents.
- Importance of Prayer (Salah).
- Truthfulness, Honesty, Kindness.
- Patience, Gratitude, Cleanliness.

EVALUATION

- Administer the Mid-Term Test.

ASSIGNMENT

- Nil.

WEEK 6: MID-TERM BREAK.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the week, pupils should be able to:

- Rest and refresh for the second half of the term.

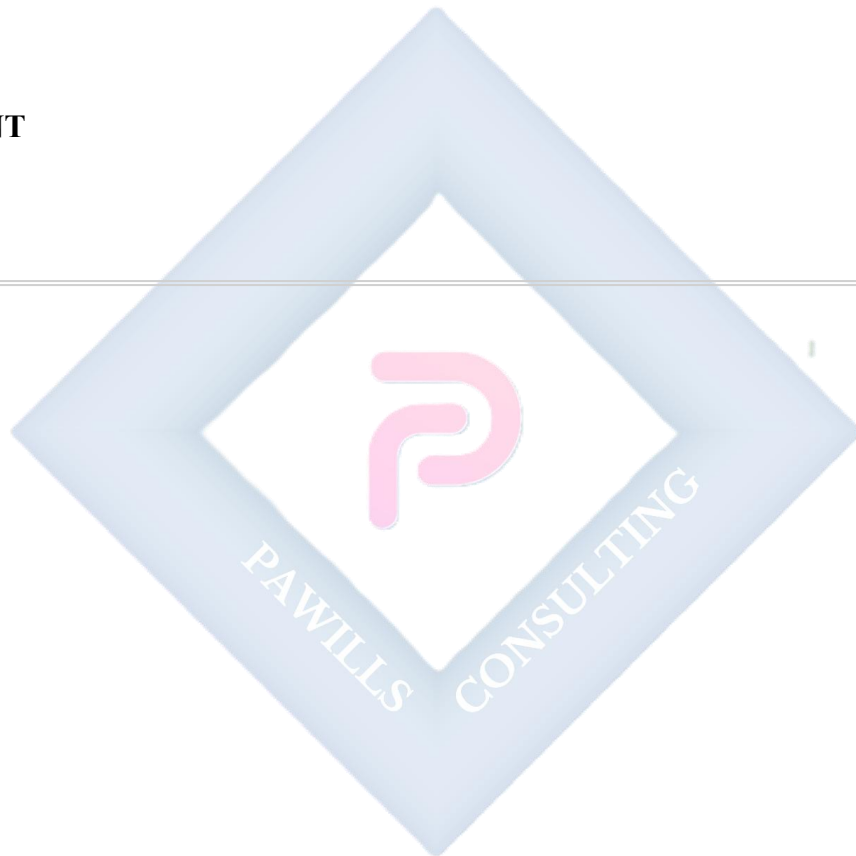

CONTENT Holiday/Rest Pupils observe a break from academic activities. Time for family and play.

EVALUATION

- Nil.

ASSIGNMENT

- Nil.

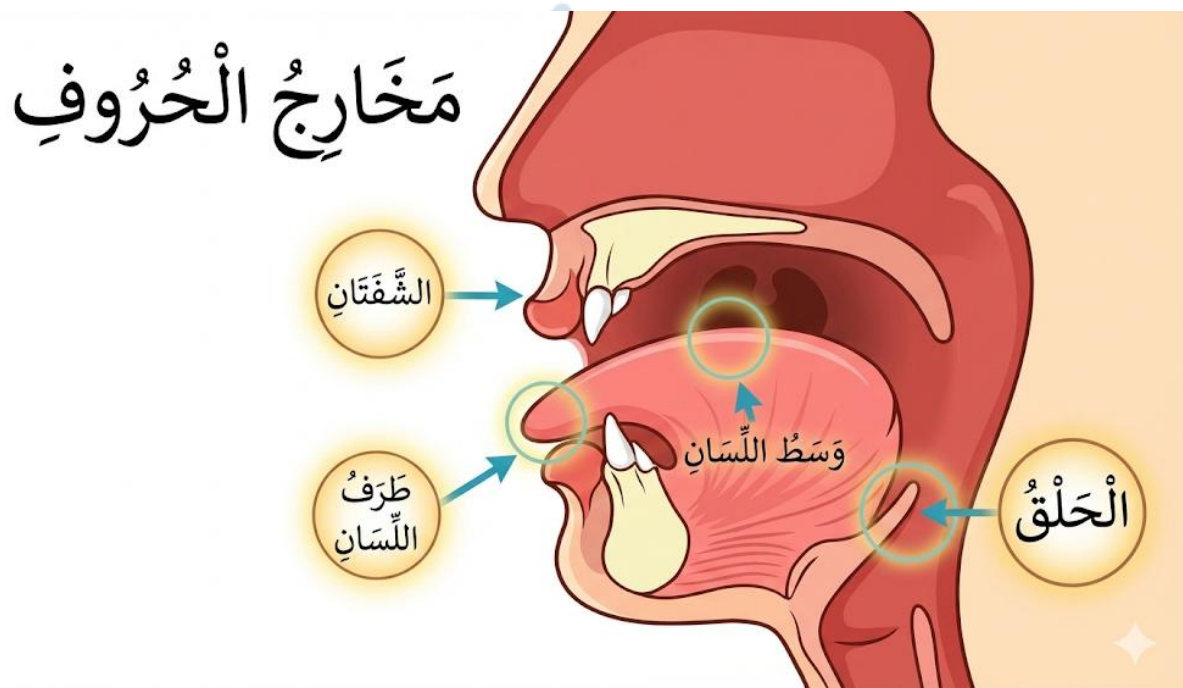

WEEK 7: COMPREHENSIVE REVIEW - QUR'AN AND TAJWID.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Recite Surat Al-Fatihah, An-Nas, Al-Falaq, and Al-Ikhlās from memory.
- Identify selected Arabic letters.
- Apply basic Tajwid (pronunciation) during recitation.

CONTENT

1. Recitation of Learned Surahs We review all the beautiful Surahs we have learned this year. They are our spiritual treasures.

- Al-Fatihah: The Opening prayer for Salah. Our daily conversation with Allah.
- Al-Ikhlās: The chapter of Purity. It explains Tawhid (Allah is One).
- Al-Falaq: The Daybreak chapter for protection from external evils.
- An-Nas: The Mankind chapter for protection from internal whispers.

2. Arabic Alphabet Review

- Quick review of letters from Alif to Ya. Let's remember their shapes and sounds.

- Identification game: "Letter Detective". Teacher holds up a card, pupils raise their hand to name it and make its sound.

3. Tajwid Rules Application Tajwid means reciting the Qur'an beautifully and correctly. We focus on:

- Pronouncing Basmalah (Bismillahir Rahmanir Raheem) clearly, stretching the 'ee' in Raheem.
- Making sure we pronounce letters from their correct place: the heavy Ha (ح) and Ayn (ع) come deep from the throat.

EVALUATION

- Recite Surat Al-Ikhlās with love and clarity.
- What is the first letter of the Arabic alphabet?
- Recite Surat An-Nas. Who are we seeking protection from?
- Identify the letter Jim (ج) on the board. Does it have a dot?
- Say "Bismillah" with correct Tajwid, not too fast.

ASSIGNMENT

- Recite the 3 "Quls" (Ikhlās, Falaq, Nas) before sleeping for protection.
 - Write the first 3 Arabic letters (Alif, Ba, Ta) with their dots in the right place.
 - Teach your younger sibling one line from any Surah you know.

WEEK 8: COMPREHENSIVE REVIEW - TAUHID AND FIQH.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- List the Six Articles of Faith (Iman).
- Demonstrate the steps of Wudu (Ablution).
- Answer simple questions on purification.

CONTENT

1. Articles of Faith (Iman) Review Let's remember the six pillars that hold up our belief. We can use our six fingers to count:

- Belief in Allah (One God).
- Belief in Angels.
- Belief in Holy Books (Qur'an is the last).
- Belief in Prophets (Muhammad SAW is the last).
- Belief in the Last Day (Day of Judgment).
- Belief in Divine Destiny (Qadr) (Allah's knowledge of everything).

2. Practical Demonstration of Wudu Let's perform "air Wudu" together, saying each step out loud:

- Step 1: Intention (in heart) + Say "Bismillah".
- Step 2: Wash hands (3x).
- Step 3: Rinse mouth & nose (3x).
- Step 4: Wash face (3x).
- Step 5: Wash arms, right then left (3x each).
- Step 6: Wipe head (1x) and clean ears (1x).
- Step 7: Wash feet, right then left, between toes (3x each).

3. Importance of Purification

- Allah is clean and loves cleanliness. Wudu makes us spiritually and physically clean.
- We cannot pray a single prayer without Wudu. It is a condition.
- We must always use clean, pure water (Tahir).

EVALUATION

- How many Articles of Faith do we have? Show me with your fingers.
- Who is the first article of faith about?
- Show me (with actions) how to wash your arms for Wudu.
- Can we use dirty or coloured water for Wudu?
- What do we say before starting Wudu?

ASSIGNMENT

- List 3 parts of the body we wash during Wudu (e.g., face, arms, feet).
- Who brought down the message of the Qur'an from Allah? (Angel Jibril).
- Perform a real Wudu at home before Isha prayer and ask your parents to watch.

WEEK 9: COMPREHENSIVE REVIEW - SIRAH.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Recall the names of the Prophets learned (Adam, Nuh, Ibrahim, Musa, Isa, Muhammad).
- Mention one key lesson from their lives.
- Identify Prophet Muhammad (SAW) as the role model.

CONTENT

1. Stories of Prophets We remember our great heroes, the Prophets of Allah:

- Prophet Adam (AS): The first man, created by Allah. Father of all humans.
- Prophet Nuh (AS): Patient for 950 years. Built the Ark to save believers from the flood.
- Prophet Ibrahim (AS): The Friend of Allah. He trusted Allah completely. Built the Ka'bah.
- Prophet Musa (AS): Spoke to Allah directly. Saved his people from the tyrant Fir'aun by splitting the sea.
- Prophet Isa (AS): A miraculous birth from Maryam. Healed the sick by Allah's leave.
- Prophet Muhammad (SAW): The Last Prophet. The perfect example for all humans in every aspect of life.

2. Lessons for Daily Life

- From Nuh, we learn patience and obedience.
- From Ibrahim, we learn complete trust in Allah (Tawakkul).
- From Muhammad (SAW), we learn honesty, kindness, mercy, and good manners.

3. Role Models

- The Prophets were the best people to ever walk the earth.
- We try to be like them because following them leads us to Allah's pleasure.
- Our ultimate role model is Prophet Muhammad (SAW).

EVALUATION

- Who was the first man and first Prophet?
- Who built the big ship called the Ark?
- Who is called the "Friend of Allah"?
- Who is the last and final Prophet?
- Who did Prophet Musa (AS) save his people from? (Fir'aun/Pharaoh).

ASSIGNMENT

- Write the name of your favorite Prophet and draw a simple star next to it.
 - Draw a big ship (Ark) on a wavy sea.
 - Who is the role model for all Muslims in the whole world?

WEEK 10: COMPREHENSIVE REVIEW - TAHDHIB.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Recall moral values: Obedience, Honesty, Kindness, Patience.
- Role-play a scenario showing good Islamic character.
- State how to behave with parents and teachers.

CONTENT

1. Moral Values Review Let's remember the good habits that make us true Muslims:

- Obedience: To Allah, parents, teachers.
- Honesty (Amanah): Always telling the truth, like Al-Amin.
- Kindness (Ihsan): Helping others, sharing, being gentle.
- Cleanliness (Taharah): Keeping body, clothes, and place clean.

2. Practical Scenarios (Role Play) We will act out small plays to practice what we learned:

- Scenario A: You accidentally broke your mother's favourite cup. What do you do?
- (Truth: "Mum, I am sorry, I broke it by mistake.").

- Scenario B: You have two biscuits. Your friend is looking at you sadly because he has none. What do you do?
- (Kindness: "Here, have one of mine.").
- Scenario C: You are playing your favourite game. Your mother calls you for dinner. What do you do?
- (Obedience: Say "Yes mum, coming!" and pause the game immediately.).

3. Islamic Character Building

- A good Muslim is polite, truthful, clean, helpful, and respectful.
- Building good character is a lifelong journey. It starts now, in Primary 1!
- Good character is what will lead us to Jannah.

EVALUATION

- If you find a lost toy in the school playground, what should you do?
- How can we show kindness to animals? (Give water, don't throw stones).
- Why should we always tell the truth? (Allah loves it, people trust us).
- What is the Arabic word for Patience? (Sabr).
- How do we greet a fellow Muslim? (As-Salamu Alaykum).

ASSIGNMENT

- Write down three good behaviors a Muslim should have.
 - Draw a big, smiling face. A smile is an act of kindness and charity.
 - Promise to do one good deed today and write what it was.

WEEK 11: REVISION.

OBJECTIVES By the end of the lesson, pupils should be able to:

- Demonstrate mastery of the term's work.
- Be prepared for the end-of-term examination.

CONTENT

1. Complete Syllabus Review

- Quick fire questions from all topics: Qur'an, Wudu, Prophets, Morals.
- Memorization Check: Each pupil recites one Surah perfectly.
- Spelling Check: Writing simple but important Islamic terms: Allah, Islam, Qur'an, Wudu, Nabi.

2. Focus on Weak Areas

- The teacher will note any topic where pupils seem unsure.
- Re-explaining difficult concepts using even simpler examples and more practice.

EVALUATION

- A short mock test covering questions from all three terms.

ASSIGNMENT

- Study all notes from Week 1 to Week 10 for the final examination. Revise with your parents.
